Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

LITERARY NOTES.

The American Boy for May will make the boys happy, for it is full of matter that appeals to the boy heart.

Its front cover illustration is two boys —regular, downright country boys—going fishing, with pole and line, bait and "grub." There are 75 pictures, six stories and ever so many articles of prime interest and profit to boys. Then there are all the regular departments full of matter relating to stamp, coin and curio collecting, amateur printing, photography, money making and puzzles and the editor's talk to boys, in which he tells them about July 5th, which is to be American Boy Day at the St. Louis Exposition. Monthly, 32 pps. The Sprague Publishing Co. (Detroit, Mich) publishers. $1.00 a year.

In presenting its two leading articles for May the Metropolitan Magazine is doubly fortunate. Fortunate in meeting a nearly universal interest in the present struggle in the Far East, fortunate in securing contributions from precisely the two men best fitted to describe and to discuss the conditions that now obtain in Japan and in Russian Asia. Mr. Stephen Bonsal, lately American Secretary of Legation at Tokio, contributes an article of extraordinary interest on the character and personality of the Mikado, entitled "The War-Lord of the East." A striking accompaniment of this paper is the reproduction of some unique drawings made by Japanese war-artists, done as Japs alone can do them. In "America's Debt to Russia," Major G. Creighton Webb, formerly Secretary of the American Legation at St. Petersburg, presents a disconcerting array of facts not hitherto considered, that is to show why the sympathies of Americans would be decidedly pro-Russian if Americans were conscious of these facts.

Neither brain workers nor muscle workers can afford to neglect stomach or bowel disorders. Robust health is not possible where the actions of these organs is faulty. Greene's Little Laxative Beans have most marvelous curative properties and have proven a boon to many sufferers. They will help you.

B. J. PULVER.

Roy German, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. German, of Pentecost, had an experience Tuesday, which he does not care to ever again have repeated. While driving an iron land roller on the farm the horses became unmanagable and ran across the field. Roy was thrown from his seat and the heavy implement passed over his body and head, nearly fracturing his leg and breaking his collar bone besides causing many other painful bruises. The circumstance that the roller was moving swiftly and that it passed over him feet first was responsible for his life being saved. Dr. Ross, of this village, was called and made the injured young man comfortable as possible. —Onsted News.

Tecumseh has an embroidery club that meets weekly, and the sewers went forth to sew yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ziehr. The council tried to establish sewers there last year, but not for embroidery. It was for needful purposes and not for needle work.—Adrian Press.

Story and Everett.

Chief Justice Story attended a public dinner in Boston at which Edward Everett was present. Desiring to pay a delicate compliment to the latter, the learned judge proposed as a volunteer toast:

"Fame follows merit where Everett goes."

The brilliant scholar arose and responded:

"To whatever heights judicial learning may attain in this country, it will never get above one Story."—Success.

Butler Took the Case.

An old gentleman, a native of Wakefield, Mass., tells this story of Ben Butler:

"I had an important law case on, and I felt no one could win that case for me but Ben Butler. He was in Washington at the time. I went to Washington and after hard scrabbling for two days got an audience with him. He said he wouldn't take my case for $1,000 a day. He had more work on his hands now than he could attend to, and he went about his work right then.

"'General,' I said, 'I was born in the same town with you.'

"He grunted, but wasn't otherwise affected that I could see.

"'Do you remember little Miss ——? And you remember the boy who used to send notes to her and the boy who used to take them? I am the boy who took the notes.'

"'And I am the boy who sent them,' said the general. He held out his hand. 'I guess I'll take your case after all,' he said, and he did and won it."

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure coughs, and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. RECEPTION

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurrey for

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE B. HURREY.

Also linen shower and luncheon for Miss Austin. Proposed pioneer picnic to celebrate 80th anniversary of first white settler.

Friday afternoon from the hours of two to four and in the evening from eight until ten, Mr. and Mrs. Brazillai Hurrey received guests in honor of their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Hurrey.

In the afternoon the guests were received at the door by Charles and Harriet Hurrey, while Mr. and Mrs. Brazillai Hurrey and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurrey stood in receiving line in the parlor. Mrs. C. L. Rowe, Mrs. Delmar Finch and Misses Jennie Gillespie and Erva Finch assisted in the dining room, while Mrs. Henry Farnsworth presided at the frappe bowl and Mrs. Forrestal seated the guests.

In the evening Charles and Harriett Hurrey stood also in receiving line in the parlor, while Giles and Ralph Wiley received the guests at the door. In the dining room Harriett Calkins, Ruth [illegible] Alice Satterthwaite and Gertrude Collins assisted, with Miss Christine Wilson at the frappe bowl, and Mrs. Delmar Finch invited the guests into the dining rooms. The floral decorations were for the most part carnations. Palms and ferns were used for decorations in all the rooms.

About 175 guests called during the afternoon and evening to meet and welcome Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurrey to Tecumseh.

The Misses Gertrude VanNess, Anna and Winnifred Wilson gave a luncheon and linen shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson on Saturday at twelve o'clock in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Grace Austin to Robert J. McCoy. The hall, parlor and sitting room were decorated with palms, ferns and myrtle. In one corner of the parlor a large white bell was suspended trimmed with myrtle, in which was placed the linen, and a large amount of rice. Under this bell the bride was stood and showered with rice and linen.

The dining [illegible] in the wedding colors green and white. White tissue paper garlands, which were fastened at the four corners of the table with large bouquets of white roses, carnations and calla lillies were caught over the center of the table, with a rope of evergreen and myrtle to the ceiling. In the center of the table was placed a large silver tray filled with rose leaves, white tulips and trailing arbutus. Two pictures of the bride-groom were on each end of the table wreathed in myrtle.

Covers for sixteen were laid and the place cards were two hearts tied with ribbon, one of them containing the pictures of both bride and groom. The Misses Vesta and Edith Wilson, Harriet Teachout and Adalaide Putnam served the guests. The bride cut the cake, Miss Sara Platt received the ring and Mrs. Cora Field the thimble. Miss Fern Hanford presided at the piano during the luncheon hour.

Miss Austin received quite a number of linen pieces, all of which were useful and pretty.

Last spring the HERALD published a series of articles about Old Tecumseh, which were taken from old files of the HERALD and proved of interest to many old residents here and following up this idea the Monday club gave their "Tecumseh Day" a few weeks ago at which an interest in pioneer times was renewed.

Now the Federation of town clubs propose to celebrate the eightieth anniversary of the coming of the first white settlers to this vicinity, (June 2, 1824). The plan is to have a picnic dinner on Monument square with music, singing by old fashioned choir, speeches and toasts.

Every one is invited and also requested to invite their out of town relatives and friends, who were formerly residents here, so that it may be a sort of "Home Comers' Day" such as many of the eastern states are giving. The Federation will furnish coffee made at a huge camp fire to all the picnicers, who are requested to bring lunch baskets and friends to this gathering, to renew old acquaintances and to make ourselves and the school children, who are coming on to take our places, familiar with the earliest history of our own town.

The old landmarks are fast leaving us, some of the earliest history of this locality is already becoming confused and uncertain. Let us help to establish what remains of it firmly in the memories of those to whom it is now only a tradition. It is to be hoped that every one, Tecumseh born, will take an interest in this matter and circulate to the widest possible extent this invitation to all.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Base Ball.

Are you interested in having base ball in Tecumseh this season? If so you are requested to attend a meeting at the Council building on Thursday evening, May 12, at 7:45. Considerable interest is being manifested through the state this spring in base ball, more cities and towns are organizing clubs than usual and if Tecumseh expects to maintain the reputation she has earned for the past three years it is necessary that an effort toward organization be made soon. Better players can be had now than 30 days from now. Come out to this meeting, if you are not there you may be counted as not in favor of a ball team here.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Now wouldn't that jar you! A woman with a summer hat on her head and a fur boa around her neck and she would be the first one to guy a man who would appear on the street with a straw hat and a winter overcoat. But these are some of the things that can't be explained.—Stockbridge Brief.

An Adrian township man was basting a horse that was in the barn and his wife came out and remonstrated, whereupon, he attempted to discipline her. She picked up a board and lambasted [illegible] to the queen's taste [illegible] er saw a man of his name she feared. Hereafter he will confine his brutality entirely to horses.—Adrian Press.

There are several letters, a box of rough-on-rats, some carbolic acid, a stick of dynamite, a stout piece of rope, a shot gun and a long knife awaiting at this office addressed to the man who said, "Oh, yes, we have had a long hard winter, but spring will come early and it will open up nice and warm right away.—Chelsea Standard.

A Hudson man went to the lake to catch a string of fish: he came back with as goodly a mess as any one could wish; he told how he just dropped the line and how he pulled them in: but now his friends have ascertained that he did lie like sin; he bought the fish, paid ready cash and made the fellow swear, to never [illegible] the fish when Hudson man was there.—Hudson Post.

Chris Schleb, north of the depot, in stooping over to pick up something, Monday thrust a splinter of wood into his open mouth and a short distance down the throat. The family and Chris were badly scared for a little and all sorts of reports went out, but the doctor's presence and examination soon revealed the fact that nothing serious had happened, other than a slight bruise in the throat.—Saline Observer.

Tecumseh has just finished struggling with an amateur ministrel proposition, which was a great success but it was necessary to utilize young lady talent to a considerable extent, as the village is shy on young men and flush on handsome girls. Indeed there is great fear that there will in a few years be a superabundance of old maids, even though leap years come regularly and the maidens do their best to capture husbands.—Hudson Post.

One day last week a stranger accosted an individual on the street and inquired for the residence of a resident of this village, saying that he and our townsman were in Adrian the day before and that they both got so drunk that he had no knowledge of where he had left his team the night previous, and was looking for it. Shortly after, his team was hitched up at the livery stable and he drove out of town. Funny now isn't it, that a man should exchange his head for a little whiskey?—Adrian Press.

Saturday evening a man and his son-in-law from near Richards came to Sylvania evidently looking for trouble. They went into Keene's saloon and engaged in a game of cards with a couple of Sylvania boys. The language they used to our boys was very insulting but they stood it until "patience ceased to be a virtue." Then one of our boys used him to measure Keene's floor. The first blow knocked one of the seekers for trouble stiff, a couple of more blows put his campanion "hors de combat" alongside of him. Parties visiting Sylvania, looking for trouble, should be sure and not bite off more than they can chew.—Sylvania Sun.

According to Hon. John Combs a new industry has been discovered over in Tecumseh. At the Anthony fence plant, for which concern Mr. Combs is a hustler, a splendid old well was unearthed right in the cellar of the factory. This well is so old that it has gone dry and with Mr. Combs' suggestion it is to be made up into post holes for the farmers using Anthony fence. John figures out that the well will make enough nice dry fence post holes to supply Lenawee and a portion of Monroe county. As Lenawee in not a dry county, John thinks these are just the thing to relieve the moist condition. We'll not argue the case with him.—Adrian Telegram.

BREATHE HEALING AIR.

Hyomei destroys germs of catarrh and cures the disease—Money back if it fails.

No other treatment for catarrhal troubles is as pleasant or convenient to use as Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every outfit, and breathe it for a few minutes four times a day and it will cure the worst cases of catarrh. In this way one takes into the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, air that is filled with balsamic healing and antiseptic fragrance. It goes to the most remote parts of the air passages, destroys all catarrhal germs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement and in a short time there will be no further trouble with catarrh. Its good effects are quickly gained and the benefit is permanent.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei as the complete outfit costs but one dollar and if after using you can say that it did not give satisfaction C. A. Wright will return your money. You have the promise of the most reliable drug firms in this section, that Hyomei will cost you absolutely nothing if you can say "It did not help." You are to use it entirely at his risk with the understanding that your money will be returned without question or argument if you are not satisfied with Hyomei.

Graceful Women

The scent of the violet or rose is as precious as the lovely flowers whose breath they are, and while the lives of flowers are brief and we can only enjoy them for a day, the beautiful woman gives the pleasure of her fragrance to us as a permanent blessing. The soft fragrance of a beautiful woman suggests purity, health and elegance; she is the refinement of civilization; an index always of good taste and an unerring badge of gentility.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because it's for one thing only and Tecumseh is learning this.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They're for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill. Here is Tecumseh evidence to prove it.

C. Patterson, the well known sexton of Tecumseh, says: "For over a year I had a soreness and pain in the small of the back at times quite severe, more especially if I did a hard day's work or took cold, for it always settled in my kidneys. The kidney secretions were also discolored and irregular and I had all symptoms of aggravated kidney complaint. I heard several people praising Doan's Kidney Pills so concluding to try them I got a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and commenced the treatment. I found it just suited my case for it helped me right from the start. It stopped the pain in my back and regulated and cleared up the kidney secretions. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone having any difficulty with their kidneys."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

It is probably a native love of adornment that makes some women so desirous to embellish the truth.

Scratch, scratch, scratch; unable to attend to business during the day or sleep during the night. Itching piles, horrible plague. Doan's Ointment cures. Never fails. At any drug store, 50c.

FAIR SITE SELECTED

Eighty Acres on Woodward Avenue in Detroit the Place.

PONTIAC KEEPS [illegible] THIS YEAR

Members of Association Put In Day at Detroit—Several Prospective Sites Inspected—One Chosen Cost $60,000—Railroad Connections to Be Made.

Detroit, Mich., May 7.—In the fall of 1905 the Michigan state fair will be in full sway in Detroit just south of Palmer park on the west side of Woodward avenue, if the present plans of the State Fair association do not miscarry. This fall, for the last time, the fair will be held in Pontiac. These conclusions were arrived at last night after a whole day's consideration of the questions by the board.

While the decisions were reached with some semblance of a love feast on the boards, there were little differences, and the Pontiac men could not disguise the fact that they are sorry for losing the fair permanently after next fall.

Royally Entertained.

The members were royally entertained by the local committee and the banquet speeches gave evidence of the treatment received and the kindly feeling of the guests, Mayor Maybury stayed with the party all day, as did J. L. Hudson and others. President Howland, Secretary Butterfield and the two gentlemen just mentioned made neat speeche and then the board went into executive session. It took just one hour to wind matters up.

The members swore that they would make short work of the discussion after three months of pulling and shoving. The real estate men hung on to the lobby seats and waited. The visitors and local men examined three sites on the east side of Woodward avenue, between the six and the nine mile circles. They also went out Grand River avenue and out to Livernois avenue to look at prospective bargains. After visiting Belle Isle they came to the unanimous conclusion that the island would be a fine place for the fair, but they buried their regrets and kept in mind the Medbury plot out Woodward avenue, which seemed to be a winner. One ballot was all that was necessary.

The New Site.

The site chosen was offered by the Gerard, Stormfeltz, Loveley Co., and was owned by the Medbury estate. The tract is immediately south of the golf links, on this side of Palmer park. It contains 80 acres and has a Woodward frontage of 700 feet, with a retreating frontage of 1,500. The price is $60,000, or $750 an acre. The site has water, sewer, pavement and lighting facilities and is on the D. U. Railway. The extreme northern boundary is Moss avenue. The site was accepted with the understanding that the owners would guarantee direct railway connection. They promised to secure a switch from the Grand Trunk railway across Woodward, on Moss avenue.

The business committee was constituted a building committee for the purpose of getting information regarding improved methods of building and maintaining a successful fair.

MUST LEAVE COUNTRY

Only Thing Left for Negro to Do, Says Bishop Turner.

Chicago, May 7.—"I am unwilling to sing 'America' until this country is what it claims to be 'sweet land of liberty,'" declared Bishop H. M. Turner of Atlanta, Ga., at last night's session of the African Methodist Episcopal conference. "The negro in science, was the subject of the address delivered by [illegible] which caused him to take up every phase of the negro question in this country and led him to say that this was not the negro's home, but, on the contrary, that God had allowed the negro to come to this country to be enslaved in order that he could be trained and go back to his native land and make it what it should be. In concluding his address Bishop Turner said:

"The supreme court of the United States is against us. We have good friends in this country, yet they are comparatively few and the only thing left for us to do is to leave. Let us be men, let us go where we can be men. The negro is here. Some declare that he is here to stay but I doubt that very much unless he is to stay under the ground."

Hotel For Boys.

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—If the plans of Rev. C. L. Arnold do not miscarry, Detroit will soon have an inn where youths from 14 to 21 years of age, who are cast in unfavorable surroundings, will have an opportunity to return from work to the blessings of good environment. For a beginner Mr. Arnold has secured quarters in the old Biddle house on Jefferson avenue, where a number of rooms will be fitted up for boys where they can, on paying a portion of their wages, have a bed and take their meals, their accommodations depending on the price they pay. The charge will be only sufficient to cover the actual cost of board, a bed in the dormitory, for instance, costing only $1 50 per week. Amusements in the shape of bowling alleys, gymnasium, etc., and reading rooms, library, baths, etc., will be provided. It is Mr Arnold's intention to turn the whole building into a hotel for boys if he succeeds in his present plan.

An Open Letter to the Public
FROM A WELL-KNOWN DRUGGIST

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to advertised medicines and their value. We want to say to every man, woman and child in this vicinity that the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil,—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength-creator we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine; it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength-creator for old people, weak, sickly women, children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite, and make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold on a positive guarantee. Call and get a Vinol booklet.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

POOR WHEAT CROP.

Is the Outlook—According to State Crop Report.

Lansing, Mich., May 11.—In the official crop report for May, issued last evening, Secretary of State Warner says that the weather during April was cold and very unfavorable for the planting and growth of crops. There were many days during which cold winds prevailed that materially retarded the growth of vegetation.

The condition of wheat declined very perceptibly during April. A considerable part of the damage was done no doubt, during March, but the result was not noticeable on April 1, when the previous estimate was made. At present the outlook is for one of the poorest crops of wheat ever grown in the state. The average condition of wheat is, in the southern counties 48, in the central counties 60; in the northern counties 74; in the state 54. The average condition on April 1 was, in the southern counties 75; in the central counties 85; in the northern counties 93, and in the state 79.

Money Proved Temptation.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 11.—The coroner's inquest into the death of W. O. Webster, the Chicago traveling man, last week, showed that death was caused by accidentally falling down stairs. He was in company of Eugene Tomlinson, Elmer Gray and John Brice, colored, and they were arrested on suspicion, as $100 which Webster had on his person when he started on his round of sight-seeing, was missing. This money was found concealed in Brice's clothing and he is still in custody. Tomlinson and Gray were released. Brice claims that he saw the money fall out of Webster's pocket and the temptation to pick it up was too great for him to resist.

Quick Arrest.

It will be complete and perfect and permanent. It always has done this and always will. All the women who have suffered from any of the diseases peculiar to their sex and who have used Zoa Phora are to-day rejoicing in the security of perfect health and all the happiness it brings.

Zoa Phora cures all diseases and irregularities of women, misplacements, leucorrhea, suppressed and painful periods, flooding, piles, kidney, bladder and liver troubles and regulates the change of life. Not a mail arrives that does not bring letters from women who have been cured of some of these terrible diseases and whose lives have been made happy by the noble and wonderful work of Zoa Phora.

Mrs. George Sidle, McClure, Ohio, R. F. D. No. 1, says: "I was so nervous and broken down that I could not do my work. I doctored with two of our home doctors, and they said I had heart trouble. I had spells with my heart when it would beat so hard and then I would faint away. I received a sample bottle of Zoa Phora, which I took according to directions, and thought it was just what I needed, so I threw the doctor's medicine away and got a large bottle of Zoa Phora. It helped me so much that I bought two more bottles, and now I am well and strong. I do not have the spells with my heart since I took Zoa Phora and I am regular now, where before I took Zoa Phora I was very irregular and had severe pain at monthly periods. I have found it to be truly a 'Woman's Friend.'

"If anyone calls in person or writes to me, I will give them the particulars in my case. I hope this will help induce some suffering woman to try Zoa Phora."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will gladly give free medical advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by

Concerning

THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

2 Tim. 4:2

THY
COME

Cor. 1: 9:16

THESE WERE MORE NOBLE THAN THOSE OF THESSALONICA IN THAT THEY RECEIVED THE WORD WITH ALL READINESS AND SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES DAILY, WHETHER THOSE THINGS WERE SO. ACTS 17:11

XVII

We have seen that the Law of the Type clearly indicates that Confirmation is one of the first principles of the Kingdom of God; we have seen that it was so called (Heb. 6:1-3) by New Testament writers and administered as such by the Apostles themselves (Acts 8:17;19:6); we have seen that the New Testament is full of allusions to the Sacred Rite. Let us proceed now to consider the place which it has held in the Christian church from the beginning—in other words the witness of history to the rite of Holy Confirmation.

But first, a word with reference to the mode of its Administration. It has been seen that the rite was administered in the New Testament times by the laying on of hands—with prayer, of course, for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost (Acts 8:17; 19:6). In Hebrews 6:2 it is called the "Laying on of hands." And, as we have seen, this ceremony was apparently but the continuation of the Jewish custom in connection with the typal ceremony in admitting youths to be Sons of the Law. There can be no doubt, therefore, that the laying on of hands is an integral part of the rite.

Further, it is to be observed that in New Testament times the rite was performed by the Apostles—the highest order of the Christian Ministry. There is no evidence whatever that it could be administered by the lower orders of deacons and elders (or priests. The word elder is in Greek presbuteros, from which comes our presbyter, which is shortened to priest). Thus the Holy Ghost was given to the Apostle on the Day of Pentecost (as by the laying on of the hands of the Lord Himself—Acts 2:3). By the Apostles, therefore, the gift was conferred upon others on the Day of Pentecost. Again at Samaria (Acts 8), though Philip baptized, the Apostles at Jerusalem sent down St. Peter and St. John to administer the rite of Confirmation; St. Paul at Ephesus (Acts 19), though others performed the rite of Baptism (cf 1 Cor. 1:14—17) it was St. Paul only who performed the rite of Confirmation. Hence it has always been the law of the Church that none but the highest order of the Ministry—viz., the order of Bishops may perform the rite of Confirmation. (The order of Bishops is the order of the Apostles themselves. The name has been changed but the office has not in its abiding duties). In the Greek Church today an anomaly is found. The rite is performed by Unction only (cf. 1 John 2:20, 27) and that administered by the priest (i. e. elder). BUT THE OIL MUST FIRST HAVE BEEN CONSECRATED BY THE BISHOP. Thus do they believe they fulfil the law of the Church.

Coming now to the testimony of history. As might have been expected from the importance and prominence assigned to the rite of Confirmation in the Bible, we find that for fifteen hundred years of the Church's history every body was confirmed as a matter of course. Such a thing as that a disciple of Jesus Christ should pass through life without receiving that "foundation" blessing (Heb. 6:2) was never contemplated for a moment. Only at the Reformation was that Sacred Ordinance lost to some bodies of Christians. Because of a complete misunderstanding of some first principles of our Holy Religion some bodies of Reformers elected to do without the order of Bishop—as, indeed, they were not careful to preserve any orders of the Apostolic Ministry in lawful succession. Along with the order of Bishops was, therefore, naturally lost the rite of Holy Confirmation—which might be performed only by Bishops.

But all the ancient Apostolic Churches have retained the rite to the present day; that is to say, only about one tenth of Christendom today has lost the rite of Confirmation. It is to be observed that the Lutherans have retained the rite, which with them, is administered by elders of course (as they have no Bishops)—a custom, which, as we have seen is contrary to both the law of the Church and to the testimony of the Scripture. Calvin wrote; "Such an imposition of hands as this, which is used purely as a blessing, I very much approve of and wish it were now restored to its pure and primitive uses." Similiar testimony has been born by representative bodies of Presbyterian and Baptist churches.

In the face of all these facts it is beyond comprehension how that any Christian body or any Christian person can possibly be content to do without the Apostilic rite of Laying-on-of-hands. The one seeming potent argument is doubtless. "We seem to be as good as those who have it." But we have seen that that is no argument at all. Moses, David, etc., were very good persons indeed, but they had not the Pentecostal gift of the Holy Ghost (Cf. John 7:39.) Even good persons may mightily need and profit by the Apostloic rite, of Holy Confirmation.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee ss. Probate court for the county of Lenawee.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NEXT MOVE OF JAPS

Believed Will Be Cutting Off of Vladivostok.

WILL LAND ARMY AT POSSIERT

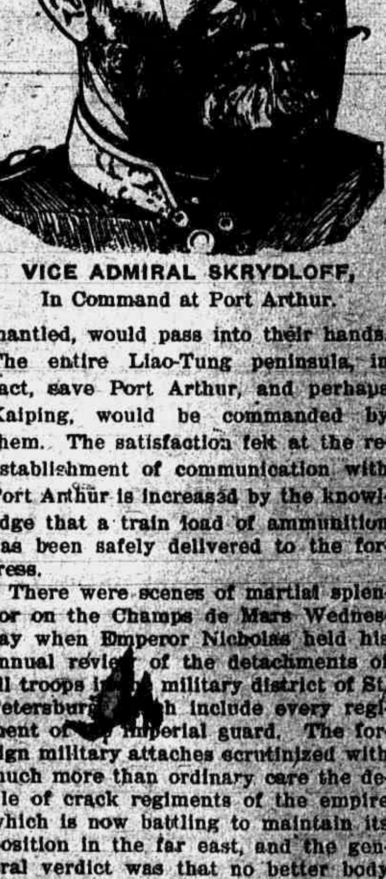
On Siberian Coast and Move South—Torpedo Boat Ones on That Port—Czar Reviews 40,000 Troops at Russian Capital.

Possiert, Siberia, May 12.—A Japanese torpedo boat made its appearance in the roads two days ago and suspicious lights have been seen.

Everything is quiet here, but all is in readiness to meet any landing of the enemy whose probable purpose is the cutting off of Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—Impending events of great importance to the military situation in Manchuria are foreshadowed in official dispatches given out late last night by the war commission.

On May 8 the Japanese forces cautiously moved from Feng Wang Cheng towards Hai Cheng, which is 32 miles east by north of New Chwang, and it is the opinion of the general staff that they should certainly reach their destination within two days. If the Japanese occupy Hai Cheng, with Port Arthur effectively cut off, New Chwang, which the Russians have already dismantled, would pass into their hands. The entire Liao-Tung peninsula, in fact, save Port Arthur, and perhaps Kaiping, would be commanded by them. The satisfaction felt at the reestablishment of communication with Port Arthur is increased by the knowledge that a train load of ammunition has been safely delivered to the fortress.



VICE ADMIRAL SKRYDLOFF,
In Command at Port Arthur.

There were scenes of martial splendor on the Champs de Mars Wednesday when Emperor Nicholas held his annual review of the detachments of all troops in the military district of St. Petersburg, which include every regiment of the imperial guard. The foreign military attaches scrutinized with much more than ordinary care the defile of crack regiments of the empire which is now battling to maintain its position in the far east, and the general verdict was that no better body of soldiery could be seen in Europe. The field on which the review was held presented a stirring picture. Drawn up on the vast plain were 40,000 of the finest troops in the empire, arrayed in brilliant uniforms.

The emperor was mounted on a coal black charger and wore the dark green uniform of a colonel of Foot Guards, with the blue sash of the Order of St. Andrew across his breast, his being by far the most modest uniform in the imperial procession.

On the appearance of the emperor the standards were lifted, the bands burst forth and tens of thousands of throats roared a welcome.

Like a shuttle, the cortege passed back and forth as the emperor inspected the various regiments. "Good day, my children," was his universal greeting.

"Good health, your imperial majesty," was the unfailing response.

Plans For the State Fair.

Detroit, Mich., May 12.—The directors of the Michigan Agricultural society have authorized their business committee to visit Toronto, Columbus, O., and Springfield, Ill., to get pointers on state fair buildings. They will prepare plans for the buildings in Detroit, to be submitted to the directors, and the latter want to let the contracts this fall or winter, so that construction work may be commenced early in the spring. A landscape gardener will be employed to help the committee on the scheme of laying out the grounds.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!
No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1; if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

☞ We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness. ☜

AROUND TOWN

An Account of a WEEK'S VISIT TO FLINT,

One of the Brightest Little Cities in Michigan.

Last week I spent in Flint, Michigan, visiting Mrs. Frank Turner, nee Bigelow, who was at one time bookkeeper for the HERALD. She married a bank bookkeeper of Flint, and is now mother of a delightful little girl up there, as bright as ever, happy and well. In fact all the HERALD girls are doing nicely and any young man who desires to "Do real well" could hardly find better, brighter or better looking girls than at the HERALD office.

It will be remembered that a part of the time last week it was very hot for May and one afternoon as I was resting in the shade on the steps of the First National Bank in Flint, I always liked to be near money, a man came up to me and said, "Hello, young man, you look the same as when you went to school to me years ago in Tecumseh."

He said his eyesight was all right and at first I could not understand how I looked the same as years ago, but I had just come from the barber shop and had my hat on. The man was Zeno C. Spencer, who for six years taught school in Tecumseh and to whom I went to school for the whole six years. For an hour I enjoyed a most delightful visit with Mr. Spencer and he told many interesting things that in a measure I had forgotten.

His son, who was a boy in Tecumseh, I remember him as a little chap, who was the first child I had ever seen riding a bicycle, Mr. Spencer had purchased for him a tricycle, taken off the third wheel and made it into a two wheeled machine, which was the wonder of Tecumseh to see him ride, is now in the Treasury department in Washington D. C. the same department in which is Julia Snell. His daughter, who was born in Tecumseh, is now married and the mother of two children.

Mr. Spencer looks the same as I remember him a number of years ago, just as immaculate and with the same squeak in his shoes. He was certainly the neatest looking man I ever remember, always the same rain or shine, an example never forgotten by any pupil, who ever attended his school and certainly to be desired of any school master.

But aside from his immaculate appearance, Prof. Spencer was about the best school superintendent ever in Tecumseh. It was under him that graduates of the Tecumseh schools were first admitted to the University without examination and there was no better disciplinarian. As children we not only feared but liked him. His word was law in or out of school and he seemed not only to govern the pupils but the grade teachers as well. A meaner or more mischievous lot of boys were never in school than at that time yet most of them have done well in life and made good men, everyone looking back to Spencer honoring and admiring him as an instructor and a man.

Prof. Spencer remembers Tecumseh very pleasantly and said to me that the six years spent here were the pleasantest six years of his life.

Flint is growing rapidly. The buggy business has made the city. Another concern has been started there this spring and in the four large factories are now employed thousands of men, but the most noticeable of all things in Flint are the street lights in the business portion of the city. For ten blocks are built arches which start about 15 feet from the pavement and rise to about 60 feet above the street. These arches run across the street and each one contains 100 32 candle power incandescent electric lights. At night it makes a most beautiful display and lights the street as bright as day. Only one other city in this country is lighted in this way, Springfield, Ohio.

In other parts of the city regular arc lights are used, the same as in Tecumseh, except that they pay $67 per light per year, while here the rate is about $57 and $10 per lamp per year is quite a lot of money.

Since returning from Flint, H. L. Stewart dropped into the HERALD office and talking of "old times," I remember well he pulled my first tooth a number of years ago and I swore at him so long and hard that he would not charge any thing for the service. The doctor was born in Lake Ridge about two miles west of the hotel, spent his school days and a number of years in Tecumseh and can see many changes to come back here after a number of years away, but I can see little change in the doctor. He looks no older and is as pleasant and cheerful as can be.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

SPRING WEDDING

The Marriage of MISS GRACE AUSTIN to ROBERT J. McCOY

At the Home of the Bride's Mother, occurred Wednesday at High Noon.

In the presence of 100 relatives and friends, the ceremony which united in marriage, Miss Grace Austin, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Austin, and Robert J. McCoy took place Wednesday at twelve o'clock noon at the home of the bride's mother, on Shawnee street.

The wedding colors, white and green, exemplified in the fragrant rose and the stately calla lily bedecked the several rooms, and in the parlor, where the marriage service was read by Rev. E. Sedweek of the Methodist church, the lillies and palms formed an altar before which the bridal party stood.

Promptly at the stated hour to the strains of Lohengrin Bridal Chorus by Mrs. Will Coller and Clarence Witherell, Rev. Sedweek followed by Edna Smith as bridesmaid, and Lamont Austin, brother of the bride, as groomsman, and the Misses Gertrude VanNess and Anna Wilson, entered the sitting room carrying white ribbons. Miss Smith and Mr. Austin passed on into the parlor unlooping the ribbons which were held at the entrance door by the young ladies, thus forming an isle through which the bride and groom passed. The little ring bearer, Marian Camburn, dressed in white silk, entered the room followed by the bride and groom. The ribbons were then gathered up to the parlor doors.

The wedding luncheon was served to the guests in the four front rooms, the small tables being used and every guest was served at once. The bride's table at which ten guests were seated, was placed in the dining room, and carried from its [illegible] to the chandelier, were garlands of tissue paper interwoven with smilax. A large vase of pink roses formed a center piece for the table and completed an artistic conception of floral wealth.

The bride wore a gown of white mull handsomely trimmed with Irish lace and carried a large bouquet of lillies of the valley. Miss Smith wore white net.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy left on the 3:05 train for Toledo, where after a few days' visit they will return to Tecumseh and begin housekeeping at once in the groom's house, which is already furnished. They are both well known in Tecumseh, having resided here the greater part of their lives. They received a large number of presents.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. Jennie Waring, of Kalamazoo; Miss Kathryn McCarthy, of Adrian; Fred McCoy, of Jackson; Mrs. Robert Kerr, and son, Earl, of Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. John Spafard, and daughter, Mabel, of Manchester; Mrs. W. Auten and son, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Caswell and daughter, Mrs. H. Smith and daughter, of Cone; Mrs. W. Cone and children, of Milan; Mrs. Arthur Camburn and son, Mrs. Chas. Slaight, Mrs. Elmer Camburn and daughters, Mrs. Carrie Camburn, of Macon.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

Charles B. Hanford's Success.

It is gratifying to note that Charles B. Hanford has achieved the greatest success of his career as Petruchio in Shakespeare's immortal comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew" which he will present in this city at the New Bradley opera house on Tuesday, May 24, 1904.

No other living actor in America has scored so many triumphs in the legitimate field as Mr. Hanford, either individually, or in conjunction with other well known stars. He may well be said to be the link connecting the Shakespearean eras of the past and present in this country; for in the past his name was deemed worthy to be coupled with such illustrious actors as Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett and Thomas Keene, while several of the leading artists of present day have shared stellar laurels with Mr. Hanford. Inasmuch as "The Taming of the Shrew" is the most popular of Shakespear's comedies, a large audience will undoubtedly greet him this season. His supporting company includes Miss Marie Drofnah, who will be seen as Katherine.

An Open Letter to the Public
FROM A WELL-KNOWN DRUGGIST

To Whom It May Concern;

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to advertised medicines and their value. We want to say to every man, woman and child in this vicinity that the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil,—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength-creator we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine; it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength-creator for old people, weak, sickly women, children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite, and make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold on a positive guarantee. Call and get a Vinol booklet.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because it's for one thing only and Tecumseh is learning this.

Nothing can be good for everything.
Doing one thing well brings success.
Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.
They're for sick kidneys.
They cure backache, every kidney ill.
Here is Tecumseh evidence to prove it.

C. Patterson, the well known sexton of Tecumseh, says: "For over a year I had a soreness and pain in the small of the back at times quite severe, more especially if I did a hard day's work or took cold, for it always settled in my kidneys. The kidney secretions were also discolored and irregular and I had all symptoms of aggravated kidney complaint. I heard several people praising Doan's Kidney Pills so concluding to try them I got a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and commenced the treatment. I found it just suited my case for it helped me right from the start. It stopped the pain in my back and regulated and cleared up the kidney secretions. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone having any difficulty with their kidneys."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membrane lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

SHE BOUGHT POISON

Box of Rough on Rats Purchased by Mrs. Collins

IN NEW LOTHROP DRUG STORE

Clerk Wood Swore She Asked For Arsenic With Which to Kill a Dog—White Arsenic, Same as in Leachman's Stomach, in the Mixture.

Owosso, Mich., May 14.—The most telling blow of the prosecution in the Collins murder case was made Friday afternoon, when it was alleged on the stand that Mrs. Collins had purchased arsenic.

Attorney Chapman called to the stand George Wood, clerk in Watson Snyder's drug store at New Lothrop. He swore that early in August, 1903, Mrs. Caroline Collins, the prisoner, came to the drug store and tried to purchase arsenic, with which to poison a dog. Wood explained that he could not sell the poison except for the purpose of killing rodents, but offered her some rough on rats instead. Mrs. Collins demurred, saying that she had purchased rough on rats once before and found it to be no good. Wood then explained that he had analyzed some of a consignment just received and recommended it as being fresh and all right. Mrs. Collins bought a box of rough on rats and took it away with her.

Mrs. Collins Turned Pale.

The defense was badly shaken by Wood's evidence. For the first time since the trial began Mrs. Collins turned deathly pale, and was evidently badly frightened. Prosecutor Chapman recalled Dr. Gomberg to the stand and asked him to state the result of his analysis of a box of rough on rats received at the Snyder drug store with the same shipment as that purchased by Mrs. Collins. The attorney for the defense objected, and an exciting legal duel of two hours' duration followed. Both attorneys worked every point in the case, but Chapman finally carried the day and the court ruled that Dr. Gomberg might answer the question.

The witness stated that the rough on rats contained from 95 to 99 per cent of white arsenic, and it was white arsenic that was found in Leachman's stomach. Leachman's first sickness began about ten days after Mrs. Collins purchased the rough on rats.

The defense on cross-examination continually suggest that Leachman's death may have been due to violence or to pneumonia, but the testimony of Dr. Joseph Burk weakened both these theories.

Mrs. Collins' friends were thunderstruck when the testimony regarding the purchase of rough on rats was introduced, as it was confidently expected that such a thing would not be brought home to her.

Burned to Death.

Detroit, Mich., May 16.—While engaged in the dangerous practice of filling a gasoline stove while it was burning, Mrs. Fanny Lewis, aged 68, a colored woman, residing at 191 Monroe avenue, was burned to death by the explosion of gas. Although warned many times of the danger she exposed herself to, the woman continued to take the risk. She was pouring in the oil from a can when a loud explosion took place, the oil being thrown entirely over the woman's body. Members of the household came to her aid but were unable to extinguish the flames until they had burned her so badly that she died in a short time.

A "Trust" in Prison.

Marquette, Mich., May 16.—On the ground that the business conducted by three convicts in the penitentiary here constitutes a monopoly in violation of federal law, several other convicts who tried and failed to establish a rival enterprise want the prison authorities to dissolve the "trust" and abolish the concern. The three convict magnates conduct their business in adjoining cells on the second floor of the prison, where they have a complete stock such as is found in the store of any enterprising Marquette grocer.

DARING RUSSIAN ACT

Men in Little Launch Torpedoed Big Japanese Cruiser

IN THE BAY OF TELIENWAN

Ship Badly Damaged, but Did Not Sink—Young Officer Who Carried Out the Plan Feted and Looked Upon as Hero—Port Arthur Cut Off.

Liao Yang, May 16.—The Russian fleet scored its first distinct naval success of the war on May 10 by the torpedoing and crippling, though not the sinking, of an armored Japanese cruiser in Talienwan bay.

The Russian attack was carefully planned on May 10 while the Japanese squadron was concentrated outside Dalny, devoting its whole attention to Talienwan bay, and was carried out the same night.

The attacking force was not a regular torpedo boat, but was only a small [illegible] launch in command of a young naval officer who had with him three jackies. The launch mounted a small machine gun and carried three torpedoes.

When darkness fell the launch crept out of Port Arthur, hugging the shore with no lights aboard and no glow from the engines to betray her presence. It was late when she gained the outer line of the Japanese squadron. Slipping through the torpedo boat pickets and selecting the nearest warship, a big armored cruiser, she stole toward her and succeeded in exploding against her side a single torpedo. A deafening roar followed the explosion, which echoed far ashore. Immediately flames enveloped the cruiser, which evidently was badly crippled.

The crew of the cruiser was seen to be fighting the fire, which they at last succeeded in extinguishing. A sister ship took the damaged vessel in tow and disappeared to the southeast.

The launch escaped the hot fire directed against her by the Japanese ships, but being unable to return to Port Arthur or to get into Dalny, she was beached not far from Dalny. Only a few of the higher officers were aware of the plan, the success of which depended upon secrecy. The achievement raised the spirits of the Russians afloat and ashore and the young naval officer who was the hero of the exploit was feted and recommended for the cross of St. George. The Russians on May 11, apprehending that the presence of a Japanese squadron meant an attempt to capture Dalny, blew up the piers and quietly evacuated the place.

Two thousand Japanese have re-occupied the road in the Sanchilipu, again cutting off Port Arthur. A strong force is advancing against Polandien.

BANDITS MAKE TROUBLE.

Russians Forced Them Off and Killed Fifty With Spears.

Liao Yang, May 16.—Chinese bandits are becoming bolder and are causing considerable trouble to the Russian outposts. A swarm of bandits at noon of May 13 attacked the coal mines on the branch line east of Yantai station, ten miles north of Liao Yang. The mines, which supply the whole railroad, were guarded by 200 riflemen and 100 Cossacks. In a fierce fight the Russians repelled the bandits and then charged them, the bandits fleeing to hills and to the neighboring villages. The troops surrounded the villages and demanded the surrender of the bandits. The surrender was at first refused, but fearing that the Russians would destroy their homes, the villagers finally revealed the hiding places of the fugitives. The bandits fought with the desperation of entrapped rats, and fifty of them were speared and killed. The Russians suffered no loss.

Suicide by Drowning.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—The body of a man, identified as that of Louis Strubel, of 521 Elmwood avenue, a carpenter employed by the Wolverine Manufacturing Co., was found in the river at the foot of Bellevue avenue Friday. Strubel was a patient at the Detroit Sanitarium about six months ago and had been in poor health lately. He had talked of suicide. There was a scalp wound on the man's head, received probably when he fell into the river. Strubel was about 40 years old. He had one wooden leg and it was this fact, chiefly, which led to the identification.

Every carrier in the country who covers what is known as a full route will receive $60 a month, or $720 a year, beginning with July. Carriers who cover shorter routes will not get the maximum salary. The schedule which may be varied when circumstances warrant, is as follows:

Routes of not less than 20 miles $720; routes of less than 20 miles and not less than 16, $620; less than 16 and not less than 12 miles, $520; less than 12 and not less than 8 miles $420; less than 8 and not less than 4 miles, $320.

The official instructions to carriers in reference to the new prohibition against carrying merchandise for hire and against acting as agents for anybody will probably be sent out early in June, so that carriers may become familiar with them before the law goes into effect. It is announced at the department that it is proposed to enforce the law rigidly. Carriers will be permitted to do small favors for patrons along their routes when the patrons request it, but that is all.

Most All For Salaries.

While the appropriation for the rural free delivery service for the coming fiscal year is $20,773,700, or 64.6 per cent larger than for the current year, it will not enable the department to establish as many new routes as it has put in this year. Ninety-seven per cent of the total amount appropriated for the new fiscal year will be utilized in paying salaries to carriers. It is announced at the department that the amount available for the extension of the service will be used as far as it will go, promptly after the beginning of the fiscal year. With the assistance of additional rural agents it is anticipated that new routes will be established at the rate of 600 a month.

Vancouver to Be Fortified.

Vancouver, B. C., May 16.—Vancouver harbor is to be fortified, upon the recommendation of Lord Dundonald, general officer commanding the Canadian military, who inspected the port a few months ago and was struck with its lack of protection in case of war. The necessary guns have been ordered in England and will be delivered in Vancouver this summer. The fortifications will be located on Point Grey and Point Atkinson, the prominent and opposite points of land at the mouth of the harbor. Lord Dundonald says in the event of a war in India Vancouver will be an important base of supplies in transit to the Orient.

Congregationalists in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., May 16.—The sixty-third annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational association and anniversaries of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies will open in this city next Tuesday evening. The sessions will continue Wednesday and Thursday. Rev. H. P. DeForrest's church, the Woodward Avenue Congregational, has been selected as the place of meeting.

Calumet Will Have K. T.'s.

Calumet, Mich., May 16.—The Knights Templar of the upper peninsula will gather in this city July 6 and 7, to the number of 800 or 400. Elaborate preparations are being made by the local knights for the entertainment of the visitors.

PHONES FOR NOTHING.

Caro Citizens Will Certainly Have a Snap.

Caro, Mich., May 14.—Some weeks ago the Valley Telephone Co., with headquarters at Saginaw, declared their intention to start a telephone exchange at this place about May 1. Solicitors were set at work to secure subscriptions, but after working continually for three weeks they were unable to secure any. The business men as a unit declared they did not want two exchanges. They now have one good one, with from 300 to 400 patrons, including about ninety farmers, with headquarters at Caro, and operating toll lines and exchanges throughout the "Thumb" and having connections with the Bell system.

It is understood that the Valley company now intends to force the business men to put their telephones in, even if the merchants do not desire to do so, by going ahead and building their system, placing phones in all residences and other places which will permit it free of charge for an indefinite period. After some months it is expected that business men will be asked to pay rental, and finally all will be charged rental. There seems to be a strong determination on the part of the business men to prevent this.

WARRANTS FOR EMBEZZLERS

Seems to Have Become a Habit Among Detroiters.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—The embezzling habit seems to be growing popular. Yesterday in the police court several warrants were sworn out charging that offense.

William Kosicky of the firm of Claus & Kosicky, Patent Bake Oven Co., charges Walter Schoff with taking $117.60 from the firm several days ago and failing to return it.

P. C. Hilbert is charged with appropriating $71.68 to his own use which belonged to E. J. Hitchings, who conducts a livery and feed stable at 78-80 Larned street, west. Hilbert was employed as clerk at the place.

Louis Michels is in trouble over the embezzlement of $3.36 from George Sergeant, an agent for a shed and cartage concern in this city.

Harvey J. Moran, charged with embezzling $51.96 from the Pitton Novelty Co. while employed by that concern, came up for trial in the police court and was acquitted on the charge. Moran was then discharged.

A warrant has been secured against Daniel Kadwski, who is charged with unlawfully securing $30.76 from Herman Dreger by raising a check from $3.76 to that amount. Kadwski was arrested several days ago and is now in jail.

Pottowatomies May Get Money.

Battle Creek, Mich., May 14.—Judge of Probate Lane and Deputy Knickerbocker Friday went to Athens to consult with James Shipman in the matter of the claims of the Pottowatomie Indians, who have been recently given $78,000 by the government. There are now only about fifty of the Indians left who constituted the once famous Chief Moguago tribe. They are located twelve miles south of this city, near Athens. They have been trying for the past twenty-five years to get congress to grant them an annuity, and many of the original claimants are dead. This will necessitate the appointment of guardians for their estates, and this will probably be a troublesome business.

Fear He Was Killed.

Otter Lake, Mich., May 14.—A stranger, whose last name is said to be Pypher, of North Branch, has mysteriously disappeared from the hotel here and it is feared that he may have come to some violent end, as he was known to have had several hundred dollars on his person. The sheriff has organized a searching party to look for the man.

Woman Editors to Meet.

Hillsdale, Mich., May 14.—The fifteenth annual meeting of the Michigan Woman's Press association will be held in this city May 31 and June 1 and 2. Besides the usual literary and musical program the members of the association will pay a visit of inspection to Hillsdale college and take an automobile trip around the city and to Baw Beese lake.

HELEN ADAIR'S LETTER.

Suitable Attire for the World's Fair.

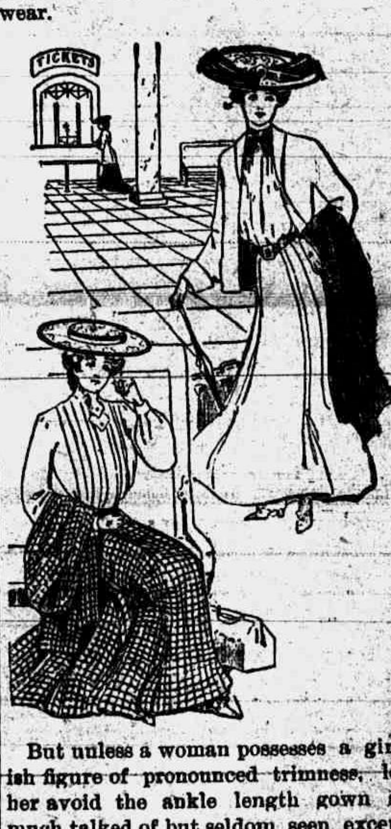
THE BATAVIA CLOTH SAILOR

The Ideal Hat. Comfort in Corsets.

What shall I wear to the world's fair? That is the mooted question. "How can I be becomingly and at the same time suitably attired?

It is a problem that requires time and thought, but fortunately not much money.

To begin with, there should be a walking suit of light weight pongee or mohair, with coat to match and a suit case full of shirt waists, which can vary from the severe madras or linen tailor made to the tucked and embroidered lawn that will give the travelling skirt quite a dressy appearance for dinner wear.



But unless a woman possesses a girlish figure of pronounced trimness, let her avoid the ankle length gown so much talked of but seldom seen except on extremists. Equally comfortable walking skirts are possible, cut from an inch to two inches above the ground.

Now to that important and much abused article of woman's attire—the hat! If statistics could be properly secured I am convinced that the proportion of women who wear unsuitable hats for the occasions on which they are worn, are about ninety nine out of a hundred.

So, of all things let the woman who wishes to look her best while enjoying the wonders of the fair, look to it that her hat is a harmonious part of a harmonious whole.

The enormous sky-scraping structure, overloaded with trimming would rob the most perfectly gowned woman of all distinction.

Next to the sky-scraper the so-called picture hat, which is suitable only for formal occasions is to be shunned for travelling wear.

Models for travelling hats, and in fact for any outing occasion on which a hat is worn, as made by Burgesser are far and away in the lead, and for visiting the fair the roll brim sailor with a low dome-shaped crown designed by them, is one of the most popular shapes. Batavia cloth covered, in natural linen color, a bewitching hat is embroidered and appliqued with dainty white lace medallions set in around the brim and in a circle around the crown with a bit of colored silk drawn work that gives the design true Burgesser cachet. Many of these hats are worn with no additional trimming than a rich velvet band around the edge of the brim and a narrow kid band with two small kid buckles around the crown. For those who prefer a more ornate effect in trimming, fanciful loops and soft folds of Liberty ribbon are drawn through an extremely stunning gilt ornament in the center of hat front. Altogether this is the ideal hat to wear to the fair, considered from the standpoints the suitable or the becoming.

With such a hat, a natty walking suit, and an entirely comfortable corset is one of the important items in the wardrobe of the fashionable woman of today. Women are beginning to think and find out things for themselves, and the day is past when any sort of "stay" answers for a corset. She is learning that a properly modelled corset, such as the C—B a la Spirite, not only gives her the pleasure of feeling that her figure is at its best, but that her comfort is studied as well. Whiskey and Beer Habit
PERMANENTLY CURED BY
"ORRINE,"
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!
No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1; if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

☞ We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness. ☜

A Great Sale.

Last week W. W. Hicks advertised a clearing sale of every article in his store commencing Saturday, May 14. On Saturday morning the sale commenced and on that day and yesterday the store was full of customers anxious to buy and take advantage of the low prices quoted on every article.

This sale is a wonder. It was found necessary to mark the goods way down as this stock must go to make room for new. Now is the time to buy for these prices will only last this week. Do not miss it.

Patrons Well Pleased.

A few weeks since William Willoughby, proprietor of the City bakery, commenced turning out their New France Cream bread and that it has been a success is a very mild expression. The Committee had a Meeting last Evening and Started this Morning

TO SOLICIT

To find out what shall be done and whether we shall have a Team this Season or not.

The committee enjoyed a very enthusiastic meeting last evening and this morning started out to solicit, thinking to get a larger subscription than ever before and to run a better team in 1904 than ever before. The HERALD wishes the boys all success hoping that the "Indians" may keep up their well earned reputation.

TWO FACTORIES

Secured for

TECUMSEH

And they will soon be in operation.

For several weeks local men have been at work selling stock to establish a macaroni factory. The amount necessary to be sold of this stock is so nearly taken that the HERALD can now almost say to a certainty that the Heck flouring mill will soon be filled with machinery to manufacture macaroni. This factory will employ about 30 people and as the money comes from Tecumseh men, it will be a certainty and a success.

As we go to press this morning comes word that F. B. VanCamp of Elkhart, will soon establish with the Century Post Co., a factory to build steel stoves and furnaces. In time this concern will employ about 75 to 100 people and as Mr. VanCamp is a well to do citizen of Elkhart and the Century Post Co. have been doing a good and profitable business here, this will make a fine addition to the solid manufactory interests already in Tecumseh.

C. C. Tefft.

Last Saturday evening about ten o'clock C. C. Tefft breathed his last and at that time died one of the best and most peaceful of men.

He was born in Marshall, Oneida county, New York, and moved from that place to Michigan 36 years ago, buying the farm three miles south of Tecumseh, in the township of Raisin. Twenty-two years ago he sold the Raisin farm and moved to the village, which has been his home since. Fifty-one years ago he married Miss Alvira Bass in Marshall, N. Y., and to them were born [illegible] children, two of whom, Doctor F. O. Tefft of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Thomas Miller of Washington D. C., survive him. His life was spent on the two farms, one in New York and the other in Michigan, except a few years that he spent in California. He was carried there by the gold fever of '49 and although he made some money, did not remain, but preferred to come back to the old New York farm.

C. C. Tefft was a man of the most kindly and genial disposition and up to his last sickness, which lasted about a week, never had been confined to his bed but two days.

He was in every way a most honorable man, owing no person a dollar and had it not been for his kind disposition he would have died a very rich man, for he helped many a friend through sympathy, who were unable to pay him at all yet he was always cheerful and to the last willing to share with the unfortunate.

With his death there is a void left that will not soon be filled. "Grandpa" Tefft will for years be missed by the children in his neighborhood and this good, kind hearted, cheerful old man will be looked for in vain for all who knew and loved him.

The funeral was held at the late residence at two o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Blanch Young of Manchester. Interment at Brookside.

"The Taming of the Shrew."

One well known critic in reviewing Mr. Charles B. Hanford's performance of "Petruchio" in "The Taming of the Shrew", wrote as follows: Those who have seen Mr. Hanford in this play know of the grandeur of his performance, those who have not seen him can have no idea of the masterful interpretation of the role of 'Petruchio'. Excellent as he has been in many heroic roles, he has never appeared to such advantage as he does in the congenial role of Petruchio, the roistering, happy-go-lucky, buoyant, self-willed fellow, as good at heart as he is irresistible at humor." New Bradley Opera house, Tuesday, May 24.

Twelve Cover Dinner.

Miss May Lowry has issued the following invitations to a number of her girl friends.

You are asked to come on Tuesday,
May 17th at 5:38
And present your smiling countenance at Lowry's postern gate.
But, as in fact there isn't one, no one must take offence,
If the latchstring's only hanging out in a figurative sense.
So put on your "bib and tucker" fine,
"war paint and your feathers,"
And wend your cheery way up there, no matter what the weather's.
You'll meet a company of friends from round about the town,
And May will give you a hearty welcome, attired in her finest gown.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

SENIOR RECEPTION

Held at the home of

MISS GENEVIEVE HALLADAY

Last Friday night. House was handsomely decorated.

04 Ra Ra 04 Ra Ra,
Naughty 4, naughty 4,
Ra Ra Ra.

The juniors and teachers of the Tecumseh high school were entertained at the home of Miss Genevieve Halladay by the seniors last Friday evening. The porch and balcony were lighted with Japanese lanterns. The hall was handsomely trimmed with green, white and old rose, both the junior and senior colors.

The guests were received by the officers of the senior class, who were Vernor Finch, Sherman Camburn, Genevie Halladay and Samuel Foote; Gertrude Collins, Laurel Chambers and Walter Morden stood also in receiving line.

The library was trimmed in green and white and the sitting room with green and white bunting. The frappe was served by Harriett Teachout and Olive McBride.

A program was given consisting of a song by Miss McKenna, two recitations by Miss Olive McBride and music by Genevieve Halladay. The guessing of well known advertisements was next in order, fifteen of which were hung around the room.

The guests were then bidden to the dining room, where very nice refreshments were served. Ice cream, fruit jelly, angel food and chocolate cake constituted the bill of fare. The dining rooms looked unusually pretty in the junior colors and pink roses. The large table in one dining room at which eight teachers were seated was decorated with pink roses. In the other dining room the small tables were used. The souvenirs were hand painted maple leaves.

After a pleasant social time the guests took their leave each one feeling that another evening had been profitably spent.

Democratic Convention held in Adrian Saturday.

The Democratic county convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, which will be held in Detroit June 1, met at the court house Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. The committees were appointed in the forenoon, one for permanent organization and order of business, and one on resolutions. The convention adjourned until one o'clock. They enjoyed a warm time over the adoption of the resolutions in fact all through the day, there was a scrappy feeling existing.

The clause which bothered the convention was, "to vote as a unit, and use every effort possible to secure as district delegate Hon. Willard Stearns, of this county, in recognition of his long and faithful services to the party in this county." After several remarks they decided to table it.

They selected the delegates for the state convention to be held in Detroit in June. Among them were Adrian Second ward, Dr. D. L. Treat; third ward, W. F. King Jr., Clinton, E. VanDeMark; Franklin, C. A. Derby; Ridgeway, L. A. Babcock. Harry P. Stearns then read the following and it was adopted: "We hereby promise our loyal and undivided support for the candidates and the platform of principles, to be selected at the coming national convention at St. Louis."

The county committee was selected after which the convention immediately adjourned many of the delegates having left the room. On the list there are from Tecumseh, D. H. C. Bowen; Clinton, E. Vandemark; Franklin, E. Norcross; Macon, Edgar Auten; Ridgeway, L. A. Babcock; Raisin, Chas. Kayner.

BADLY BURNED

While taking a picture of the May Festival chorus.

RULIFF C. LEONARD

Of this place was terribly burned in the face by the explosion of the flash light powder.

Last Friday night in Ann Arbor as Ruliff C. Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Leonard of this place, was taking a picture of the May Festival Chorus, he was terribly burned in the face.

He had focused the camera below and leaving it in charge of a friend, went up in the balcony to help with the flash light. He was holding the flash pan, which contained over a pound of the powder that is more explosive than gunpowder, in his right hand when it was lighted and the accident occurred. The back of the pan was blown entirely off, but his hand was not burned, the thumb was only thrown out of joint.

Dr. Lynns assisted by Mr. Cawkins, a druggist, attended to his burns. His face was put in an antiphlogistine caste and the doctors think that the burns will not leave a scar. Mr. Leonard wore his glasses and firmly believes that if it had not been for them he would have been blind. The lenses of the glasses were covered with the powder and it was also ground into them in such a manner that it could not be cleaned off. His coat, vest and necktie were ruined.

Ruliff came here yesterday afternoon and will remain for some time under the care of Dr. Bunnell. The picture, however, was a great success and of one of the largest groups ever taken in Ann Arbor, there being 400 people on the stage.

INVITATION FROM C. A. WRIGHT.

Leading Tecumseh druggists urge you to try Hyomei, the guaranteed cure for catarrh.

Any reader of the HERALD who suffers with catarrh, or who is subject to catarrhal colds, is invited to C. A. Wright's store for a complete Hyomei outfit on approval. So confident is he that Hyomei will cure the worst and most deep-seated case of catarrh that he will furnish a full month's treatment of Hyomei on trial.

While it would be unreasonable to expect a chronic case of catarrh, which has been growing worse for years, could be cured within a month, yet he feels sure that the thirty day's treatment will convince the user that Hyomei is infallible in driving catarrhal poison from the system. There is no dangerous stomach drugging when Hyomei is used. Simply breathe its healing balsams through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, and the germ-killing and health-giving air will penetrate to the most remote cells in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, and drive catarrhal poison from the system. Nothing else will so quickly cure a cold in the head or stop an ordinary cough.

Singers and public speakers will find Hyomei invaluable. It strengthens the voice and gives it a rich, clear tone. Catarrhal deafness is cured when Hyomei and the special Hyomei balm are used.

The complete outfit costs only one dollar, and if, after using, you can say that it did not help you C. A. Wright will return your money.

Men who mind their own business are to busy to quarrel with their neighbors.

ARE YOU A COMING MOTHER? ARE YOU EXPECTANT?

MOTHER'S FRIEND

makes childbirth easy by preparing the system for parturition and thus shortening labor. The painful ordeal is robbed of its terrors, and the danger lessened to both mother and child; the time of confinement is shortened, the mother rested, and child fully developed, strong and healthy.

Morning sickness, or nausea arising from pregnancy, is prevented by its use.

As pregnancy advances, the breasts enlarge, become swollen and hard. Long before the child is born, they are preparing for the secretion of milk. It is important that they receive early attention. Mother's Friend softens the skin and facilitates the secretion of Life Fluid. Undeveloped breasts, hard-caked shortly after delivery, are the result of non-treatment, and likely to culminate in Mammary Abscess, from which so many suffer excruciating pain and are left with these organs permanently impaired.

Softness, pliability and expansion are given to the muscles and sinews, thus bringing comfort and causing an easy issue of the child. Try it. Of druggists $1.00. Our book "Motherhood" free.

UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Tecumseh people profit by Neighbors' experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it and every man or woman or child in Tecumseh, who knows the misery of a bad back, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this citizens advice.

Ex-Postmaster J. W. Wightmon, well known to every reader of this statement says: "I have no hesitation in endorsing Doan's Kidney pills procured at C. A. Wright's drug store. They have been used in my family and the most satisfactory results followed the treatment. They proved to be a remedy of merit. You can use my name to that effect if you think proper."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

The most successful trained nurse is the one who succeeds in marrying her wealthiest patient.

Don't let the little ones suffer from eczema or other torturing skin diseases. No need for it. Doan's Ointment cures. Can't harm the most delicate skin. At any drug store, 50 cents.

When a girl knows she is handsome she does not object to having her picture taken in a group.

No man can cure consumption. You can prevent it though. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma. Never fails.

MRS. COLLINS WEAKENING.

Anticipated She May Break Down Before Long.

Owosso, Mich., May 16.—The trial of Mrs. Caroline Collins for murder will be resumed today in the circuit court. During the latter part of last week Mrs. Collins has been weakening quite perceptibly, and if this week's developments are as sensational as last week's a breakdown of some sort is anticipated. A few days after Mrs. Collins was first put in jail she had a hysterical attack which necessitated the services of the jail physician, and if such an attack again occurs it is thought something interesting may develop, as the woman shrieks and talks incessantly at such times.

The cessation of the daily grind helped her very much Sunday and her appetite was much improved over any day of the past week. She had one visitor, her mother, Mrs. Hattie Alcott who ate breakfast with her. Mrs. Alcott, by the way, made an interesting statement to reporters some time ago in connection with the case.

"I was visiting in Roscommon when George died," she said, "and Carrie wrote and told me all about it.

"'Ma,' she said, 'George is dead. He died in my room, in my bed and in the same corner of the room just as Ira and Nick did."

Ira was Mrs. Collins' 16-year-old nephew, whose body was exhumed and showed arsenical poisoning, while Nick was her husband, who died several years ago. Both had stomach trouble.

Norwegian's Daring Plan.

Copenhagen, May 16.—A Norwegian sailor, named Brude, intends to travel from Norway to St. Louis for the exhibition in a curious boat of his own design. It is made of iron and egg-shaped, being entirely without an aperture except that there is a small turret rising from it, with four windows, to enable the craft to be steered. It will be rigged with a mast and lateen sail.

RETIREMENT OF BISHOPS

Creating Considerable Discussion at Methodist Conference.

Los Angeles, May 16.—Sunday was welcomed by the delegates to the Methodist general conference as a day of rest after a week of continuous sessions. While enough visiting bishops and ministers volunteered their services to the pulpit supply committee to fill every pulpit in the city and suburban towns at both morning and evening services, the great body of delegates rested and talked over the events of the sessions of the conference.

The proceedings at Saturday's session of the general conference, when a vote was taken upon the retirement of five bishops, furnished a live topic of discussion. The general opinion of the delegates is that when the report is given it will show a decided majority in favor of the report of the episcopancy committee recommending the retirement of Bishops Vincent, Walden, Andrews, Mallalieu and Foss. The prompt and determined manner in which the subject was put through the conference Saturday in the face of the strong efforts to postpone definite action until Monday was much commented upon.

There are a certain number of delegates, especially among the laymen, who are disposed to criticise the manner in which the five aged bishops were deprived of their high offices, but the leaders seem to feel relieved that the most unpleasant duty of the conference has been performed and that the way is now clear to take up other pressing and other important legislation. It is quite likely that the action of eight, possibly more, bishops will take place during the present week. The day has not been decided upon, but it is generally believed that it will be Wednesday or Thursday.

Other matters that will come before the conference this week are: Action of the Methodist church upon divorce consolidation of the various branches of the book concern, limiting the tenure of pastorates, placing the church on record in the matter of amusements, viz: Dancing, card-playing, theater-going, etc., and many other matters that have been brought up in memorials from different conferences.

The number of candidates for bishops grows daily, and no less than 35 names are now mentioned in this connection.

Lived Over 100 Years.

West Branch, Mich., May 16.—The body of John Mokkcosh, an Objiya Indian chief, said to have been 110 years old, was found in his boat on North lake, Hill town where he is supposed to have died while trapping. He leaves a widow 96 years old and a son 40 years old. He has often said that he saw Saginaw when there were only [illegible] houses there.

Suffering

Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it—are wrong.

Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves.

A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill.

This will soothe your quivering nerves.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results.

"I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their curative properties, for they are successful."—REV. RAY A. WATROS, D. D., Iowa City, Ia.

THROUGH JAP LINES

Troop of Cossacks Escaped From Port Arthur.

OTHER TOWNS ARE OCCUPIED

By Advancing Lines of Japanese Army—Building Trenches Around Feng Wang Cheng—Paris Dispatch Reports New Chwang as Occupied.

[illegible] May 19.—Cornet Matsievsky of the Zabaikal regiment; Lieut. Prince Hantimooroff of the Twenty-fifth Rifle [illegible] and twelve Cossacks have just arrived here after a most daring escape from Port Arthur. The party was aided in its adventure by the familiarity of the Cossacks with the country, through the greater part of which it traveled on horseback at the rate of sixty miles a day, dodging Japanese patrols and arriving safely at the Russian lines.

The little company used the railroad as far as [illegible] where they took to [illegible] were found beyond [illegible], but the country being hilly the Russians slipped through under the noses of the enemy. The party had numerous narrow escapes and nearly killed the horses before it reached Russian territory.

The company reports that there is little change in garrison life at Port Arthur. The defenses are being continually augmented.

Chicago, May 19.—A special to the Daily News from Chefoo says: The Daily News dispatch boat Fawan, while passing Port Arthur about 10 a. m. Wednesday heard six heavy explosions. They appeared to proceed from the inner harbor and suggested the idea that the Russians were blowing up their ships and docks.

Chefoo, May 19.—The warships reported to have been sunk off Port Arthur are the battleship Srikishima and the armored cruiser Asama. The story is not believed here, but the Russians who brought the news insist that it is true.

Liao Yang, May 19.—The northern wing of the Japanese army, moving from Feng Wang Cheng, has occupied Kuandyasyan (Hai Yang Tsen?), forty miles northeast of Feng Wang Cheng. A division of guards which was moving towards Siu Yen has retired, temporarily at least, with the object, it is supposed of covering a disembarkation near New Chwang and of co-operation with the southern troops against New Chwang and Hai Cheng.

St. Petersburg, May 19.—Official dispatches regarding the disposition of the Japanese forces add little real interest to the situazion, the most important statement being that there is a force of 5,000 at Khabalen, eleven miles southwest of Feng Wang Cheng, and the fact that the Japanese are entrenching around Feng Wang Cheng.

London, May 19.—The Daily Telegraph's New Chwang correspondent, under date of May 18, says:

"After driving out 1,500 Russians and destroying the railway the Japanese re-embarked from Kaichau, the combined fleet heading southward.

"The Russians reentered New Chwang with 1,000 infantry and two batteries of artillery, but all preparations are made for another hasty evacuation."

Paris, May 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Matin says that official advices have been received to the effect that the Japanese have occupied New Chwang.

Vatican's Action Aroused French.

Paris, May 19.—Government circles are seriously considering whether the pope's protest against President Loubet's visit to Rome should not be promptly followed by the recall of M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the Vatican. The determination of this question probably will depend on Foreign Minister Delcasse's ability to calm the indignation aroused among the various elements in the chamber of deputies against the papal protest. These elements, headed by the socialists, insist on bringing the Vatican controversy to an issue, and it is expected that the subject will cause a violent debate in the chamber.

BALLOTING FOR BISHOPS.

Only One Chosen on First Day by Methodists.

Los Angeles, May 19.—The crowd that besieged Hazard's pavilion Wednesday seeking admittance to the Methodist conference in order to observe the balloting for bishops, which had been fixed as the special order of the day, was unusually large. Every seat was filled and hundreds were turned away, although offering various prices for seats.

An unusual feature of the session was the first appearance of a woman delegate upon the platform when Mrs. Medora Nichols of the Nebraska conference presented a resolution, which was adopted, urging every pastor to preach at least once each year upon law enforcement. She spoke for five minutes on the laxity of both the church and state in the enforcement of their laws.

The conference rescinded the decision to adjourn on Saturday, May 28, and fixed Monday, May 30, as the date of final adjournment.

An afternoon session was held in order to hear the report of the tellers on the first ballot for bishops. In addition to the election of new bishops, one of whom may be colored, it also is proposed to elect a colored associate for Bishop Hartzell of Africa.

[illegible] charge of heresy is again agitating the delegates. Its latest appearance is in the committee on education, where it provoked the most acrimonious discussion that has occurred between delegates of the present gathering. The outbreak came as a result of the report of a sub-committee on the memorials received by the conference relating to alleged dangerous doctrines disseminated by some of the theological experts of church. Dr. L. W. Munhall of Philadelphia led the supporters of the charges of heresy. He was combatted by Dr. Charles J. Little, president of Garret Biblical Institute and Professor Millen S. Terry of the same institution. Much feeling was manifested by both sides. After hours of heated debate, in which strong charges against the accused institutions were made and as vigorously denied, the matter was referred to the sub-committee for a more extended report.

The vote Wednesday for bishops resulted in the election of only one, Joseph F. Berry, editor of the Epworth Herald, who received more than two-thirds of the entire vote cast on the first ballot. One other ballot was taken, but the result of this will not be known until later.

Valuable Invention.

Berlin, May 19.—Under the name of the Telemobiloscope, an engineer named Huelsmeyer of Dusseldorf gave a demonstration before representatives of the shipping interests at Cologne Wednesday of an invention by which a steamer captain will be able to detect the presence and direction of any other steamer three miles away. The apparatus consists of a wireless receiver and transmitter combined. The transmitter remains constantly working and the vibratory waves are deflected by a metal object on the other ships and return to the receiver. The invention does not require the second ship to be equipped with anything except a metal hull.

General P. O. Purchasing Agent.

Washington, May 19.—Postmaster General Payne has selected William E. Cochran, now chief postoffice inspector, to be the general purchasing agent for the postoffice department. The office was created at the last session of congress and will not become operative until July 1. It is to embrace all the duties of purchasing supplies of various kinds, now left to various bureaus, and is he result of the facts brought out during the postal investigation as to irregularities.

Beet Raising Problem Solved.

[illegible], Mich., May 19.—About 100 Hungarians have settled near here and are living in shacks constructed of rough lumber. They came from Nebraska to work in the sugar beet fields in this vicinity. Some days ago a special train load of the foreigners were brought from the west for the Crosby, Sebewaing and Saginaw sugar factories. The Huns divided into lots after Michigan was reached. This plan is said to have solved to a great extent the sugar beet problem, and now many farmers are anxious to contract for acreage for sugar beets.

Cleveland Hack Drivers Strike.

Cleveland, May 19.—Union hack and cab drivers to the number of about 300 struck here Wednesday because of the refusal of the employers to recognize their organization. As a result of the strike there is a marked dearth of public carriages in service throughout the city

SHE UNDERSTOOD POISON.

Sensational Testimony Against Mrs. Collins From Dr. Bruce.

Owosso, Mich., May 19.—Wednesday proved to be one of the most sensational so far in the Collins murder trial. Dr. Jay D. Bruce of New Lathrop, who attended Leachman during his last illness, was the witness. Prosecutor Chapman simply asked him whether he attended Leachman and whether he was positive the man died of arsenical poisoning. The doctor replied that he was positive. With only these meager facts adduced the prosecution turned the witness over to the defense.

One of the strongest points of the defense heretofore was that Leachman [illegible] and that this disease had probably caused his death. The defense asked if Dr. Bruce had attended Leachman when the latter was sick of gastritis two years before death. The doctor brought dismay to Mrs. Collins' attorneys by declaring that it was not gastritis with which Leachman suffered at that time, but that he was merely run down from overwork.

"In September of last year," said the witness, "I was called to see Leachman. I diagnosed his illness as ptomaine poisoning. Supposing it came from the water I told Mrs. Collins not to use the well."

"But," said Attorney McCurdy, smilingly, "you didn't think she knew anything about poisoning, did you?"

"Yes, I did," was Dr. Bruce's unexpected reply.

"Why did you think so?"

"Because the next time I called she said she had put a panful of salt in the well, and salt is the best thing possible to neutralize toxic poison. This shows a knowledge of poisons almost expert, as this fact is not generally known among laymen."

Dr. Bruce a few minutes later declared there were symptoms of arsenical poisoning all during Leachman's illness.

TO RAISE LEGAL STATUS.

Proposed New Rule Regulating Admission to Practice.

Lansing, Mich., May 19.—Hon. John C. Patterson of Marshall, chairman of the committee on legislation and law reform of the State Bar association, has presented to the supreme court for its consideration a proposed new rule regulating the admission of attorneys to practice.

The proposed rule provides for a radical departure from the prevailing practice in Michigan, inasmuch as it provides that all applicants for admission to the bar be required to take an examination before the state board of law examiners.

Under the present practice graduates of the Michigan university and Detroit College of Law are admitted upon presentation of diplomas. While the practice is authorized by law, the committee submits that the legislature exceeded its authority in enacting this statute.

FREMONT VOTERS

Assembled in Convention at Jackson 135 Strong.

Jackson, Mich., May 19.—Men who cast their vote for General Fremont for president in the early days of the Republican party assembled in Jackson 135 strong Wednesday in state convention. The day was spent in social conversation, forming of an organization and the passing of some strong resolutions airing their opinions as to present-day politics, including paragraphs embracing a ringing declaration for reform and for "free speech, free labor and free men."

Jackson was gay with bunting and the reception was fitting.

Many Deer Perished.

Onaway, Mich., May 19.—Since the snow has melted in the swamps land lookers have found many carcasses of deer, which perished for want of food in the deep snows during the winter. One settler by name of Tran, living seven miles south of this place, came across seven carcasses of the animals, all on a space of five or six acres. The spring, too, has been so late and cold and wet that the early born fawns no doubt all perished. Take it all together, the prospect for future supply of deer in this county is anything but encouraging.

Safeblowers Got $300.

Traverse City, Mich., May 19.—Safeblowers cracked the safe in the office of the Peters Salt & Lumber Co., at East Lake, during the night, securing $300. The loss was not discovered until the office was opened in the morning. The sheriff and deputies are scouring the country in an effort to find the robbers.

COL. GARDNER'S REGIMENT

Held Annual Reunion and Blowout at Ypsilanti.

Ypsilanti, Mich., May 18.—Ideal weather greeted the veterans of the Spanish war Tuesday, and the city was decorated elaborately with the national colors to give them a hearty welcome. The Ypsilanti members of the Thirty-first Michigan, with a band, met every delegation as it arrived and escorted them through the main streets to headquarters at the armory.

Four bands and a fife drum corps kept things lively all day. Col. Cornelius Gardener arrived on the noon car and was at once surrounded by a cheering crowd of his former command. Lieut.-Col. Shubel of Lansing, Majors Harrah of Detroit, Hunt of Jackson and Kirk of Ypsilanti, and Assistant Surgeon Owen of Ypsilanti, with several of the captains of the various companies, were early on hand. The red neckties were everywhere in evidence.

The parade was held at 2 o'clock. The Mason and Lansing companies did not reach here in time. But there were about 300 men of the regiment in line.

At 5:30 there was a big banquet at the armory, attended by 300 people. J. P. Kirk acted as toastmaster.

PRIMARY REFORM

The Bone of Contention at State Republican Convention.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 18.—Delegates and nearly all the Republican leaders are here to attend the convention to elect delegates at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago.

Dexter M. Ferry of Detroit, T. J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids and Captain Thomas Walters of Ishpeming will be selected without a contest. A warm contest is being waged between Ralph Loveland of Saginaw and Frank Gilchrist of Alpena for fourth delegate.

Senator Burrows will be temporary chairman and the resolutions will strongly indorse President Roosevelt's administration. The only question which will overshadow all others at the convention will be primary election reform, and a warm fight is expected. William Alden Smith will lead the fight for primary election reform in the convention.

Indications are that the following delegates-at-large will also be chosen by the convention:

W. C. McMillan of Wayne county; T. J. O'Brien of Kent county; Ralph Loveland of Saginaw county; Capt. J. M. Walters of Marquette county.

BOY-MURDERER'S BODY

Found in Swamp Near Where Crime Was Committed.

Menominee, Mich., May 18.—After a search of many months the remains of August Saulit, the 14-year-old son of Joseph Saulit of Canary, who shot and killed August Ellson, a playmate, on his way home from school last November, has been found in Cedar swamp, eighty rods from where the crime was committed. The boy was in a half sitting posture, with a shotgun between the legs and the head blown off. The boy had discharged his gun with his feet.

At the time of the murder the Saulit boy ran into the woods and disappeared. The entire surrounding country was searched but no trace of him could be found. The searchers just missed the correct spot.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure coughs, and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally, and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, May 14, 1904.

Officially speaking, Washington may be said to be rather vacant and dull. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt are packing up for a short trip to Groton, Mass., where the two eldest boys are going to school, and a few weeks later they will set up their lares and penates at Oyster Bay. Secretary Hay is pretty well again and is now in St. Louis to deliver an address before the newspaper men there assembled. Secretary Shaw is getting ready to go to California, where he will make some political speeches. Secretary Taft, having overdone the banqueting business during the last six months, has now sworn off, cancelled all engagements and fled to the wilds of Lake Saranac and the Adirondacks.

Our primary elections have passed off with a few bloody noses. Our primaries are always quite strenuous on account of the fact that we have no secondaries or tertiaries. Senator Gorman was in town yesterday and looked in a moment at the convention met to choose delegates to St. Louis. He scented trouble in the air and left just before the Hearst delegates bolted in high dudgeon and held a rump convention. The Senator has been to New York this week, where he has presumably got in touch with his political friends there. He declines to be interviewed, however, saying that he can keep still just as hard as Judge Parker can.

The campaign for vice presidential candidates is now getting quite warm. Senator Dolliver and Congressman Boutelle and Marsh are earnest advocates of Representative Hitt of Ilinois to run with Roosevelt. Hitt is 70 but a strong man, and well equipped for the position. He still has in his cabinet of curios his stenographic notes of the speeches made by Lincoln in his discussion with Douglas in 1858.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, white and huge, shaggy and bearded like a pard, lingers here settling up his personal affairs. A year ago he married again against the wishes of his daughters. This morning a statement from his oldest daughter, Mrs. Bessie Hooker, and a counter statement from the Senator fills the drawing rooms of the city with the buzz of scandal. Bessie Hooker alleges that he has "promiscuously bundled off to the auction rooms" all of her mother's personal property and that only after an appeal to his lawyer was able to rescue barely her mother's portrait. She asked for other souvenirs but was told that she could buy them at auction. The Senator declares that his daughter's assertion "has no foundation in fact;" that after his wife's death he gave the keys of the house to his daughters and told them to help themselves to whatever they wanted; they did so, but when he went to sell the residue, they demanded a large part of that; that in making a false statement, she is "returning evil for good" because ever since her divorce fifteen years ago he has supported her and educated her boys. His daughters have both been divorced and the husband of one of them in applying to the court for the custody of the children alleged that the Stewart home was no place for children to be brought up. "I called this morning on Mrs. Hooker, at her elegant, if not sumptuous home, on Q street. She came smiling to the reception room, a tall and handsome blonde. She wore an elaborate morning costume. When told my errand she smiled wearily and said "O, no; I cannot say a word. You see the dilemma."

I dropped in at the auction house and found the floors and walls covered with magnificent oriental furniture and decorations. It needs but a glance to show that they must have been made for Chinese nobility or high officials and the inference is that they constitute the equipment of the Chinese embassy when it occupied Stewart's Castle. They were either sold to the Senator or given to him to satisfy his claim at the time when he sued the minister for damage to the building. The articles to be sold are almost all so novel as to be entirely unique and are better fitted for a palace than for any private residence. One of the vast embroideries is an inch thick and the huge dragon has red and blue eyes as large as hen's eggs, set in sockets and movable from behind in a way to startle the spectator. These things ought not to be sold at all. If Senator Stewart is half as rich as is reported, he ought to give them as a "Stewart collection" to the National Museum; and, if not, the government ought somehow to rescue them from the auctioneer.

When a girl knows she is handsome she does not object to having her picture taken in a group.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!
No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1; if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

☞ We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness. ☜

A wedding dinner was served at 5 o'clock immediately after the ceremony at the bride's home, covers being laid for the bridal party and the immediate family.

Be it therefore resolved that while we bow in humble submission to the dispensation of an all wise providence, we also mourn the loss of our departed sister, whose memory we shall always cherish.

Resolved that we hereby extend our sympathy to the husband, family and friends of our deceased sister in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved that these resolutions be placed in the secretary's book of T. B. A. and a copy be furnished the family of our late sister.

There's Satisfaction and Economy in Wearing Top-Round Shoes.

What a satisfaction there is in buying shoes that retain their shape and are honestly made. The man who makes an experiment every time he buys a pair of new shoes is sure to suffer during the "breaking-in" time.

The White-Dunham Shoe Company of Brockton, Mass., are the manufacturers of the well-known Top-Round Shoes—the shoes that don't require "breaking in"—that retain their shape. They are modeled after the perfect human foot, and to fit all shapes and sizes of feet. Only the finest, softest and most wearable leathers are used—the result is a combination of latest style and comfort.

Top-Round Shoes sell for $3.50, $3.00 and $2.50 a pair. There's a guarantee of money back, if dissatisfied, with every pair. If the dealer in your town doesn't keep them, write to the White-Dunham Shoe Company, Brockton, Mass., and you will be supplied.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

WIT AND WISDOM

Club gave a banquet at the home of

MR. AND MRS. F. D. HAMMOND

[illegible] and

MISS ALICE WIMPLE

Last Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Music and a fine program followed. Other social events.

The succession of pleasant and profitable meetings held by this club during the winter, culminated in the banquet of last Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond and Miss Alice Wimple. The rooms, with their daintily arranged tables and the display of carnations, roses and apple-blossoms, presented a very attractive appearance. A four course supper was served amid the strains of pleasing music, with which the ladies' mandolin club regaled the guests. Then toastmaster Jones introduced the following:

Mrs. F. Rector, who responded to the toast, "Our Club, its Aim and Mission," showing its unique and eminent place among clubs, its object being recreation and social entertainment in research and study.

"The Great West" by Mrs. F. Rosacrans, who spoke of her recent trip to Colorado and California.

"The Sunny South" by Mrs. C. A. Slayton, another of our tourist members, who had the satisfaction of Goldsmith,

"Around my fire an evening group to draw
And tell of all I felt and all I saw,"

which was entertainingly presented in that poet's favorite method of presenting the traveler, namely in verse, thus enveloping in doubt one (or the other) of her own statements:

"I am a poet;
The Club doesn't know it."

"Michigan, My Michigan" by F. J. Temple, was a pleasing laudation (also in verse) of one of the very best of states, with now and then a hit at some particulars that are not a source of pride to Michigan citizens, as when he mentioned as a recent dissatisfaction that our state had been one too full of Bliss. The hardest hit, however, being on one of our citizens who recently enjoyed a geological exploration tour on an automobile. This Temple song was made unanimous by the club's hearty singing under Miss Wimple's leadership, "Michigan, My Michigan."

"A Conversation," by Miss Lee of Toronto, who was one of the invited guests.

Further [illegible] fittingly closed the exercises of an evening which was a reminder and crown of many similar evenings, enjoyed throughout the club year by the cheerful devotees of Wit and Wisdom.

The election of officers resulted as follows.

President—Mrs Frank Hammond.
Vice President—F. J. Temple.
Secretary—Mrs. C. A. Slayton
Treasurer—Fred Rector.

DINNER PARTY.

Miss May Lowry was hostess to twelve of her friends on Tuesday evening, at 5:30 o'clock at a four course dinner. The table was very pretty, a large bouquet of double white tulips adorned the center. The place cards were pictures on white card board, representing the employment of each guest. After the dinner hour the guests were invited to the parlor, where amid a perfect network of ribbons each one found her name and was obliged to follow the ribbon to find the other end, where a box of candy awaited each one. Two guessing games were next in order and lots of fun enjoyed over them.

RECEPTION AT THE RECTORY.

The Ladies of St. Peters Guild tendered the members of their choir a reception last evening at the rectory, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. A large number were in attendance as each member of the choir invited a guest. The program was as follows:

Song--Choir.
Reading—Miss Mingay.
Piano Solo—Mrs. C. C. Kemp.

Mr. Kemp read an original poem written for the choir.

Following this excellent program refreshments were served. The affair proved very pleasant for all present.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Tuesday evening the Misses Alice and Edna Gaston entertained ten of their friends in honor of Miss Bessie Bates, who left Wednesday morning for New York. Covers were laid also for Rev. Blanche Youngs of Manchester, and Mrs. Dora Pardo of Trenton.

BASE BALL

An Enthusiastic Meeting held

LAST EVENING

At which the Following Board of Directors were elected.

John Anderson, Joseph Smith, P. W. A. Fitzsimmons, B. J. Garlinghouse, H. R. Brewer and F. S. Anderson. The above named board then held a meeting and elected:

President—J. L. Anderson.
Secretary—H. R. Brewer.
Associate managers—B. J. Garlinghouse and F. S. Anderson.

The report from the soliciting committee was heard and it was found that up to this time this committee has had the best of success, more money has been pledged than ever before and a great number of the people are yet to be seen. It now bids fair that Tecumseh will have this year its best base ball season, so we can look for plenty of good sport.

Federation of Clubs have planned to celebrate Old Settler's Day.

The Federated clubs have secured two large tents in which to hold the picnic dinner to be given June 2, on the eightieth anniversary of the settlement of this village. They propose to furnish tables and seats for all who may attend and also serve hot coffee gratuitously to the picnicers, requesting them to bring their own cream and sugar if desired, also sufficient dishes and lunch to serve their own party. It is hoped that this notice will be sufficient inv[illegible] who read it to come and help us celebrate the advent of that little band of pioneers, who made our present comfortably located homes possible.

The program will be announced next week. It is to be largely reminiscent of the early time interspersed with singing by an old fashioned choir. There is also to be a collection of old relics and any one having articles of this kind which are connected with the early history of that period will confer a favor by loaning them for this occasion. The committee guarantees their safe return.

INVITATION FROM C. A. WRIGHT.

Leading Tecumseh druggists urge you to try Hyomei, the guaranteed cure for catarrh.

Any reader of the HERALD who suffers with catarrh, or who is subject to catarrhal colds, is invited to C. A. Wright's store for a complete Hyomei outfit on approval. So confident is he that Hyomei will cure the worst and most deep-seated case of catarrh that he will furnish a full month's treatment of Hyomei on trial.

While it would be unreasonable to expect a chronic case of catarrh, which has been growing worse for years, could be cured within a month, yet he feels sure that the thirty day's treatment will convince the user that Hyomei is infallible in driving catarrhal poison from the system. There is no dangerous stomach drugging when Hyomei is used. Simply breathe its healing balsams through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, and the germ-killing and health-giving air will penetrate to the most remote cells in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, and drive catarrhal poison from the system. Nothing else will so quickly cure a cold in the head or stop an ordinary cough.

Singers and public speakers will find Hyomei invaluable. It strengthens the voice and gives it a rich, clear tone. Catarrhal deafness is cured when Hyomei and the special Hyomei balm are used.

The complete outfit costs only one dollar, and if, after using, you can say that it did not help you C. A. Wright will return your money.

INFORMATION

Given to the Public by our Local Druggist.

We want the public to know that the most valuable and delicious tasting cod liver oil preparation known to medicine is Vinol.

Vinol contains ALL of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but not a drop of oil.

For this reason it is recognized throughout the world as the greatest health restorer and strength creator known to medicine, and we do not believe there is a man, woman or child in this vicinity but what Vinol will benefit them.

It makes health and strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite, and to make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if you are not satisfied.

UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Tecumseh people profit by Neighbors' experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it and every man or woman or child in Tecumseh, who knows the misery of a bad back, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this citizens advice.

Ex-Postmaster J. W. Wightmon, well known to every reader of this statement says: "I have no hesitation in endorsing Doan's Kidney pills procured at C. A. Wright's drug store. They have been used in my family and the most satisfactory results followed the treatment. They proved to be a remedy of merit. You can use my name to that effect if you think proper."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

BACK TO NEW CHWANG

Russians Are Returning With Force of Artillery.

SEAS FULL OF RUSSIAN MINES

In Neighborhood of Port Arthur—Neutral Shipping in Danger—Jap Transports Are Numerous—Russian Shell Strikes Torpedo Boat.

New Chwang, May 23.—The Russians are reoccupying this place with a fair force of artillery and mounted infantry. The disaster to the Japanese fleet is officially unknown here. The only information on the subject came from the Reuter Telegram Co., whose dispatch was read to the troops on parade in the afternoon. The news was received with great cheering.

The Russians are constructing slight entrenchments south of the town. Steamers from Chefoo report that they pass quantities of wreckage, and it is supposed [illegible] that the Russians have [illegible] at the entrance to Port Arthur.

London, May 23.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "I am informed on good authority that Viceroy Alexieff tendered his resignation to the emperor, giving ill-health as the reason for his desire to be relieved, but that the emperor persuaded him, in a gracious telegram, to remain at his post."

[illegible] correspondent of the Times on board that paper's steamer Haimun, which is still excluded from the real theater of war, gives a review of the present position of affairs and says:

"Reserves from Japan are being brought to reinforce General Kuroki's lines of communication, which are being harrassed by Cossacks.

"General Kuroki appears to be waiting for the landing and co-operation of a third army. It was while holding the Miao Tao straits against torpedo attacks from Port Arthur for the passage of transports with the third army that the Hatsuse met with disaster.

"Realizing that they were effectively isolated the Port Arthur Russians made their desperation an excuse for sowing the whole Gulf of Pe Chi Li with floating blockade mines.

"It is reported that they sent launches and junks to drop mines in the paths of the Japanese warships and transports. The mines drifted to the high seas and to Chinese waters constituting the gravest danger to neutral shipping.

"Yesterday the Haimun passed two floating mines within six miles of Wei Hai Wei.

"Even as the act of a desperate garrison this must be in violation of the law of nations."

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Kobe, Japan, cables the following: "Returning from Korea through the Yellow sea this (last) week I saw Japanese transports in every direction. They were traveling without escort. Sometimes as many as ten at a time were counted."

Tokio, May 23.—During the reconnoissance of Port Arthur, made by Admiral Togo on Friday of last week, a shell hit the torpedo boat destroyer Akatsuki, killing one officer and twenty-four men.

ONE MAN KILLED

And Two Others Injured by Being Run Down by Street Car.

Port Huron, Mich., May 21.—George Wallace is dead, Charles Warren is at the hospital with a fighting chance for life, and Jason Moore is slightly injured as a result of being run down about midnight on Military street by a northbound South Park car. The men were driving to their homes in Smith's Creek and did not see the approaching car, which was bowling along at a high rate of speed.

An ambulance was summoned and the three men were removed to the hospital, where Wallace died a few minutes later from a fractured skull. Warren is also suffering from a fracture of the skull and other injuries. Moore was able to return to his home today.

MAGAZINES EXPLODED

Terrible Catastrophe in a Findlay, Ohio, Novelty Factory.

SEVEN PERSONS WERE KILLED

Five Others Fatally Hurt and Dozen More Seriously Injured—Concussion Felt Mile Away—Cause Unknown—Human Forms Strewn About.

Findlay, [illegible] result of an explosion in the two drying rooms of the Lake Shore Novelty Co.'s plant here Sunday seven persons are known to be dead, five are so seriously hurt that recovery is believed to be impossible, and twelve or fifteen others are injured badly. From reports of the physicians ten of the less seriously injured may die as a result of blood-poisoning from the potash that was driven into their bodies.

The dead are: Jay Sherwood, 24; Joseph Sherwood, 21; Edith Dillon, 17; Dean Shaw, 18; Mary Snyder, 22, all killed instantly; Estella Decker, 15, and Frank Grant, 21, died later at home.

The injured whom it is believed cannot recover are: Maggie Logan, 19, injured by flying debris; Thomas Bock, struck in the back by flying barrel, arms and legs broken, internally injured; Claude Shaw, twin brother of Dean, back severely injured and ankle broken; Effie Peterman and her brother Roy, caught in falling debris and internally injured.

Two employes are missing and are supposed to have been blown to atoms.

The Lake Shore Novelty works plant covered nearly ten acres of ground in the southwest part of the city and employed nearly 200 men, women and children. Railroad torpedoes and Fourth of July explosives were manufactured.

Owing to the large rush of orders the officials of the plant requested the employes to report for duty Sunday. About eighty complied with the request.

Cause of Explosion.

In the morning the residents of Findlay were startled by two explosions that shattered windows throughout the city. The concussion was felt for miles around. Two magazines, in separate rooms at the novelty works let go simultaneously with terrible reports. The exact cause of the explosion is not definitely known. It is surmised that one of the Sherwood brothers, who were the only persons in the drying rooms, dropped a large box of torpedoes, but this theory cannot be confirmed.

The explosion occurred shortly before the employes assembled for duty. At least twenty persons were on their way to the factory when the explosion occurred.

The human forms were strewn considerable distances apart on the factory site. The remains of the Sherwood brothers were found in drying room No. 1, mangled and almost unrecognizable. Their clothing was blown from their bodies, save a stocking on the right foot of Jay Sherwood.

The body of Edith Dillon was picked up 200 yards from where the explosion occurred.

The large plant is shattered into fragments, not one single wall remaining. Bricks and timber can be found for a half mile around.

Midshipman's Body Found.

Annapolis, Md., May 23.—The body of Midshipman P. H. Brittingham, formerly of the third class of the United States naval academy, who last week was drowned in the Severn river, was found floating Sunday morning near the place where the drowning occurred. The body was brought to the naval academy and identified and prepared for burial. Funeral services by the chaplain, H. H. Clark, U. S. N., were held over the remains in the old armory at the naval academy, and afterwards the body, escorted by the brigade of midshipmen, was conveyed to the Annapolis, Washington & Baltimore depot and shipped to Wheeling, W. Va., the home of the deceased.

An Army on Wheels.

Cleveland, May 23.—Two thousand men, women, girls and boys made up a bicycle run party to Gordon park in this city Sunday morning. The run covered the entire eastern portion of the city, and the crowd probably covered twenty-five miles. The occasion is remarkable in that it is the first instance of so large a gathering of wheel riders taking a run in this city in at least five years.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE

Expected at Biennial Christian Endeavor Convention.

BE HELD AT LAKE ORION

Under Auspices of First District—June 28 to July 1 the Dates—Prominent Workers Expected—Large Number Conferences to Take Place.

Orion, Mich., May 23.—Extensive preparations are being made for the biennial state convention of the Christian Endeavorers, which will be held at Lake Orion from June 28 to July 1. At a meeting just held at the office of State President F. W. Chamberlin, in Detroit, the committee in charge of the arrangements was appointed with Rev. E. G. Hildner as chairman, assisted by R. H. M. Augustine, Dr. George Lau, all of Detroit, and Guy R. Freeman of Flint.

The convention is held under the auspices of the first district. The gathering promises to be one of the largest of its kind in this state.

The program provides for a large number of conferences along lines of practical work. Von Ogden Vogt, general secretary of the United Society of Boston, will conduct several of these and will deliver an address. Practical studies of missionary plans will consume an entire evening, directed by Don O. Shelton of New York, young people's secretary of the American Missionary association.

Bible Study.

An hour will be given each day to definite plans and instruction in methods of bible study, under the leadership of Rev. Ernest Bourner Allen, a former Michigan Endeavorer, now pastor of one of the most successful churches of Toledo, and recognized as a leading Congregationalist. Rev. W. F. Wilson of Hamilton, Ont., a prominent advocate of combining the Christian Endeavor and the Epworth league lines of work in the Methodist Episcopal church of Canada, will speak.

Especial prominence will be given to the work among boys and girls in the junior conferences which open the morning sessions. Denominational interests will receive their proper attention in a series of rallies under the direction of representatives appointed by the various denominations represented in the state. A series of land and water contests will attract attention, and various other forms of recreation will afford opportunities for rest to many who will take advantage of the trip for their vacation.

Killed Under Train's Wheels.

Midland, Mich., May 23.—The mangled remains of Louis Kent were found at an early hour lying on the Pere Marquette railroad track near the Dow chemical plant by a laborer going to work. Kent had been drinking heavily Saturday night and it is supposed he caught onto the eastbound freight, which left here about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and fell beneath the train. The body was dragged seventy-five feet and both legs were crushed, both arms broken, the body mangled, the back broken and the head crushed. Kent leaves a widow and three children, the youngest two months old. He was about 35 years old.

Fined $200 Apiece.

Bay City, Mich., May 23.—Samuel and Henry Helter, composing the firm of Helter Bros., second-hand dealers, convicted of receiving stolen brass nautical instruments and other things from boys, were fined $200 apiece in the circuit court, and costs were added, making an aggregate of $450. The men pleaded for leniency on the ground that they did not know that the stuff was stolen. The court replied that they were getting off very lightly.

Grape Crop Damaged.

Lawton, Mich., May 21.—Reports from the grape belt indicate that 50 per cent of the crop was killed by Sunday night's frost. The loss to the growers will approximate $300,000. The belt will still have a thousand carloads to ship.

Killed by P. M. Train.

Fairgrove, Mich., May 21.—Joseph Adams, an old resident here, has received a telegram informing him of the death of his son, James, 31 years of age. He was killed by a Pere Marquette train on the coal docks in Traverse City.

POPE IS INVESTIGATING.

Vatican Is Much Agitated Over Recall of French Ambassador.

Rome, May 23.—Vatican authorities continue to be agitated over the conflict with the French government, growing out of the protest against President Loubet's visit to Rome and the recall of M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the Vatican. The pope said mass Sunday morning in the presence of sixty-four Italians and foreigners and gave up the rest of the day to the consideration of the difficulties with France, reading clippings from the newspapers on the subject.

The Vatican authorities hope that M. Nisard will soon return to Rome, being influenced by the fact that his family is still here.

The question as to how L'Humanite of Paris became possessed of the note [illegible] the other powers, which varied from that sent to the French government, is daily becoming more interesting. It seems to be now certain, as was at first supposed, that the indiscretion was due to the principality of Monaco, the Vatican's note to which was stronger than that addressed to the other Catholic states in consequence of the Vatican having been informed that Prince Albert of Monaco intended to visit the king of Italy. A further reason why [illegible] the principality of Monaco was more emphatic, it is said at the Vatican, was because Prince Albert was the friend of Captain Dreyfus, who had worked against the French government, and also because the clerico-nationalists were in accord, if not in the same field, with M. Jaures, the socialist leader, who originated the present agitation.

Paris, May 23.—The recall of M. Nisard, ambassador to the Vatican, continues to be the absorbing topic. The ambassador is expected to arrive here today, when he will confer with Foreign Minister Delcasse and go over the details of the rupture between France and the Vatican preliminary to the meeting of the council of ministers on Tuesday, when a further line of action will be determined upon.

Contrary to general expectation, Monsignor Lorenzelli, the papal nuncio at Paris, will not leave his post.

The tone of the socialist papers indicates that that powerful element has urged the government to take more extreme measures.

WOMAN ARRESTED

For Murder of Man Whom She Claims Was Her Husband.

Canton, O., May 23.—Grace Battorf, who claims to be Mrs. Taylor, wife of George H. Taylor, manager of the American Woolen Mills Co., tailors, murdered in his store soon after midnight Sunday morning, is in jail on suspicion of the murder.

Circumstantial evidence that points against her is, that she quarreled with Taylor Thursday and was discharged from employment with the company. She admits that when he said he would shoot her if she bothered him any more that she replied: "Not if I shoot you first."

That the fatal shot was fired by some one who entered the store after it had been closed for the night and was there when Taylor returned for his overcoat is conceded, but whether this person was a burglar or a woman of jealous mind the authorities disagree.

Fell Four Stories.

Detroit, Mich., May 23.—Harvey Singleton, aged 19, living at 62 Livingstone avenue and employed at the Russell house as a bell boy, was found unconscious at the bottom of the freight elevator shaft in the hotel. He had fallen from the fourth floor, striking on his feet. His left leg was broken in two places and the right leg in one, both being compound fractures. Unless internal injuries develop he will recover.

Bandits' Demands to Be Fulfilled.

Tangier, Morocco, May 23.—The shereef of Wazan left Sunday morning to meet Raisuli, the bandit chief, who is said to be at Beniaros. Mohammed el Torres, representing the sultan of Morocco at Tangier, has empowered the shereef to say that the government will grant all of the demands of Raisuli if Ion Perdicaris, the American, and Cromwell Varley, the British captives, are handed over immediately. The soldiers already have been withdrawn from the district where the bandits are located.

MRS. LEACHMAN ON STAND.

Mother of Dead Man Tells of Mrs. Collins' Odd Actions.

Owosso, Mich., May 21.—Mrs. Amelia Leachman, mother of George Leachman, the dead man, testified Friday in the Collins murder case. She said that she usually spent part of each night on a cot in the sitting-room, just outside the door of her sick son's room. About 3 o'clock one morning, toward the end of the first week of George's illness, Mrs. Leachman, always a light sleeper, was awakened by a noise in the sick room. She swears that Mrs. Collins came out, concealing a spoon in the folds of her dress, and when she saw Mrs. Leachman was looking attempted further concealment by slipping the handle up her sleeve. She started for the kitchen, hesitated and remained in the sitting-room. George vomited violently. He seemed nervous and excitable and said, "I don't know what makes me feel so wild." At this time symptoms had been pronounced for several days.

Mrs. Leachman said her son complained of terrible burning sensations in the stomach and that he had an unquenchable thirst.

Attempted to Kill His Sister.

Calumet, Mich., May 21.—George Gogrich suddenly became insane at his home in the Centennial location and grabbed [illegible] and was only prevented from killing her by the timely arrival of her husband. He was locked in his room, but escaped and attacked a crowd of children. Passersby rescued the little ones. Gogrich was taken to the county jail and probably will be sent to the Upper Peninsula insane asylum at Newberry.

Battle Creek's Dry Sunday.

Battle Creek, Mich., May 23.—Yesterday was the first really "dry" Sunday Battle Creek has known for many a day. Every saloon was closed tightly and nothing could be procured at any drug store. This is the result of a recent order to the chief of police by the new mayor. Frank Clapp, who says he intends to see that the ordinances are obeyed to the letter.

Niles, Mich., May 23.—Charles Nelson, aged 32 years, charged with criminally assaulting the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Holcomb of this city a few days ago, was arrested Sunday at Laporte, Ind. The sheriff of Berrien county had offered a reward of $100 for Nelson's capture. If he is brought back he may receive violent treatment.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, May 21, 1904.

A good many politicians of both parties have been in town this week fixing up their respective band wagons and tuning up the musical instruments for the campaign. Senator Fairbanks and Elihu Root do not conceal their fear that the riotous quarrels in Illinois and Wisconsin may spell defeat. They especially bewail the brawl in Illinois, for that is one of the pivotal states which must be carried. Among the visitors of the week at the White House have been Elihu Root, Senator Lodge, Senator Platt and Senator Elkins, who have been coaching Mr. Cortelyou for his duties as manager of the campaign. Ex Governor Black of New York has also been here, consulting with the president as to what he had better say in his nominating speech at Chicago.

The president will visit Gettysburg on Decoration day and make a speech. He declares that this is the only one he will make till next winter. Acting Secretary of War Oliver has gone to Gettysburg and taken the British Ambassador Durand as his guest. They will make a strategic study of the battlefield. Captain Cowles, having docked the injured battleship, Missouri, at Newport News, is among the arrivals of the week at the White House.

Mr. Thomas A. Edison, the great inventor, has just made his annual kick at the U. S. patent office. Every once in a while he manages to tell the public through the press that the patent office is unfair and that he is going to boycott it. He owes his immense fortune to the patent system, to the liberality of the patent laws and to the intelligence and appreciation of the learned examiners in the patent office, who under the authority of the commissioner of patents, investigate and allow patents for his inventions. He has taken out hundreds of patents and probably has twenty applications for other patents now pending. But because an examiner refuses to grant him something that he does not think him entitled to, he is seeking extra judicial relief. The patent office is perhaps the fairest of all government offices. The examiners are specialists of education, many of them holding degrees as lawyers and doctors, a large majority of them capable of filling the commissioner's chair. Mr. Edison is a spoiled child of genius and of fortune.

There was great excitement at the State department yesterday over the violent kidnaping of a prominent American named Perdicaris at Tangier, Morocco, opposite Gibralter. He and his step son were seized in his palace which is famous for its entertainment of American tourists, and were hurried to the mountains around Fez. Thirty years ago I knew Perdicaris well in New York City. He was a rich and dashing young Jerseyman having spent the first 25 years of his life in Trenton. Not only an heir to a fortune of millions but he was an artist of repute and a playwright. He had married an English widow, who had two beautiful daughters and he was everywhere welcomed in the cultured society of the metropolis. I never spent a pleasanter week than my sojourn at his mansion near the Deleware. A few years later his father, a Grecian exile, died and Ion left with his family to live on the Mediterranean. He bought a magnificent palace, the home of former sultans, on a sightly hill back of Tangier and there for many years he dispensed a lordly hospitality. While in the midst of banqueting friends he is suddenly seized by an insolent banditti and held for a great but indefinite ransom.

What will be done about it? The Secretary of the Navy has telegraphed to Admiral Chadwick at the Canaries to push on at once to the Morocco seaport. He has four war ships with him. I called at the Navy department yesterday and tried in vain to get a copy of the dispatch to Chadwick. No it could not be made public. What is it? The man in the White House is strennous. Morocco is the only part of northern Africa that is now ruled by native chiefs. Spain wants it: but the conceit has been taken out of her during the last few years and her remonstrance against our demand for reparation would not be likely to take a violent form.

Arguments were heard in the Federal District court yesterday on the application of Juan Rodriguez to be employed in the Washington Navy yard, his admission having been refused on the ground that he was not a citizen. The Supreme Court recently decided that a Porto Rican is not an alien and therefore he cannot be naturalized, but a dozen privileges of an American are denied him on the ground that he is not a citizen. Martin Travieso has been denied permission to be admitted to the bar in New York state on the sole ground that he is not a citizen, though he is a graduate of Cornell law school. It is high time that we should treat our insular dependants as well as Rome treated her vassals in Sicily.

The Supreme Court has decided that an anarchist cannot immigrate to this country, but it is still to be assumed that a native anarchist can indulge in free speech to his heart's content. This seems drawing it pretty fine but it is undoubtedly true that every government has a perfect right to arbitrarily decide who shall not be allowed admission at its ports. And a negative decision in any given case is not an interference with free speech.

Thus far the testimony in the Smoot hearings makes a very curious and interesting romance of love and domestic bliss in a big volumn of 700 pages. It is likely to go through many editions, for monogamists will want to read the graphic and strange story. Send to your Congressman for it.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Whiskey and Beer Habit

"ORRINE."

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

Mr. White pastures his five cows near the red mill pond, they go to the pond to drink. At milking time on Wednesday only four came up to the barn and upon investigation one was discovered near the pond, with one hip in the above stated condition, which must have happened either Tuesday night or Wednesday morning. Whether some one was hunting and shot accidentally or whether it was purposely done is not known, but it does not seem possible that any one would do such a thing for spite. Mr. Geo. N. Stacy,
Editor TECUMSEH HERALD,
Tecumseh, Mich.

DEAR SIR:—It will be unnecessary to continue sending me the HERALD after receipt of this letter, as I shall probably be en route to Europe and America before this reaches you.

This is a day of rejoicing for Americans in Iloilo as a good U. S. mail made its arrival. Mail day and pay day are the two great events in this country. And none of the papers which I receive are more welcome than the HERALD. I have thoroughly appreciated its visits to me during the past three and one-half years.

Will probably "drop in" and see you sometime in July.

Truly Yours,
WALTER E. NORRIS.

Ole Olson, a supposed lunatic, (with no apology to the stage character of that name) wanders about the state bearing on his shoulders a sack of "calamities" weighing 100 pounds, each article being separately wrapped and carefully tied with a string, wound many times about it. Among these packages was a Bible and catechism, and his rage was terrible when a Tecumseh officer, who arrested him, profanely removed the wrapping, to satisfy his curiosity concerning its contents, although no harm was done, and the officer thereby obtained his first knowledge of the holy scriptures. Olson states that his life is made constantly miserable by lunatics who pursue him wherever he goes, one of the craziest being the Tecumseh deputy sheriff who arrested him.—Detroit Tribune.

Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. BASE BALL.

The Tecumseh High School play against Raisin Valley Seminary.

The ball game between the high school and Raisin Valley Seminary last Saturday resulted in a score of 14 to 15. The teams seemed well matched during the first three innings. Then for a few innings it seemed that the Seminary would have an easy victory, but when our boys saw what was being done, they rallied and did some fine playing. Coller umpired the game, which was satisfactory to all.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Tecumseh high school will play with the Raisin Valley's in Tecumseh next Monday afternoon. Game called at 3 o'clock.

The Tecumseh high school will play against the Dundee high school next Saturday afternoon at the athletic park. Game called at 3 o'clock.

A benefit ball game was played in Adrian Saturday afternoon between the Page Fence club and a picked nine. Martin pitched for the Page Fence people, and Carpenter for the picked nine. Both teams did some fine playing, but the Page nine won by a score 11 to 1.

The Adrian college base ball team played the Detroit college team last Saturday in Detroit and were defeated by a score of 5 to 1. The game was extremely fast and interesting. It was played in one hour and three minutes, one of the fastest amateur games ever [illegible].

[illegible] somewhat dilapidated up around Devil's lake this spring. The extraordinary thickness of ice during the past winter completely wrecked every dock on the lake and also tore down the water toboggan at Hampton & Kimball's lake resort. It will be necessary to build new docks at all of the landings before the steamboats or naptha launches can do any business on the lake this season.—Onsted News.

A tramp giving his name as William Anderson was at Moses Schoonover's Thursday and afterwards a pocketbook containing $6 was missed by them. Officer Stephenson was notified and caught the man at Thomas Warne's. He was brought to town and stayed in the lockup all night. Next morning the pocket book was found in the Schoonover home and the tramp went on his way rejoicing.—Morenci Observer.

SENSIBLE WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Hyomei medicates air you breathe and kills all catarrhal germs—costs nothing unless it cures.

Do not take medicines into the stomach to kill catarrhal germs in the head and throat. Air alone can reach these germs. Medicated with Hyomei and breathed through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, the air goes to the most remote air cells of the head, throat and lungs, and completely destroys the disease germs. Hyomei is the only sensible, yet scientific way to cure catarrh. Other remedies may fail; Hyomei will cure.

It helps at once, and you get the vitalizing and invigorating effects from the first few breaths of Hyomei. If it should happen that Hyomei did not give you the same good effects that it has in many other cases right here at home, C. A. Wright will refund your money without question or argument. You will be the sole judge as to whether Hyomei costs you a penny or not.

The complete outfit, consisting of a medicine dropper, and inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, and a bottle of Hyomei sells for only one dollar. The inhaler will last a lifetime, and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained, if needed, for fifty cents.

When you get a Hyomei outfit, C. A. Wright will give you a signed receipt, agreeing to refund the money in case it does not cure catarrh and other diseases of the respiratory organs. This is the strongest evidence that he can offer as to his faith in Hyomei—to pay for it himself in case it does not cure.

SECRETS

At the Price of Suffering.

Woman on her way to semi-invalidism caused by pregnancy suffers much pain. Ignorance prompts her to suffer alone in silence and remain in the dark as to the true cause—motherhood.

Mother's Friend takes the doctor's place and she has no cause for an interview. She is her own doctor, and her modesty is protected. Daily application to the breast and abdomen throughout pregnancy will enable her to undergo the period of gestation in a cheerful mood and rest undisturbed.

is a liniment for external use only. It would indeed be shameful if the sacrifice of modesty were necessary to the successful issue of healthy children. All women about to become mothers need send only to a drug store and for $1.00 secure the prize childbirth remedy. Healthy babies are the result of useing Mother's Friend. Our book "Motherhood" mailed free.

Mrs. J. W. Owen, wife of the well known carpenter, living in the southeastern section of Tecumseh, says: "I am very well pleased with Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and they did me a lot of good. I had heart trouble and my kidneys did not perform their proper duties. This condition existed for some time. I tried different remedies which were recommended to me but received little if any benefit from them. I received more permanent relief from their use than from any other medicine I ever used. I am pleased to testify in their value.

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

The three things most difficult are to keep a secret, to forget a injury and to make good use of leisure.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague at night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

When faith is the cream of facts, it is valuable, but when it is but the skin of a dream, it is worthless.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over my body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, Cornell, Conn.

'Cottagers' Protest Overruled.

Lansing, Mich., May 23.—The state military board overruled the protest of the owners of cottages at Epworth Heights against the holding of the state military encampment at Ludington. The board, in a letter to the protesters, states that the citizens and business men of Ludington desire the encampment to be held there and will do all in their power to make it successful. The board states that the objections of the cottagers are as a rule on insufficient and incorrect information.

Saginaw, Mich., May 23.—A freight of fifty loaded cars spread a rail on the west approach of the Pere Marquette railroad bridge. An engine and five cars left the track. WAS ONCE WEALTHY,

But Frederick Buetler of Detroit Died in Poorhouse.

Detroit, Mich., May 23.—The uncertainties of life are forcibly called to notice in the career of Frederick Beutler, an aged inmate of the county house at Eloise, whose death just occurred, after a comparatively short illness. There are those who will recall that at one time, perhaps eighteen or twenty years ago, the name of Fred Beutler denoted wealth and prominence. At that time he conducted a shoe establishment on Montcalm street, just off Woodward, and counted his wealth by the tens of thousands. It is said that at one time Beutler was worth no less than $150,000.

Injudicious investments, however, coupled with circumstances over which the deceased seemed to have no control, soon began to tell upon this accumulation of wealth, and it was not long before he was dependent upon relatives for support. Until his brother died, a few years ago, he had a home, with but little to worry him, but with that death began Beutler's life of pauperism, finally landing a few months ago at Eloise. He was 79 years of age.

Nervy Thief Near Ann Arbor.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 23.—While Mrs. Mary Cavanaugh, 80 years old, was sitting alone in a rocking chair in her home at Delhi a stranger walked in and went directly to a dresser, where he helped himself to a purse containing $19. When he had gotten the money he went coolly out of the house and walked down the street toward the electric car line. He is described by Mrs. Cavanaugh as tall and dark haired. Officers are making an effort to capture the fellow, who was evidently well acquainted with the Cavanaugh house.

Struck Down by Lightning.

St. Johns, Mich., May 23.—Sunday afternoon, during a severe electrical storm, Miss Caddie King was standing in front of her parents' home on East Walker street, under a large maple tree, talking with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gigler, who were sitting in a buggy, when she was struck by lightning and badly injured. The bolt struck the tree, splitting it, and then passed down the body of Miss King, tearing off one of her shoes and burning her badly. The Giglers were severely shocked, but will recover. The doctors attending Miss King do not think she can recover.

Searching For Chicago Bandit.

Detroit, Mich., May 23.—William Stevens, a Chicago bandit, who came to Detroit from Cleveland on Thursday morning, is wanted by the Detroit police for the murder of Bartender Ralph Caulkins, in Bowman Bros.' saloon, 103 Gratiot avenue, last Thursday evening. On Friday morning he disappeared and every effort is now being made to secure his arrest. The police of every large city in the country have been notified to look out for him. Several important clues have developed which the police are quite sure will identify Stevens with the crime.

Three Are Reappointed.

Lansing, Mich., May 23.—Governor Bliss announces the following reappointments of board members: Dr. Samuel R. Landis, Grand Rapids, member of the state board of examiners in osteopathy, term of five years beginning May 1, 1904; Walter Beckwith, Detroit, member of the horseshoers' examining board, term of five years commencing Aug. 5; Charles H. Johnson, Detroit, member of the state court of mediation and arbitration, term of three years beginning May 27, 1904.

SKRYDLOFF IN COMMAND.

Holsts His Flag Over the Vladivostok Fleet.

Vladivostok, May 23.—Vice Admiral Skrydloff arrived here Sunday afternoon. He was met at the Okeanski station, outside of Vladivostok, by Major-General Voronetz and deputations of the military, naval and municipal authorities, as well as by an enthusiastic crowd, and was presented with bread and salt. Entering the town the admiral drove to the pier in an open carriage, escorted by Cossacks, and boarded the cruiser Rossia, on which a short service was held. The chaplain sprinkled and blessed the admiral's flag before it was run up to the masthead, where it was greeted with a salute from all the cruisers in the harbor.

The day happened to be the eighth anniversary of the launching of the Rossia and also Admiral Skrydloff's saint's day. The admiral addressed the officers and crew of the Rossia, saying:

"The emperor orders me to convey his greeting and loyal thanks for your gallant services, in consideration of which he reduces your tour of sea duty to three years."

This announcement was greeted with cheering and the band played the national anthem.

Admiral Skrydloff then visited the other cruisers and repeated the royal message.

There was a great outpouring of townspeople, the women wearing bright costumes. Admiral Skrydloff's reception was of the heartiest everywhere, he being a great favorite when last in Vladivostok.

Eleventh Annual Convention Attended by Two Hundred.

Jackson, Mich., May 21.—Two hundred traveling men were in Jackson Friday attending the eleventh annual convention of the Grand Council of United Commercial Travelers of Michigan, and the city was gayly decorated in their honor. The wives and lady friends of the travelers were with them and business was industriously mixed with pleasure.

The sessions of the council are held at the large Maccabee hall in the White block. During the business session in the afternoon the ladies were entertained by a trolley ride to Wolf Lake summer resort, where a luncheon was served at the casino, the ladies of Jackson acting as hostesses. Last night there was a grand dancing party at the Elks' temple, given in honor of the commercial travelers, preceded by a musical concert.

SUFFOCATED BY GAS

Ten Miners Met Death in a Peculiar Manner.

OTHERS NARROWLY ESCAPED

Fumes From Small Locomotive Floated Back Upon Them While They Rode in Tunnel of Mine Near Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 26.—A telegram received [illegible] Susquehanna Coal Co.'s office here states that ten miners were [illegible] by gas and sulphur fumes from a small locomotive in the workings of the Summit Branch Coal Co. at Williamstown, Dauphin county. The incident was one of the most peculiar in the history of the anthracite mines and no reason for it can be assigned by the officials. The victims include Michael Golden, general inside foreman of the company, and nine miners and laborers.

The tunnel in which the disaster occurred is one mile in length and is used by the coal company to convey the coal mined in the workings in the Bear valley to the breaker in the Williams valley. The men employed in the mines in Bear valley who reside in Williamstown had had a practice for years to ride to and from work on the trips of cars that are hauled between the two valleys by small locomotives.

About 4 in the afternoon Foreman Golden and about fifty miners boarded a loaded trip, which was about to be hauled from Bear valley to Williamstown. Everything went all right until about half of the journey was made, when some of the men attracted the attention of the engineer, who at once stopped, and it was found that nearly every man in the party on the cars had been overcome by the gas and sulphur which emanated from the stack of the locomotive and floated back over them. The en[illegible] crowded on all steam possible and the unconscious men were hurried to the Williamstown end of the tunnel. Here help was at once summoned and the men were taken to the surface, where a corps of physicians made every possible effort to resuscitate them, but the aid came too late for Golden and the other victims.

The tunnel has been in operation for more than forty years, and this is the first accident of any kind that has happened in it. It is perfectly free from mine gases and the ventilation is so perfect and the air current so strong and steady that besides being used for hauling cars the tunnel has formed one of the intakes that furnish air to the mines. No trouble has ever been experienced before from gas from the small mine locomotives, and the officials are entirely at sea as to the cause of the tragedy.

An Industrious Balloonist.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 26.—Men of all callings are attracted to Ann Arbor by the hospital facilities and the eminent medical authorities here, but the prize winner in that line is "Prof." Ed R. Hutchinson, the "human bomb," a professional balloon artist. The "professor" found that his eyes were giving him considerable trouble, and after a canvass of the situation decided to come to Ann Arbor for treatment. To keep himself busy he is engaged in the construction of a couple of big balloons for use when he is discharged from the doctors' care. He has a room full of women sewing busily all day on the 1,600 yards of canvas that is to go into the two balloons and parachutes.

Tit for Tat.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 26.—Dr. Walter Dorland, a wealthy dentist of this city, has brought suit for $25,000 against John S. Walker, a prominent insurance man whom he charges with having alienated his wife's affections. Walker was arrested today on a writ of capias and gave $3,000 bail for his appearance. Several months ago Mrs. Walker sued Mrs. Dorland for alienating the affections of her husband. The case was settled out of court by Dorland paying $10,000.

INTO AN AMBUSCADE

Sotnia of Cossacks Fell and Were Nearly Exterminated.

WILY JAPS CORNERED THEM

Reported Russians Will Momolize Army of 2,000,000—Men Being Hanged in Russian Cities—Precautions Against Disease in Army.

Liao Yang, May 26.—A wounded Cossack, who arrived at Sayaolentsi village, reports that a fight took place north of Taku-Shan on May 20, in which the Japanese ambushed a sotnia of Cossacks and nearly wiped them out. The Cossacks were patrolling to the north of Taku-Shan for a distance of 18 miles when they fell in with three squadrons of Japanese cavalry who retreated. The Cossacks followed and fell into an ambuscade, a body of Japanese infantry being concealed behind a small hill. Commander Beckromesheff ordered his men to draw their sabres and cut their way out, when his horse was shot under him. He had just time to order the sotnia to scatter when he fell wounded.

The Japanese then closed in on two sides, firing volleys at close range. The two remaining officers fell and the sotnia retreated with the loss of three officers and 30 men.

Paris, May 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris, says: "I am able to affirm that Russia is preparing to mobilize 2,000,000 soldiers in European Russia on the conclusion of the war with Japan.

"Foreign Minister Lamsdorff has informed several members of the diplomatic corps that he was uneasy on the subject of China. Russia, he said, had adhered unreservedly to the text of Secretary Hay's note, but if China should violate, or permit the violation of neutrality, whether through bad faith or weakness, Russia would act."

London, May 26.—The Standard's correspondent at the headquarters of the Japanese first army, under date of May 28, says there is no change in the military situation. The Russians seem to be perfectly content to remain on the defensive and are vigorously strengthening their position with Lioa-Yang as the base. They are a little more active northeast of Feng-Wang-Cheng, where the patrols of both armies are in touch almost daily. The Standard publishes a dispatch from a Russian correspondent in whom the paper says it places great confidence, containing most sensational statements regarding the alarming condition of Russia as a result of the war. The correspondent asserts that disturbances in various cities have been followed by wholesale executions without any civil trial. It is stated that 600 persons have been hanged in Warsaw alone and that many others have been hanged in Cronstadt and Moscow. In the latter place the troops burried 80 coffins containing bodies of those who had been hanged. The bodies were buried secretly in the dead of night, presumably in the woods.

St. Petersburg, May 26.—The greatest precautions are being taken to prevent the outbreak of epidemics among the troops in Manchuria. Men specially trained in disinfecting are dispatched to all the big camps by the Red Cross society, and according to reports received the sanitary conditions are fairly good. Some sporadic cases of typhus and smallpox were segregated early. Apparently there is no danger of an epidemic.

Letters received here from Liao Yang say the conditions there are much improved, dry weather prevailing in April and early in May. Harbin was being cleaned up. The conditions in Korea, on the other hand, are described as terrible, and doubtless are responsible for the sickness prevailing in the Japanese army.

The Red Cross society has established over ten thousand beds in Manchuria for the purposes of the war and has divided the immense territory from the Volga to Port Arthur and Vladivostok into four districts, each in charge of a superintendent whose duty it is to forward supplies and dispatch physicians and nurses where they are needed. There are central establishments at Irkutsk, Chita, Harbin, Mukden and Liao Yang. Port Arthur and Vladivostok have their own equipment. In addition to the hospital trains eighteen barges are being fitted for the transportation of the wounded and sick by the Sungari and Amur rivers.

Day of Deaths by Violence in the State—Two Suicides—Insane Man Starves Himself to Death—Man Near Mendon Killed by Train.

Flint, Mich., May 25.—While a number of small boys were playing about a building on Eighth street that was being moved, and while the men were at dinner they replaced the sweep of the capstan and tightened up the rope to see if they could not start the building. When it had been wound up to quite a tension they let go the sweep and ran away. George, a 13-year-old son of Samuel Nichols, did not get out of reaching distance and the sweep struck him a fearful blow on the side of the head, crushing in his skull. He was picked up and taken to the hospital unconscious and will die from his injuries.

Port Huron, Mich., May 25.—Mrs George Miller, who resides one mile north of Memphis, committed suicide at 8 o'clock in the morning by taking strychnine. She left a note that she was entirely responsible for the deed. She is survived by her husband and four children. She was discovered by her mother-in-law shortly after taking the poison, but died before medical aid arrived.

Menominee, Mich., May 25.—Phillip Drolette, an insane patient from Marinette, died on a train while being taken to the asylum. The body was taken off at Duck Creek to hold an inquest. Drolette has refused to eat for five days and had practically starved himself to death. Jealousy over his wife is said to have caused his insanity.

Mendon, Mich., May 25.—David Showdy of Nottawa was struck by a G. R. & I. northbound freight train and killed one and a half miles south of here Tuesday evening. He was lying on the track when struck by the train.

Lake Odessa, Mich., May 25.—Hugh Neff, aged 55, a Sunfield farmer, committed suicide by hanging himself with a log chain to a tree in his woods. When he was found by a searching party his neck was broken and the hook on the chain had torn a big hole in the flesh.

Plumbers Go to Work.

Detroit, Mich., May 25.—The strike of the plumbers and steamfitters' union has ended, and the men reported for work at their former shops Tuesday. An agreement satisfactory to both sides and effective for two years was signed by the conference committees of the unions and the master plumbers' association. The provisions, in brief, are that there are to be no sympathetic strikes nor lockouts, the men to work in harmony with men of other trades, and they are given an increase in wages of 25 cents a day.

Mill Burned and Town is Idle.

Lake City, Mich., May 25.—The large sawmill belonging to J. I. Butcher & Co., at Moorestown, in the northwest corner of Missaukee county, was totally destroyed by fire, together with about 1,500,000 feet of lumber and three cars, two loaded with lumber and one with potatoes. The loss will reach $30,000, with no insurance. Practically the whole population of the town is thrown out of employment until a new mill can be built.

Royal Weddings in Spain Soon.

Madrid, May 26.—Court gossip reports the imminence of a double engagement of high international importance. King Alfonso, it is said, will shortly be betrothed to Princess Louisa of Orleans, the sister of Queen Amelia of Portugal, while the engagement of Alfonso's sister, Marie Theresa, to the crown prince of Portugal is also expected shortly.

Syndicate Buys Panama Rights.

Panama, May 26.—The electric light and tramway plants and the telephone system in the Panama canal zone have been bought up by a syndicate in which American capital is invested. G. H. Shanton, captain of policeing the canal zone, is actively organizing his police force.

WAS LEACHMAN SUSPICIOUS?

Did Not Like Food Mrs. Collins Gave Him.

Owosso, Mich., May 26.—It is evident from the testimony given by Mrs. Kate Quaderer, sister of Leachman, that Mrs. Collins' alleged victim had a suspicion that he was being poisoned. On several occasions he accused Mrs. Collins of putting something into the food or drink she gave him. Mrs. Quaderer was on the stand all day and related in detail the story of the last week of her brother's life.

One night after drinking some beer Mrs. Collins had prepared for him, Mrs. Quaderer said George was taken violently ill and complained of pains in his stomach and a burning sensation.

Against Mrs. Collins' wishes Jacob Gross, who was staying at the house, was sent for a doctor. When she thought Mrs. Quaderer was not listening, Mrs. Collins told Gross not to tell the doctor to come, but to say that George was nervous and to get some powders. Mrs. Quaderer told her brother, in Mrs. Collins' presence, to tell the doctor just what had been said. But Mrs. Collins, the witness claims, gave no opportunity for private conversation, staying in the room all the time.

Later George wanted to change doctors, as he thought Dr. Shoemaker did not understand his case thoroughly. Mrs. Collins objected, pointing out that Leachman had no money, whereupon he replied, "Kate will let me have the money and when you get your estate settled up at Corunna and pay me then I will repay Kate."

On Wednesday night Mrs. Collins brought beef soup to which Leachman objected, saying there was sand in it. In about half an hour he was again taken ill. George died early Thursday morning.

GAME OF GRAB.

Michigan Students Accuse Chicago University of Working It.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 26.—The students in the university are very warm under the collar on account of the way Chicago university appears to be pulling for students by sending her announcements to nearly every member of several departments. A year ago Chicago university made a strong effort to draw law students away from Michigan and used the influence of Prof. Floyd R. Mechem, one of the most popular law professors in the university, who had just gone to Chicago.

So far Chicago's efforts have proved futile and many of the announcements have been collected in a box and sent back to the senders. The students consider this a very flagrant brand of "butting in" and say Chicago's zeal is due to her small attendance in the law department as compared with that in the Michigan school.

Another Panel Exhausted.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 26.—No jury was obtained in the Conger conspiracy case, growing out of the water scandal, Wednesday afternoon. When the court adjourned all jurors were in the box subject to the further examination and the panel of 48 talesmen had been exhausted and 44 of them rejected either by the prosecution or defendant. Judge Newnham ordered another venire of 24 talesmen to be present in court when it convened. If, after a reasonable length of time, no jury shall be obtained it is probable a change of venue will be asked for.

Brothers Met After Forty Years.

Fairgrove, Mich., May 26.—W. E. H. Gaylord, a Grand Army veteran, 82 years of age, was surprised by a visit from his brother Clinton, of Elkhorn, Wis., 77 years of age. The last time they met was during the civil war, when W. E. H. Gaylord was home on a furlough. They drifted apart and thought each other dead. Recently an aged invalid aunt undertook to trace the family history, which resulted in the discovery of the whereabouts of the brothers.

Fired From U. of M.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 26.—Sylvester S. Boulger, senior law of Sault Ste. Marie, has been dropped from college as the result of the investigation of the anti-graft committee. Boulger was the corresponding secretary of the Students' Lecture association, in connection with which the great cry of graft was raised. Boulger will not be allowed to graduate and will probably find it impossible to enter any other American university.

LITERARY NOTES.

Should the readers of a magazine have the opportunity to dissent from or comment on the articles the publication presents? Hitherto, there has been no method of replying to editorial opinions set forth in our monthlies, but Everybody's, with its usual originality, proposes that anyone who does not agree with its contributors' views shall have the opportunity to set them right or approve, as seems proper. In the new department, "Straight Talk," in the June issue of this magazine, a number of readers have taken advantage of this opportunity to criticise Dr. Hillis's conception of a consolidated church; most of the writers frankly disagree with his views.

Fashions, fancywork and fiction are the strong points of The Designer for June. There are all kinds of cool and dainty things in the apparel line, and a special article on "The Shirt-Waist Costume," while aside from the regular "Lesson in Millinery" there are directions for "Making a Raffia Hat." "Pillow Lace, "Bags, Cushion Tops and Buffet Spreads in Cross Stitch," "Stocks and Yokes in Fancy Fagotting," and "Baby Cap and Stock Collar" in tatting comprise the fancywork, and "Mothers' Higher Education," "A Morning Call" and "The Land of Wish-ts-be" supply the fiction.

"The Truce" between man and bear, stopped shoot in their career of hunter and hunted by a common peril which drives all the blood-lust from mind in a joint effort to save life itself is thrillingly described by Chas. G. Roberts in tne June McClure's. Mr. Roberts knows life in the wild in all of its phases and it has most graphic or sympathetic interpreter. As he comments in in this story, "The Wilderness Loves a Master" and he in his mastery of it finds it serving him well as a medium for wonderfully interesting fiction, which is in its final analysis fact with all of its superior strangeness.

When the Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure coughs, and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight health and strength." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Concerning
THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

2 Tim. 4:2 — Col. 1 9:16

XVIII

Thus far we have discussed two of the leading features of the Kingdom of God: BAPTISM, by which we are admitted into the Kingdom;—in Infancy in ordinary course; CONFIRMATION, by which when we are come of age to enter upon the full service of the King we are equipped therefor as with the whole Armor of God—viz., by the Pentecostal gift of the Holy Ghost. We pass on now to the consideration of the third important institution of the Kingdom viz., the HOLY COMMUNION by which those who have entered upon the service of the King are nourished by Him with the Bread of Life. The Emperors of Russia and Japan provide their soldiers with food to sustain them in the war now waging. So our Christ King has provided the Food that is necessary to sustain His soldiers and servants in the warfare of life, viz., in the Holy Communion which He instituted to be the one continued Supper of the Lord.

Like Baptism and Confirmation, the Holy Communion was foreshadowed in the earthly Kingdom of God. You will recall how that the Passover was instituted of God to be the continual memorial of the deliverance of the Chosen People out of Egypt. The rite was first kept on the eve of the departure. So our blessed Lord, on the eve of His departure, instituted the Holy Communion to be the continual memorial of that our deliverance out of Egypt. (For in His departure from Egypt we have our own—cf. Rom. 6:3-5; He but led the way through the Red Sea of Death, in which same path we follow in our Baptism).

The relation of the Holy Communion in the Spiritual Kingdom of God to the Passover rite in the earthly Kingdom was made most clear at the institution. (Luke 22:7-20). Our blessed Lord and His disciples were actually engaged in keeping the Passover. During the progress of the Feast, the Lord indicated changes in the outward ceremonial as would adapt it to the Holy Communion of His Body and Blood. It was as if He said: "Hitherto you have partaken of an earthly typal lamb. I am the Lamb of God (John 1:29, 36; 1 Cor. 5:7 8). Henceforth ye shall partake of Me. And this shall be the manner of the Sacrament." And so He ordained Bread and Wine to be the outward symbols of His Body and Blood.

It should be observed that the Passover was the focal center of the whole sacrificial system of the Jews. The Passover was the sacrifice of their deliverance out of Egypt. It was by the Passover that they were redeemed unto God. The Passover contained in itself the essential features of all other sacrificial rites. These all, so to speak, rest ed ultimately upon the Passover, and must be considered as but the extension of the Passover rite. Thus the Holy Communion in the Spiritual Kingdom of God, being the fulfilment of the Jewish Passover, must be regarded as the fulfilment of the whole sacrificial system of the earthly Kingdom.

A word of caution is necessary with the last statement. It is to be observed that the Jewish Passover consisted of two parts—(1) the slaying of the victim, (2) the eating of the victim slain. Now, obviously, the Holy Communion is the fulfilment of this latter part of the Jewish Passover. The true Lamb of God—Christ our Passover (Lamb)—was offered once for all upon the Cross of Calvary, by which sacrifice of Himself once offered He made a "full, perfect and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world." So far as the act of sacrificial offering is concerned that was completed once for all upon the Cross; so that the offering of the sacrificial victims of old pointed on to the One Offering of Jesus Christ upon the Cross.

But as there was a second part to the Passover of old so there is a second part to the Christian Passover—viz., the partaking of the Victim offered. It is this that is provided for in the Holy Communion. That is to say the Holy Communion is the Sacrificial Feast upon the Lamb of God slain once for all upon the Cross of Calvary. Strictly speaking, as there was only One Offering offered once for all, so there is only one Holy Communion, one Sacrificial Feast upon that One Offering. All our various celebrations of the Lord's Supper are to be considered not as separate Feasts, but as integral parts of that one Sacrificial Feast instituted by our blessed Lord "once for all" on the night in which he was betrayed. There was but One Offering once for all and one Feast for all time. It is in this sense that the Holy Communion is the fulfillment of the whole Sacrificial system of old—by admitting us to the Sacrificial Feast upon the Victim slain, it places us "behind the Blood," beneath the very Cross itself, and brings to us the merit thereof. See Ex. 12:13.

A Continual Strain.

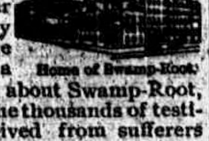
Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 5c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Although The Century for June is a Western number, five Presidents of the United States figure in it: Washington, in Dr. Mitchell's "autobiographical" narrative; Jefferson, in a portrait by Kosciuszko, and an autograph letter, now first published, giving a forecast of the value of the Louisiana Purchase; Lincoln, in an article on his first lawsuit, with autograph documents; Mr. Cleveland, in a short contribution by himself, "A word for Forestry"; and Mr. Roosevelt, in an article by Gifford Pinchot, "The New Hope for the West" in which incidentally the President's record on forestry and irrigation is set forth. For the rest, with two or three exceptions, the contributions are all from beyond the Alleghanies, and every State and Territory is represented, either by the writer or by material of special local interest.

The Metropolitan magazine for June is an especially seasonable number dealing with out door subject. It brings to its readers a taste of ante-vacation pleasure [illegible] of the golden days of leisure in field, on mountain top, upon the sea and along the shore. Pictorially the number is a panorama of people and places, the illustrations show life in its subtlest refinement and at its lowest ebb. It is a delight to the eye and a pleasant stimulant to thought and fancy. The leading story by Anthony Hope tells of an amusing courtship and is written in the author's happiest vein.

Seventeen years ago last fall I was taken sick abed with weakness, and was in bed all winter. Just as soon as I would get up I would faint and fall. Three of the best doctors in our town could not help me; then my husband wrote to that dear old Dr. Pengelly and he sent medicine and advice. The first dose helped me, and in one month I was up doing my work after being sick in bed from the 21st of November until the next May. The medicine he sent me was Zoa Phora, and if it hadn't been for dear old Dr. Pengelly and Zoa Phora, I would not be here to write this."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist whom you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will indorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!
No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1; if the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

☞ We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness. ☜

Preliminary plans are being made for a new electric line between Detroit and Adrian, projected to run through the towns of Taylor Center, Romulus, Belleville, Milan and Tecumseh. The people all through that section are said to be anxious for electric connections with Detroit and the plan is said to be to secure the private right of way from the farmers through whose land the road would run and when this is done sufficient capital is promised to build the road. The distance between the two cities is about 50 miles. The connections at Detroit spoken of are with the Detroit United Woodmere line on Fort street. Belleville men are pushing the matter and Martin S. Stringer of that city has been chosen the chairman of a committee of seven to take up the matter of securing rights of way. Attorney Geo. Wm. Handsome Organ Screen presented to St. Peter's Church.

On Whit-sunday a beautiful organ screen was given to St. Peter's church by several of its communicants, who have gone out from the church to other homes. It is a most exquisite piece of burnt wood, designed and executed by Miss May DeWolfe. In every detail it is churchly and in perfect keeping with its surroundings. It consists of three panels, the center one being the highest and on it is an angel, standing with clasped hands. The two outer ones are decorated with Easter lillies. The panels have been framed to match the organ, in burnt wood, the points of which bear the Greek cross.

Those that have given it with their loving remembrance are, Mrs. Horace Snell and her two daughters, Miss Julia Snell and Mrs. Murrey, Mrs. C. Woodward and her daughters, Edith and Agnes, Mr. Bert Tribou, Mr. Peter Phelps, Mrs. Artimas Rice, Mrs. A. S. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Anderson, Miss Lizzie Hicks and Will Hicks.

"The Taming of the Shrew"

Which was presented at the New Bradley by Chas. B. Hanford and company, was the best play yet seen at the opera house. Mr. Hanford is an artist all by himself and every member of the company was first class. Shakespeare's play "The Taming of the Shrew" is entertaining in every line and being presented by Hanford and his company, made this play in the eyes of the HERALD, the best ever witnessed at the New Bradley. Nothing more can be said as this opinion was unanimous.

DROPPED DEAD

Just after boarding Lake Shore train in Adrian

CARROLL ROBERTS

Died of Heart Disease. He was on his way to Tecumseh.

Wednesday afternoon, Carroll Roberts boarded the Lake Shore east bound train in Adrian for Lenawee Junction, where he intended to change cars for Tecumseh. He was accompanied by Lawyer Fred B. Wood, and Lawyer Weir of Laporte, Ind., Mr. Weir is a cousin of Mr. Robert's and was going on to Toledo.

The three men entered the smoker and just as the train started Mr. Robert's head dropped back, his hands falling into his lap. Two physicians were on the train, who worked over him, but it was of no use. He gasped twice before reaching Lenawee and they continued to work over him until nearly to Toledo, when they gave him up as dead.

Wednesday night about 6:30, Mr. Weir telephoned Mr. Wood that they took him to the home of his son, Lynn, in Toledo with whom Mr. Roberts had been making his home, and that he would be brought here for burial. His death was due to heart disease.

Several years ago Carroll Roberts, who owned a large farm one half mile south of Tipton, was noticed to be acting strangely. He was examined, judged insane, and sent to Kalamazoo. He remained there until last fall, when he escaped and the officers traced him to Laport, Ind., where he was found staying with relatives. Doctors then examined him once more and pronounced him sane.

Since that time he has visited relatives and intended soon to visit another son in Chicago. Friends in and near Tecumseh had urged him to come here for a visit and he decided to accompany Attorney Wood home. Naturally the thoughts of visiting his old home and seeing many old friends, would tend to excite him and he had hurried to catch the train although he did not show any signs of fatigue before getting on the train.

He leaves two children. Lavern Roberts, who resides in Chicago and Lynn, of Toledo, who at one time was proprietor of the Steam laundry here. His wife, who was Julia Miller of Clinton, was killed in a runaway accident [illegible] years ago and his daughter, Adalaide, fell from the second story in the barn on the tines of a pitchfork, one of which pierced her heart, instantly killing her.

Lavern Roberts of Chicago, came here last night and made arrangements to bring his father here this afternoon for burial from Toledo.

This fountain is the newest thing made by Lippincott of Philadelphia and not only a credit to M. E. Bice but to all of Tecumseh. It is placed in front of a mammoth mirror and with the furnishings of the ice cream room makes by a long odds the neatest place of the kind in Tecumseh, and with M. E. Bice's experiences in soda and ice cream, all who patronize the place may expect to be served with the best to be found in the country.

Brower, Grace Sessler, Harry Wells and an exceptionally strong cast, a perfect [illegible] is assured.

Aside from the play proper a number of bright catchy specialties are introduced and includes a lot of singing, dancing and some beautiful illustrated songs rendered by Miss Jansen.

SENSIBLE WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Hyomei medicates air you breathe and kills all catarrhal germs—costs nothing unless it cures.

Do not take medicines into the stomach to kill catarrhal germs in the head and throat. Air alone can reach these germs. Medicated with Hyomei and breathed through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, the air goes to the most remote air cells of the head, throat and lungs, and completely destroys the disease germs. Hyomei is the only sensible, yet scientific way to cure catarrh. Other remedies may fail; Hyomei will cure.

It helps at once, and you get the vitalizing and invigorating effects from the first few breaths of Hyomei. If it should happen that Hyomei did not give you the same good effects that it has in many other cases right here at home, C. A. Wright will refund your money without question or argument. You will be the sole judge as to whether Hyomei costs you a penny or not.

The complete outfit, consisting of a medicine dropper, and inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, and a bottle of Hyomei sells for only one dollar. The inhaler will last a lifetime, and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained, if needed, for fifty cents.

When you get a Hyomei outfit, C. A. Wright will give you a signed receipt, agreeing to refund the money in case it does not cure catarrh and other diseases of the respiratory organs. This is the strongest evidence that he can offer as to his faith in Hyomei—to pay for it himself in case it does not cure.

FLAG WITH A HISTORY

Plays Important Part in Pingree Monument Unveiling.

PRESENT TO CITY OF DETROIT

From Crew of U. S. Cruiser "Detroit"—Brought About by Energetic Efforts of Late Governor—Used Only On Rare Occasions.

Detroit, Mich., May 28.—In a corner of Grand Circus park, facing Woodward avenue, the most conspicuous spot in all Detroit for a monument, on next Monday afternoon, Memorial day, will be unveiled a beautiful monument in bronze of Governor Hazen S. Pingree.

Before the monument is unveiled a large silk American flag, with a history, will drape the statue of the late governor, and to this beautiful emblem his name is linked in a significant way.

It was back [illegible] when [illegible] was mayor of the city of Detroit, that he suggested "the purchase of a suitable memento to be presented to the United States cruiser Detroit, in recognition of the compliment paid to this municipality by the United States government, in selecting its name for one of the finest warships of our reconstructed navy."

As in the case of many other of his suggestions, Mayor Pingree's proposition for this gift was opposed by some, but, characteristic of the man, he determined to carry out his plan, in spite of opposition, and, in his own language, "even if I have to go down in my pockets and purchase a gift myself, the boys shall have it."

When it developed that the determination of the mayor could not be checked by opposition, the city fathers fell into line with his idea and a special committee, composed of Mayor Pingree as chairman, City Controller Peter Rush and James Lennane, was directed to purchase a memento. As a result a center piece was made which required more than a year's labor in its manufacture. The work was done by the best "chaser" of figure work in the country, and all by hand. A very handsome shield, showing the coat of arms of the city of Detroit, as well as the coat of arms of the state of Michigan, together with a waiter, which presents a mirror-like surface of polished silver, on which is engraved a scene representing the river front of the city of Detroit, was bought. The cost of this unique piece of silverware with all decorations, was $3,500.

A Return Gift.

In return for this generous gift made by the city of Detroit to the cruiser, the crew of the Detroit, by a voluntary levy upon their own resources, purchased a silk flag, which they had manufactured in China. The flag was presented to the city of Detroit with appropriate ceremony and due acknowledgment was made to the donors.

It was through the instrumentality of the late governor that Detroit secured the flag, and now it seems altogether fitting that when, for the first time the flag has left the city hall, it should be used to wrap the statue of the man through whose efforts it was secured. The flag has only been used a few times and then on very special occasions. It hung at half-mast with the Union Jack, from the city hall flag staff when Governor Pingree passed away. It also hung at half-mast when the tragic death of the late President McKinley plunged the nation into mourning. It was next used to celebrate the arrival of President Roosevelt in Detroit two years ago this summer.

The flag is kept in a camphor-wood box in the vault of the city controller's office. It is 34x22 feet in size.

BLAZE IN BAY CITY

NELSON, MORRIS & CO.'S SALT PLANT DESTROYED BY FIRE.

ISOLATION OF THE INSTITUTION HANDICAPPED FIREMEN.

ESTIMATED LOSS WILL PROBABLY TOTAL $100,000.

Bay City, Mich., May 30.—The Michigan Manufacturing Co.'s plant local branch of the packing firm of Nelson, Morris Co., Chicago, located on the middle ground, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday, entailing a loss of probably $100,000.

The fire was first discovered in the center of three large buildings and spread rapidly. An alarm was sent in to the fire department, but the isolation of the plant prevented the firemen from doing [illegible] the property. Two [illegible]ed on the buildings, but a strong breeze fanned the flames and by 5:30 o'clock they had eaten their way through the structures and left nothing but smoldering debris.

This was one of the best producing institutions of the kind in the valley. It was erected a few years ago to supply Nelson, Morris & Co. with salt for their Chicago packing house. The equipment in the way of machinery was of the very best. For a month the plant had been shut down and the origin of the fire is a mystery. Three heavy explosions were heard during the conflagration but the cause has not been learned. It is understood the loss is partially covered by insurance in Chicago agencies.

Owosso, Mich., May 30.—For the first time since her trial began Mrs Caroline Collins Sunday refused to see visitors at the county jail in Corunna. Usually she is very affable and talks freely to all who come. Yesterday she remained in the privacy of her cell, telling the officers that she was very tired. Her appearance bore out her statement, for her face was drawn and pale and there were dark circles beneath her eyes. She had two visitors—her mother, Mrs. Alcott, who called twice and was evidently quite concerned about her daughter's condition, and another woman, unknown to the officers, who presented Mrs. Collins with a big bouquet of lilacs.

A point heretofore overlooked by the newspapers, but which Prosecutor Chapman has persistently attempted to bring out in his examination of witnesses who were acquainted with Leachman, is that in relation to the hired man's penurious disposition. A dozen people have sworn that Leachman was very close in financial matters, saving his money carefully and having little in the way of personal property beyond a bicycle, yet when his belongings were searched after death the man was found to have but 2 cents. Naturally the prosecution will ask the jury how these facts may be reconciled. At one time, it is said, Leachman owned a farm but sold it, and what became of the money is also a mystery.

DAY SAVED BY SQUADRON

JAPANESE CAME NEAR BEING DEFEATED AT KIN CHOU.

CHARGED UP NANSHAN HILL NINE TIMES.

VICTORY COST BROWN MEN 3,500 KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Tokio, May 30.—The details of the fighting at Kin Chou emphasi[illegible]roic tenacity of the Japanese in their conduct at Nanshan hill.

Nine successive times the Japanese charged the fortified heights in the face of a storm of death-dealing missiles, and in their last effort they carried the forts and trenches only after a bayonet conflict with the Russians, who made a desperate, despairing struggle to beat back the on-coming hordes.

The final assault of the Japanese, in which they at last succeeded in taking possession, was marked by the most desperate hand-to-hand encounter that has thus far characterized the war.

The Japanese left, throughout the entire action until night, was exposed to an enfilading fire from the Russian infantry, a gunboat on Talienwan bay and four nine-centimetre guns posted at Tafengchen.

At a critical moment the ammunition of the artillery ran low and it was decided to cast the remaining ammunition into one final desperate assault.

Fortunately, however, at the moment this decision was reached the Japanese squadron in Kin Chou bay, which had ceased bombarding when the infantry had first moved forward, suddenly resumed the shelling of Nanshan hill.

Decisive Moment.

Then it was that the issues of the day were determined—at a moment when the outcome was fluttering between success and defeat for Japan—at that moment was an almost certain repulse converted into victory so successful that the forces of the czar were swept into confusion and disorderly retreat. With every Japanese gun centering its fire upon the Nanshan forts and trenches, the Japanese infantry sprang over the bodies of the dead comrades who had sacrificed their lives in the previous fruitless charges. The entire line rushed forward toward the Russian left, where the fire of the Japanese squadron had proved most deadly and which was the first to weaken under the death-dealing bombardment. And it was there that the first breach was made in the human stone wall that all day had been an invincible barrier to the impetuous assaults of the brown men.

It was the fourth division of the Osaka men that stormed the Russian left. It had once been said that Osaka men were not brave. It will never be said again.

Bloodsodden Nanshan.

The first division of Tokio, which had the center, and the third division of Nagoya, occupying the left and which had been exposed all day to the Russian fire against the front flank, now followed the example of the Osaka men and rushed forward, and the battle became transformed from an artillery duel into one of personal conflict, with the bayonet as the instrument of warfare. On every parapet the restless, death-defying Japanese surged forward in increasing numbers and, hustling the Russians from their intrenchments, swept over the hill. At 7:30 o'clock, as the sun was sinking beneath the horizon, the flag of the land of the Rising Sun floated above the bloodsodden Nanshan hill, while the shouts of "Banzai" swelled from hill to hill and re-echoed from squadron to fort.

The Japanese paid for their victory in 3,500 killed and wounded. To the Russians the humiliation of defeat was intensified by the loss of sixty-eight cannon and ten machine guns, while lying dead in the forts and trenches were 500 men, the victims of the accuracy of Japanese long-distance marksmanship and of close-range fighting. General Oku was in command of the Japanese.

NO RUSSIAN REPORTS

Sent to St. Petersburg of Battle at Kin Chou.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—Intense interest is displayed in the Japanese reports of the Kin Chou battle. The people in the streets almost mob newsboys to secure extras containing the dispatches. Crowds stood around the official bulletin boards awaiting the Russian versions, but none arrived. The official world, as well as the public, is entirely dependent upon the Japanese for news. Further details are eagerly looked for, especially regarding losses.

The prevailing conviction here is that the Japanese must have carried Nanshan at tremendous sacrifice. The accounts of the heroically stubborn [illegible] by the Russians, notwithstanding their position, subjected to the fire of artillery from the front and from warships on the flank are a source of [illegible]satisfaction. Their own reports, the Russians say, could not have placed the fighting qualities of their soldiers in a better light than do those of the Japanese.

Both the admiralty and the war office are without news and frankly confess they do not expect to hear from the beleagured garrison in Port Arthur again directly except by accident until the fortress has been relieved or surrendered or the war ended. Some native reports that drifted into headquarters at Liao Yang and were forwarded here say that the Japanese lost many thousands.

The impression in army circles that the Japanese will press operations against Port Arthur with the greatest energy, but it is also believed a month or more will be required to bring up siege guns.

DALNY EVACUATED.

Troops, Ammunition and Valuables Taken to Port Arthur.

Chefoo, May 30.—Dalny has been practically evacuated, according to the statements of Sikh and Russian refugees just arriving here by junk. All valuables, ammunition and most of the troops have been taken to Port Arthur. The only civilians remaining are the electrical engineers in charge of the mines laid in the harbor, and also those set to destroy docks and piers. One large Russian warship, probably the armored cruiser Bayan, and three torpedo boats reached Talienwan bay on Tuesday, the 24th inst., from Port Arthur, and it was doubtless this vessel which attacked the Japanese left wing during the battle at Kin Chou on the 26th inst. The junks just arrived here, on their way down passed fourteen Japanese war vessels nine miles outside of Dalny, so that the Bayan will likely be captured.

The United States gunboat Frolic, now here, will go to New Chwang in case that town is evacuated by the Russians.

Tokio, May 30.—Certain Russian correspondence, which has been intercepted by the Japanese at the blockade of Port Arthur, gives the information that some Russian torpedo boat destroyers have been sunk by mines outside of Port Arthur, as well as details of the placing by the Russians of the mines which effected the destruction of the Japanese battleship Hatsuse on May 15.

The sixth Japanese squadron, which was blockading Port Arthur, overhauled and searched a junk and seized a number of letters written by Russian officers. One letter said that a torpedo boat destroyer had successfully placed a series of mines during the night which preceded the loss of the Hatsuse, and continuing, tells of the loss of some Russian torpedo boat destroyers. How many is not mentioned, but it is indicated that there were at least two.

DOES NO HARM.

Prominent Detroit Judge Believes In Taking Glass of Beer.

Detroit, Mich., May 30.—In addressing the business men's class of the Martha Holmes M. E. church, Judge Alfred J. Murphy, one of the city's most prominent judicial officials, rather startled his hearers in the attitude relative to the temperance question.

"I do not believe a man is doing any wrong," said the judge, "if he walks into a well-regulated saloon and takes a glass of beer, walks out and behaves himself. The saloon is all right, if conducted under proper regulations. It needs to be regulated, that's all. You can't legislate the appetites out of men. You wouldn't prevent crime if you had prohibition. You didn't prevent it when you had it.

"'Drunks' are not on the increase in this city. There are not so many drunken men on the streets now as there were when I was a boy. It is a very uncommon thing to see a woman drunk on the st[illegible]."

Superintendent of Police John J. Downey expressed his hearty approval of Judge Murphy's statements and declared [illegible] are not nearly as many 'public drunks' in the city today as there were fifty years ago, despite the increase in population." The superintendent said Detroit was not troubled to any alarming extent with the "drink evil" and was not as bad off as some places in Maine, where a prohibition law is in operation.

Balzac's Impecuniosity.

Of Balzac it is stated that whenever he was hard at work he went to roost "like the fowls," as he himself put it, at 7 in the evening. He was called at 1 in the morning and wrote till 8; then took another hour and a half of sleep; then after a light meal went to work again until 4 in the afternoon; then he took a bath, saw a few friends, took perhaps a short walk and immediately after dinner went off to bed.

"I shall be compelled," he wrote, "to lead this nigger's life for a few months without stopping in order not to be swamped by those terrible bills that are due." And yet he was always hard up for money.

CHURCH AND STATE

May Be Separated In the French Republic.

Paris, May 30.—Premier Combes' announcement that the question of the separation of church and state would come up in January has drawn attention to the law formulated by the committee on the separation of church and state. It is a sweeping measure, the opening clauses reading as follows:

"The republic assures freedom of conscience, and it guarantees the free exercise of religion without restriction, except for the preservation of public order.

"The republic will neither protect nor pay salaries nor subventions under any form whatever to any denomination. It will not recognize any minister of religion, and will not furnish any building for the services of any denomination or for the lodging of any of its ministers."

The measure further abolishes the concordat, suppresses the French embassy at the Vatican, and makes detailed provision for the disposal of the government's extensive possession of church property.

In comparison with the present regime, under which the clergy are salaried officials and the minister of public worship is one of the members of the cabinet, the foregoing makes a striking change in long established social conditions.

JURY DISAGREED.

No Verdict Reached In Gillespie Murder Trial.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 30.—After deliberating forty-two hours without coming to an agreement, Judge Downey asked them whether there was any probability of agreeing on a verdict, and every one of the twelve men shook his head in the negative. Judge Downey then thanked them and dismissed them from further service.

Prosecutor McMullen said that the state would oppose any effort on the part of the defense to release James Gillespie and stated that the case would come up again next September.

At the present time the four defendants are in the same position as they were before the trial began, as the bonds of those released from custody are continuous.

Whether or not the defense will elect to be tried separately or jointly, as on this trial, the future will determine.

It is said that a motion will be made before Judge Downey to release James Gillespie from custody and declare him acquitted. In the event that this motion is overruled, the defense will ask that James Gillespie be admitted to bail along with the other three defendants. Should the writ of habeas corpus be denied by Judge Downey the matter will be taken to the supreme court of the state.

A Bold Holdup.

Within my time in Texas (and I am not such an old man either) two stagecoaches containing about twenty-three passengers were stopped and all the valuables of the passengers taken by one man. The robber made them all stand in a row and "hand over." The route was only traveled by one coach, but on account of the large number of passengers an additional coach was put on that day. The robber stopped the first coach and made the passengers get out. When the passengers in the first coach were lined up the second coach made its appearance. He made them get out and then told them he didn't expect two coaches. That was nerve. A Jew insisted on retaining enough of his money to get his dinner. The robber took all and then gave him back 50 cents, and the Jew got into an argument with him as to the amount being sufficient to get a meal. That was check. The robber went off with all the money of the twenty-three passengers, and yet there were many brave men in that caravan, but discretion was the better part of valor. The robber had two pistols out and ready. A shot from one of the twenty-three would have caused the robber to shoot, and several would have been killed. That's the only way they looked at it.—Forest and Stream.

Pulse Beats.

The rate of the pulse in males at different ages is as follows: At birth, 136 beats per minute; at 5 years, 83 beats per minute; between 10-15 years, 78 beats per minute; between 15-20 years, 60.5 beats per minute; between 20-25 years, 60.7 beats per minute; between 25-30 years, 71 beats per minute; between 30-50 years, 70 beats per minute.

In females the rate is from 1 to 4.5 beats faster per minute.

Slow walking raises the pulse from 10 to 20 beats, while rapid running may raise it to 140. This rise may last from half an hour to an hour.

Eating raises the pulse from 8 to 20 beats; without wine, 13.1; with wine, 17.5. In the morning the pulse is 10 beats higher than at night. When the barometer rises 5 inches the pulse increases 1.3 per minute. If the pulse be 66.6 while lying down it will be 70 when sitting and 78.9 when standing.

Perfect Respiration.

For perfect respiration two things are necessary—chest capacity and breath control. The average individual, woman especially, uses [illegible] portion of the lungs and upper chest in ordinary breathing. Whenever a little unusual physical effort makes demand for an extra breathing capacity, note how she puffs and pants, almost to a point of gas[illegible]. The reason for this is that the [illegible] lower chest, waist and abdomen have become well nigh atrophied through neglect [illegible]. They are stiff and unresponsive [illegible] have now to be coaxed back to a condition of activity and obedience.

It is quite as possible to educate these muscles so that they shall respond to our slightest demand as it is that our hands are trained to do our bidding. Different teachers will advocate different forms of breathing—upper chest, side chest, lower chest and abnormal breathing—but what we most want is absolute control, such control of the muscles as shall enable us to make use of any desired form of breathing at the word of command, for all forms have special values. Full upper chest breathing is used most, but lower chest and abdominal breathing are very valuable in cases of nervousness, indigestion, stomach and bowel troubles.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Straightway she rose from her repose and from the house on fire. She didn't wait to use her hose but water plenty was used by her, and no great damage done.—Adrian Press.

The next morning at four o,clock the discovery that a horse and harness belonging to Mr. Loomey had been stolen and a rubber tire buggy belonging to a brother was also missing. The trail was followed to the corner of Division and Meridan streets near the Keller blacksmith shop, where it could no longer be traced. The officers of Hillsdale were notified and Sheriff O'Mealy reached the Loomey place at soon as possible but up to this time there is no trace of the thieves.—Hudson Post.

Have you ever noticed when you meet a doctor he says: 'How are you?' A newspaper man inquires: 'What do you know?' The lawyer slaps you on the back and ejaculates: 'What have you got?' The preacher asks: 'Where are you going?' Which is the hardest of all to answer.—Ex.

Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight health and strength." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Mrs. Paul Burns, Parshallville, Mich., writes: "I want all my friends to know the great good Zoa Phora has done for me. I suffered for months with nervous prostration, sick headache and kidney and bladder trouble. After holding consultation, four doctors said I could not live without an operation, and I was too weak to have one. Bunches formed in my bowels and I became so sore that I lost the use of my limbs. The doctor called the bunches tumors. He said that I also had a floating kidney, and would not be any better until I had it sewed in place. After using one bottle of Zoa Phora, I could stand on my feet, and after taking three bottles I could walk around the room, and after the fourth bottle I was able to walk out-of-doors."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by

DECORATION DAY

On account of the

SEVERE RAIN

Which continued all day, there was no celebration in Tecumseh,

Although there was no elaborate program arranged for Decoration day, but what was arranged was entirely spoiled by the rain. Rev. Sedweek held a memorial service at the M. E. church and delivered an address to about 50 people.

About three o'clock members of the G. A. R. decorated the graves, but both flowers and people were very scarce and it might be said that Decoration day in Tecumseh was an utter failure, all on account of the rain.

Detroit Southern bondholders agree to refunding.

Falling off in Coal business caused a Default in Interest.

New York, [illegible] 27.—Formal announcement was made to-day that the Detroit Southern railroad will be unable to meet the interest due on June 1st, on the company's 50-year first mortgage 4 per cent. bonds.

A letter from president Hunt to the bondholders sets forth the reasons for the inability to meet the interest saying that business in general in the road's territory has fallen [illegible] especially the coal business. Mr. Hunt says that a considerable [illegible] work is necessary to put the property in shape to permanently reduce the ratio of operating expenses and enable the company to do a large volume of low grade business at a profit. The board of directors recommends to the bondholders that they fund five coupons into a ten-year funded coupon bond. This new bond is to be secured by the coupons and bears 5 per cent. interest from the first of June next on the funded amount and is redeemable at the option of the railroad company at any time before maturity upon payment of the principal sum at the rate of 105 and accrued interest. Mr. Hunt's letter also announces that the management expects to dispose of sufficient treasury stock in order to make necessary betterments, develope terminals and to pay car trust bonds.

The Detroit Southern main line extends from Detroit to Ironton, O. Including branches, the company has a total trackage of 553 miles. There are $3,866,000 of its first mortgage 4 per cent bonds outstanding.—Detroit Free Press.

Several visit Detroit to take the Mystic Shrine Degree.

A number of Masons went to Detroit Friday over the Detroit Southern, where they joined the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, this being the largest class ever initiated in this order. The unusual size of the class was due to the approach of the national reunion at Atlantic City July 16. Lenawee county sent a delegation of 75, the largest number from any county represented. After the work a banquet was tendered the visitors, Chas. Beck acting as toast master and speeches were made by officers of the class.

Those who took the degree from Tecumseh were L. C. Hayden, P. H. Arnold, James Lowry, Dr. O. Q. Jones, B. P. Anderson, Dr. Jones Jr., J. H. Smith, A. C. Aylesworth, John F. Hicks, Will Barrett, W. C. Meyers, Raynor Brewer, and Bert Mize. Others who attended were Fred Wood, B. J. Garlinghouse, R. A. Heesen and C. A. Wright.

LITERARY NOTES.

John Denison opens the June Atlantic with a discussion of the Great Delusion of our Time,—namely, the belief that the world is organized upon the basis of pure physical force. Against the dominance of this "tooth-and-nail" doctrine Dr. Denison enters a brilliant and witty protest.

Ray Morris treats Trolley Competition with Railroads,—analyzing the opportunities and problems of the interurban electric system in its competition with the steam railroads.

Clinton Dangerfield is probably a pseudonym, but it stands in any case for stories of an odd turn that set you thinking and yet please and entertain. In Lippincott's for June this author has a tale called "A Corner in Troubles" wherein Wise & Co. deal in that abundant commodity, and after buying up all in sight are mobbed by disappointed customers who want back their trials.

PIONEER PICNIC

To be held in Tecumseh

THURSDAY, JUNE 2,

In Monument Square. A good program has been prepared. Coffee will be served.

It is to be hoped there will be a good turn out at the pioneer picnic. Every one in the vicinity or who has ever made this their home is especially invited. Eighty years ago this month Lenawee county had not a single white habitation in its limits. Let us gather for an old fashioned picnic dinner in memory of the advent of that little band of brave pioneers who "builded better than they knew." With a French guide and pony they followed an old Indian trail from Detroit till they reached that favored spot where Evans creek unites with the river Raisin and where now stands the most beautiful village in this part of the state. We owe our present favorable location, our water power, our possibilities for the future to their wise selection of this spot for a home.

Let us honor this memory with a recital of their adventures and trials, and renew the memories of those almost forgotten fears until every school child Tecumseh born shall be familliar with the history of his own town. It is the wish of the committee having the matter in charge that a pioneer society may be formed, which shall meet each year on the 2nd of June and keep alive an interest in the history of the early time. Any one native of the town or having a twenty year residence here shall be eligible to membership. Contributions to the exhibit of ancient relics are requested. Any article possessing the merit of age, whether it is an agricultural implement, a kitchen utensil or the product of some of the old hand looms will be joyfully welcomed, cared for and returned to its owner in safety. All such articles should be labeled with date and owner's name.

Let us make this an ample and interesting feature of the celebration of our eightieth birthday.

Mrs. Abbie Jane Collins.

Mrs. Abbie Jane Collins, the wife of Albert Collins of Macon, died at her home in Macon Friday, May 20, 1904. Mrs. Collins was born Aug. 15, 1846, in Saline township and has always lived in this vicinity. She was united in marriage Jan. 9, 18[illegible], to Albert Collins and united with the Macon Reformed church April [illegible]

On confession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, she at once became interested and helpful in all christian work. Her sunny disposition endeared her to all, so that her life was a blessing to all good people. She was honored and respected by a large circle of friends and relatives for her bright, cheerful ways, her smiling countenance and the generous hospitality of her heart and hand and home.

Mrs. Collins was a very useful member of the church identifying herself in every good work and lending a hand wherever she found opportunity. She was an active and enthusiastic member of the ladies' aid society, an organization that has been instrumental in doing very much for the welfare and prosperity of the church. She was faithful in her attendance upon the ordinance of God's Temple and greatly enjoyed the Communion of saints.

We shall miss her very much for she was a friend in deed and in truth. We sympathize with the aged mother, who survives her with the sister and brother, who will live among us. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband thus suddenly deprived of a loving, faithful and devoted help-mate.

But while we mourn their and our loss, we feel sure the transition from earth to heaven in her eternal gain, where she now is waiting for her loved ones to join her and we hope and pray that every one of her family, relatives and friends will one day greet her in that beautiful home not made with hands.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to return my heartfelt thanks to the many relatives, neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted me during the sickness and death of my beloved wife. ALBERT COLLINS.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. BURGLARS

Visit Britton Sunday night.

ZELUFF & HAIGHT

Are the only ones who lose.

Britton was visited by burglars Sunday night. Two stores, the general store belonging to Mr. Zeluff, was entered and shirts, overalls, shoes and tobacco were taken, amounting in all to $10. The hardware store of James Haight was broken into, $1.00 in money taken and a few jack knives and razors.

Deputy Sherriff Britton is working on the case and can find no clue, but it is thought that it was the work of hoboes.

Mrs. Robert Boyd.

Died in Raisin, May 19, 1904. Mary Jane Preston, wife of the late Robert Boyd, was born in Ireland, county Antrem and died at the age of 73. In the long and eventful experience of the life of her of whom we speak, there were ever shown marks of generous hospitality and kindness, ever kind and gentle in her nature. She was always ready to bestow sympathy and assistance as far as possible.

Her husband preceeded her to the better land about three years ago. From that time her life was a lonely one, but the bright hope which she had so long cherished of salvation in Christ supported and cheered her, ever pointing [illegible] that reunion which she would have in the eternal world. With the dear ones gone before [illegible] children, dear to her are there and she waited calmy for the day to come to join them in [illegible] land. Her two sons, William J. and Frank, are left to mourn the loss of a kind mother.

The funeral was held at her home on Sunday afternoon conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sedweek.

Farewell dear mother sweet
Thy rest, weary with years and Worn with pain.
Farewell till in some happy
Place we shall behold thy Face again.
'Tis ours to miss thee all our
Years and tender memories of thee keep,
Thine in the Lord to rest for so
He giveth his beloved sleep.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors, also the choir, who so kindly assisted us at the death and burial of our mother.

GIVEN TO THE SICK ON TRIAL

C. A. Wright's generous offer—Hyomei treatment costs nothing unless it cures catarrh.

Many who are in need of Hyomei, the treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing, have not yet realized its wonderful healing powers. He wants everyone who is troubled with catarrh or catarrhal colds, to get a Hyomei outfit from him with the understanding that it is absolutely free unless it cures catarrh and frees the system from germs of grippe and influenza.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show by its exhilarating and vitalizing effects, that it is doing good. Use it for a full month entirely at C. A. Wright's risk. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say that Hyomei has not helped you he will return your money without question or argument.

The complete Hyomei treatment costs but one dollar, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a life time and if one bottle does not cure, extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh and the only one where you can obtain a month's treatment from your local druggist that costs nothing if it fails to cure.

Try Hyomei for a month. It cannot harm you, as it is purely vegetable and cures catarrh without any stomach dosing. If it fails, the loss falls entirely upon C. A. Wright.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy life would be."

Many a forlorn maid has said this as she looked into the mirror. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which woman would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

for young girls on the threshold of womanhood is invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, obstructed periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need a tonic, building up and their blood cleansed.

Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties and as a regulator of the menstrual flows. Painful, obstructed and suppressed menstruation is permanently relieved and all diseases peculiar to her genital organs are cured by it.

Regulator clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes muddy and blotched conditions of the skin and cures sick headache at once.

When well-known Tecumseh people tell it so plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Tecumseh the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

George Merritt, the well known proprietor of the cigar manufactory, says: "I can testify to the honesty and worth of Doan's Kidney Pills. There is no humbug about them. I was annoyed for some time with a dull aching pain in my back at times quite severe. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and after taking them a short time I found they were helping me. Finally the pain in my back disappeared entirely. Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy for all kidney ailments."

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness Is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibres, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE.

Flames Destroy Several Piers in Jersey City.

New York, May 30.—Seven freight and coal piers of the Deleware, Lackawana & Western railroad in Jersey City were destroyed by fire that started about five o'clock Sunday afternoon in pier 12, on which a number of barrels of oil were stored. The flames spread rapidly. Pier 12 was 800 feet long and was soon ablaze its entire length and the firemen who were trying to fight the fire from the shore were unable to accomplish but little.

The flames swept across to pier 11 and beyond, being finally checked at pier 5 which is a new coal trestle, steel framed and iron clad. Here the firemen and fire boats made a desperate stand and stayed the advance of the fire until the burning piers crumbled and fell into the water.

A number of canal boats and several tugs were burned, the loss of small boats being variously estimated at from 30 to 200.

Piers 11 and 12 were full of general merchandise; piers 7, 8, 9 and 10 were used for coal and pier 6 was a grain loading pier.

The loss is estimated at $5,000,000.

A SLOWING DOWN

Noted in Many Leading Industries, Says Bra[illegible]

New York, May 28.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: [illegible]ation is rather more irregular. Distributive trade, stimulated by better weather in some sections, has improved but is still behind a year ago. Cereal crops, particularly winter wheat, show improvement, but cotton reflects drought by conditions in the South Atlantic and Gulf states, while good reports come from west of the Mississippi. The industrial situation is hardly so satisfactory, a slowing down being noted in many leading industries; the number of idle persons is growing, and unskilled labor shows in some sections a woeful lack of foresight and knowledge of real conditions. Current railway earnings continue to show declines from a year ago.

Detailed telegrams from western markets show a livening up of distributive trade. Better weather is stimulating retail demand at the south, but in the northwest rains at some markets have been unfavorable to current distribution.

GOVERNMENT UPHELD.

French Deputies Approve Recall of Vatican Ambassador Nisard.

Paris, May 28.—After an exciting debate, in which Premier Combes and Foreign Minister Delcasse set forth the action and purposes of the government towards the Vatican, the chamber of deputies, by an overwhelming vote, approved the course of the government in recalling M. Nisard to the Vatican and rejected all propositions of the extreme element for an immediate dissolution of relations between church and state. The vote approving the action of the government was 427 to 95.

A resolution proposed by M. Ferrette, Republican nationalist, inviting the government to negotiate with Pope Pius for a separation of church and state, was defeated by 507 to 18. A motion by M. Allard, socialist, to break off all relations with the Vatican and denounce the concordat was [illegible]16.

Premier Combes took the initiative in resisting all efforts to force the government to extreme action.

"This recall," said Premier Combes, "signifies that we cannot allow the holy see to interpret the presence of our ambassador in Rome in a sense favorable to its claims or to make use of his presence to justify pretentions which we reject. It also means that we will not allow the papacy to intermeddle in our international relations, and that we intend to have done once for all with the superannuated fiction of temporal power, which disappeared thirty-four years ago. We cannot suppress the embassy and the concordat by our own authority, for that role belongs to the chambers."

AN ULTIMATUM.

Captains of Masters and Pilots' Association Will Not Be Employed.

Cleveland, May 30.—William Livingstone, president of the Lake Carriers' association, has given out the following statement:

"The Masters and Pilots' association, having resorted to blacklisting, expulsion and heavy fines in endeavoring to intimidate and prevent licensed officers from manning vessels, the executive committee have decided that to protect the men now at work and to settle positively this question, the management of vessel property, that no captain will be employed who retains his membership in the Masters and Pilots' association."

WAS SHE MURDERED?

Mrs. Galvin French Burned In Her Little Cabin.

A MYSTERY AT STITTVILLE

Bones of Her Body Found Remote From Her Bedroom—Tell-Tale Gas Pipe—Had Much Money and Jewelry but None Found.

Stittville, Mich., June 1.—When the little log cabin of Mrs. Galvin French, two miles from here, was destroyed by fire she and her faithful dog perished in the flames. At least that was the supposition at the time, but the few charred bones that remain were found in the cellar at a point remote from her sleeping room and the opinion is now held that she was murdered and her body dragged to the cellar. What strengthens this theory is the fact that Mrs. French was known to have considerable money and jewelry, none of which has been found in the ruins.

Mrs. French, who was about 55 years old, was called very eccentric. She had relatives living in this village, but she preferred to live alone in her little cabin rather than live in comfort with any of them. A piece of gas pipe was found lying across the charred frame of the bed in which she usually slept, and it is thought she was killed and robbed and the house fired to hide the crime. The officers are at work on the case but there is little ground for them to begin on.

Ray Manistee, steam valve; James Richards, Grand Rapids, knock-down sectional bookcase; William A. Stewart, Detroit, wrench; Alfred H. Tacker, White Rock, fire box.

To Search For an Island.

Washington, June 2.—On her return trip from Honolulu the cruiser Denver will search for "lost island of the Pacific." This island is supposed to be somewhere between Honolulu and California bay. It appears on the old Spanish maps, but on American maps it is put down as doubtful. It has long been a theory that the American sloop of war Levant, which disappeared in 1859, on its way to Panama and was never heard of again, was wrecked off this island. American men-of-war have been in search of the island before, but no trace of it has been found. Its supposed location is in an unfrequented part of the Pacific off the line of travel.

Soldier Murdered.

Burlington, Vt., June 2.—What is believed to have been a murder was revealed last night at Fort Ethen Alen when the mutilated body of a soldier was found on the rifle range near the targets. The body had been cut in two at the waist. The man had evidently been dead for several days. The officers at the fort refused to discuss the case and even declined to give out the name of the dead soldier. Three murders have been committed here within three weeks, a soldier from the fort having been mixed up in the affair in each case.

Detroit, Mich., June 2.—Harmony, not acrimony, was the keynote of the Democratic state convention, held in Light Guard armory Wednesday. In several instances Hearst men acquiesced in the anti-Hearst program. Speeches were made in loud voices and enthusiastically applauded, about the Democrats getting out of "the wilderness of party strife." Resolutions, couched in unequivocal language, demanded real primary election reform.

Representative men of standing from all parts of the state participated in the proceedings, and the day closed with mutual congratulations and the expressed belief that the party was once more united.

Thomas E. Barkworth was given a rousing reception as he marched down the aisle, followed by the other members of the state central committee and took his seat on the platform. Every seat on the floor was occupied, but the balcony was rather empty at the forenoon session.

It seemed as though all the big leaders of the party had made it a matter of personal duty to attend this convention. There were gold Democrats, Bryan Democrats, lukewarm Democrats, populistic Democrats and all kinds of Democrats, and everybody seemed bent on making it harmonious in all that the term implies.

Rev. Spencer B. Meeser of the Woodward Avenue Baptist church invoked divine blessing. Then came forward Mr. Barkworth with a ringing address to the delegates, urging the party to tie to the principle of accretion rather than substitution, which, he said, was the only key to success next fall. This sally was received with applause. He said no man who cannot find a place in the Democratic party and stand upon the platform which will be adopted at St. Louis can be called a good Democrat.

"There is room for conservatives and room for radicals," said he. "Let us be conservative towards each other and radical towards the common enemy."

The Preliminaries.

The anti-Hearst men won the preliminary encounters yesterday and seem surely in control. The fight for temporary chairman was settled in favor of Lawton T. Hemans of Mason who won by a big majority in the state central committee, over Frank L. Fowler of Manistee. Fowler was a candidate of the Hearst people.

The Hearst-for-president men did not redeem their [illegible] that they would control seven of the twelve congressional districts in caucus, but they put up enough of a fight and got enough delegates on the slate which was to go before the convention for [illegible] to make the promise for the convention session one of a decidedly bellicose color. As nearly as could be ascertained after the district caucuses were over the Hearst men had eight or nine delegates in the bunch which will do business as district delegates from Michigan at the St. Louis convention. The antis landed fifteen or sixteen. The committee on credentials stood in about the same proportion of two to one, so that the hope for a Hearst indorsement dwindled as soon as the results of the caucuses became known.

Hearst controlled scarcely one-third of the total vote of the convention, the first straw on the seating of the contesting delegation from Manistee showing 517 for the anti-Hearst element to 200 for.

Every Hearst candidate for delegate-at-large was voted down, and no candidate for the honor was successful without the Campau O. K. and the unbroken 110 votes of Wayne.

Afternoon Session.

Chairman Hemans did not call the afternoon session to order until nearly 4 o'clock, the committee on credentials having gotten into a wrangle over the contest in Manistee county, which was the chief thorn in the side of the state central committee the day before. Even at that late hour the committee was not ready and did not finally report until nearly 5 o'clock. In the meantime the convention beguiled the time away listening to orators.

The first vote of the convention occurred over the report of the credentials committee admitting the regularly elected delegation from Manistee county.

As soon as the permanent organization took charge the greatest event of the day took place. Thomas E. Barkworth got the floor and said:

"Mr. Chairman, I move that the secretary of this convention cast the vote of the entire delegations present for Daniel J. Campau for Michigan's member of the national Democratic committee."

Bedlam was let loose. The delegates clapped their hands, stamped their feet, cheered, got up from their seats and shouted until they were tired and the convention was completely off its feet for a long time. The motion was carried.

"Come up here, Mr. Campau," yelled the chairman, "you're wanted."

To make it all the more unanimous and to prove that harmony was bound to prevail Willis Abbott, a personal friend of Hearst, seconded the motion, with Lewis G. Stevenson applauding.

Applause For Campau.

The idol of the hour mounted the platform and Bedlam again let loose its inmates. When quiet was restored Mr. Campau said:

"I return my hearty thanks for this kind reception and I wish to say that at any and all times, whether I serve in the ranks or in an official capacity, my efforts are at the service of the Democratic party. Every Democrat, I know, will accept the action of this convention."

But there were more honors in store for Campau. James McNamara of the Wayne delegation eloquently nominated him as the first delegate at large, and the secretary was immediately instructed to get busy and write out a ballot in behalf of the rest of the convention. To this there was but one dissenting vote.

"Practically unanimous," said Chairman Wachtel. "What next?"

Mr. Campau nominated Thomas E. Barkworth as the second delegate at large and W. F. McKnight, a Hearst man, seconded the nomination. This election went through like a streak of greased lightning. Then came a struggle for the other two places, but it was not much of a struggle after all. For the third delegate at large George A. Weadock of Bay City nominated George D. Jackson of Bay City. W. H. Walker of Kent put Charles R. Sligh's name forward. Judge L. N. Burt of Kalamazoo nominated William G. Howard of the same city, and Wellington R. Burt was nominated by Gilbert M. Stark of Saginaw. The last mentioned withdrew in favor of Jackson, who was finally elected.

The vote on the fourth delegate-at-large was as follows: John Power (anti-Hearst) of Escanaba, 427; Sligh, 89; Howard, 147; Rush Culver (Hearst) of Marquette, 108; Hiram J. Hoyt of Muskegon, 20.

The election of the alternates went through with a rush.

The resolutions committee also had a scrappy time. There was a long tie-up over the clause instructing the delegates to vote as a unit, and five members of the committee [illegible] bring in a minority report, but they changed their minds. L. T. Durand [illegible] resolutions, but nobody paid [illegible] attention to them. The primary election clause, however, did stir up some enthusiasm among the now very sleepy delegates.

After indorsing all the district delegates recommended by the various districts and thanking both the temporary and permanent officers for the good work accomplished in keeping the crowd in order, the convention adjourned sine die.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions pledged faith in the future action of the national convention; properly denounced "the criminally aggressive, despotic, un-American, extravagant and dishonest Republican administration"; appreciated Daniel Campau's good work for the party; directed the delegation to vote as a unit; expressed sorrow over the death of Judge Durand; deplored the death of Justin R. Whiting, and last of all pledged support to the principle of primary reform.

FAKE MEDICINES.

Postoffice Department Takes Exception to Certain Advertisements.

Washington, June 2.—Postmaster-General Payne has just given out a statement regarding the attitude of the department toward worthless nostrums and the newspaper publication of obscene advertisements. It was explained that the department had no intention of entering on a crusade against patent medicines or of establishing a censorship upon advertisements printed in newspapers, but simply aimed to correct abuses in cases of obscenity and fraud, as required by law. The statement in part follows:

"A large number of complaints having been received by the first assistant postmaster-general, protesting vigorously against the United States mails being used for the purpose of circulating newspapers and other literature transmitted a number of these advertisements to the assistant attorney-general for the postoffice department containing advertisements of alleged cures for loss of manhood, vitality, etc., the acting postmaster-general with the request for an opinion as to whether or not their transmittal through the mails constituted a violation of law. Mr. Robb, the then assistant attorney-general for the postoffice department, rendered an opinion holding such advertisements a violation of what is known as the 'obscene law.'

"Analysis of these so-called remedies developed the fact that in most instances the ingredients were simply starch and sugar. In a number of instances the pills and drugs contained ingredients, injurious to the system and forbidden by law to be sold. It having thus appeared that these companies were defrauding the public by means of false and fraudulent representations made through the mails, the issuance of fraud orders were recommended to the postmaster-general and accordingly issued by him. No action has been contemplated by the department save in these case of obscenity and fraud."

Supreme Court Opinions.

Lansing, Mich., June 1.—The supreme court has filed opinions as follows:

Affirmed—McCarthy vs. Village of Munising; Simons vs. Detroit Mutual Drill Co.; Barker vs. Citizens' Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Hannon vs. City of Gladstone; Polk Co. vs. Melenbacker; People vs. Rice.

Modified and affirmed—Levandowski vs. Althouse.

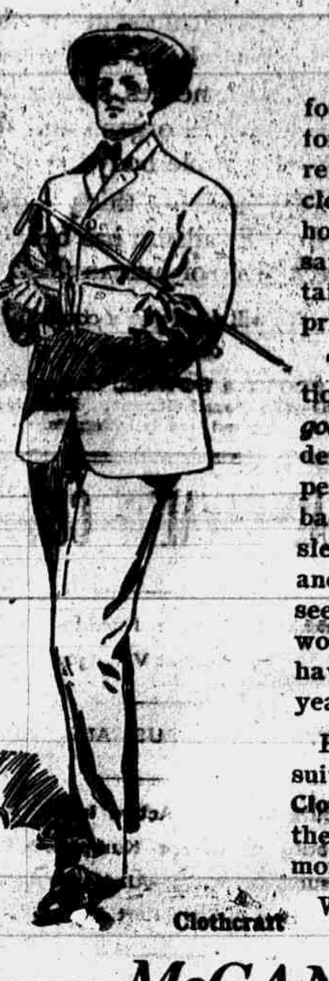
Good Clothes



Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.

Sakharoff Reports Hand-to-Hand Encounter at Vafangow.

SEVENTEEN RUSSIANS KILLED

Court Influence Active in St. Petersburg to Induce Kuropatkin to Assume Offensive—All Hopes Centered In Him to Save Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—General Sakharoff has telegraphed as follows, under today's date, to the general staff:

"According to reports, the Japanese commander in the action of May 30 near Vafangow had three battalions of infantry in reserve. Our losses were seventeen men killed and twenty-three wounded, and Lieut. Meyer and one other officer whose name has not been [illegible] wounded. The [illegible] losses were very considerable. One squadron of the Thirteenth Japanese cavalry was annihilated in a hand-to-hand encounter, and another squadron which came to its assistance suffered great loss from the fire of our frontier guards and riflemen. We captured nineteen horses."

London, June 2.—No confirmation has yet been received of the reported heavy fighting near Port Arthur or with Kuropatkin's army, although the latter is not regarded as improbable. Rumors persist that court influence at St. Petersburg is being actively exercised to induce General Kuropatkin to assume the offensive in an endeavor by a victory to retrieve the Russian military reputation.

The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says: "A recent council of war decided that Kuropatkin should risk an engagement. The emperor ratified this judgment, even going so far as to authorize the dispatch of troops from the German frontier to the far east on the ground that as Germany was benevolent she might be trusted safely. All hopes are centered now in Kuropatkin, who will make desperate efforts to save Port Arthur."

Against these statements must be placed the official contradiction communicated to the Associated Press and already cabled that General Kuropatkin would move southward.

SUBJECT OF DIVORCE

To Be Taken Up by Reformed Church Synod at Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 2.—The ninety-eighth general synod of the Reformed church convened in this city Wednesday afternoon with delegates from all parts of the United States.

From 350 to 400 delegates are expected to attend the sessions and a large number will attend the meetings of the home and foreign missionary societies of the church.

Many distinguished clergymen and missionary workers will be here this week, including Evangelist Wright, who is expected to bring with him three Indian converts.

The sessions of the synod in the afternoon were devoted to organization and opening exercises. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, the Rev. J. F. Zwemer, Holland, Mich.; vice-president, the Rev. John Fagg, New York city; clerks, Rev. John Ossawarde, New Era Mich., and the Rev. Peter K. Hageman, Central Briggs, N. Y.

Last evening the annual synodical sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Cornelius Wells of Brooklyn, the retiring president.

By far the most important topic for discussion before the synod will be that relating to divorce, the just now all-absorbing subject among church folks, with which the general conference of the Methodist Episcopalians in Los Angeles and the general assembly of the Presbyterians in Buffalo have recently wrestled.

The regular communion service will be held Thursday evening, and Friday evening there will be a popular meeting in the interests of the educational institutions of the church.

Friday a successor to Dr. Winter who has resigned the position of professor in the Western Theological seminary, will be chosen, and Saturday the delegates have been invited to visit Hope college at Holland, Mich.

Goats to Eat Thistles.

Portland, Mich., June 2.—Some of the assets of the state of Michigan are located on S. M. McKee's large farm, southwest of the village—a herd of Angora goats, and Mr. McKee is to conduct a series of experiments which will be of interest to the farmers of the state. Their sole diet for some time will consist of Canadian thistles, with an occasional dash of salt to give it flavor. The goats came from the agricultural college. Mr. McKee's farm contains five acres of Canada thistles, which has been fenced in and the goats placed thereon.

Concluded from local page.

John E. Carr spoke of the Detroit convention, which will be held in Detroit July 6—10. Sunday, June 12, will hereafter be known as the Detroit Convention Rally Day, and it is hoped that the pastors will set at least one session [illegible] for this and give a program of the Detroit Convention to each one.

The chairman of the enrollment committee then gave the following report:

Present 73, 53 delegates and 20 visitors. The following B. Y. P. U. officers were elected:

Pres.—Percy Sherman of Adrian.

Vice Pres.—Mrs. Foster of Hudson.

Sec. and Treas.—Mrs. F. D. Alexander of Clinton.

Board of Managers—Rev. Spooner of Weston, John E. Carr of Adrian, W. J. Christie of Dundee.

After a song the question box was opened by Rev. Frank Arnold of Detroit, and supper was announced.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

At 7:30 Wednesday evening the meeting was opened with a song service by the choir. Rev. F. M. Spooner delivered the annual sermon followed by prayer, and talks by Rev. Irving of Detroit, and Rev. Arnold of Detroit who represented the Kalamazoo college at this convention. They adjourned after the benediction until Thursday morning.

The devotionals which opened the meeting of Thursday morning were led by Rev. Goodrich of the Rollin church, and consisted of the singing of the hymn; "My Faith looks up to Thee," prayers by Rev. F. W. Sweet of Adrian, and Rev. F. A. Stiles of Hudson, the reading of the 27th Psalm by Rev. Goodrich and the singing of hymn No. 301 by the congregation, after which Moderator Sweet took charge of the meeting.

Deacon G. L. Bennett then extended an invitation to the association to hold their next annual meeting in the First Baptist church of Adrian. It was referred to the committee on place and preacher.

Moderator Sweet then called for the report of the Home Mission committee. Their report was in substance that the whole number of laborers, missionaries and teachers during the past year was 1430. Rev. Leslie Bower then read the report on Foreign Missions, which was very encouraging and full of interest.

Dr. Boggs of India, reports, all that has been done is but a preface to a far greater work, evangelization of the Hindu people. Dr. Huntly says, "There has been a great change in China. The people are flocking to Jesus, children [illegible]

Similar reports were received from other missionaries and all are equally [illegible]raging. The American [illegible] Missionary Union lowered its debt from $23,000 to $8,000 in the past year.

In the absence of Rev. H. B. Taft, the report of the State Mission committee was presented by J. B. TenBrook. This work has been going on for over 70 years, yet all is not done.

Dr. S. Henri Browne, chairman of the committe on Christian Education, then read their report. They urged the support of Kalamazoo college.

Rev. W. J. Eddy of Fairmont, W. Va., has put into circulation, "The church library system of Christian Education." The committe advised the pastors to secure the same for examination. Rev. F. W. Sweet reported that through an error in sending the wrong date he had been unable to formulate a report for the Publication Society. For the Ordination committee Rev. Sweet also reported that there had been no ordinations in the past year.

Rev. F. M. Spooner of Weston, reported for the Missionary committee, of which he is chairman. Rev. Bower followed with a verbal account of a visit of himself and Rev. Spooner to Monroe. On account of the absence of A. L. Van-Auken, the Temperance committee gave no report.

Moderator Sweet then introduced four pastors, who have come into the territory of the association in the past year. They were Rev. Goodrich of Rollin, Rev. Howard of Rome, Rev. Stiles of Hudson, and Rev. Curry of Clinton.

The committee on resolutions submitted their report which was accepted by the association. The committee on obituary reported 34 deaths in the association in the past year.

The committee on place and preacher next reported. The meeting of 1905 will be held in Adrian at the second church and the first church will assist in the entertainment. Rev. F. A. Stiles of Hudson, was chosen to give the annual sermon, Rev. E. J. Witte being alternate. A. L. Van Auken was appointed Associational Sunday school superintendent. Clerk TenBrook presented the reports of treasurer, H. W. Porter and the auditing committee.

This closed the reports of committees and Rev. F. L. Curry of Clinton, was called upon to tell of his work in establishing a Home Department in the Sunday school in Clinton.

The next thing in order was the appointing of delegates to attend the Baptist State convention to be held in Port Huron in the fall. Moderator Sweet, Rev. E. J. Witte and F. M. Spooner were appointed. The committees for the coming year were then appointed.

After a hymn by the congregation, Rev. Sweet introduced Rev. Chas. A. Cook of Bloomfield, N. S., who spoke enthusiastically in behalf of the Christian Stewardship League. Rev. J. S. Boyden of Fenton, then spoke in the interests of the home for aged ministers which is located in his city. Pastor Bower then pronounced the benediction after which all adjourned to the dining room, where ample justice was done to the fine dinner furnished by the ladies.

Thursday afternoon the devotionals were conducted by Rev. T. F. Smith. After singing by the choir, Rev. Ferguson of Hillsdale county, and Rev. Boyden of Fenton, invoked the divine blessing. Another hymn was sung and Moderator Sweet introduced Rev. Herman Burns of the Grand River Ave. Baptist church of Detroit, who spoke from the text "As my Father hath sent me, so send I you."

Rev. Boyden then led the assembly in earnest prayer, after which the association joined hands and sang, "Blest be the tie that binds" and dispersed with a benediction.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr

The Wail of the Hotel Boarder.

Strawberries, strawberries, strawberry short cake,
List to the wailing that falls on the ear,
Strawberries, strawberries, strawberry short cake,
Will no one have pity, will nobody hear?
The dear luscious fruit, how it tempts us each morning,
Each noon, how we long for a nicely heaped dish,
Each night, how we mourn o'er our failure to get them,
No matter how earnest our longing or wish.

Strawberries, strawberries, strawberry short cake,
Give us a cube please, or give us a square,
Give us a slice, only give us some short cake,
Only for this do we hunger or care.
Only remember, not to short, or thin please,
Give us of berries, a goodly supply,
Burried in sugar and spread on so neatly,
Then you may hush this most pitiful cry.
Strawberries, strawberries, strawberry short cake,
See how we plead for a generous share,
Far from our home, we depend on your bounty,
No one to pity us, no one to care.

THE SIXTY-FIFTH

Annual Convention of the LENAWEE COUNTY

Baptist Association held here. Large number of Delegates present.

The sixty-fifth annual meeting of the Lenawee Baptist Association was held at the First Baptist church here, commencing Wednesday morning and continuing until yesterday at three o,clock. A large number of delegates were present and the unusually fine program was rendered with a great deal of interest, each participant entering into the work with enthusiasm. At ten o'clock the morning session was called to order by Rev. Witte of Morenci. Rev. Smith of the Medina church, led in prayer, which was followed by several hymns with Miss Erva Finch at the organ.

J. D. TenBrook of Jasper, appointed a nominating committee, who retired to the prayer meeting room in order that their report might be given later during the morning session. This committee consisted of Geo. W. Ayers, Rev. S. Henri Browne, of Adrian; E. R. Vest, of Clinton; W. J. Christie, Dundee; Rev. F. A. Stiles, Hudson; Rev. T. F. Smith, of the Medina church; J. R. Vine, Weston; L. D. Porter, Morenci, and O. B. Finch of Tecumseh.

While this committee were absent from the room a few sentence prayers from the delegates were heard, Rev. Irving leading. A song was then announced, "More Love to Thee our Christ," after which the nominating committee gave their report. Their chairman, Geo. W. Ayers, of Adrian, said that according to the constitution of the association they were to nominate a moderator for one year and two trustees for three years. They nominated Dr. L. G. North of Tecumseh, for moderator, and J. B. TenBrook of Jasper, and H. W. Porter of Weston, for trustees for three years to succeed themselves. Dr. North declined the honor and Rev. Franklin W. Sweet of the First Baptist church of Adrian, was nominated. The vote was taken by ballot.

Rev. Sweet, the new moderator, was called to the platform to take charge of the meeting. He made a few fitting remarks, thanking the association for the honor.

Song by the choir.

The letters from the [illegible] were then read by the secretary of the association, J. B. TenBrook, of Jasper.

The First Baptist church of Clinton, was organized in 1832 and have at present 79 members. Rev. F. C. Curry as pastor. They lost in the past year eight members and gained 14. The Clinton church was the only one who reported a Home department. Through the efforts of their pastor, Rev. Curry, this department was organized and they now have 65 enthusiastic members.

The Baptist church of Dundee, was organized in 1855 and they have no pastor. W. J. Christie, their clerk, was present at this meeting. They have at present 16 members, having lost seven members in the past year.

The Baptist church at Flat Rock organized in 1873. They have no regular pastor, Rev. T. Kerry supplying for the present with 31 members. They show neither loss nor gain in the past year.

Clayton sent no letter to the association.

Rev. Henri Brown of the second Baptist church of Adrian, led a discussion on the "Thoughts suggested by the letters." Rev. Brown said the letters suggested tones of gladness and sadness from beginning to end and if any thing a little to much of sadness. He urged the pastors to take more interest in the young people and get them into the church. He suggested a committee be appointed to visit the various churches and perhaps by so doing, would in time create more interest. This they decided to do at the Thursday morning session.

Dr. E. H. E. Jameson of Detroit, a representative of the National Home Mission society, was called upon as he was obliged to leave on the Detroit Southern at 2:30. His talk was linked with the letters that had been read. He also urged that more thought and time be given to the home church. He spoke quite briefly of the work being done by the home missions and kept his hearers interested.

A nominating and enrollment committee was appointed to report in the afternoon meeting of the B. Y. P. U. The nominating committee consisted of W. J. Christie, of Dundee, chairman; G. W. Ayers, Miss Stafford, of Adrian; Elmer Snedicor, Mrs. Byron Foster, of Hudson; J. B. TenBrook, of Jasper, and Miss Cauley. The committee of enrollment, Homer Palmer, chairman, W. J. Christie and O. E. Clark.

After a song they adjourned to the dining rooms, where the ladies of the Tecumseh Baptist church served a sumptuous dinner to 150.

Promptly at 1:30 the woman's meeting was called to order by President Mrs. D. B. Morgan of Adrian, in the auditorium [illegible] held a meeting upstairs.

Mrs. C. C. Fisher of Adrian, the chorister, was not present on account of illness in the family. Mrs. Geo. Cook of Adrian, supplied and with Mrs. Harry Moore at the organ, the music was unusually good. Mrs. F. A. Stiles of Hudson, led the devotional service, asking for a few short sentence prayers, which was followed by a reading of the 67th Psalm. Another song was given, the ladies standing. The roll call of the different missionary societies of the county were called, each one responding with a verse. Rome, Medina and Flat Rock are the only ones who did not send delegates.

Mrs. James Heck warmly welcomed the visitors and gave a report of the Tecumseh society, which was responded to by Mrs. C. M. Turner in a pleasing manner and quite complimentary to Tecumseh ladies. As Mrs. C. C. Fisher of Adrian, County Secretary of Foreign Missions, was absent, Mrs. Morgan gave a short report of the mission work. Mrs. V. V. Merwin, Secretary of Home Missions, gave a short talk. She asked that the payments might be made quarterly and that each society would make them as large as possible. Miss Cauley of Morenci, read the treasurer's report for the year ending May 1904.

These reports were accepted as read. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Emily Quick, and were approved.

The nominating committee consisting of Mrs. L. G. North, Miss Quick and Miss Dora Bennett nominated the following officers:

Pres.—Mrs. J. J. Morse, Adrian.
Vice Pres.—Mrs. J. Iler. Clayton.
2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. Ella Sheldon, Tecumseh.
3rd Vice Pres.—Mrs. W. Bowerman, Morenci.
4th Vice Pres.—Mrs. Fred Bradley, Hudson.
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. E. Porter, Weston.
Treas.—Miss Sara Cauley, Morenci.

The society were in favor of the above officers and the vote was made by ballot. Mrs. Morgan, who for 15 years has served the society faithfully, left the chair, introducing and welcoming the new president, Mrs. Morse.

A discussion of the associational work was next in order and Miss Cauley introduced and welcomed Miss Karnell, who is field worker in the Michigan Womans' Home Missons to succeed Miss Mary Cooper, who now has Pennsylvania. Miss Karnell had but a few moments in which to speak, but spoke of the need [illegible] younger people, in the Mission work to take the places of the older ones. She complimented the society on their work of the past year and on the reports of the different committees. Mrs. Phelps of Ovid, State Superintendent of the Farther Lights, was introduced, but as the time was drawing to a close, Mrs. D. B. Morgan of Adrian, moved that the choir sing and Mrs. F. W. Sweet, of Adrian, the speaker of the afternoon, give an address. This motion was carried. The choir consisting of seven girls from the high school sang very nicely.

For the subject of her address, Mrs. F. W. Sweet took "Home Missions." In a very pleasing manner she spoke at length on this and regretted that time would not allow her to speak of the Foreign also. This talk was full of good thoughts. She praised the work the Home Missions were doing. She said, "Where there is no pastor some of you can begin your work work right there. Secure some desirable literature and start a missionary society. Hold missionary prayer meetings. Instruct the children and take a number of the best missionary magazines." She urged a more earnest work in the Missionary society with the young people. Mrs. Sweet is quite enthusiastic in this work and from beginning to end her address was very profitable.

Miss Marie Bramble gave a recitation.

Having a few minutes, Mrs. Phelps, State Secretary of the Farther Lights, was given the floor. She spoke briefly of the work they were doing with the young girls. She said that the young people must be interested in some way or other as workers and missionaries are needed.

A collection was taken up followed by the Mizpah benediction.

FARTHER LIGHTS.

Mrs. Phelps gave an interesting talk to the young ladies of the Baptist church explaining the work of the Farther Lights and aim of the society. The prospects are good for an organization. Miss Carrie Rathbun of Adrian, told of some of the good work the girls were doing in Adrian, and said they were very enthusiastic.

MENS MEETING.

at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, while the ladies held a missionary meeting in the auditorium of the church, the men held their meeting up stairs, with Geo. W. Ayers of Adrian, presiding. A prayer was first observed followed by a song. Rev. F. W. Sweet of Adrian, led the discussion on "One-half hour with the laymen", and Dr. L. G. North—"One-half hour with the pastors." Rev. F. C. Curry of Clinton, Rev. W. F. Jones of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. E. Sedweek of the Methodist church, spoke of "Our relation to each other." The meeting was very interesting to all concerned. The question box was opened by Rev. F. A. Stiles of Hudson.

The trustees appointed in the morning then appointed the following officers for the coming year.

Chairman—O. B. Finch, Tecumseh.
Clerk—J. B. TenBrook, Jasper.
Treas.—H. W. Porter, Weston.

This closed a successful meeting.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL SESSION.

At 3:20 the Sunday school and the B. Y. P. U. met in the auditorium of the church the program for the Sunday school was given first, with Rev. F. A. Stiles of Hudson, presiding. After singing, one song "Stand up for Jesus," Mrs. E. H. Porter of Weston, read a very interesting paper on the "Furnished Sunday School Worker." She gave many excellent thoughts along this line, "First have Faith. Be careful of your influence and of the literature and amusements. Be governed by what the Lord wants you to do and be, and above all have self control along every line of life. Have Patience.

Mrs. Porter's paper was quite long, but was listened to with interest. Rev. S. Henri Brown of the 2nd Baptist church of Adrian, gave an address on the "Parents' Relation to the Bible School," which was good.

B. Y. P. U.

The Baptist Young Peoples' Union held a meeting at the close of the Sunday school session. The meeting was called to order by the President H. W. Porter of Weston.

Mrs. Byron Foster of Hudson, gave a paper on the "Possibilities of the Local Union." She said, "Wear Christian labels in your homes, for the test begins there. Let the Union be composed of members ready to work in office and committees. Have one evening of every month for consecration." This paper was well read and was full of good thoughts.

Rev. F. W. Sweet thought that this paper should be read in every Union in the county. They decided to place the paper with Mrs. Warren in Adrian, so that it might be heard by those so unfortunate as not to be able to be present at this convention.

J. B. MARSTELLER, Manager.
Clinton, Mich., June 1, 1904.

GIVEN TO THE SICK ON TRIAL

C. A. Wright's generous [illegible]—Hyomei treatment costs nothing unless it cures catarrh.

Many who are in need of Hyomei, the treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing, have not yet realized its wonderful healing powers. He wants everyone who is troubled with catarrh or catarrhal colds, to get a Hyomei outfit from him with the understanding that it is absolutely free unless it cures catarrh and frees the system from germs of grippe and influenza.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show by its exhilarating and vitalizing effects, that it is doing good. Use it for a full month entirely at C. A. Wright's risk. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say that Hyomei has not helped you he will return your money without question or argument.

The complete Hyomei treatment costs but one dollar, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a life time and if one bottle does not cure, extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh and the only one where you can obtain a month's treatment from your local druggist that costs nothing if it fails to cure.

Try Hyomei for a month. It cannot harm you, as it is purely vegetable and cures catarrh without any stomach dosing. If it fails, the loss falls entirely upon C. A. Wright.

REASONS

Why our Vinol is the Greatest Health Restorer and Strength Creator Known to Medicine.

Because Vinol contains in a concentrated form ALL of the medicinal curative elements found in cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Because we have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to restore health and create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles.

A prominent physician writes:

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When well-known Tecumseh people tell it so plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Tecumseh the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

George Merritt, the well known proprietor of the cigar manufactory, says: "I can testify to the honesty and worth of Doan's Kidney Pills. There is no humbug about them. I was annoyed for some time with a dull aching pain in my back at times quite severe. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at C. A. Wright's drug store and after taking them a short time I found they were helping me. Finally the pain in my back disappeared entirely. Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy for all kidney ailments."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

JURY GOT INTERESTED

Question of Farm Salaries Discussed In Collins Murder Case.

LEACHMAN DIDN'T GET RICH

Only Got $16 Per Month In Summer—He Earned $672 but Prisoner Held Receipts For Only $200—Claimed She Borrowed $500 From Him.

Owosso, Mich., June 4.—There was nothing sensational in the cross-examination [illegible] Collins. The jury is composed mostly of farmers and Prosecutor Chapman asked questions concerning the running of a farm.

The defense had previously offered in evidence receipts claimed to be in full for the six summers that Leachman worked for Mrs. Collins. The summer season is seven months long from April 1 to Nov. 1, and during these months Leachman was to receive $16 a month and board, while for the five winter months he usually received a lump sum of about $25. Here is where Mr. Chapman made a hit with the jury, for he pointed out that an experienced farmer like Leachman was worth from $22 to $24 a month. Even at $16, the six summers' work totaled $672, and the entire bunch of receipts which Mrs. Collins exhibits, the prosecution declares, foots up to about $200, and there is not a single receipt for 1900.

Mr. Chapman left this line of questioning for a while and began on Leachman's fatal sickness. Mr. McCurdy, for the defense, interposed angrily, declaring that the prosecutor was misquoting the testimony and bulldozing the witness. Then the prosecution switched back to the question of Leachman's pay.

Books Were Barred.

Mrs. Collins referred to a book which Sheriff Gerow took from her and in which she claimed Leachman's account was kept. The court ruled that the prosecution might not use anything from this book because it had been taken from the prisoner without authority. To this Mr. Chapman replied, meanwhile pointing to an. her book in the defense's possession. "Very well, but you have another one there that has some of Leachman's figures in it. Will you produce that in evidence?"

Mr. McCurdy leaped to his feet and replied excitedly, "You will never see that book unless the court orders it."

The prosecutor said he had simply wished to show the jury that there was something to conceal and did not press the point.

Mrs. Collins claims that the income from her forty acres of improved land supported herself, daughter and nephew, paid Leachman and cleared a $500 mortgage from the farm since 1898. Mr. Chapman declares this to be manifestly impossible and will endeavor to prove that the $500 was borrowed from Leachman. The latter had worked out for himself from the time he was 17 years old until his death, thirteen years later, was frugal and saving, and yet had but 2 cents when he died.

The strain is beginning to tell heavily on the lawyers, and after several hot rounds with the prosecutor Attorney McCurdy went home more than half sick. The case cannot possibly be finished this week, as much rebuttal testimony will be put in.

DROWNING ACCIDENTS

Two of Them Occur In One Day Near Detroit.

TWO YOUNG BOYS THE VICTIMS.

Canoe Containing Three Lads Tipped Over, One Succumbed, Others Had Narrow Escapes—Lad Perished In Father's and [illegible]

Detroit, Mich., June 6.—Two unfortunate drowning accidents occurred Sunday in which the lives of two bright young Detroiters wer sacrificed. Purcell O'Leary, aged 18, of 121 Alfred street, went down to his death in the Canadian channel of the river near the head of Belle Isle. William Kaminski, aged 12, of 526 Livernois avenue, met a similar fate while wading in the River Rouge in a vain effort to detach a broken fish line. The body of the latter was recovered shortly afterwards but O'Leary's remains have not yet been found.

Purcell O'Leary, in company with Dean Hasse, son of the tailor, living at 23 Brady street, and Nate Candler, a grandson of Homer W. Candler of 1055 Jefferson avenue, secured a canoe at the Detroit Boat club on Belle Isle and proceeded to cruise about among the canals.

Finally a venture was made into the large Canadian channel on the south side of the island, but wind and waves were too strong and their boat capsized. Hasse left the others clinging to the overturned craft and started to swim to a boat containing two couple, which was approaching. O'Leary followed him shortly after, but that was the last seen of him. Hasse and Candler were picked up by a passing boat. The river will be dragged by the harbormaster for O'Leary's body.

A pitiful accident happened at 11 o'clock in the morning on the River Rouge when William Kaminski, a 12-year-old boy who was fishing just south of the Wabash bridge, while wading in the river went down aard failed to come up again. His father and brother were present during the unfortunate occurrence, but as neither one was able to swim, they were compelled to see the lad perish before their eyes.

Went Fishing.

About 9 o'clock the father and two sons started out on a fishing expedition. After angling for awhile with but indifferent success, Wille's line became tangled with one of the others. While endeavoring to extricate it the line broke, but above the float which indicate where it was in the water.

Willie determined to wade out and get the line and hook. Diveting himself of his clothing he started to wade into the river. When within but a few feet of his line he was suddenly seen to go down, as if in a hole. His hands appeared above the surface but once and he was seen no more.

Father and brother, frantic with excitement, but unable to go to the lad's assistance as they were unable to swim, raised an alarm but when help arrived the body was lost to view.

IN HIS BEDROOM.

Milan Man Hanged Himself Because His Wife Was Dead.

Milan, Mich., June 6.—Milo M. Rouse committed suicide here during the night in his room at the residence of his son, Laverne, who is employed as night operator on the Ann Arbor road at Toledo, and who returned from work at about 9 o'clock in the morning as usual, and finding his father not yet risen, called.

Receiving no reply he went upstairs to find his father hanging with a cord about his neck. The cord ran up over the door aand was attached to the knob on the other side. A chair was [illegible] and the door as though Mr. Rouse had slidden off and tipped the chair forward. The back of the chair was leaning against the back of the body, which was in a half kneeling position. He was clad only in a shirt and trousers and had evidntly been dead several hours.

He bade his daughter-in-law good night as usual when he retired the night before. He had ben very despondent since his wife's death in February, just as they wer contemplating moving to their new home in Saline village. It is said he had frequently mentioned to his son and others his intention of ending his life. Three bottles of poison, one of carbolic acide, one of chloroform and one of laudanum were found in his pockets.

ADVANCE ON PORT ARTHUR.

Little Brown Men Fifteen Miles From Russian Gibralter—Are Advancing Along Both Coasts—Battle Fought—Results Unknown.

Tokio, June 6.—The Russian gunboat Giliak was torpedo[illegible]stroyed at Port Arthur Saturday.

Chefoo, June 6.—A Japanese correspondent from Dalny confirms the reported advance of the Japanese army on Port Arthur, news of which was brought here today by the Chinese. The correspondent states, however that there are fifteen miles between the Japanese and Port Arthur, instead of seven, as reported by the Chinese. The Japanese army is advancing along both coasts. It is reported that the peninsular division on the east coast fought a battle within fifteen miles of Port Arthur June 3. The result of the battle has not been learned.

A junk which lay off Port Arthur June 4, because of lack of wind, heard desultory firing on the morning of the fourth and saw five Japanese torpedo destroyers as they disappeared below the horrizon. Afterwards a tremendous explosion was heard and it was thought by those on the junk that possibly one of the destroyers had struck a mine. On the night of June 3, immense columns of flame and smoke wer seen from the junk in the direction of Dalny.

WORD FROM FORT

Carrier Pigeons Bring Good News to New Chwang.

New Chwang, June 6.—Two carrier pigeons have arrived here from General Stoessel at Port Arthur. The Russians will not divulge the messages carried by the birds but declare they contain good information and are very cheerful since the pigeons arrived.

The Russians are printing a newspaper in Chinese at Mukden for the purpose of influencing the natives. The latest copy received at New Chwang says that the Japanese attempted to float a second loan in America for $3,750,000, but was coldly rejected. Other contents of the paper explain that the Russian loss in the Yalu battle was due to the preponderence of Japanese cavalry and says also that the Russians will soon dictate peace terms in Tokio and that the leading Japanese statesmen will be reduced to ricksha coolies.

SHELL DIVERS.

Employed by Japanese in Removal of Russian Mines.

Tokio, June 6.—It is suspected here that the Russians at Port Arthur are communicating with points on the Chinese coast by means of wireless telegraphy. It was reported that a wireless station had been erected secretly at the village of Peh-Wang, on Takin island, one of the Miao-Tao group, situated in Pe-Chhi-Li strait, and the Japanese cruiser Chitose visited the island to investigate. She did not, however, find anything. It is reported that another such station has been erected near Shan-Hai-Kwan and the Japanese are investigating this matter.

The Japanese torpedo boat destroyer Ikazuchi discovered and exploded a large mine off San-Shan island, at the entrance to Talienwan bay.

The Japanese naval aauthorities engaged in clearing out the mines in the vicinity of Talienwan bay are employing Japanese shell divers from Kushiu province for the purpose. These divers volunteered for this work and are wonderfuly expert. It is said that with their diving paraphernalia they can stay under water for half a day at a time. Hundred of Japanese fishermen are volunteering to assist in cleaning away Russian mines and it is probable that some of them will be used for this work. These voluntary offers are taken to illustrate the unity of the Japanese people in the war.

Death List Increases.

Peoria, Ill., June 6.—Instead of nine dead, as at first reported, it is known that fourteen men lost their lives in the fire and explosion at the Corning distillery Saturday afternoon. Eight bodies were recovered from the ruins today.

FISH FOR ARGENTINA.

U. S. Officials Establishes A Hatchery for That Nation.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., June 6.—J. W. Titcomb, chief of the division of the fish culture in the national fisheries bureau, has reached his home here after a nine months' stay in Argentina, where he was sent by the government to aid the administration of that republic in the introduction and propagation of salmon and trout.

Mr. Titcomb operated mainly at Lake Nahuel Huapi, the head waters of the rivers Limay and Rio Nigro, where a [illegible] For the purpose of this hatchery, the United [illegible] government has shipped [illegible] gentina 1,000,000 white fish eggs, 100,000 great lake trout and 50,000 brook trout and land locked salmon.

E. A. Julian of Colorado, who accompanied Mr. Titcomb as his assistant will remain in the republic's service for five years. The aim is to introduce the salmon into the southern waters of Argentina and stock the waters of Lake Nahuel Huapi with lake trout and whitefish. One hundred thousand rinbow trout eggs and 50,000 steel head trout eggs from California and the state of Washington will be made to Bahia Blanca.

Mr. Titcomb has recommended the introduction also of both large and small mouthed bass into the streams and lakes of the warmer regions of Argentina as there are no game fish in the waters of that country.

Mr. Titcomb will resume his duties in Washington about June 15.

SPANISH WARSHIPS.

Leave For Tangier, Morocco, Where Trouble is Brewing.

Malaga, June 6.—The Spanish battleships Pelayo and Numancia and the armored cruiser Cardinal Cisneros have left here for Tangier, Morocco.

Lisbon, June 6.—It is stated here that the United States cruisers Baltimore, Olympia and Cleveland will not come to Lisbon but will stay at Tangier pending a settlement of the difficulty arising out of the detention of Ion Perdicaris and Cromwell Varley, respectively, citizens of the United States and Great Britain, by the bandit Raisuli.

Paris, June 6.—Although no official intimation on the subject has been given, it is understood that France would view favorably the withdrawal of some of the American warships now at Tangier. The presence of the American ships there has had the effect of attracting ships of other nationalities, including Italian and British. According to the French view if a local agitation occurred, American, Italian and British ships might land forces to preserve order, and it is pointed out that this would involve serious responsibilities upon the United States, and would also have the effect of discrediting France's paramount influence in Morocco. The American officials say that the United States warships will be promptly withdrawn if France undertakes the entire burden of securing the release of Ion Perdicaris.

Celebrate 250th Anniversary.

Northampton, Mass, June 6.—The city began Sunday a celebration of the 250th anniversary of the settlement of the town of Northampton with religious services in its sixteen churches. The many guests of the city include Governor John L. Bates and staff, former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, and S. S. Campion, the latter representing the city of Northampton England.

Two Russians Robbed.

Bay City, Mich., June 6.—John Kosek and John Switz, journeying back to Russia in response to a command from the czar to take up arms in defense of their country in the far east, are stranded in this city. They were robbed at night of checks representing $111 and one railroad ticket to New York. Both have been in this country a year and for seven months were employed in the Ward lumber camps at Frederick. Kosek left the station while waiting for the Detroit train, leaving his check with Switz. Three robbers held the latter up aand took everything he possessed excepting his military papers from the old country. The police will stop the payment of the check if possible and the Michigan Central officials, if the ticket has not been used, will cancel it and issue another.

Clothcraft

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right sise and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Worst of all experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. Newson, Decatur, Ala. For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

The Only Difference.

The waiter was a colored man and was anxious to please. After looking over the bill of fare at the lunch hour I concluded that I wanted a slice of ox tongue, an article which I found among other things to be ordered. Accordingly I told the waiter to bring me a piece of tongue. He returned without any unnecessary delay and shoved the dish out in front of me. I looked it over. It was not tongue at all. The waiter was hanging around the back of my chair, for he knew an explanation would be in order in a few minutes. "Say, old man," I said to him directly, "this is not ox tongue at all." He smiled. Picking up the bill of fare, he said: "I knows it ain't ox tongue, boss. You see, the steward done made a mistake. It ought to be ox tail. Dat's the only difference." "The only difference," I repeated, and the humor of the thing dawned on me. "Well," I added directly, "if the difference should be any greater I'll be durned if you wouldn't have to get off the ox." The waiter caught the humor of the situation and snickered his way back to the kitchen.—Galveston News.

An Elastic Appetite.

The American black bear has an appetite that may be appropriately termed elastic. He will kill a thousand pound steer or capture the tiny field mouse for a meal with equal indifference. If a pig or a sheep is not handy to his reach he will dine on a colony of ants or a nest of wood grubs.

He will feast on dainty birds' eggs or sweet stores of wild honey and on the foulest carrion with like gusto. He will fish for the savory trout, but at the same time snap any warty toad or slimy lizard that may happen along that way. He will seek the luscious wild plum when it has ripened or the wild grape among the branches where the vine clambers and bears its fruit, but will not miss the opportunity to make food of any snake that may lie in ambush there for birds that come to peck at the plums or grapes. The bear has a comprehensive palate. The[re is] scarcely a thing in the animal or vegetable kingdom that will not tickle it.

Solving a Great Problem.

Some years ago a tobacconist discovered the utility of tinfoil for wrapping tobaccos. Theretofore paper had been exclusively used for the purpose, but it did not serve to keep the moisture of the atmosphere away from the tobacco nor preserve the natural moisture of the tobacco from the effects of a dry or heated atmosphere. Paper also absorbed the aroma of the weed and was not sufficiently lasting; therefore tinfoil was used for wrappers. But it became costly and could only be rolled to a certain thinness, beyond which the ingenuity of man seemed to find it impossible to go. The fact was that no rollers could be made to sustain the pressure necessary to mashing the tinfoil to a leaf sufficiently thin to suit the manufacturer.

Many ingenious inventors struggled with the proposition for months and gave up the problem as unsolvable, when a simple workman about the shop one day, after rolling two sheets to the customary thinness, put the two sheets together into the rollers and made both half as thin as they were before. This was as simple as standing an egg on end, but it created a revolution in the manufacture of tinfoil for tobacconists' use and made a mint of money for the discoverer.

The Composition of a Rocket.

The ordinary skyrocket is made of various compositions packed in tubes rolled tightly round a cylindrical case. The match by which the rocket is exploded is placed in a cavity at the bottom. The movement of the rocket would be irregular if it were not for the guide stick, which is made very light, so that it does not retard the flight of the rocket when the gases come out and hit the ground with all their might and send the rocket up into the air for all that it is worth.

Oddities About Alphabets.

When the Portuguese first explored Brazil they made great fun of the natives of that country because they had in their alphabet no f, r or l, a people, the invaders declared, without fe, ley or rey—without faith law or king. The Mohawks, again, have no labials and vowed it was absurd when the missionaries tried to teach them to pronounce p and b, "for who," said they, "can speak with his mouth shut?"—Blackwood's Magazine.

Her Husband's Male Friends.

One of the most complicated duties of a wife is the shuffling off of her husband's male friends, says the Ladies' Field. Fifty per cent can go at once, for half a man's bachelor associates are, according to his wife, not fit for polite society, either because they have no manners or because they wear the wrong sort of collars. Ten per cent she may genuinely dislike, or possibly they may not take to her. Some of the rest are on the borderland of toleration but most of them have a knack of dropping off by slow degrees. Possibly this is the inward and spiritual meaning of the farewell bachelors' dinner most intending bridegrooms give, though they never realize it at the time.

The Lion Didn't Roar.

It is related that Pinnow, the faithful servant and personal valet of Prince Bismarck, once trod on his master's gouty foot. Instead of swearing at him or even declaring he was a clumsy fool, Bismarck, noticing that Pinnow himself was frightened, said: "Consider yourself honored. No other person, my dear Pinnow, not even the kaiser himself, would have been suffered to tread on my corns."

But Rivers was game.

He touched the lighted end of his cigar to his shirt sleeve.

LITERARY NOTES.

Starting out with a front cover design representing a healthy looking boy in the act of throwing a ball over the home plate the June American Boy is replete with matter of interest to wide awake boys, for in addition to the continuation of Kirk Monroe's celebrated story "The Blue Dragon" there are scores of articles long and short appealing directly to American youths.

In the "Progress of the World," the editorial department of the Review of Reviews for June, the situations of the republican and democrat parties both in State and national politics at the opening of the Presidential campaign, are fully discussed. Another topic of editorial comment is the complicity of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in poolroom gambling. The war in the far East is carefully followed in this department as well as the "Leading articles of the month."

ROUND ABOUT US.

Wilson Read drove over to Brooklyn one day last week with a ton of hay. This side of that village about three miles a wagon tire came off. He went to Brooklyn and returned home before noticing the tire was gone. There is nothing peculiar in this incident except the fact that the wheel held together under the heavy load.—Onsted News.

Elmer Harris is in jail at Adrian charged with non-support. He deserted his wife and five children three months ago and three of the children were sent to the state school at Coldwater as the mother was unable to provide for them. The heartless husband and father will now have to allow a jury decide whether he shall support his family or not and it isn't a very hard job to guess what his finish will be.—Hudson Gazette.

The sickness among the scholars and the closing of school as a result has so broken up school that no graduating exercises can be held this year. This being the first year that the tenth grade system was had here, there would have been but one graduate from the school, Myndret Greenleaf and he is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. Those scholars from this school, who took the county examination all passed and have received eighth grade diplomas, a credit to themselves and to their teacher, Mr. Stephenson.—Onsted News.

Thomas P. Baker of Morenci, was found dead in bed by his wife last Sunday morning. He was a retired farmer and death must ha[ve been caused by heart] trouble or apoplexy as he was in usual good health Saturday. He came home from down town, spent some time chatting with neighbors as he sat on the porch, retiring in seeming good health. His wife and three daughters survive.—Adrian Press.

Joseph Saunt on Wednesday of last week received the sad news of the death of his son, Herman Saunt, at Toledo, where the latter has been for the past two years working as railroad brakeman. His death was the result of an accident. Deceased was about thirty years of age and leaves a wife and two children besides the many relatives and friends in this place to mourn his loss. The funeral occurred on Monday at Napoleon, where the remains were sent for interment.—Brooklyn Exponent.

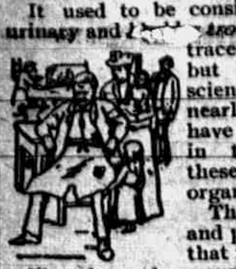
Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.



It used to be considered that only urinary and [bladder] troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SEVEN

Seems to be a very lucky number in the life of

MRS. W. B. HOAG

Of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Hoag was born June 7, 1827, and today is well and happy and 77 years old. A number of sevens and to her most of them have been lucky. Mrs. Hoag is in many regards a peculiar woman, she has always been self reliant. For 21 years she has [illegible] but has for all these years been able to accomplish her own housework by using a wheel chair, thus going about from one room to another. If there were more people in the world like Mrs Hoag willing to help themselves there would be fewer dependent and all would be happier.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoag have lived together 54 years, in Tecumseh 41 years and Mr. Hoag has been a resident of this place 61 years. Certainly they could be considered truly pioneers in Tecumseh.

C. A. Wright.

Asks the readers of this paper who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to call on him at once and get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. If you knew the value of this remedy as we know it, you would not suffer another day. It is a thorough digestant and tissue-building tonic as well. It is endorsed personally by hundreds of people whom it has cured of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, and stomach troubles. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It is pleasant, and palatable.

It will bring joy and health and happiness to any suffering woman just as it has always done and never failed to do.

Miss Florabel Blessing, 216 W. Lincoln St., Kokomo, Ind., says; "I can truly say that Zoa Phora has completely cured me of my awful suffering; I am perfectly regular now and I don't suffer at all at that time. I do not have ovarian pain any more, and the leucorrhea has entirely disappeared. I feel better now than I have in four years, and I know that it was Zoa Phora that cured me, and it will cure others if it cured me, because I know that nobody can suffer any more than I did, for I suffered death over and over. I would not be without Zoa Phora, for it is indeed 'Woman's Friend.'

"I will say that whoever don't believe Zoa Phora is a good medicine for women to take, they don't know what they are talking about, and whoever don't believe this statement, let them please write to me and I will certainly tell them the same, if they will send addressed stamped envelope. I will answer any one who wants to write and find out if it is so.

"You can use my name in any way that will help you with your medicine, and I will be glad to have you do so."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by —

The street carnival at Adrian closed on Saturday and was a great success except in attendance. The crowds were orderly and easy to handle. Miss Jennie McAnally was chosen queen and was presented a gold watch in behalf of the Adrian Knights by Gen. Scott.

Milton A. Davenport died in Macon last Friday aged 44 years. His funeral was held from the Reformed church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. DeSpelder of Tecumseh, officiating. Mr. Davenport leaves a wife and two young children, beside his aged father, Calvin Davenport.

Last evening as the frieght train was switching near the Lake Shore depot, the break beam came down on one of the cars and in crossing the road at the Temple grocery it caught under the ties, throwing two of the cars off the track. PIONEER PICNIC

Held in Monument Park on THURSDAY, JUNE 2.

Was a Great Success. A Good Program was rendered and the Tipton Band furnished Music.

The celebration of our eightieth village birthday was successfully carried out last Thursday afternoon under the auspices of the Town Federation of Women's clubs, aided by several gentlemen and the business men and citizens generally. Even the weather which had threatened all the week to mar the enjoyment of the visitors and spoil the plans of the club ladies, forbore to culminate in rain and a goodly number of people gathered under the large tents and on the grass on monument square to spread a picnic dinner and listen to the program.

The committee having the day in charge were Mrs. N. A. Howland, Mrs. Theo. Crane, Mrs. A. W. Mills, Mrs. J. D. Shull, Mrs. Harry Lee, Mrs. C. A. Wright, Miss Florence Brewer and Loana Stacy, assisted by P. W. A. Fitzsimmons, Alex Richard, James Aten, Walter Adams. This committee wish to express their thanks to Mr. Peters who kindly assumed the responsibility of soliciting the business men to contribute toward securing the Tipton band for the occasion and also to all who so generally responded to Mr. Peters' request.

Tables were arranged under canvas for two hundred people. All this space was occupied and an overflow meeting of picnicers dined outside. Mr. Aten, assisted by Wm. Jordan, made coffee under an adjoining tent and all were served bountifully, after which the tables were replaced by seats and Mrs. J. F. Hicks, president of the Federation, called the meeting to order with a gavel presented and made by Lewis M. Waldron from a piece of railroad tie used in constructing the old Palmyra and Jacksonburg R. R. which was laid through Tecumseh in 1838 and was dug up by Mr. Waldron over near the north branch school house while laying a water main in '92.

Mrs. Hicks welcomed the pioneers and called upon Richard Harkness for the opening prayer. Mrs. A. W. Mills had the musical part of the program in charge and introduced a choir which [illegible]yne. Alex Richard followed with a talk on "Early Business Inte[illegible]cumseh," a fine description of each dwelling and store [illegible] down our main street at that time, interspersed throughout with anecdotes and interest[illegible] sketches of the early time. Mr. Richard's paper, if it had been a paper instead of a talk, deserves to be preserved as a leaf of the village history.

Miss Hartbeck, our school superintendent, kindly arranged to give the children a half holiday and Miss McKenna marshalled the second and third grades on the platform and led them in singing several pieces charmingly.

Mrs. Jehiel Davidson gave a paper on "The Pioneer Woman and her Environment," which was an interesting description of the woman of eighty years ago, her occupations, hopes and employments. Fred B. Wood spoke in very happy vein of "Tecumseh of the Present and Future." Mrs. John Freeman followed with a paper on "The Woman of Today," whom she declared to be a club woman, interested in all philanthropic work and related what club women had done for Hull house and the social settlements, for the Lucy Stone memorial, for meat inspection and other movements for the public good.

J. S. Strong, now in his eighty seventh year, sang "Michigan, my Michigan" in fine tenor voice, the choir joining in the chorus. Dr. Howell gave a paper which was received with great attention, on "Early Medical Practitioners of Lenawee County." It was exceedingly interesting and told some thrilling tales of the pluck and the hardships of the early doctors in this vicinity before the time of good roads and steam cars.

Miss Helen Anderson followed with a paper on "What the Woman of the Future will have in Common with the Pioneer Woman." Developing the idea that the pioneer woman had, with all the disadvantages she worked under, the stimulus of rewarding activity in the domestic manufactures that were then carried on in the home. Her opportunity for expression was greater than later women had, when labor became organized and divided and all the domestic manufactures were taken from the home. That left woman with nothing higher than repairing the ravages of daily living.

As the domestic life failed to call forth the higher activities woman began to branch out. This may be called the transition stage, but the efforts of the women of today, who recognize these evils will blossom in the splendid woman of the future, who will have broad intellectual interests, sound judgment, generous sympathy and an ability to take a point of view finely impersonal. She will have an economic status as definite as it is satisfying and will be splendidly equipped for whatever work she may choose to do. It was a delightful talk delightfully given.

P. W. Adams, who fortunately for the program committee, is visiting friends here at present, spoke eloquently on "Early Recollections." As Mr. Adams was a former resident here, native born and returns so seldom some of the good things from his speech, which whas entirely extemporanious, will bear quoting. A verse from "The Old Oaken Bucket" introduced very happily the remarks which followed.

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollections presents
them to view,
The orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wild wood,
And all the fond scenes which my infancy knew.

"It has been my privilege to visit recently many of these dearly loved spots and to pause at these shrines of my early youth while memory brushed away the cobwebs of time and I am carried into the old "school house with the lean to" of which Mr. Richard has spoken, where I learned the rudiments of my native language and when a little older grown I entered that stately edifice, to us youths, the old university building. How vividly come to my mind those dear old teachers, Fletcher O. Marsh, Daniel B. Green, Rev. Mr. Taylor and the much revered and greatly beloved Prof. Estabrook.

Great is the power of local association it is inarticulate adoration addressed not only to the understanding, but to the heart. It is the incentive that moves the brush of the unseen artist who paints upon the tablet of the heart the pictures of the past, it is the phonograph which brings to our ears the very voices and the joyous laughter of our former friends. Mr. Adams closed with some original verses on "My Native Home." His words and his little poem were received with great applause.

The company then joined in singing "America" and a few volunteer speakers were called for. Daniel Satterthwaite of Raisin Valley Seminary, responding to an invitation to address the assembly, had the courage and the courtesy to pay a fine tribute to the women clubs of the country, saying that they were in the lead in all works of progress, reform and philanthropy. The club women will not soon forget that of the performers on the program, he was the only one who remembered and had the grace to pay a compliment to his entertainers.

Rev. Sedweek also kindly responded to the invitation and though the hour was late and the audience wearied still they listened with pleasure to his lively wit and funny stories. Mr. Lewis Waldron, John Schreder, Mortimer Alexander and Mrs. Horace Eaton were called for but declined to respond.

A fine collection of relics of former days was on exhibition in a tent in the rear where Aunt Rosa Young spun flax to the delight of crowds of children to whom the operation was very novel.

This is the first attempt of the Federation to do any work outside the club routine, but it is now their intention to organize a Pioneer and Historical society which shall meet each year and renew the memories of other times and preserve the history and the landmarks of the town. When we recall that this is a work which the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic societies are every where engaged in and that every little Indian village has its totem poles, whereon are carved the history of the village fathers, it seems that this is a work not unworthy the residents of our beautiful village of the India[illegible].

This movement is not to further the interests of a[illegible] society as many have imagined, but the disinterested patriotic work of a few club women to preserve the history of their town [illegible] who may be here a hundred years to come.

I wish to state to the public that the granite business of the late S. F. Marsteller of Clinton, will be continued as heretofore, and that it will be our aim to manufacture nothing but first class work at prices as low as are consistent with good workmanship.

Our plant is fully equipped with steam and pneumatic machinery for cutting, polishing and lettering granite and having been lately improved by the introduction of new machinery of the latest model, it is at present one of the most modern as well as one of the largest in Michigan.

Our monuments will be constructed from up-to-date designs only, and we hope by square dealing to obtain our share of your patronage.

Clinton, Mich., June 1, 1904.

ALL HAIL THE CIRCUS!

Barnum & Bailey will give us something really surprising.

Definite announcement has been made that the Barnum & Bailey, the greatest show on earth is to exhibit in Adrian June 17, 1904. This will be gratifying news to all who thoroughly enjoy a high class circus performance. Barnum & Bailey show, however, is more than a great circus. It is a colossal and comprehensive traveling exposition. Its various departments cover the most interesting and curious things in the zoological world including four giant giraffes; the extreme accomplishment of spectacular display; the best there is in the world of music; the pick of the world's great arenic stars in the most exhilarating of ring performances; the latest novelties in daring aerial bicycle exploits, and the most exciting features of the modern racing turf and the ancient Roman hippodrome.

Volo, the Volitant, loops the aerial arch on a bicycle and Ancillotti, the the most daring bicycle rider the world has ever seen, rides his wheel around a colossal loop from which the entire top has been removed. These marvelous acts have created a furore and are the talk of the country.

A loose life never made a light heart.

CAPT. LAWRENCE

Who has just returned from a trip to

ANDERSONVILLE,

Tells of his Visit to the Beautiful City of the Dead.

Captain A. D. Lawrence has just returned from a two weeks' visit in the south, visiting at many points of interest. His chief object in going was to be present at the dedication of the monument to the soldiers who suffered in Andersonville prison. This dedication occurred on Decoration day and there were many thousands of people present.

Excursions were run into Andersonville on all roads. Two companies of United States troops, one company from Georgia and also General Dan Sickles of New York City, whose name is familiar to all the old soldiers, were present.

The Captain visited the cemetery where over 14,000 soldiers sleep, 1,000 of whom are unknown. Only one man from Tecumseh, William McCann of Co. B. 7th Michigan Cavalry, was buried there. He was a blacksmith and kept a shop on South Railroad street. Captain Lawrence placed a flag on Mr. McCann's grave and succeeded in finding a number of the graves of members of his own regiment.

The stones for the graves have been set in a perfectly straight line, not over four inches apart. The cemetery is shaded with oak trees and magnolias that are now in bloom.

This was the Captain's first visit to Andersonville since a prisoner of war there.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentonville, Va. serves as example. He writes, "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles cured me." Equally effective in curing lung and throat troubles, consumption, and grip. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.

He is 82, was born in Monroe county, but has lived in Lenawee county 79 years, and we believe a longer resident than any person in Blissfield if not in the county. Mr. Giles, despite his age, is a well perserved man with vigorous intellect, well informed and has an excellent memory and is able to give much information of the early pioneer days of this county.—Adrian Press.

CURES WHILE YOU SLEEP

Hyomei guaranteed to cure catarrh or money refunded by C. A. Wright.

In addition to breathing Hyomei three or four times a day through the inhaler that comes with every outfit, it is well in the treatment of catarrh or catarrhal colds to moisten a piece of flannel with a few drops of Hyomei, and pin it to the night clothes right under the chin. In this way, Hyomei will be breathed the whole night long, curing while you sleep. In most cases it will break up a cold over night.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei costs but one dollar. The inhaler will last a lifetime, and if more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents.

It is the most economical of all remedies for the cure of catarrh, and the only one that follows a natural method in treating diseases of the respiratory organs. Physicians advise a change of climate for the cure of catarrh. With Hyomei, a change of climate is gained while at home. Its healing balsams impregnate the air you breathe, and their health-giving and germ destroying powers go to the most remote air cells of the respiratory organs.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. C. A. Wright has so much confidence in its power to kill catarrh, grippe and catarrhal colds, that he sells it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As many a Tecumseh reader knows too well.

When the kidneys are sick,
Nature tells you all about it.
The urine is nature's calendar.
Infrequent or too frequent action,
Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Tecumseh people testify to this.

F. A. Ferguson, tinsmith, residing in the northwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I had symptoms of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were very irregular and at times too frequent and highly colored. Having seen so many cases of [illegible] kidney trouble I thought it wise to do something at once, so I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at C. A. Wright's drug store and took them. I began to improve from the very start and continued to do so. I emphatically declare Doan's Kidney Pills to be up to the representations made for them."

NOTED COPPER MINER.

Capt. John Duncan of Calumet Passes Away, Aged 68 Years.

Calumet, Mich., June 6.—Copperdom's first citizen, and one of the upper peninsula's most prominent men, passed away at midnight, in the person of Captain John Duncan, aged 68.

Since last Thursday he had been gradually sinking. He was very prominent in masonic circles, and an Elk of high standing. He was known throughout the United States for his masonic work.

It might be stated that no man, conspicuous in this mining district, was held in higher esteem by everyone. The story of his life is practically that of the Calumet & Hecla mine and the copper country. For over thirty years he had ben the most prominent figure in the mining, political and industrial life of Houghton county.

Captain Duncan was born in Canada in 1836, of Scotch ancestry, and was one of the sturdy Scotchmen under whom the Calumet & Hecla grew to its present importance as a producing mine and became a marvel in its mechanical equipment.

SHIPS COLLIDE IN FOG.

Captain Was Drowned And Others of Crew Had Narrow Escapes.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., June 6.—The barge Lorberry of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal Company was sunk off Vineyard Sound lightship during a dense fog early Sunday through a collision with the steamer Tallahassee, Savannah for Boston. Captain Burroughs of the barge was drowned. The Tallahassee was saved from sinking by her water tight compartments and arrived here last evening. Her passengers will be sent to Boston by rail.

The Tallahassee, which carried nineteen passengers had a large hole stove in her bow and ran into Menensha Bight for safety, later proceeding here.

The accident occurred within a quarter of a mile of the lightship. The Lorberry, coal laden, was the stern barge of a tow of three behind the tug Gettysburg and was proceeding slowly when the Tallahassee, which was hunting for the lightship under slow speed came suddenly upon her. The Lorberry was struck on the starboard bow and sank within a few minutes. Captain Burroughs was on the deck when the collision occurred and rushing aft with the steward endeavored to clear the boat.

The barge sank before the boat could be lowered. The steward clung to a piece of wrekage and was picked up.

Three others of the barge's crew ran to the bow and climbed up the anchor chains to the steamer.

Young Farmer Shot Two Men.

Lexington, Va., June 6.—Edward McCormick, a young farmer of Brownsburg, sixteen miles from here, shot and instantly killed John W. Wade and Arthur Blackwell. The shooting was the result of bad feeling that has existed between the men for three years. It is asserted that the dead men had been drinking and waylaid McCormick and his father on their way home and stoned them, whereupon young McCormick fired, shooting Wade through the heart and Blackwell through the lungs. McCormick was arrested.

A Haitian Glass Eye.

Some years ago a Haitian general wrote to a Paris optician to supply him with a glass eye. The optician, flattering himself that a successful eye would secure for him a Haitian decoration, devoted his utmost intelligence to the production of a splendid glass optic. Six months elapsed. A small box reached him from Haiti. A cross glittered in his imagination; but, to his horror, within folds of cotton, was his original eye, accompanied by the following note: "Sir—The eye you forwarded to me is of a tint that resembles that of the Spanish flag, and I am too patriotic to wear any but the color of my country." The optician proceeded at once to the admiralty, there ascertained the colors of the Haitian flag and then manufactured a scarlet and green eye, which he forwarded.

FIRST TIME IN HISTORY.

Formal Memorial Exercises Held Over Confederates' Graves at Arlington.

Washington, June 6.—In the presence of thousands of ex-Confederate and ex-Union soldiers and of numbers of officers of the United States army and the the G.A.R., the first formal memorial exercises ever held over the graves of the Confederate section of Arlington cemetary were held Sunday. As the result of a movement initiated by the late President McKinley, the Confederate dead now have been gathered in one large and beautiful circle in the southern part of the cemetary where the graves have been marked with seperate stones.

The exercises were opened with music by the Fifteenth cavalry band. In a spirit of good will and fraternity after the exercises over the graves of the Confederate dead, those in charge of the services repeated them over the graves of the 2,000 unknown Union dead and decorated the graves with flowers. The Rev. Alexander W. Pitzer, pastor of the Southern Presbyterian church in this city, and an ex-Confederate soldier, was the orator of the day. He referred to the fact that the government of the United States, through reperesentatives of the army, was participating in the exercises and that the government had collected the remains of the Confederate soldiers and had erected suitable stones to mark their graves. He asked the ex-Confederates present if they would not recognize this as true magnanimity.

The exercises wer brought to a close by the Rev. Dr. Prettyman, who preyed for the living representatives of those who fell on both sides and for the coming of universal peace and good will which the ceremonies of the day foreshadowed.

Storm Struck West Branch.

West Branch, Mich., June 6.—A most terrific rain storm struck here doing upwards of $20,000 damage. Over 100 feet of Michigan Central track, on a curve north of town, was washed out, delaying all trains here until morning. All of the bridges in town but two were swept out and three dams on the Rifle, two miles east, including Vaughn's electric dams, went out with a loss of $5,000. The water fell in such torrents that everything was swept before it. The roads are mostly impassable for teams everywhere because of the bridges being gone, although most of the water is near Saginaw bay now.

YOUNGHUSBAND'S FATE.

English Anxious About Him While Among Tibetans.

London, June 6.—A report has been received here from Simla that the British expedition into Tibet has captured two 4-pounders from the enemy and killed a Lhassa general. It is also stated that the Tibetans have refused to forward a letter from Colonel Younghusband to Lhassa fixing the latest date the English force will negotiate with the natives before attacking the holy city at Lhassa.

In spite of this report of an English victory, the British government officials are in a fever of anxiety as to the fate of Colonel Younghusband and his gallant little army of 1,500 men who are besieged by 20,000 fanatical Tibetans far up amid the frozen peaks of the Himalaya mountains.

The boy threw the ball t a group of 150 Italian coal passers who were leaving the pier and it struck one of the men on the leg. The Italian drew a stiletto and ran after the boy but was caught by a policeman. The Italians then knocked the officer down and beat him until other policemen charged the crowd. Negress Gets Stitt's Money.

Jackson, Mich., June 4.—The John Stitt will case, which has been contested in the circuit court twice, is ended, so far as this court is concerned. The jury sustained the will. Stitt was a wealthy farmer of Jackson county, who at death left his entire estate to a negro girl, Etta Michen, instead of his own daughter, Mrs. Rose Whitney, the only direct heir. He also appointed Miss Michen administratrix. The will was contested on the ground of undue influence and was tried last October, when the jury disagreed after being out forty-eight hours.

No mother sould be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. A LIFE IN PRISON

Fate of Mrs. Collins Sealed by the Jury.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

Twelve Men Were Out but Few Hours—Hundreds Stood About Awaiting the Verdict—Prisoner Broke Down and Wept Bitterly.

Corunna, Mich., June 9.—The jury in the Collins murder case came in at 7:48 last evening with a verdict of guilty as charged, and the famous case is ended. The jury went out at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon and had reached a decision at 6 o'clock—less than four hours. On motion of John T. McCurdy, attorney for the defense, a stay of execution was granted until Monday, when it is expected that sentence will be passed.

The early verdict was somewhat of a surprise and it was the general opinion that it would be acquittal. When it became known that the twelve men were ready to come in the news that a decision had been reached spread like wildfire and a jam of 2,000 people surrounded the courthouse when Mrs. Collins was brought in by Sheriff Gerow to hear the verdict. Then came a heartbreaking wait of ten minutes before the jury arrived.

Mrs. Collins, who sat beside her attorney, evidently feared the worst, for she was deathly pale and trembled violently.

When County Clerk John Y. Marlin asked the customary question, "Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon a verdict?" Foreman John C. Dingman of Owosso arose and replied, "We have."

"What is it?"

"Guilty, as charged."

"That won't do," interposed Judge Smith quickly, "is she guilty of murder in the first degree?"

All the jurymen replied, "She is."

Mrs. Collins bowed her head in her hands and wept quietly but bitterly.

In making his plea for stay of execution Attorney McCurdy declared that he wished to present certain matters in connection with the case which had come to his ears within half an hour. He did not specify what these were. The case will undoubtedly be taken to the supreme court, but it is not believed there is a ghost of a show for Mrs. Collins.

During the entire trial Judge Smith's rulings have appeared to be more favorable to her than to the people, and his [illegible] charge to the jury was distinctly encouraging to Mrs. Collins. After instructing the jury that if there were a reasonable doubt they must acquit, he went on to say:

"It must bring doubt to the mind of any reasonable person that the attendant physicians in the Leachman case diagnosed the illness as pneumonia and that one of those physicians who took part in the postmortem should still believe death due to natural causes."

The case is the most famous in the history of Shiawassee county. It lasted thirty days and its cost to the county is in the neighborhood of $6,000. Had there been a disagreement there would probably have been no retrial, as sentiment is strong against further expense.

Using Unpaid-For Water.

Muskegon, Mich., June 9.—Trouble is likely to be caused for some large factories here by finding out that they are using enormous quantities of water which they are not paying for. At a star chamber session of the council last night a committee composed of the mayor and two aldermen reported that they found two of the biggest factories in the city getting water through a fire plug which is only supposed to be used in case of fire.

To Dredge St. Clair Canal.

Washington, June 9.—The long-pending controversy over the contract for the dredging of the canal through Lake St. Clair, Mich., has been settled by the award of the contract to M. Babbitt & Sons Co., of Toledo, Ohio, at its bid of $361,000.

MET WITH A REPULSE

Stubborn Attacks on Port Arthur Were Fruitless.

OUTER WORKS WERE DAMAGED

Fighting May Be Expected at Kin Chau—Rumored Vladivostok and Port Arthur Squadrons Join Forces—Naval Battle Fought.

London, June 9.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Co. from St. Petersburg transmits the following from Liao Yang:

"The Japanese, June 6, according to Chinese reports, made several sustained and stubborn attacks on Port Arthur simultaneously by land and sea. They were repulsed with severe losses.

"The position of the Japanese in Kwan Tung is said to be precarious.

"There are rumors from the same sources that the Vladivostok squadron has effected a junction with the Port Arthur fleet, that a naval battle took place and that the Japanese lost four large ships."

Chefoo, June 9.—According to reports brought here by Chinese arrivals from Port Arthur, the outer forts of that place have been badly damaged by the Japanese bombardment. Many buildings in the town have also been destroyed, but the inner forts have suffered but little. The Chinese appear to be unable to give any intelligent report on the condition of the Russian fleet, probably owing to the fact that they were not allowed in the vicinity of the naval basin.

Liao Yang, June 9.—The Japanese have evacuated their position near Vafangow. The neighboring mountains are deserted and the recently constructed entrenchments empty. Japanese mounted scouts even are no longer seen and the Russian Patrols have failed to locate and Japanese as far as Nafangkau. The railway is only slightly damaged and can be repaired in a few hours.

A severe fight may be expected at Kin Chau, where the Japanese are concentrating in the positions captured from the Russians. Japanese north of Pulandien are apparently retiring from that place. The Japanese have not effected a landing at Kin Chau. Their fleet of twenty-five transports loaded with war material and provisions which are lying off Kin Chau, has disappeared. Stores for the Japanese army are reaching Kin Chau from all directions.

While the days are now hot the nights are still cold and it is learned that the Japanese troops are suffering from disease brought on by sharp variations of temperature. The Japanese regard the use of the lance as barbarious because of the mortal wounds it inflicts. In the recent fighting the Japanese, it is estimated, lost 320 killed or wounded. They employed many coolies to carry away the bodies under cover of night.

President Angell Spoke.

Madison, Wis., June 9.—At the jubilee ceremonies of the University of Wisconsin Wednesday several addresses by presidents of other universities were made. Those on the program were President Daniel C. Gilman of Carnegie Institute; President Richard H. Jesse of the University of Missouri; President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California; President Cyrus Northrup of the University of Minnesota, and President James A. Angell of the University of Michigan.

Marine Firemen Will Strike.

New York, June 9.—Five thousand coast marine firemen, members of the marine firemen's union of this city have been ordered to strike by Daniel Sullivan, the general secretary of the national executive board of marine firemen's council. The strike is expected to extend to all the coast cities from Portland, Me., to Galveston, Tex. According to the expectation of Secretary Sullivan about 15,000 men will be out on strike within the next two weeks.

America Europe's Dumping Ground.

London, June 9.—One feature of the Atlantic rate-cutting war is that many foreign undesirables, as they are called, already have taken advantage of the $10 fares to depart for Canada and the United States. There has been a great rush for berths on the Philadelphia, nearly 700 being booked to sail from Southampton for New York today.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

Maccabees Spent First Day In Battle Creek at Play.

Battle Creek, Mich., June 8.—Though portentous clouds hovered over the city Tuesday, threatening to pour down at almost any moment, Maccabees wheeled into line in surprising numbers until fully 5,000 persons were in line for the great parade. Fully twice that number remained under the awnings. Notwithstanding all that it took nearly an hour for the parade to pass a given point. There were in all twelve bands, many handsome and tasty floats and [illegible].

The afternoon was devoted to field day sports and another parade for that purpose took place.

Today the business sessions of the biennial review of the great camp, Knights of the Modern Maccabees, and the great hive, Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, begin. The various standing committees began work on Monday and have been on the jump ever since. The business sessions will last two days.

Indications point to a genuine harmony throughout the meeting, there being but few contests for the high offices.

Weighty propositions will come before the sessions of both the great camp and the great hive for changing their laws.

DAM GAVE WAY.

Much Damage Done Near Brewster and Cedar Lakes.

Traverse City, Mich., June 8.—The dam across Nicholson creek broke at noon Tuesday, allowing the water of Brewster lake and Cedar lake to overflow the adjacent territory. Much damage was done to the farms and buildings. Several fruit orchards were uprooted; some small stock drowned; the Citizens' telephone lines torn down and several hundred feet of roadway washed away.

These two lakes are situated at an elevation of about 45 feet above the surrounding territory. They were both overflowing their banks on account of the recent rains. The dam was used to furnish power for a sawmill and was located at the outlet of the lake. It went out with a roar, and the whole lake of water went sweeping over the territory. Fortunately, there was no one in the path of the flood. The damage is quite heavy.

Thousands of Poles For Delta.

Gladstone, Mich., June 8.—Preparations to send the first lot of Polish settlers to northern Michigan—the vanguard of the largest colonization movements in the history of the northwest—are being completed by the agricultural commission of the Polish National alliance. The settlers are coming from Pennsylvania, and already it is assured that their numbers will exceed 20,000. The new-comers will be located on "cut-over" lands in Delta county, which the alliance has secured at low prices from the Wells and Stephenson interests.

Insure Their Horses.

Hillsdale, Mich., June 8.—The Rural Letter Carriers' association of Hillsdale county held its annual meeting in this city. This is the oldest, as well as largest and strongest organization of rural letter carriers in the state. A home insurance feature, whereby the association insures the lives of the horses of its members has been incorporated into the constitution of the association, and is one of its strong features.

To Bond For High School.

Three Rivers, Mich., June 8.—A special meeting of the voters of school district No. 1 of the township of Lockport, which includes all of the city schools, with a few of the voters living outside of the city limits, has been called for June 17 to vote on a proposition to bond the district in the sum of $20,000 to build a high school building on a site that was purchased in the fourth ward of the city last year.

Molded Counterfeit Nickels.

Detroit, Mich., June 8.—Carlton W. Maine and Howard W. Gray pleaded guilty before Judge Swan Tuesday to molding counterfeit nickels. Maine said he had been led into the criminal occupation by Frank I. Goodwin, who was camping near his home at North Adams. In view of their previous good reputations the court released the defendants on bail in the sum of $500 each to appear when ordered.

Couldn't Stand Abuse.

Menominee, Mich., June 8.—Mrs. Minnie Rauler committed suicide by hanging. She left a note addressed to her father explaining the cause, saying it was abuse. She was attired in her wedding gown and had a purse containing $100 in her pocket.

WARNING TO ATHLETES.

Serious Diseases of Arteries Attributed to Over-Indulgence.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 9.—Subjects of the greatest importance, not only to the medical profession but also to the general public, are being discussed at the various sectional meetings of the American Medical association.

Before the section of hygiene and sanitary science Dr. Howard A. Kelly of Baltimore read a paper on the moral obligations of the medical profession to solve the problem of the social evil. The "strenuous life" and its serious effect upon the human system was discussed at length by the members of the section of the practice of medicine. It was in the nature of a symposium on arteriosclerosis, an incurable disease resulting principally from overwork. The disease is a stiffening and deterioration of the arteries, causing them to age prematurely and frequently affecting the heart.

The subject was presented by Dr. James M. Anders of Philadelphia, who stated that the lack of physical exercise and mental and physical strain laid the foundation for the disease. He laid particular stress on the fact that a large number of athletes were victims of the ailment and that the arteries of many young men are as decrepit as those of a person 70 years of age. It is the duty of the medical profession, Dr. Anders said, to warn parents and those in charge of educational institutions where athletic sports are permitted of the serious results that might follow the playing of football and other tests of strength.

During the session of the section of nervous and mental diseases Dr. W. J. Herdman of Ann Arbor, Mich., read an interesting paper on the present campaign against insanity. He said in part:

"The attempt is being made in every enlightened community to study the problems of insanity in the light of the revelations of modern medical science.

"There is a general awakening to the necessity of a vigorous campaign against the causes leading to such diseases. Everywhere it is beginning to be recognized that the study must be a clinical one, that insane men must be brought into conjunction with the means of investigating his condition from every point of year." Dr. Herdman said much had been accomplished and that exact knowledge of the nature of various forms of insanity has increased to a remarkable degree.

Will Sue Secretary Taft.

Washington, June 9.—Lieut. John M. Shook of Kansas, late of the United States army, has taken exception to a statement made at the war department to the effect that he and his interpreter Lepma were guilty of extorting 600 pesos from an old Philippine woman. Shook says there is nothing in his record in the war department concerning this alleged affair and that he has never heard officially, or otherwise that his name was connected with the business at all. Lieut. Shook says he intends bringing suit against Secretary Taft to compel him to restore him to the army.

Miss Taylor Not Reinstated.

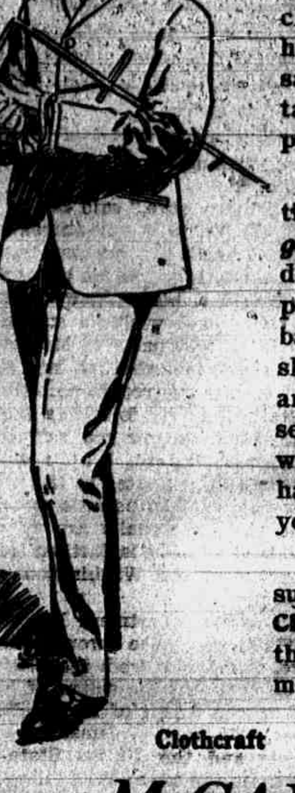
Washington, June 9.—The court of appeals of the District of Columbia has affirmed the decision of the court below in refusing to compel the secretary of war by mandamus proceedings to reinstate Miss Rebecca J. Taylor as a clerk in the war department. Miss Taylor admitted the authorship of a newspaper article which the defense claimed to be a severe reflection on the president of the United States. For this she was dismissed. Reinstatement was sought through the courts on the ground that Miss Taylor was removed because of her political belief and that this was contrary to the civil service law.

Noted Forger Arrested.

New York, June 9.—Thomas F. Kennedy, alias William H. Warren, who the police allege is a member of the noted Knox-Whitman band of forgers has just been arrested here on a charge of forgery preferred by the American Banking association. The prisoner is charged with having raised a draft of $10 to $10,000. He waived examination and was remanded to the Tombs.

Driven to Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident resulting from burns, cuts, wounds and ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25 cents at C. A. Wright's drug store.



Good Clothes

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

We're expecting you.

Worst of all experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes; "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At last I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely cured." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Weak Hearts

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the result. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to all organs. Sold by C. A. THE STICKING POINT.

U. S. Cannot Enforce Promises of Sultan to Bandit Rausili.

Washington, June 9.—Senor Don Emilio de Ojeda, the Spanish minister, talked to a correspondent of the Associated Press about the capture of Ion Perdicaris and the Moroccan situation generally. The representative for eight years of his government in Morocco, the minister is considered the best posted man in Washington on conditions there.

He is a warm friend of Mr. Perdicaris, of whom he speaks in the highest terms.

"I feel very sure," said Senor Ojeda, "that Raisuli will not surrender his captives until his ransom has been paid over to him and his terms agreed to. He is a bold fellow, intelligent and clever and wields a strong influence in certain parts of Morocco.

"You ask me whether my government credits the report that the United States is trying to seize a Moroccan port. I can answer you very emphatically, no. Indeed, I have not even mentioned the matter to the state department officials, because my government and I personally are very confident that nothing is further from the intention of the Washington government."

The state department has received unofficial assurance through Mr. Gummere, who had it from the British consul at Fez, that the sultan of Morocco will accede to all of Bandit Raisuli's terms. The bandit's demand that Great Britain and the United States shall guarantee the execution of the sultan's promises, however, is the sticking point, and this probably can be gotten around only by the acceptance of this obligation by Great Britain or France or some other country not so strongly bound as the United States by its traditions not to entangle itself in the internal affairs of other countries. It is stated positively that under no conditions can the United States government execute these guarantees.

An Adrian man a header took, while riding on his wheel; he thought the city was to blame and could not help but feel, that damages from city funds should go into his purse for he was very sore and bruised and what perhaps was worse, his false teeth were broken or lost and $12 was what they cost.—Hudson Post.

The following comes from a doctor at Monroe: A patient called at his office, stated his ills and the doctor wrote a prescription and handed it to him. The patient then inquired the probable cost of getting it filled and was told about 60c. would pay the bill. The patient then asked the doctor for the loan of that amount and the doctor scratching his head, drew a line thro' several parts of the prescription and then handed it to the patient saying, "Now you can get it filled for a dime. Those I scratched out were for your nerves; but I see you do not need anything for them."—Ex.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. M. F. STEIN
THE FAMOUS OPTICIAN of Detroit,

The eye, when properly cared for affords the keenest delight because of the pleasures we are able to enjoy through its medium When not cared for and its warnings are unheeded, it becomes an instrument of torture. Headaches, eye pains, burning, itching sensation, strained vision, nervous troubles and many bodily ills are the results accruing from over worked eyes, eyes that need help. My examination reveals all hidden troubles, and it is my province to fit the right glasses to any and all defects of vision. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED BY

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentorville, Va. serves as example. He writes, "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles cured me." Equally effective in curing lung and throat troubles, consumption, and grip. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. A LETTER

Concerning the Mormons and their Church from

LUCY HAIGHT COLP

Written to her Uncle, Ed Russell who has kindly loaned it to this Paper.

316 W. First St. South,
Salt Lake City, June 3, 1904.

MY DEAR UNCLE ED:—Your delightful letter reached me here, forwarded by one of the servants of Uncle Sam. Indeed when we got out of Idaho I felt that we had returned once more to the United States.

And here I am in the city of the saints! It brings to mind studying geography and learning about Great Salt Lake, that had no visible inlet, was fed by subterranean passages. Now I believe geologists claim that it is a remnant of the ocean which once covered the land. It is drying up and at the present rate it is said in fifty years there will be no Great Salt Lake.

Brigham Young still lives in the memory of his surviving wives, children, etc. as the enclosed will show you. We visited his tomb. It is in an enclosure some two hundred by one hundred feet, there are eight wives around him, but as the authorities have stopped placing any more there the remainder are buried elsewhere. The burying spot is what is now the very heart of the city.

It seems to me at the Resurrection Day, those wives nearest him, will stand the best chance of having him. I will send a picture of the temple, which no gentile is allowed to enter and where a man's wives are sealed to him for all eternity. I am told Brigham had twenty one (don't you pity him?) and six still live.

At the most public place in the city is an immense statue of Brigham, on the pedestal of which are figured in bas-relief of two pioneers and of the Indian which always accompanies the conception of a pioneer wherever I have seen one. But this particular Indian has his hair in two long, smooth braids; he is a most orderly appearing personage, with such a benign, placid countenance, that he surely was not a dangerous one; he must have been a good Indian when he was alive.

As I have said above, only the mormons are allowed to enter the temple, which you will remember was forty years in being built, but we have visited the tabernacle, which is a most interesting building. It is two hundred and fifty feet long. When we were seated at one end, in the gallery a man at the opposite end below, dropped a pin, which we distinctly heard. There is no nail in the tabernacle, one piece of timber being fitted into another. When necessary to fasten pieces together wooden pins were used, nails being too expensive, costing at the time one hundred and twenty-five dollars per keg.

The organ in the temple is the finest in the world. The key board is twenty feet from the instrument, thus the organist is enabled to sit with the choir and he looks much more comfortable facing the audience than other organists do on their high seats with their backs to us.

In 1847 Brigham Young came here with the followers of Joseph Smith, from Illinois, the journey occupying two years. Utah was then a part of Mexico and they were not in the United States. Now that civilization has spread from coast to coast, in these days of easy travel and numerous rail roads, when one sees this beautiful city it is difficult to realize what it was to cross the country so many years ago. In the company that came here in 1847 were one hundred forty-three men, three women and two children. Perhaps with such a dearth of women it is no wonder that Brigham wanted wives and more wives.

Last Sunday we listened to a very able lecture on Mormonism (the latter day saints) by Major Young, a grandson of Brigham, he told us that at present there are two thousand missionaries in the different parts of the world. All the churches send out their missionaries for the same purpose you know, not to teach and enlighten, only that such and such a creed must be believed in, in order to be saved.

I have been twice to the Bureau of Information to talk with two Mormon elders who are in charge and are very courteous and cordial; either I amuse them, or they are hoping to convert me (probably the latter). I shall go often and at least be well posted in the religion while in the city.

With love to all,
Your niece
LUCY HAIGHT COLP.

Schreder—Penman.

A very pretty informal home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Schreder, Wednesday afternoon when their daughter, Lovina J., became the wife of Dr. Wm. J. Penman, of Detroit. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev J. A. DeSpelder promptly at four o'clock in the presence of only the immediate family of both contracting parties. They were attended by a brother and a sister of the bride, Charles Schreder of Utica, and Miss Blanche Schreder.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk mull and carried white bride's roses. Miss Blanche Schreder wore white silk mull.

After congratulations they were invited to the dining room where a delightful three course wedding supper was served. Dr. and Mrs. Penman left on the evening train for Detroit, their future home.

The bride is well and favorably known in this village and has many friends here. The groom, a doctor of dentistry, of Detroit, is well known here and liked by every one. The congratulations of their friends are extended to them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Penman, of Detroit, father and mother, of the groom, Chas. Schreder of Utica, and the Misses Lydia and Margaret Schreder of Chicago, were the only guests from out of town.

THE CHURCHES.

Children's day exercises at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Parents having children they desire to have baptized may present them at this service.

In the evening the pastor will begin a series on the "Professions" the first being on the "Merchant." Everybody invited.

A stout man pushing a contrivance resembling a cross between a wheel barrow and an invalid's chair in which sat a very homely but able bodied woman passed through our streets early Tuesday afternoon. It is said that they are going around the world in this fashion but are just now headed for the St. Louis exposition. This matter of going around the world in some freak fashion has been worked about to the limit. Why don't some one to be different go through the earth instead of around it? —Chelsea Standard.

CURES WHILE YOU SLEEP

Hyomei guaranteed to cure catarrh or money refunded by C. A. Wright.

In addition to breathing Hyomei three or four times a day through the inhaler that comes with every outfit, it is well in the treatment of catarrh or catarrhal colds to moisten a piece of flannel with a few drops of Hyomei, and pin it to the night clothes right under the chin. In this way, Hyomei will be breathed the whole night long, curing while you sleep. In most cases it will break up a cold over night.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei costs but one dollar. The inhaler will last a lifetime, and if more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents.

It is the most economical of all remedies for the cure of catarrh, and the only one that follows a natural method in treating diseases of the respiratory organs. Physicians advise a change of climate for the cure of catarrh. With Hyomei, a change of climate is gained while at home. Its healing balsams impregnate the air you breathe, and their health-giving and germ destroying powers go to the most remote air cells of the respiratory organs.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. C. A. Wright has so much confidence in its power to kill catarrh, grippe and catarrhal colds, that he sells it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As many a Tecumseh reader knows too well.

When the kidneys are sick, nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action, Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Tecumseh people testify to this.

F. A. Ferguson, tinsmith, residing in the northwestern section of Tecumseh, says: "I had symptoms of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were very irregular and at times too frequent and highly colored. Having seen so many cases of severe kidney trouble I thought it wise to do something at once, so I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at C. A. Wright's drug store and took them. I began to improve from the very start and continued to do so. I emphatically declare Doan's Kidney Pills to be up to the representations made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Only one remedy in the world that will at once stop itchiness of the skin in any part of the body; Doan's Ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.

An Open Letter to the Public

FROM A WELL-KNOWN DRUGGIST

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to advertised medicines and their value. We want to say to every man, woman and child in this vicinity that the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil,—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength-creator we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine; it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength-creator for old people, weak, sickly women, children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite, and make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold on a positive guarantee. Call and get a Vinol booklet.

Mr. Davenport was comparatively a young man, being but 44 years of age, comfortably situated and with bright prospects before him, but not all are spared to reach the "three score year and ten" mark for death is no respecter of persons and we may be called at any time in life. A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

DID HE TELL TRUTH?

Salsbury's Testimony Contradicted on All Sides.

HERALD REPORTER TESTIFIES

President Waters of Grand Rapids National Bank Denies Certain Alleged Conversations—Citizens Will Support Name of Conger.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June [illegible]—In the Conger trial Friday Harvey L. Brown, reporter for the Herald, testified to warning Alderman Forbes not to sign the report of the special committee because the deal was crooked. He said he did so at Conger's request.

The prosecution brought out in cross-examination that Brown had not volunteered this testimony at the time of the grand jury; also that Brown had been barred out of the office of the prosecuting attorney because of alleged misrepresentations in his Herald articles about the water deal.

Dudley E. Waters, president of the Grand Rapids National bank, denied that he had a conversation with Salsbury in July, in which he said he had money enough, but would not interfere with the other fellows. He denied also telling Salsbury that he got money from New York.

Prosecutor Ward brought out that Waters had not been present at meetings of the board of public works from Aug. 17 to Oct. 19, when the water plan was under discussion. Waters said he was out of town seeking relief from hay fever.

Conger's Character.

The afternoon session was devoted principally to the introduction of witnesses to prove the good character and integrity of the respondent. Those who testified to his good character and his reputation for truth and veracity as well as his business integrity were Congressman William Alden Smith, J. A. S. Verdier, cashier of the Kent County Savings bank; ex-Judge Cyrus E. Perkins, State Senator R. B. Loomis, Judge of Probate H. D. Jewell and Amos S. Musselman.

The defense had other witnesses to offer as to Conger's character, but the court limited the number to six. The defense took exception to that ruling and asked that a number of the Herald's staff be sworn to show what Mr. Conger's instructions were as to the water deal, but the court refused the request. It also ruled out the application to have the files of the Herald at the time of the grand jury put in evidence.

Edward Walker, custodian of the vaults of the Michigan Trust Co., produced the records of the vaults from the safety box, in which the $75,000 boodle fund was deposited. No visit was paid after Aug. 23 by either McLeod or Gales. The records of the box Salsbury rented Oct. 15, 1900, were also produced to show the time Salsbury visited the vault.

At this point the defense rested and evidence in rebuttal was begun by the prosecution by reading certain editorials of the Herald. Before these were finished court adjourned.

Lansing, Mich., June 11.—Adjt.-Gen. Brown has issued orders announcing that the annual practice cruise of the Michigan state naval brigade will commence Aug. 6. The commanding officer of the brigade is directed to assemble his battalion on board the Yantic at Detroit Saturday, Aug. 6, at 8 o'clock a. m., and report to the commanding officer of the Michigan at Mackinaw on Aug. 10, for the purpose of target practice and instruction. The Yantic will return to Detroit not later than Aug. 15. The quartermaster-general will furnish transportation and commutation of rations for the Saginaw and Benton Harbor divisions to and from Detroit.

BOATS IN COLLISION

Canadian Steamer Sunk and Five Persons Perished.

OVER HUNDRED PERSONS SAVED

Coal Collier Swung Directly in Front of Passenger Steamer — Sleeping Passengers [illegible] Lives—Good Discipline [illegible]

Montreal, June 13.—The Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Co.'s steamer Canada, bound from Quebec for Montreal, came into collision with the Dominion Coal Co.'s collier Cape Breton, six miles below Sorel early Sunday. Twenty minutes later the Canada went to the bottom. At the time of the collision there were 110 people on board the Canada. Five were lost; the others were rescued. Those who perished were:

Alfred Thibeault, ticket agent of the company at Quebec, and his two sons, aged 12 and 15. Purser Bonneterre of the Canada. A man named Brunet of Sorel. He is missing, and it is supposed that he perished.

The collision occurred just as dawn was breaking. The Cape Breton lay at the entrance of the Lake St. Peter channel waiting for daylight so as to find her way through. She was getting under way when the Canada, making for Sorel at full speed, came into view.

Just what the collision was due to and who is responsible for it has not yet been determined, for the officers of the Canada decline to talk, but from the statements given out it would appear that the Cape Breton had not got headway on enough to answer her rudder and that she swerved across the path of the passenger boat, her bow striking the Canada just forward of the paddle box on the starboard side and tearing its way half through.

Then the Cape Breton swung clear and the two steamers came alongside one another.

No Great Excitement.

The shock of the collision aroused the sleeping passengers. The Canada at once began to settle, and as the Cape Breton did not appear to be seriously damaged the passengers were hurriedly transferred to this steamer. In the excitement some of the passengers jumped overboard and were picked up by boats from the Canada and Cape Breton, but a great majority of those on board did not become excited, while the discipline shown by the crew of the Canada was excellent. Twenty minutes later, when the Canada went down alongside the Cape Breton, resting on her side in the mud, all the passengers who could be found had been transferred.

Thibeault and his two sons occupied a stateroom near where the Cape Breton's bow entered the Canada, and it is supposed that they were killed in their berths. The body of the father was recovered later in the day, but the remains of the two sons have not been found. Bonneterre, the purser, was seen after the collision making his way to his quarters on the lower deck with the intention of saving his cash and records, and it is supposed that he perished in the attempt. Brunet was a second-class passenger and no one saw him after the collision, though it is just possible that he went ashore with the crew of one of the boats sent to secure help from Sorel.

Ajax Won Grand Prix.

Paris, June 13.—Edmund Blanc's bay colt Ajax, by Flying Fox-Amie, Sunday won the Grand Prix de Paris of $40,000, distance about one mile and seven furlongs, this stable thus accomplishing the rare feat of carrying off three great events in the year, the Prix de Diane (the French equivalent of the English Oaks), the Prix du Jockey Club (the French equivalent of the English Derby), and the Grand Prix. Everything combined to make the occasion an immense success. President Loubet, accompanied by Mme. Loubet, drove in state to the course and received the heartiest greetings from the huge crowd which was gathered along the route.

Caught at Green Bay.

Marquette, Mich., June 11.—C. H. Downes, who left here about two weeks ago leaving behind him a lot of unpaid bills and who hoaxed the people by a fake survey of an interurban electric line, has been arrested at Green Bay and will be brought to Marquette for trial.

LED INTO AMBUSCADE

Two Whole Japanese Battalions Blotted Out of Existence.

RUSSIANS HID IN A RAVINE

Near Feng Wang Cheng Road—Only One or Two Escaped—Rumors of Great Naval Battle Heard in St. Petersburg.

Hai Cheng, Manchuria, June 13.—A flanking movement of the Japanese around the Russian left from Feng Wang Cheng June 9 was repulsed with a loss of two whole battalions.

A large Japanese force moved out in the morning along the Feng Wang Cheng & Hai Cheng road. The Russians had a force strongly posted in a ravine thirty miles southeast of Hai Cheng. The Japanese were preceded by two battalions, who walked into the Russian ambuscade. They received a murderous rifle and artillery fire at close range and were wiped out, only one or two escaping.

The main Japanese force, which was greatly superior to the Russian force, tried to outflank the Russians, who drew off without losing a man. The Japanese, closing in, found the ravine vacant save for their own dead."

St. Petersburg, June 13.—Rumors are in circulation here to the effect that a great naval battle has taken place off Port Arthur, in which two Russian and four Japanese battleships were sunk. No confirmation of the rumor can be obtained.

Tokio, June 13.—The military commission assigned to bury the Russian dead in the battle of Nan Shan Hill at Kinchou, May 26, has presented its final report. It was found that ten Russian officers and 664 men who fell in the battle had been carefully buried and 30 men were buried by the outposts, making the total number of killed left behind by the Russians 704.

FOR EXILED MINERS.

Co-Operative Camp Will Be Opened in New Mexico.

Denver, June 13.—A new mining camp will be opened in New Mexico, according to the Post, to receive the deported union miners from Cripple Creek. The Western Federation of Miners will work the claims on a co-operative basis and will have entire jurisdiction over their development. Provision will be made by the Federation for all deported miners, and to this end a carload of supplies will be sent to the new camp immediately as a starter.

The camp will be located near Tres Piedras, which is twenty miles south of the Colorado line on the line of the Denver & Rio Grande. There is a district ten miles square of virgin ore and the work of mining it will be parceled out to union miners. They will work on the co-operative plan, but the miners will be supported by the federation while prospecting.

According to the story, the idea of a co-operative union camp was suggested to Secretary Haywood of the federation by A. Royal, president of the Belle Royal Mining & Milling Co. of Tres Piedras, which company owns eighty acres in the district. This property will be purchased by the federation for initial operations.

The particularly attractive feature of the proposition to send the exiled men to New Mexico was that there they would be amenable to federal law only. Governor Peabody has been asked to order General Bell to send further shipments of deported miners from Cripple Creek to New Mexico and approves of the plan, according to the story.

Shot Himself in Street.

Detroit, Mich., June 11.—Satisfied that he was soon to lose his position and despondent over thoughts of poverty, August Herman Schenck, aged 50 years, a mail carrier, connected with Station B, committed suicide early in the morning by shooting himself in the forehead. The tragedy occurred on Bagg street, just east of Fourteenth avenue.

Saginaw Brewery Scorched.

Saginaw, Mich., June 11.—Fire in Jacob Raquet's brewery last night caused loss of between $18,000 and $25,000, with insurance at $8,000. The fire department fought the flames for several hours, but owing to peculiar construction of building were unable to prevent the heavy loss. Origin of fire unknown.

PERICARDIS IS WELL.

Exposition Commissioner Visited Bandit Raisuli's Camp.

Tangier, June 13.—J. W. S. Langerman, commissioner of the Moroccan station of the St. Louis exposition, arrived here today from the camp of Raisuli, the bandit. In an interview given to the Associated Press Mr. Langerman said: "I left here by steamer for Arzila, in company with a friend and three Moors, the object being to see Raisuli and try to arrange the present difficulties.

"I met Raisuli and his band, fully armed, and suspicious of the visit. For a few moments the situation was critical, but all passed off well.

"Ion Perdicaris, the American whom Raisuli holds captive, is much better and in good spirits over the prospect of his speedy release."

"The ransom demanded is not so much the price of our release as the demand for the re-couping of the losses inflicted by order of the said Bashaw, from whom Raisuli claims payment.

"Another startling surprise is to find in Raisuli himself the most interesting and kindly-hearted native gentleman it has been my good fortune to have known. It is impossible not to like the man, conscious as I am of the injury all at Tangier suffered at his hands."

After dealing with some private matters and referring to the courage of his wife and the mental anguish she has endured, Mr. Perdicaris expresses the hope that some good will come of the trouble to Tangier and its people. He then proceeds:

"Meantime you must not worry about us. I am writing this at the mouth of a handsome tent, placed at our disposition by Moulai Ali, the Wazzani shereef.

"Our release will be very welcome, but it is at hand now, so you must not pity us too much."

Tobacco Smoke Hindered Firemen.

New York, June 13.—Thirty firemen were temporarily overcome by tobacco smoke and the fumes from alcohol early in the day while fighting a fire in Holtz' cafe in Broadway. The fire was confined to the sub-cellar, in which liquors and cigars were stored, and the fumes and the dense smoke from the burning cigars hindered the firemen to such an extent that they were compelled to work in two-minute relays. During the fire an ambulance surgeon was stationed nearby to care for the firemen, whose eyes caused them intense pain after each rush into the smoke. The damage to the restaurant was $100,000.

Suspicioned the Wrong Man.

Pueblo, Col., June 13.—J. H. Ross and William Stubbs, railroad section laborers, supposed to have been in the party which held up the Denver & Rio Grande train several days ago near Glenwood Springs, are in Pueblo. Ross was supposed to be the robber who killed himself afer he had been wounded by the pursuing posse. The police investigated and found that Ross and Stubbs were in Pueblo the night of the crime, having left the grading camp where they were working two days before the hold-up. Ross made himself known upon reading in the papers that he had killed himself.

Engineer a Murderer.

Mahanoy City, Pa., June 13.—Following a quarrel over a trivial affair at Girardville late at night, Thomas Thompson, a railroad engineer, shot and killed Philip Curley, aged 21 years. Thompson fled, but was afterward captured and committed to jail. Some years ago Thompson shot and killed his younger brother, who was rushing upon his mother with a knife.

Visited Washington's Tomb.

Washington, June 13.—The members of the honorary board of Filipino commissioners visited the tomb of George Washington Sunday as the guests of the United States navy. The party, including prominent navy and army officers and representatives of the local citizens' committee, spent the day on the Potomac river aboard the U. S. S. Dolphin. She left the navy yard at 10 o'clock and after a stop of an hour at Mount Vernon continued her cruise down the river as far as the Indian Head proving grounds, returning at 5 o'clock. The commissioners left for Philadelphia today in continuation of their tour of the country.

Good Clothes

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

We're expecting you.

Some lawyers consider it a crime to confess a crime.

Worst of all experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes; "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At last I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely cured." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

One man's greatness is due to the aid of many smaller men.

Feet swollen to immense size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad that I could not work," says J. Cox [illegible] View, Ky., "my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable [illegible] me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney cure which made me a well man." Sold by all druggists in Tecumseh.

Enthusiasm and lying are synonymous with some people.

Piles upon top of piles.

Piles upon top of piles of people have the piles and DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cures them. There are many different kinds of piles but if you get the genuine and original witch hazel salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, a cure is certain. E. Tisdale of Summerton, S. C., says "I had piles 20 years but your salve cured me after every thing else had failed." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Every man imagines he is some other man's best friend.

Brain fag—inactivity of the mind—is but the natural result of indigestion or a disordered liver. You are at your best physically and mentally only when the important organs are properly performing their functions. Greene's Little Laxative Beans will right all wrongs of the digestive apparatus and cure dizziness, constipation, sleeplessness and that tired, worn-out feeling. B. J. PULVER.

Bitter medicine, like bitter experience, is usually the best.

The pill that will, will fill the bill,
Without a gripe.
To cleanse the liver without a quiver,
Take one at night.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice and all troubles arising from an inactive liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold by C. A. Wright.

It's a case of minority rule in a house where there's a baby.

Constipation causes two-thirds of all sickness in the world. Why suffer when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well? 35 cents. Tea or tablet form. JOHN J. ORR.

The easiest way for a girl to catch a husband is to not run after him.

Weak Hearts

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the result. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to all organs. Sold by C. A. Wright.

When a man is unable to make a living at anything else he is eligible for a government job.

Into each life some rains must fall,
Wise people don't sit down and bawl;
Only fools suicide or take to flight,
Smart people take Rocky Mountain

Newton's Blue.

It is well known that under the action of gravity the water composing such a thin shell as a soap bubble tends to run down on all sides, so that the walls of the bubble grow thin at the top and thicken toward the bottom. After a time the bubble becomes so thin at the top that further flow of water from this point can hardly take place, and finally the bubble bursts. But before this last stage is reached a degree of thinness in the walls of the bubble is attained which causes it to glow with brilliant iridescent colors. Newton noticed that on top of the thin bubble illuminated by white sky light a black spot is formed. With increase of thickness downward from this point on all sides, a red band next appears; then a blue one; then again red and blue, red and blue, and so on, the colors showing more extremes of red and purple in the higher orders. This blue band which first expands outward from the black spot at the top and descends slowly with the subsidence of the water Newton called the "blue of the first order," and, although somewhat dingy, he judged it to be of the same tint as the blue of the sky.—T. J. J. See in Atlantic.

Inquisitive Birds.

Of the birds undoubtedly the blue jays have the most inquisitiveness. And they are the most noisy in expressing it, although crows will hold a close second place, if not fully the equal. How the jays screeched and whistled and called—a confusion of all the sounds of jaydom—near my home! More than a dozen darted into a small evergreen tree on the lawn. People came from several houses in the vicinity, all curious to know what was the matter with the birds. It seemed to be a "want to know" on both sides. The jays had discovered a cat walking meekly along by the fence in the low shrubbery near and under the spruce tree. There was no nest in the vicinity, and, so far as could be ascertained, the cat had not attacked the jays. But what a pandem[illegible] jargon over one meek looking, quiet cat! The [illegible] themselves and [illegible] nearly all the occupants of the many houses on that street.—St. Nicholas.

To Restore Leather Bindings.

To restore the leather bindings of books wash them first very lightly and carefully with clean warm water in which a tiny piece of soda has been dissolved, in order to free the leather from grease; then wash with clear water to remove the soda, and dry. Dissolve a bit of gum arabic the size of a small bean in a teaspoonful of water and beat it up with a teaspoonful of the white of an egg. With a bit of sponge go lightly over the leather with this glair and let it dry.

Should the glair froth up on the leather, as it is very likely to do if there is much tool work on the book, dab it until it subsides with the palm of the hand or with the sponge squeezed as dry as possible.

Successful Reminder.

A small church was sadly in need of repairs, and a meeting was held with a view to raising funds for the purpose. The minister having said that $500 would be needed, a [illegible] stingy member arose and said he would give $1. Just as he sat down a large piece of plaster fell from the ceiling and struck him on his head, whereupon he jumped up hastily and said that he had made a mistake, that he would give $50. This was too much for an enthusiastic deacon present, who, forgetful of everything, called out fervently: "O Lord, hit him again! Hit him again!"—Mount Morris (Ill.) Index.

In a Minute.

We do a good many things in a minute. For instance, we are whirled on the outside of the earth just thirteen miles and have gone around the sun 1,080 miles; a ray of light has traveled 11,100,000 miles; the lowest sound your ear can catch has made 990 vibrations, the loudest tone 2,228,000 vibrations; twenty-four barrels of beer have gone down 12,096 throats; 6,073 cigars have been made; 300 tons of coal have been mined, and $66 worth of gold has been extracted from mother earth.

St. Martin and the Dictionary.

St. Martin when he divided his cape with a naked beggar at the gate of Amiens gave also two words to the English language. The oratory in which this torn cape was preserved as a sacred banner acquired the name of "chapelle" (from the French "chape"), the custodian being termed "chaplain," and thus our English words "chapel" and "chaplain" are derived.—Westminster Gazette.

Her Conclusion.

"Do you think your father has any idea that I have serious intentions concerning you?"

"I heard him telling mother the other day that he didn't think it would cost any more to have you at the table regularly than it does for me to feed you from the pantry shelves every night."—Chicago Record-Herald.

More Than They Claimed.

"Say," said the irate victim, "you advertised that the house was five minutes' walk from the station."

"Well?" replied the agent.

"Why, it's nearly thirty minutes!"

"Ah, then, as we said farther on in the advertisement, it is more than we claimed."

Changed His Mind.

"I thought it was a case of love at first sight."

"It was, but he concluded that second sight was best."—Brooklyn Life.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Our village ball boys took a drive to Manchester Tuesday and there did up [illegible]ster village team by a score of 16 to 8. Batteries for Manchester, Sloat and Wisely, for Saline, Gillen and Schroen.—Saline Observer.

A married man who came home at 2 o'clock in the morning and insisted on telling his wife a new joke, is now sympathizing with the parrot and has taken as his motto, "I know what's the matter with you, Polly! You talk too darned much!

An editor, a country editor, of course, came home the other night and told his wife he had seen a butterfly with a garter-snake in its mouth! This was the first inkling the wife had ever received that he was "hitting" the gasoline can. The editor has since signed the pledge.

The country newspaper is read from the date line to the patent medicine ad. Many city papers can be found, scarcely rumpled, on the street car seats in the cities. Ever see a town littered up with county papers? No, they are all worn out before the neighbors get half through them!

An Illinois editor has sold his paper and gone into the seed corn business. He is getting along nicely, having learned how to lock up the forms of a two-bushel sack with neatness and dispatch. He has also become versatile enough to tell eight-point corn from pop-corn, and hasn't "pied" a "take" of cobs for a week. These editors are versatile "fellers."

Robt. McLean, an Onsted merchant, was at Moreland Bros. & Crane's store buying goods last Friday when he suddenly became unconscious. Dr. Morden was summoned and found him suffering from heart trouble and labored hard to restore heart action in which he succeeded and as soon as he could be safely be removed Mr. McLean was taken to the sanitarium where he was given every care.—Adrian Press.

The meanest young man in Kansas lives at Horton. He asked a young lady what she wanted for a birthday present and suggested gloves but the girl tho't something for her neck would be nicer. On the evening of her birthday he handed her a small package neatly done up. Nervously she opened it in the presence of the other girls and found a bar of soap.—Onsted News.

David Schneider of Freedom, was found dead at his home early Sunday morning. He was in Ann Arbor on Saturday and purchased a gallon of whiskey a quart of which was missing when the body was found. Dr. Sanford was sent for and held a post-mortem which revealed the fact that a large clot of blood had formed by the heart, cutting off natural circulation.—Saline Observer.

Hillsdale has a millionaire. And then he is married It seems to have been a secret. He secured a teacher of years of service and here's where we get our authority:—Atlantic City N. J., June 4.—Miss Carrie E. Adams, for 31 years a teacher in the public schools here, proved she could keep a secret. She was married in February to J. O. Parkyn, a millionaire fruit dealer of Hillsdale. The ceremony was performed at her home by Rev. Stanley. She kept the affair a secret as she had signed a contract to teach the school year.—Adrian Times.

The funny paragrapher was trying to think up a few thoughtful chunks while enjoying a 15 cent course dinner, when suddenly the fluffy-haired waitress dropped a load of dishes. Hastily yanking his note book from an inside pocket the funny paragrapher wrote as follows; "A waitress may not know a club from a spade but she can easily raise the dence by dropping a tray."—Brooklyn Exponent.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so decep[illegible]. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

E. E. Burham met with quite an accident [illegible] Tuesday. He hitched his team to the buggy intending [illegible] drive into the country but when about to start he left the horses [illegible] the barn for a laprobe but before his return the horses began to step faster and faster so did Mr. Burham until within reach of the buggy, when he made a grab for the reins but they slipped over the dashboard out of reach but he managed to get his arm through the spokes of the wheel giving his arm a terrible wrench and throwing him down. The horses jogged along until in front of Joel Bragg's barn and Mr. Comstock caught them none the worse for the driverless trip.—Deerfield Journal.

Wm. R. McCrimmon.

Wm. R. McCrimmon was born in Big Rapids, Mich., July 8, 1871, and died at Grand Rapids Friday, May 27, 1904. When but a boy he with his parents moved to Luther, where he spent three or four years as a clerk in one of the busy stores of that new and growing town.

It was during those years that he, under the guidance of the Rev. John C. Beach, an intensely spiritual man had the eyes of his understanding opened, and caught such a vision of God that he learned to walk by faith. Through his advice and encouragement he spent two years at Albion college. Wishing to make teaching his profession he attended the State Normal school at Ypsilanti from which in the spring of 1900 he received a life certificate. From that he was called to the superintendency of the schools at Mancelona, Mich. He was not permitted, however, to labor long in this his chosen work, but after nearly two years he was compelled through illness to resign.

Thinking that a period of rest might bring recuperated health, he moved his family to their home at Ridgeway. But after about two years of suffering which he was enabled to bear with great patience and Christian fortitude, he laid down the cross to take up the crown.

On August 28, 1895 he was married to Miss Clara [illegible]. To them were born two children, Miriam Jane, aged nearly seven and Paul Temple, aged about five and one-half years, who with her are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. [illegible] gain. His great aim and purpose in life was that the world might be better for his having lived in it. He was unselfish to the last. The Bible was his constant companion. He longed to live for the sake of his family, but was resigned to his Heavenly Father's will and when the end came, with great joy, he entered into the house of many mansions.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentorville, Va. serves as example. He writes, "I had bronchitis for three years and [illegible] time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles cured me." Equally effective in curing lung and throat troubles, consumption, and grip. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.

GRADUATION

Exercises were held at the

NEW BRADLEY

Last Thursday, when Twelve Young People stepped out into the World.

The annual commencement exercises of the Tecumseh high school were given at the New Bradley Thursday evening. The house had been tastefully trimmed with old rose and white bunting, the senior class colors, and branches of locust leaves with the white blossoms. To the corners of the gallery the rose and white bunting was suspended from the dome, where it was fastened with locust leaves and blossoms. The stage presented a handsome appearance with the forest scenery and formed a beautiful back-ground for the dainty white dresses of the girl graduates. The class motto, "Perseverance," was fastened across the front of the stage.

The program was opened with a song by the high school chorus, with Mrs. Ella Hodges at the piano. Prayer was offered by Rev. DeSpelder. Walter S. Morden of Macon, in behalf of the class of 1904, welcomed the parents and friends in a few well chosen words. Miss Ethel V. Mott of Ridgeway, chose for the subject of her essay, "Strive and Thrive," which she delivered in a pleasing manner. The essay had many good points in it and was indeed a credit to Miss Mott.

Miss Genevieve Halladay gave a piano solo, "Kermesse," which was very good. Miss Gertrude E. Collins gave an essay on the "Territorial Growth of the United States," starting from the first purchase made by the United States up to the present time. Miss Collins' essay was very interesting and showed a great deal of study. Miss Iva Brazee gave the class history, tracing from the births of the class up to the time of graduating. Nine members of the class were born in the same year and eleven members of the class were graduated in the English course. This history was enjoyed by every one present.

The "Strife between Capital and Labor" was discussed by Sherman M. Camburn of Tipton. He gave the causes and effects of the trusts and said there were two ways of controlling them, by arbitration or legislation, preferring the latter. Floyd Slater then rendered a solo entitled "Bedouin Love Song," which was followed by an essay by Chne M. Scofield, whose subject was "Rome [illegible] built in a day." Miss Scofield['s essay was] very good and well expressed. "The Panama Canal" was the subject chosen by Samuel R. Foote [illegible] way. This was an able discourse, well delivered and a credit to Mr. Foote.

Miss Mary Mills then gave a piano solo entitled "March Militaire," which was received with hearty applause. Miss Laurel D. Chambers followed with an essay on "Wet Weather Philosophy" quoting extracts from James Whitcomb Riley. Miss Chambers' essay was short and her advice to "make the best of everything" might be well to think of. Miss Ellen G. Burleson of Macon, spoke of "The Purpose of an Education," which she delivered well. The chorus by the high school was next in order, which was followed by the class prophecy by R. Finley DeSpelder, in poetry and a parody on Hiawatha. It was very funny and kept the audience laughing.

Vernor G. Finch, as president of the class, delivered the valedictory, thanking the teachers for the interest given them during their school career and regretting the loss of Superintendent L. M. Kellogg, although his place has been ably filled by Miss Hartbeck. The class song, written by Finley DeSpelder, was sung by the class and at the close of the song the class yell was given and the juniors responded with their yell.

Dr. Howell with a few fitting remarks, presented the diplomas. The benediction was repeated by Rev. DeSpelder and the class of 1904 are alumni.

"USE HYOMEI AT OUR RISK"

C. A. Wright will pay for HYOMEI treatment if it fails to cure catarrh.

So pronounced has been the relief and cures following the use of Hyomei in catarrhal troubles, that in nearly every city and village all over this country the leading druggists have advertised that they would pay for Hyomei themselves if it did not effect a cure. In this city, C. A. Wright has publicly announced in the Herald and other papers, "Use Hyomei at my risk." The result has been an enormous demand for the Hyomei outfits and many unusual cures have been made.

The fact that Hyomei is so convenient and complete and that it cures by merely breathing and not by drugging the stomach, no doubt has had considerable influence in creating confidence in the treatment. When Hyomei is used, every particle of air that enters the head and throat and goes to the lungs, is charged with healing balsams that kill the germs of catarrh and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane.

C. A. Wright urges all who are subject to catarrh or catarrhal colds to get a Hyomei outfit from him and use it at his risk. No matter how skeptical you may be, you cannot dispute the fairness of this offer. Use Hyomei for a month. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say to C. A. Wright, "It did not help," he will refund your money without question or argument. This is his way of removing all doubts as to the power of Hyomei to cure catarrhal troubles. He believes it the strongest evidence that can be offered to the curative powers of Hyomei.

BEAUTY TRIUMPHS,
'Tis a Priceless Treasure.

Beauty is woman's greatest charm. The world adores beautiful women. A pretty woman dreads maternity for fear of losing this power. What can be done to perpetuate the race and keep women beautiful? There is a balm used by cultured and uncultured women in the crisis. Husbands should investigate this remedy in order to reassure their wives as to the ease with which children can be born and beauty of form and figure retained.

Mother's Friend

is the name by which this preparation is known. It diminishes the pain allied to motherhood. Used throughout pregnancy it relieves morning sickness, cures sore breasts, makes elastic all tendons called upon to hold the expanding burden. Muscles soften and relax under its influence and the patient anticipates favorably the issue, in the comfort thus bestowed.

Mother's Friend is a liniment for external application. It is gently rubbed over the parts so severely taxed, and being absorbed lubricates all the muscles.

Druggists sell it for $1 per bottle. You may have our book "Motherhood" free.

IT MUST BE TRUE.
Tecumseh readers must come to that conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Tecumseh, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsements by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

S. Erskine, proprietor of the barber shop says, "For 10 years off and on I had a pain in my back, imperfect action of my kidneys and often I could hardly stoop or get up. I think it was caused by standing at my work. I was in bad shape. I used a great many medicines, but without receiving much benefit until Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to [illegible] and I got a box at C. A. Wright's. I was agreeably surprised, for after using a box I was much relieved. After the use of two boxes my back is stronger and better than it has been for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best medicine I have ever used and I have faith in them. Believing I will confer a kindness on those suffering from kidney trouble in making known their merits."

DETROIT NEXT YEAR.

Maccabees Wind Up Affairs at the Battle Creek Convention.

Battle Creek, Mich., June 11.—A winding up of affairs, preparatory to adjournment in the evening, constituted the work of both the great camp and the great hive Friday.

The afternoon was spent in the discussion of two contested cases and in the evening the great hive officers were installed at the local tent and the great review was closed. The great camp in the afternoon elected Lester Clark of Marquette and J. C. Lehr of Monroe members of the auditing committee. Minor matters were acted upon and in the evening the officers were installed in the convention hall.

The ladies decided in the morning to turn down the plan for county representation, though the great camp sent a special committee telling what action it had taken and advising the ladies to do the same. Two new offices were created in the great camp. Great Councillor and Great Editor John B. McIllwaine of Port Huron will fill the first and S. D. Williams of Battle Creek the second. The board of auditors was also made elective instead of appointive and Judge W. R. Kendrick of Saginaw was made first member.

The tellers of the great hive finished their work of counting ballots at 5:30 o'clock in the morning, having begun at 9 o'clock the night before. The defeat of Dr. Emma D. Cook of Detroit for the office of great medical examiner was the occasion of some surprise The office was carried by Dr. Isabelle Holdom of Detroit after a hard fight. The officers elected by the great hive are as follows:

Past great commander, Mrs. Anna Holthe, Muskegon; great commander, Frances E. Burns, St. Louis; lieutenant-commander, Anna Holtzhe, Muskegon; great record keeper, Emma E Bower, Ann Arbor; great finance keeper, Susan S. Graves, Port Huron; great medical examiner, Isabella Holdom, Detroit; great chaplain, Emma M. Hall, Battle Creek; sergeant, Mary Cook, Dowagiac; mistress at arms, Carrie Gilbert, Detroit; sentinel, Carrie E. Torrey, Grosse Pointe; picket Ada Price, Alma. The ladies also raised their annual tax from 50 cents to $1.

Detroit was chosen for the place of meeting next year.

Says Lakes Tie-Up Is Broken.

Cleveland, June 11.—The lake tie-up is regarded by William Livingstone, president of the Lake Carriers' association, as practically broken. He predicts that within a few days one-half the entire fleet of the association will be in operation and the remainder of the boats will be gotten into commission soon as they can be made ready. He stated that applications from masters are being received every day their names are withheld, however for reasons of discretion. All the boats of two or three of the large lake shippers are said by Mr. Livingstone to be in commission. Mr. Livingstone says he has no hesitation in expressing his belief that the masters and pilots are hopelessly beaten.

Children's Day In Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 11.—Children's day in Detroit is becoming quite as important as any celebration or holiday on the calendar. Friday was children's day. The event each year is observed on that beautiful spot in the Detroit river—Belle Isle. The day is given over entirely to the children, the program of events consisting of parades, games, music, in fact everything that is interesting to the little ones. Yesterday's crowd was a record-breaker. It is estimated that fully 75,000 persons were in this beautiful park and participated and took part in the events.

SHOT HIMSELF IN EAR.

Wealthy Detroit Lumberman Takes His Own Life.

Detroit, Mich., June 13.—William A. C. Miller, one of the best known lumbermen in Michigan, committed suicide Sunday morning at 6:40 at his residence, 73 Rowena street, by shooting himself in the right ear with a 38 caliber revolver. He was dead when his eldest son found him a few minutes later. Melancholia, due to nervous prostration, brought on by excessively hard work, is given as the reason for the deed.

Ten days ago Mr. Miller, who is said to have amassed a fortune of over $250,000, disposed of his interests in the lumber business to the firm of Lowry & Robinson. Since that time he has been busy at his office closing up his affairs and was thought by his family to be somewhat improved in health.

A circumstance which seemed to have suggested to Mr. Miller the idea of self-destruction was the suicide of Attorney Edward A. Gott several weeks ago through financial embarrassment. While his business was in a flourishing condition and his family relations most cordial, still his health was poor and the act had its disastrous effect on Mr. Miller. He talked a good deal of Gott's suicidal deed but never intimated to his family or friends that he intended doing likewise.

The deceased was born 52 years ago in Bath, England, and came to Detroit over thirty years ago. For a few years he was engaged in the jewelry business, but twenty-seven years ago this month launched out into the lumber business, forming the firm of William A. C. Miller & Co., of which his eldest son is now a surviving partner.

Two Lady Maccabee Organizations Can't Use Same Ritual.

Cleveland, June 13.—It is announced by officials here of the Knights of the Maccabees of the World that in the case of the Great Hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the State of Michigan vs. the Supreme Hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, the supreme court of the latter state has decided that the ritual, secret work and paraphernalia for conferring the degrees in one organization may not be used by a competing organization in the field occupied by it. This is regarded as a victory for the supreme hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, otherwise known as the L. O. T. M. O. T. W.

In compliance with this decision the first named organization has reorganized on an entirely different basis, with different ritualistic work, etc. It has adopted the name of the Ladies of the Modern Maccabees and will use the letters "L. Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symtoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother sould be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. LOST THOUSAND MEN

More Severe Losses to Russians North of Port Arthur.

BIG ARMY PUT TO ROUT

Seven Thousand in Full Flight—Fighting at Vafangow Continues, With Partial Success to Russians—Jap Cavalry Spring Surprise.

London, June 16.—A [illegible] to the Daily Express from Tokio, dated June 15, says news has been received there, but has not yet been officially pub[illegible] Japanese victory near Fuchou, on the railway, seventy miles north of Port Arthur. The Russians, it is added, were overwhelmed, lost a thousand men, left all their guns on the field and retreated in disorder.

The Daily Chronicle's correspondent at Tokio cables the same news, adding that the Russians, to the number of 7,000 men, are now in full flight towards Tahi Chaiao and Kai Chow.

The correspondent of the Central News at Liao Yang telegraphed under yesterday's date as follows:

"The fighting at Vafangow (about fifty-five miles north of Port Arthur) was renewed today, and is still proceeding. No details are obtainable, but there are persistent rumors that the Russians were partly successful, destroying three squadrons of cavalry and making prisoners sixty men. The Russian casualties in the fighting yesterday were 308 men killed or wounded. The Japanese casualties are not known.

"Later a section of Russian cavalry marching in the direction of Tafan Chow and Lunkoo discovered on its right flank a great force of Japanese cavalry. An engagement ensued, and, according to the latest dispatches, fighting is proceeding all along the line, the Japanese having obtained reinforcements from Vafangow, consisting of three infantry divisions, with artillery and cavalry."

Dr. Ames Dying.

Minneapolis, June 16.—Dr. A. A. Ames, former mayor of this city, was reported to be dying late Wednesday afternoon. Physicians were hastily summoned and expressed the opinion that he could not live more than a day or two. Dr. Ames had recently been re-indicted by the grand jury on a charge of having accepted money, and after having had one trial, which resulted in a disagreement, was about to be tried again when illness prevented his appearance in court. He had been convicted but the supreme court set the indictment aside on a technicality practically freeing him and making another indictment necessary.

Town Burning Up.

Bluefield, W. Va., June 16.—At 11 o'clock last night the town of Norton, Va., with a population of 1,500 and located at the junction of the Louisville & Nashville and Norfolk & Western railroads, was reported burning. Five buildings were on fire in the heart of the town. The operator at Norton, just before the telegraph wires went down at that point, reported that there was no fire company there and very little water, and that the outlook was that the entire business portion of the town would be destroyed.

Gen. Chaffee Inspects State Forts.

Washington, June 16.—Gen. Chaffee, chief of staff, has arranged a tour of inspection of northwestern army posts. They will go direct to Detroit, devoting one day to inspection at Fort Wayne, then on a U. S. engineer steamer to Fort Brady, spending part of a day there. The party will then go west to the Pacific coast.

RESTS WITH FARMERS

Whether Beet Sugar Factories Shall Remain With Us.

VARIOUS SCHEMES ADVANCED

Best Plan is to Give Farmer Stock in Institution, Says Factory Manager—Transportation Difficulties Overcome—Several May Close Down.

[illegible] 16.—Beet sugar interests are casting an anxious eye to windward these days, for the weather man will [illegible] good from now on if they are to have anything approaching a prosperous season. The beet supply has come to be a very serious problem with Michigan factories, and the opinion is growing that a company cannot operate successfully if compelled to contract each year for its supply, in competition with other factories.

The manager of one of the largest plants in the Saginaw valley when asked to give his views on the situation said:

"The beet sugar industry can be carried on profitably, even at the prevailing prices for the product. A 600-ton factory, if honestly built with an honestly capitalized company behind it, can be put into commission for $500,000. With an adequate supply of beets it should produce 10,000,000 pounds of sugar during the season. If properly managed the net profit is ½ cent per pound, a conservative estimate. This means net earnings of $50,000 a year, or 10 per cent on the investment.

Farmers Form Combine.

"Some of the factories have been mismanaged and some have started out without sufficient capital, but the chief difficulty has been in regard to the beet supply. If the farmers see the factories are making money, they form a combine and put a price on the beets that prohibits profitable operation. A rate of $4.50 a ton for beets on a basis of 12 per cent sugar is a reasonable figure. There are twenty factories in Michigan and twelve of these are grouped in the district known as the Saginaw valley. The American Sugar Refining Co., which controls nine of the Michigan factories, has sought to overcome the difficulties of competitive contracting by districting its plants, not permitting one to encroach upon another's territory. This was a good idea as far as it went.

"The companies that started in to raise beets on their own hook met with disastrous failure.

"The question of the raw material will have to be solved before the industry can be carried on with any assurance of success. The company at Salsburg, across the river, seems to have hit upon the best expedient, that of enlisting the farmers as stockholders. In this way a mutuality of interest is established between the factory and its beet supply, which is of immense advantage. A farmer is given an allotment of stock, with the privilege of paying for it in beets, and the arrangement has proved very successful.

"The transportation difficulties are being partially overcome by means of weighing stations in the beet growing territory.

"The plant of the Detroit Sugar Co. at Rochester will not be operated this year and will be removed to some other location for next season's campaign. Other factories may close this year and some of those buildings may never be finished. There will probably be a considerable readjustment before the industry settles down upon a profitable basis in Michigan."

Jackson County Dedicates Monument Donated by a Citizen.

Jackson, Mich., June 15.—A monument in memory of the soldiers and sailors of Jackson county, donated to the city by the late Gen. W. H. Withington, was dedicated with appropriate exercises Tuesday. Over 4,000 people surrounded the platform erected in front of the monument and a program over which Hon. James O'Donnell presided comprised a fine historical address delivered by Congressman Washington Gardner of the third district, in which he gave the monument to the city of Jackson. The speech in response was delivered by Mayor W. W. Todd. Rev. Frank McAlpine, chaplain of the state's prison, spoke on behalf of the members of the G. A. R.

FULLY 600 LIVES LOST

Appalling Disaster on East River Fronting New York.

EXCURSION STEAMER TOOK FIRE

Loaded Down With Sunday School Excursionists—Frightful Panic Ensued—Many Jumped Overboard—Others Per[illegible] Flames.

New York, June 16.—Six hundred persons, men, women and children, at a conservative estimate, met death yesterday by the burning, beaching and sinking of the big three-decked excursion steamer General Slocum, which took fire in East river near the entrance to Long Island Sound while on her way to a Sound resort with more than a thousand excursionists, the Sunday school pupils of St. Mark's Lutheran church, relatives and friends.

At 1 o'clock this morning, according to a statement issued by Coroner O'Gormon, 483 bodies had been recovered from the destroyed vessel, burned to death or drowned and found on the shores to which they had been washed or picked up in the river, to which they had jumped or fallen from the burning vessel. Tugs are arriving hourly with bodies from North Brother island.

New York, June 16.—The three-decked excursion steamer General Slocum of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Co., burned to the water's edge off North Brother island, East river, Wednesday morning, resulting in the death through burning or drowning of at least 600 persons, mostly women and children. Four hundred and eighty-five bodies have been recovered and divers are still at work taking bodies from the hold of the steamer. The remains of many persons who leaped into the river have not yet been found and it will be many hours before the list of dead is anywhere near complete.

The General Slocum, one of the largest excursion steamers in these waters, left Third street, East river, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, having on board the annual Sunday school excursion of St. Mark's German Lutheran church, located in Sixth street. Her destination was Locust Grove, one of the many resorts on Long Island Sound. The excursion was in charge of the Rev. George C. Haas, pastor of the church. The vessel was commanded by Capt. William Van Schaik, one of the best known excursion boat captains in New York harbor. The number of excursionists on board is variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,500, but according to an official statement issued by the Knickerbocker Steamboat Co., owners of the Slocum, the number of passengers was 875, that being one-third of the vessel's licensed capacity.

The steamer after leaving her dock proceeded up the East river, all three of her decks being crowded with merry-makers. Bands played and the great side-wheeler was decorated with flags from stern to stem.

How the Fire Started.

The Slocum had reached a point near the Sunken Meadows off 135th street, Manhattan, which is at the extreme eastern end of Randall's island, when fire broke out in a lunch room on the forward deck. The blaze was caused by the overturning of a pot of grease. The headway of the vessel and a high wind almost instantly fanned the insignificant flame into fury. Efforts were at once directed to subduing the fire, but they were futile. The blaze spread aft with almost lightning rapidity. Capt. Van Schaik in the pilot house headed the big steamer for North Brother island, half a mile away.

By this time the flames were rushing by leaps and bounds from the forward part of the ship aft.

The excursionists, but a few moments before in the full enjoyment of an ideal summer's day on Long Island Sound, were driven to the after part of the steamer to escape the heat, flames and smoke that were constantly increasing. Policemen and deckhands aboard the boat struggled hard to quiet the panic, but their efforts were in vain.

The steamer's whistle was blowing for assistance and tugs and other near by craft answered to the call. Before any of the boats could reach the burning steamer, however, the frantic women and children began to jump overboard. The current was strong and there are many whirlpools in the channel. The boats that always abound in the vicinity picked many persons from the water, but these were only a small number of those that were seen struggling in the swift current.

Stood by Their Posts.

As the fire increased the struggle to gain a point of vantage at the stern became frightful. Women and children crowded against the after rail until it gave way and hundreds were pushed into the river. [illegible] there was a steady stream of persons who jumped or were thrown into the water.

The small boats [illegible] the water whom they could reach, but many persons struggled and sank before any help could reach them.

Through all the wild panic, during all that inferno with fire and smoke surrounding them, the officers and men of the doomed boat remained at their posts, but they were powerless to avert the catastrophe.

The Slocum got within fifty feet of the northwest point of North Brother island and there stopped in the shallow water.

It was just before she beached that the hurricane deck, the supports of which had burned away, fell with its load of women and children, adding to the panic and horror of those on the deck below. Very soon after parts of the second and third decks also caved in. But before this happened the tug Walter Tracey had come alongside the burning steamer and lashed to it. Many of the passengers were taken off by the crew of the Tracey, which remained alongside the steamer until the tug's pilot house took fire.

The scene on North Brother island as described by the rescuers was a pitiful one. Body after body was washed ashore or brought in by boats, and added to the long row on the beach. Fifty-three persons died there while the doctors were attending them.

As the bodies of the living and the dead were taken out of the water those alive were taken to the hospitals on the island or sent across the river to hospitals in Manhattan. Here ambulances from almost all the hospitals in Greater New York, and every other sort of conveyance which could be found, were put into service.

Approximately 500 bodies have been recovered and are now being tagged at the morgues of Bellevue hospital and Harlem. Divers were still busy at a late hour taking bodies from the hold of the vessel, which they say is choked with the remains of human beings, while the bodies of scores who leaped or were thrown into the river have not been recovered.

Capt. Van Schaick and his two pilots, named Edward Vanwart and I. M. Weaver, have been arrested.

A surging crowd is now being held back by police lines formed about the city morgue at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street. The crowd began to gather as soon as it became rumored about the city that the dead would be brought to Manhattan from North Brother island and other places where at first the dead had been taken.

Lynched by Other Negroes.

Lagrange, Ga., June 16.—A negro by the name of Jonah Woods, who lived about twenty-five miles from Lagrange, has been lynched by other negroes. Woods was a deacon in the church. It is said he discovered a number of negroes playing craps and threatened that he would report them to the grand jury. Afterwards the church was burned down and two days later, while ploughing in the field, he was seized and hanged to a tree.

He Talked Too Much.

Lansing, Mich., June 16.—Several days ago H. P. Taft of Grand Rapids, receiver for the Masonic Mutual Life association, began suit against twenty-three Lansing men for unpaid assessments, running from $50 to $125 each. Wednesday being return day, he was on hand together with a number of the defendants and their attorneys. They began conferring with Taft about settlement and he became so interested that he let the hour for calling the cases pass. The judge thereupon nonsuited him in all cases and, as it is claimed that the statute of limitations against the claims ran out yesterday, the receiver is estopped from commencing any suits in the matter at all.

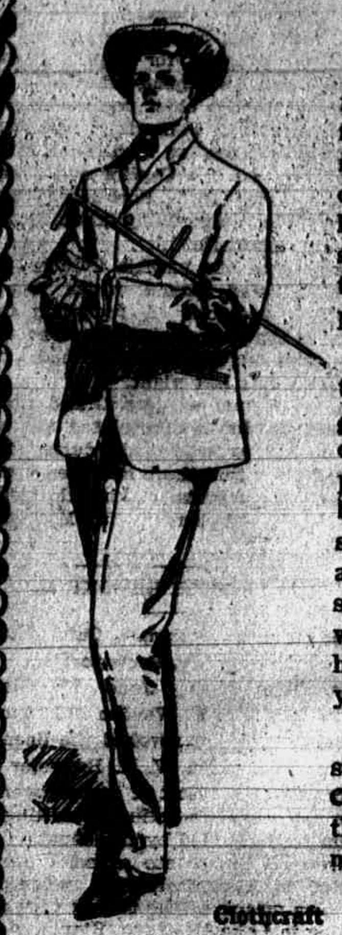
Good Clothes



Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

PARADE IN LANSING.

Grand Commandery and Many Visitors at State Capital.

Lansing, Mich., June 15.—The Knights Templar of a number of Michigan cities made an imposing demonstration here Tuesday in connection with the convening of the grand commandery of Michigan. The morning was given over to the welcoming of visitors and at noon a substantial dinner was served in the Masonic temple.

Preceding the convening of the first session of the grand commandery in the afternoon a parade was formed which traversed the principal streets of the city.

Detroit commandery No. 1 acted as escort to Grand Commander Boyden, while De Molai commandery acted in a similar capacity for Deputy Grand Commander Swarthout, who will be advanced to the chief position at today's election. Following the first business session an exhibition drill was given on the Capitol square by commanderies from Port Huron and Detroit, the honors being taken by the famous Detroit No. 1.

Last night the knights indulged in an illuminated parade, which was a brilliant spectacle. A reception followed at the Masonic temple. The visiting commanderies returned home on special trains last night.

In his annual address Grand Commander Boyden congratulated the order on the growth made during the year, stating that there had been a net gain of 279 knights, making the present total membership in Michigan 6,600.

HIS LICENSE REVOKED.

Game Warden Chapman Cuts Short His Deputy, Brewster.

Lansing, Mich., June 15.—State Game and Fish Warden Chapman states that he has revoked the license of Deputy Warden W. K. Brewster of Durand as the result of a controversy over the warden's action in cutting a claim recently filed by the deputy.

Brewster came into especial prominence in November, 1901, when he made an attack on the fishing tugs operating in Lake Michigan. Standing on the prow of the big tug Dormas, the doughty game warden, armed to the teeth with several revolvers in his belt and a hatchet in his brace, whipped six thugs, capturing three of them and putting the rest to flight.

The Michigan law prohibits lake fishing from Nov. 15 to Dec. 15, and fishermen near St. Joseph had been operating in the eight miles of Indiana frontage. Gradually they trespassed [illegible] they [illegible]teen miles [illegible] Michigan. Heroic measures were determined upon, and Brewster did a good job.

Concerning

THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

THY KINGDOM COME

2 Tim. 4:2 — 1 Cor. 9:16

THESE WERE MORE NOBLE THAN THOSE OF THESSALONICA IN THAT THEY RECEIVED THE WORD WITH ALL READINESS AND SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES DAILY, WHETHER THOSE THINGS WERE SO. ACTS 17:11

XIX

We have seen that the Passover rite in the earthly Kingdom of God consisted of two parts—(1) the actual sacrifice of the Paschal lamb; (2) the Feast upon the lamb that had been slain. So the Christian Passover, the Passover rite of the Spiritual Kingdom of God, consists of two parts—(1) the actual sacrifice of the Paschal Lamb, viz., on the Cross of Calvary; (2) the Feast upon the Lamb thus slain once for all, viz., in the Lord's Supper, instituted by the Lord Himself on the night in which He was betrayed to be the Sacrificial Feast upon His Body and Blood (Luke 22:7-20.) As there is but the one Sacrifice once offered, so there is but the one Feast upon the Sacrifice; all our various celebrations of the Lord's Supper are to be considered as parts of the one Feast once instituted. Thus (1) the one Sacrifice and (2) the one Feast upon the Sacrifice, together constitute the full Christian Passover.

We have now to consider the various blessings that accompany faithful participation in the Supper of the Lord, or the Holy Communion as it is frequently called.

The Holy Communion is a Memorial Feast. "This do in remembrance of me" said our blessed Lord when instituting the Feast. "For as open as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come" (1Cor. 11: 23-26.) Now every Memorial Feast in the nature of the case consists of three factors: (1) the Memorial made (2) the partaking of the Food provided and (3) the Communion of Fellowship enjoyed. These three factors being present always constitute a Memorial Feast; if any one of them be absent there can be no Memorial Feast. These, therefore, are the three essential factors of the Holy Communion: the Memorial made, the Food partaken, the Fellowship enjoyed; [illegible] will be fo[illegible] examination that each element is accompanied by its appropriate blessing. At this time we shall consi[illegible] Memorial made.

Now, obviously, the purpose of a memorial is to recall the event or thing of which it is the memorial. It does not re-enact the very thing itself; but it recalls that very thing, re-presents it in its original happening, in all its essential characteristics. The particular thing commemorated by the Holy Communion is, of course, the Death of Jesus Christ upon the cross—"For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come." Thus the Holy Communion recalls—re-presents—the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ upon the Cross.

But to whom does it recall, re-present that Sacrifice? To whom is the memorial of the Holy Communion made? (The words "This do in remembrance of me" would be better translated, "This do as a memorial of me.") To whom is this memorial made?

(1). It is to be observed that our blessed Lord did not institute the Holy Communion to be a memorial unto us. He did not make it a memorial unto us (like the bow in the clouds. Gen. 9:13.) He commanded US to celebrate the Holy Communion as a memorial—evidently unto some one else.

(2). The word translated "remembrance" (i. e. memorial) means a "memorial UNTO GOD" in every other place where it is found in Scripture (i. e. N. T. and Septuagint). The word "do" is also frequently used in the Greek of the Old Testament for the performance of any solemn rite or ceremony before God—even of the offering up of Sacrifices. This makes it pretty clear that what our blessed Lord meant by the words "This do as a memorial of me"—in instituting a Sacrificial Feast at a Sacrificial moment—was "Perform or celebrate this before God as a memorial UNTO HIM of me."

(3). The Sacrifice of Jesus Christ being unto the Lord, the memorial of that Sacrifice, to re-present it in this its essential element and purpose, must also re-present it unto God.

(4). As our blessed Lord offered Himself a Sacrifice unto God, evidently it is God above all Whom HE would desire to put in remembrance.

(5). And as that Sacrifice was offered unto God for us evidently it is God above all Whom WE would desire to put in remembrance. (Not that God would ever forget the Son's Sacrifice or our dependence thereon; but it is the good pleasure of both the Father and the Son that we should make such Memorial before Him. Cf. Is. 43:26; etc.

(6). Like the Jewish Passover, of which the Holy Communion is the fulfilment, it is a Feast appointed to be kept forever UNTO THE LORD. Ex. 12: 14).

(7). In short, as we shall see, the Holy Communion is the central act of Christian Worship and was instituted of Christ to be such in His Church. As an act of Worship it is, of course, addressed unto God; it is celebrated in His Presence, viz., in His House and at our assembling together for Public Worship.

We conclude then, unhesitatingly, that the Holy Communion was appointed by our blessed Lord to be a Memorial unto God of His Death for us upon the Cross. By it, therefore, we plead—in the Lord's own appointed way—"for Jesus' sake." And being the Lord's own appointed way for our pleading before God His Death for us, it is evident that the blessing, the answer, which will follow such Memorial is that for which Jesus died—viz., our atonement with God—reconciliation, the forgiveness of our sins, pardon and peace. By this memorial we, as it were, sprinkle the Blood of the Lamb upon the side posts and lintels of our doors and the Holy Communion is constituted unto us the very Passover of the Lord (Ex. 12:13).

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Charged With Forgery.

Port Huron, Mich., June 16.—Ellsworth A. Jenkins was placed under arrest in Detroit by Deputy Cheriff Hoolihan. He is charged with forgery and was arrested at the instance of T. W. Brown, who claims that Jenkins forged his name to a note for $125.

Pretended He Was Insane.

Detroit, Mich., June 15.—A strange scene was enacted in Judge Murphy's courtroom Tuesday afternoon when when Charles O. Larrison, convicted of a serious offense against a nine-year-old stepdaughter, and who had been adjudged insane by three expert alienists, though the jury thought otherwise, coolly declared that he was sane and had been shamming dementia on the presumption that he would be cleared of the charge. Fearing, however, that he would be incarcerated in an asylum with crazy patients and finally compelled to serve a sentence for his crime anyway, Larrison decided [illegible] and take [illegible] which Judge Murphy made not less than one year and not more than three years at Ionia refor[illegible].

Allege Postal Law Violation.

Grand Rapids, M[illegible]—James Doran, manager of the Grand Rapids Post, has been arrested on the charge of violating the portion of the postal laws which relates to advertising a lottery scheme, and was taken before Commissioner Potter. His arraignment was delayed until June 21. The warrant was issued out of the United States district court. The case grows out of the participation of the Post in the scheme of the World's Fair Contest company, in which many papers of the country are said to be interested.

Where Is Capt. Smith?

Detroit, Mich., June 16.—Capt. W. D. Smith, who has an office at 54 Fort street west, but who lives in Ecorse, has not been seen since Monday last, when he went fishing. Capt. Smith, who is 57 years of age, left Ecorse in his naphtha launch, telling his friends he would not return until he had caught a good mess of fish. Yesterday, however, his launch was found floating off Grassy island. A fishing pole was found hanging over the back of the boat with a large fish on the line.

Officially Declared Off.

Cleveland, June 16.—District Captain Paul Howell of the Masters and Pilots' association, sent the following telegram to all harbors:

"Harbors nearly all in favor of going to work. Strike is therefore officially declared off."

This applies to both the captains and mates and finally ends the strike of all members of the organization.

Riot In Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., June 16.—A riot broke out at the plant of the Continental Tobacco Co. here, when 200 striking negro men attempted to prevent 500 negro women employed at the plant from going to work. Police quelled the mob, but were compelled to resort to the use of clubs and revolvers. Five rioters were arrested.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentorville, Va. serves as example. He writes, "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles cured me." Equally effective in curing lung and throat troubles, consumption, and grip. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.

The large barn on the farm of Warren Edinger of Ransom, was struck by lightning during the storm Friday night and with nearly all of its contents was destroyed by fire. Four horses were in the barn when the lightning struck and these were cremated. Nearly all of Mr. Edinger's farming tools were in the barn and these with 400 bushels of oats and 150 bushels of wheat were also destroyed. An insurance of only $700 on the barn and its contents and the loss is a severe blow to him.—Hudson Gazette.

Chas. Boyes of Fairfield recently married to Miss Crow sat with his bride at a commemorative banquet among the delicacies were cherries canned 18 years ago previously by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Boyes, who had a presentiment that ultimately Charles would wed, because weddings ran in the family and it was his request that the cherries be unclosed on his nuptial day. A neighboring paper hopes that 18 years hence the couple may be as well perserved as the cherries at their wedding. BASE BALL

The Two Games played

WEDNESDAY MORNING AND AFTERNOON

Between the D. A. C's. of Detroit, and Tecumseh.

The two games played Wednesday as the opening of the season were a success in every particular. There could have been no better weather and the crowd was fair in the morning and good in the afternoon, making all in all a very successful opening for the base ball season.

The morning game resulted in a score of 2 to 1 in favor of the local team and was a pitchers battle from start to finish. Striker for the home team pitched a beautiful game and was backed up with good fielding support, our club only scoring two errors, while the D. A. C's. scored five. Carroll, the Detroit man, also pitched good ball, but not as good as Striker and with their five errors, the game resulted in two scores to our credit. There never was better ball played on Tecumseh grounds than at this game.

In the afternoon the score stood 3 to 0 in favor of Detroit. This was also a pitchers battle, but this time Smith of Detroit, was the better man. This man Smith is certainly a good pitcher, but the most pusillanimous pup on the face of the earth. He will wait, holding the ball from 15 to 20 seconds before pitching it, making the game disgusting to both spectators and players. But this manner is certainly a winner. In fact the people were so disgusted with Smith that if they hear of his coming again they will not attend the game.

All in all they were two fine games and the base ball season is finally started. It is thought that Tecumseh this year has the best base ball club she ever had. It is better than last year in that she has Sebastian as captain and his work yesterday proved him to be a capable man. Kyney is third baseman and he is a dandy, quicker than lightning and handles the stick to perfection. Beside these two points, the club is about the same as last year and if it keeps on will be a winner throughout the summer.

Without practice the games against the D. A. C's. were grand, showing that the club as a whole and under the present management, is better than last year or year before. Striker and [illegible] Belle are both strong pitchers and it is hoped that Killian as third man, will prove as good and if he is Tecumseh will have [illegible] of the best amateur pitchers in the state.

Following are the scores:

BASE BALL NOTES.

Striker and Sebastian each made two base hits at the morning game.

Beasley and Sebastian made some fine catches at the after noon game.

Between 600 and 700 people witnessed the games Wednesday.

Striker's running catch of Dingwall's foul ball was the principal feature of the seventh inning.

Knickerbocker made the hit which brought in the winning run for the locals in the morning.

Sebastian's two base hit in the fourth inning was the only one for Tecumseh at the afternoon game.

In the morning game Carroll for the visitors struck out but two men, while Striker for the locals struck out 7 men.

LaBelle gave no bases on balls in the afternoon and struck out 6 men, while Smith for the visitors gave 2 bases on balls and struck out 4 men.

Saturday afternoon at the Athletic Park the Morenci base ball team will play against the Tecumseh team. Van Gieson will pitch for Morenci.

JUNE WEDDING

Marriage of

to

JAMES DAVIS

Wednesday, June 15, at the Home of the Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Snell.

A most beautiful wedding was that given by Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Snell at their home on north Pearl street to celebrate the marriage of their daughter, Lula Blanche, to James Davis, Wednesday, June 15, at 6:30 o'clock. A finer June day could not have been selected. The guests were loving friends and relatives of the bride and groom and the event was most cheerful and homelike, in every particular being a happy time for all to speed the young couple on their way.

After the wedding march rendered by Miss Fern Stringham at 6:30, the words were spoken by Rev. Sedweek, which joined together the young couple as man and wife and amid the homelike simplicity of the surroundings all were impressed with the happiness of the affair. The bride was gowned in white Swiss mull trimmed with valenciennes lace and carried bride's roses.

Lula Snell is a native of Tecumseh, having spent her life and school days here and has scores of friends who love her and there are few girls married who receive the genuine joy occasioned by the happiness of the wedding given to her. She has been fortunate in her surroundings all through life and assisted by her sweet disposition, happiness will no doubt continue for all time.

James Davis is an exemplary young man, stenographer for H. Brewer & Co. and during the year he has made Tecumseh his home, has made many firm friends.

They left on the 8:16 Lake Shore train for a trip of a week mid showers of rice and best wishes.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, father and mother of the groom, Miss Etta, a sister, and Will Davis, a brother of the groom, all of Sunfield, Mich., and Mrs. John Mead of Detroit.

"USE HYOMEI AT OUR RISK"

C. A. Wright will pay for HYOMEI treatment if it fails to cure catarrh.

So pronounced [illegible] cures following the use of Hyomei in catarrhal troubles, that in nearly every city and village all over this country the leadi[illegible] have advertised that they would pay for Hyomei themselves if it did not effect a cure. In this city, C. A. Wright has publicly announced in the HERALD and other papers, "Use Hyomei at my risk." The result has been an enormous demand for the Hyomei outfits and many unusual cures have been made.

The fact that Hyomei is so convenient and complete and that it cures by merely breathing and not by drugging the stomach, no doubt has had considerable influence in creating confidence in the treatment. When Hyomei is used, every particle of air that enters the head and throat and goes to the lungs, is charged with healing balsams that kill the germs of catarrh and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane.

C. A. Wright urges all who are subject to catarrh or catarrhal colds to get a Hyomei outfit from him and use it at his risk. No matter how skeptical you may be, you cannot dispute the fairness of this offer. Use Hyomei for a month. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say to C. A. Wright, "It did not help," he will refund your money without question or argument. This is his way of removing all doubts as to the power of Hyomei to cure catarrhal troubles. He believes it the strongest evidence that can be offered to the curative powers of Hyomei.

Tecumseh readers must come to that conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Tecumseh, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsements by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

S. Erskine, proprietor of the barber shop says. "For 10 years off and on I had a pain in my back, imperfect action of my kidneys and often I could hardly stoop or get up. I think it was caused by standing at my work. I was in bad shape. I used a great many medicines, but without receiving much benefit until Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and I got a box at C. A. Wright's. I was agreeably surprised, for after using a box I was much relieved. After the use of two boxes my back is stronger and better than it has been for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best medicine I have ever used and I have faith in them. Believing I will confer a kindness on those suffering from kidney trouble in making known their merits."

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

ARE YOU AWARE

In the course of one year the balance of your watch makes 157,680,000 revolutions.

THINK OF IT!

In time the oil gums; only as much oil as will stay on the end of a hair is used in oiling the jewel in a watch, which the heat of the body will dry in fourteen to eighteen months. When the oil becomes gummed, it produces friction, and wears the delicate bearings, destroys their high finish and perfect adjustment, thus ruining an accurate time piece.
Any ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch should be oiled and cleaned at least once a year
The man who carries a good Time Keeper for years without attention, is not beating the Jeweler, he's only beating himself out of a good watch movement that has done good service, and would for years to come, with proper attention.
In repairing broken parts of a watch, we use only genuine material of the best grade, and charge no more for it. We can't afford to use the cheap half finished material. A cheap job of work on a good watch is dear at any price, a first class job at a fair price is better in the long run.
Bring in your watch, let us examine it; an honest opinion from us will cost you nothing.
We warrant all of our work and there's no string to our guarantees.

THE VALUE OF WISDOM

President Angell Delivers Annual Baccalaureate Address.

EIGHT HUNDRED GRADUATES

In the Audience—Learned Fools Not Wanted in the World—"Wisdom Is Power," His Motto—Wisdom Puts Man at One With God.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 20.—Before [illegible] audience that ever crowded its way into University hall President James B. Angell last night delivered his annual baccalaureate discourse, his subject being "Knowledge and Wisdom." The 800 members of the senior classes of all departments occupied most of the main floor.

The reading of his discourse occupied the better part of two hours, but the immense audience remained silent and in their places until the conclusion. The discourse follows in part:

"I fear that many students do not clearly perceive or do not fully apprehend the distinction between knowledge and wisdom. They go out into life, relying on knowledge to secure them results, which can be obtained by wisdom alone, and so disappoint themselves, if not their friends. As these terms are used with a considerable range and variety of meaning, let me define them as I use them here.

"By knowledge I mean the possession by the mind of facts and principles, scientific, historical, philosophical, literary, an acquaintance with ideas, the perception of truths. By wisdom I mean the power and the disposition to make a right and effective use of our faculties and our knowledge, a happy adaptation of ourselves and our resources to our circumstances. Knowledge may be regarded as the sum of our intellectual attainments. Wisdom has an intellectual, but also a moral element. It not only measures our relations to our environment, but with a high purpose and pure spirit and discreet temper adjusts our personality to our surroundings to secure the largest result.

Learned Fools.

"Knowledge and wisdom may each exist without the other. James I. of England has been called the most learned fool who ever disgraced a throne. But the world is full of uncrowned learned fools. There is an endless variety of them. They wield no influence and command no respect, because they are so utterly devoid of what we call common sense.

"While, however, you may have learning without wisdom, you may often find wisdom without learning. Go into any legislative or deliberative assembly. You will frequently observe that some plain, unlettered man, who seldom speaks and then perhaps with hesitancy, does more to shape the action of the body, and certainly does far better work than many a man of ready tongue and cultured mind, because he is recognized by all his associates as a man of wisdom. For Lord Bacon's aphorism, 'Knowledge is power,' I would substitute the saying 'Wisdom is power.'

"But there is a wisdom, which has a loftier purpose and a wider range than the adaptation of means to ends in securing what we commonly understand by success in this life. Every man who believes that God rules as a moral governor of the universe must see that this wisdom, which puts us at one with him, is absolutely essential to our highest effectiveness. Without this we must constantly be traversing his wishes, transgressing his laws, wasting our force in profitless friction, fighting in a hopeless contest against the very stars in their courses. In such an unequal strife we must be overwhelmed. The old words of scripture, 'the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,' are inspired by the profoundest philosophy."

Thief Missed the Cash.

Ypsilanti, Mich., June 20.—Alderman Max's residence was visited by burglars at night and a suit of clothes and a gold watch and chain were stolen. A roll of bills, which lay on a table, amounting to $20, escaped the thief's notice.

OTHERS WHO PERISHED

Forty-One More Bodies From the Steamer Slocum.

ARE TAKEN FROM THE RIVER

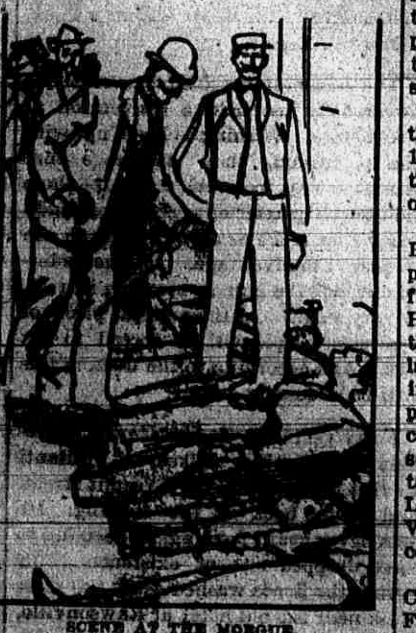
Number of Missing Totals Over 300—Bodies of Four Victims Found Clinging to Ship's Rail—Nearly One Hundred Funerals Held Sunday.

N[illegible]—Sunday's harvest of [illegible] the steamer General Slocum numbered forty-one, bringing total number of bodies so far recovered up to 624. Of these 559 have been identified, while thirty-one of the victims now lying at the morgue have not been claimed by friend or relative.

While the list of missing has been cut down somewhat by the identifications made, eleven new names were added to the roll Sunday, thus leaving the total of missing almost as it was on Saturday—something more than 300.

Early Sunday morning the searchers began anew the work of locating the Slocum's dead. Within an hour they had recovered thirteen bodies off the shore of North Brother island. Three of the bodies were floating, and it is the general opinion that many more will come to the surface during the week.

At sundown, when work practically ceased for the day, thirty-six bodies had been added to the long list of dead that have been taken from the wrecked steamer and the water in its immediate vicinity. Most of these bodies were taken to the morgue and a majority of them were identified. Of the bodies recovered during the first hour one was that of a man, six of women, two of boys, four of girls and one was of an infant.



SCENE AT THE MORGUE.

A life-saver, grappling from a raft, brought up a woman of 30 and a girl of 11 years locked in each other's arms. A few minutes later he brought the bodies of a boy 9 years old and a girl of 6, apparently brother and sister, clinging tightly to each other.

Divers who went to the wreck found the bodies of a woman, a girl and a boy and brought them to the surface. They were burned beyond recognition. The divers said there are more bodies in the wreck, thus bearing out the statement made a day or two ago, after it was thought the wreck had been cleared, that many bodies remained under the entanglement of timbers and machinery.

One body was found floating in the river near Riker's island by the crew of a four-oared barge of the Metropolitan Rowing club, while nineteen were brought up from the bottom along the beach running from the island down to the channel in the river.

Three men working with an improvised crapple, consisting of a block of wood, to which many blue fish hooks were attached, drew up the section of the rail of the upper deck of the Slocum, about thirty feet in length. The bodies of four women were clinging to the rail, the fingers gripping the interlaced wire roping. This is part of the rail which gave way just before the steamer was beached, precipitating 100 persons into the water. While the rail was being brought ashore two bodies broke away but were secured immediately. The other two were still clinging to the rail when it landed.

The funerals of nearly a hundred victims were held Sunday. In many instances two caskets were carried in the same hearse, and in some cases two and even three hearses bore away the dead of a single family.

Japanese Are Reported to Have Captured Inner Fort

IN GREAT RUSSIAN STRONGHOLD

Vladivostok Fleet Sinks Three Japanese Transports—Two Refused to Surrender and Some Troops Perished—British St[illegible] Taken.

[illegible], June 20.—There is current here a Chinese rumor that the Japanese [illegible] captured one of inner forts of Port Arthur, losing 1,000 men in the engagement. It cannot, however, be confirmed.

St. Petersburg, June 20.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following dispatch, dated June 19, from Vice-Admiral Skrydloff:

"On June 15 our cruiser division encountered in the Strait of Korea a Japanese transport steaming from the south in the direction of the Japanese coast, which was visible on the horizon. The vessel proved to be the Izumi, with troops on board.

"On the expiration of the time given those on board to lower boats and leave the ship, permission to do which was taken advantage by part of the crew, the transport was sunk by our guns.

"Shortly afterwards two more transports were sighted to the southeast. They proved to be the Hitachi and the Sado, the former with troops and the latter carrying coolies, horses and a railway plant. The transports refused to surrender, and at the end of the period granted those on board to take to the boats, the two vessels were sunk by torpedoes and shells.

"The losses on the three transports, the tonnage of which aggregated about 15,000 tons, consisted of a portion of the troops and crews, a large quantity of war material and the railway plant.

"On June 16, our squadron met the British steamer Allanton, which was proceeding south with a cargo of coal from the port of Mourorun, island of Hokkaido (the administrative name of the Japanese island of Yesso). The lack of clearness in her papers and the irregularity of her log excited suspicion concerning the neutrality of her cargo. The steamer therefore was sent to Vladivostok in charge of a detachment of soldiers commanded by Lieut. Pitroff. She has arrived at Vladivostok, where a prize court will consider her case."

The British steamer Allonton, Capt. Clark, sailed from Penarth, Wales, Feb. 20 for Sasebo, Japan, and arrived there May 21.

Tokio, June 20.—The Japanese transport Izumi, which was reported missing a few days ago, was sunk by the Vladivostok fleet off Oshima island last Wednesday morning.

The Island of Oshima is situated near and northwest of the western entrance of Asugaru strait. The Isumi was retiring to Japan and carrying 108 passengers. The crew took to the boats when the Russian fleet was sighted. The armored cruiser Gromoboi signalled for the boats to approach. They complied and all were taken on board and confined between decks over night. Tuesday morning the non-combatants were released and sent aboard the Japanese vessel Unko, which brought them to Maisum. The Russian vessels are reported to have sailed in the direction of Hokkaido.

SHOULD KILL HIMSELF.

Japs Condemn Vice-Admiral Kamimura For His Failures.

Tokio, June 20.—The remarkable raid of the Russian Vladivostok squadron evidently is over. The squadron disappeared off Cape Hanashi, steering to the north, and it has not been reported since. It is assumed to be returning to Vladivostok.

Whether or not a portion of Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadron is awaiting the Russians off Vladivostok is a carefully guarded secret. Assuming that Vice Admiral Kamimura dispatched some of his vessels to Vladivostok when he learned that the Russian squadron was off Iki island, these ships would have had ample time to arrive there ahead of the Russians and will be ready to give battle.

The weather has been foggy, and thus conditions have been against the Japanese.

Japan had thirteen transports in and near the Strait of Korea the morning the Sado and the Hitachi were caught and she was fortunate that only the three ships mentioned were overtaken by the enemy.

The assertion that the Russians fired upon the life-boats in which men escaping from the Japanese transports has been fully substantiated.

The raid of the Vladivostok squadron has brought an unwarranted amount of criticism upon Vice Admiral Kamimura from the Japanese for his failure to catch the Russians.

They declare that if Vice Admiral Kamimura fails to catch the Russian vessels before they reach Vladivostok he should either resign from the navy or commit suicide.

British Lose Torpedo Boat.

Shanghai, June 20.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Sparrowhawk struck an uncharted rock off Saddle islands, near [illegible] a total loss. The guns from the vessel were saved and no lives lost in the disaster.

PICKLED IN ARSENIC.

John Ludwick's Body Was Found So by the Chemist.

Coldwater, Mich., June 18.—The prosecution had its first inning in the Ludwick case Friday and brought out several pieces of startling testimony. Several physicians were examined and all testified to finding considerable arsenic in the stomach of John Ludwick.

Prof. Moses Gomberg, chemist at the University of Michigan, said he found the lining of the stomach much inflamed and covered with large yellow splotches, some of which he scraped off with his knife and analyzed, finding them due to arsenic. Parts of the liver and kidneys were also analyzed, and from the amount of arsenic found in them it would appear that the whole system must have contained between sixty and seventy grains of the drug. Several witnesses, among them Fr. Hewitt, who was present at both the burial and the exhuming of the body, testified that the body contained enough arsenic to preserve the features almost entirely; in fact, that the body was pickled in the poison.

Ludwick's mother was on the stand testifying to various happenings in the life of her son. During her testimony she broke down and wept bitterly. It is likely the prosecution will finish its case today and the defense will begin at once.

CONGER DISPLEASED.

Criticises Verdict of Jury Through Columns of His Paper.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 18.—It is very likely that a change of venue will be asked for before many more of the water cases are taken up on account of more or less dissatisfaction felt over the outcome of the Conger trial. Mr. Conger himself was bitterly disappointed at the jury's failure to acquit him and used a column of his paper, the Herald, in making a personal statement of his case and pointing to considerable evidence he might have used had he been permitted.

In the same connection the Herald prints a long editorial, in which the court is severely criticised for its rulings during the trial. The editorial caused considerable comment about town, especially among the legal profession, many of whom think it borders upon contempt, in view of the fact that the case is not ended.

Captured by Russians.

Indianapolis, June 18.—A cablegram to the Indianapolis News from Stanley Washburn, special correspondent of the Chicago News at Chefoo, says that Hector Fuller, staff war correspondent of the Indianapolis News, has been captured by four Russian soldiers and taken to Port Arthur. He was blindfolded and placed in prison. The state department at Washington was notified Wednesday last that Fuller, who started from Chefoo in an open boat with two Chinese oarsmen for Port Arthur, had landed in the vicinity of the latter city about June 12.

Circus Day Robbers.

Adrian, Mich., June 18.—Thieves entered the home of Mrs. H. Hinkle during the parade of Barnum & Bailey's show here Friday and ransacked the place from top to bottom. They secured watches, jewelry and silverware to the value of $500. Three strangers were arrested on suspicion. There were a number of other small robberies and flim-flamming cases reported, but none that amount to very much financially.

Good Clothes

Clothcraft

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

The Birth of Advertisements.

The first periodical newspaper of the English press appeared in 1622, but advertisements were not developed till 1647. In April of the latter year was published No. 13 of "Perfect Occurrencies of Every Daie Journall in Parliament and Other Moderate Intelligence," which contained the following announcement:

"A Book applauded by the Clergy of England called 'The Divine Right of Church Government,' collected by sundry eminent Ministers in the Citie of London, corrected and augmented in many places, with a briefe Reply to certain Queries against the Ministery of England; Is printed and published for Joseph Hunscot and George Calvert and Are to be sold at Stationer's Hall and at the 'Golden Fleece' in the Old Change."

The London Gazette was the first newspaper to publish commercial advertisements, which soon began to occupy so much space that the proprietors, not wishing to "charge the Gazette with advertisements unless they be matters of State," issued a Special Advertisement Supplement, "printed apart and recommended to the Publick by another hand."

Older still is an advertisement in a black letter Dutch paper of an auction of sugar, ivory and tobacco held at the close of 1626.

Shaking Hands.

The custom of shaking hands originated in the ancient practice of adversaries grasping the weapon hand during a truce as a precaution against treachery. When two friends met they extended their weapon hands to each other as a sign that there was no need to stand on the defensive, and a handshake was but the natural outcome of a hearty and vigorous grasp.

Shaking hands appears to have become usual in the middle ages. Grasping hands made its appearance in early times as a legal act symbolic of the parties joining in compact, peace or friendship. This is well seen in marriage, where the hand grasp was part of the ancient Hindoo ceremony, as was the "dextrarum junctio" [illegible] which has passed into the Christian rite. We see it also used as a mere salutation [illegible] acquaintance met by Horace in his stroll along the Via Sacra [illegible]

Giving the right hand of fellowship (Galatians ii, 9) passed naturally into a salutation throughout Christendom.

Crossing the Feet.

Physical culturists say that the practice of sitting with the legs or even the feet crossed is a bad one and has more to do with cold feet than most persons imagine. It has this result principally through impeding the circulation of the blood in the leg that is crossed over the other. The femoral veins are cramped, with the consequence that the blood is dammed back into the feet and above the knee, inducing as well as cold feet a varicose condition in the veins of the calves. Another reason why the habit should be discouraged is the fact that on general physiological principles it is healthier to sit squarely with both feet resting upon the floor, whereas with the legs crossed the weight of the body is thrown almost wholly to one side or the other.

A Child's Logic.

A story illustrating the severe logic of some juvenile minds is told by the mother of the four-year-old girl involved. One day this observant miss saw a lame man on the street and asked her mother what made him walk so queer. The mother told her it was because one leg was shorter than the other.

"Well," she said, "there is a girl around the corner who is that way."

After a few minutes' meditation she remarked:

"Mamma, wasn't it funny that God didn't give the two long legs to the man and the two short ones to the girl?"—Baltimore Sun.

Labeled the Girls.

A good joke was played on the girls recently by the young men of a certain town. The boys had been rather remiss in their attentions, and the girls decided to show their independence. Consequently five of them hired a box at the theater and made a very charming theater party.

The play was "Wanted, a Husband," and the girls sat serene through it all, never dreaming that the enemy had fastened one of the posters, "Wanted, a Husband," round the box so that the audience might read.

Whistling For Wind.

No sooner had we rounded the cape than the wind dropped and we nearly came to a standstill. Our "kamudi"—i. e., captain and steersman—did the best he could [illegible] We were doomed to drift about some hours without much progress. He would whistle softly and enticingly or would change his tone and with pouted lips whistle angrily and viciously for the wind that would not come to help us on. I have often wondered what can have been the origin of whistling for the wind. That the custom is of undoubted practical utility is the firm belief of many races of seafarers, from the English sea captain to the humble Malay kamudi. I was on one occasion very roughly spoken to by a captain in the Irish channel for casually whistling in a gale of wind. He thought it a piece of gross carelessness on my part which might lead to serious consequences. Here in Celebes, too, I was warned to be careful not to laugh when the kamudi screwed his face up into an intensely ludicrous expression of feigned passion and whistled angrily for the wind to come, for the Malay seaman's belief in the efficacy of this mode of raising the wind is a serious one and will not brook being made an object of derision. Soon after midnight a favorable breeze sprang up, and by sunrise we were passing the little islands of Ganga and Tindela.—Sidney J. Hickson in "A Naturalist In North Celebes."

Shouted as Loud as Li.

There was much rudeness in Li Hung Chang's manner, but if he was answered back in his own coin he melted into graciousness. Once a junior member of a British consulate was sent to interview the viceroy on some matter. In the vast audience hall he found no one to receive him, so he took a chair near the door. Eventually Li and his following appeared at the other end of the hall on some lofty seats, and the viceroy started shouting to him in the difficult Anhui accent. To the utter dumfounding of every one present, contrary to all principles of Chinese etiquette, the young Englishman shouted back his answer in the same loud, rough voice as far as he could imitate it in which Li had spoken to him. Every one in the suit was stricken with horror. Even Li started and spoke lower. Gradually the conversation assumed a convenient tone, and after a bit Li, with a humorous smile, beckoned the young man to come up higher and sit down beside him. They soon became excellent friends.—London Men and Women.

A Defense of Slang.

So far from being an evidence of a national levity and lack of seriousness slang is the language of sincerity. It [illegible] of an instinctive effort to get as far away as possible from everything like pretentiousness. It is the antipodes of bathos. It is the [illegible]guage of the whole people, because it is expressive of the national sense of humor that is never so keen as when it contemplates with a joy likewise unutterable the spectacle presented by a fake exposed. It is blunt, it is crude, it is brutal sometimes, but it is always sincere. It directs against the citadels of evil the mighty enginery of laughter. It does for our nascent abuses what the mordant satire of Martial and Juvenal failed to do for decadent Rome.—Professor Herman Spencer in Booklovers' Magazine.

His Study of the Heart.

In his memoirs Adolf Kussmaul relates a curious story of a Heidelberg banker. This banker was known for his haughty, forbidding manners; consequently Dr. Nuhn, the professor of anatomy, was much surprised one day when the banker came and sat with him in a railway car and, after a pleasant chat, asked him all sorts of questions, especially about the anatomy of the heart. The next day he even called by permission in the medical department and watched the professor dissecting one of those organs. Then he drove home, and a few hours later it became known that he had committed suicide by skillfully plunging a dagger into his heart.

A Family Picture.

Copley, the English painter, was commissioned by a wealthy Bristol merchant to paint the latter and his wife. "But I want to have my deceased wife introduced as well," he said. The order was filled, but soon after the patron, half in mourning, half in wedding splendor, hurried into the studio. "I have had the misfortune to lose my second wife," declared he. "I wish to have included in the portrait the lady who now takes the head of my table." The three wives are in the picture.

Apprehension.

"Why, yes; my boy is quite ingenious—in fact, he is so interested in machinery that I'm afraid he may become an inventor."

"Afraid?"

"Yes; because, you know, if he should invent anything of value the chances are a hundred to one that somebody else will make all the money out of it."—Judge.

A Historic Spot.

Husband—Are you aware, my dear, that on this grassy spot began a war that lasted ten years?

Wife—Why, John, it was here that you proposed to me.

Husband—Exactly; just ten years ago.

A Strict Grammarian.

"You think a great deal of your husband, don't you?" said the visiting relative.

"You have the wrong preposition," answered Mr. Meekton's wife, with the cold tones of the superior woman. "I think for him."—Washington Star.

More to the Point.

Wicks—Yes. I understand the way the thieves ransacked the place simply beggared description.

Hicks—Not only that, but it very nearly beggared me.—Exchange.

Jinks—Oh, a regular wasp.

Winks—I see. He always carries his point.—Catholic Standard.

DO [illegible]
WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Letter Mystery in Collins Case.

Corunna, Mich., June 18.—Whether or not Mrs. Caroline Collins is granted a new trial by Judge Smith depends in some degree upon the discovery of the identity of the person who wrote a mysterious and startling letter to Attorney John T. McCurdy. The writer, who is believed to be a woman residing in Owosso, made important charges against one of the jurors who served upon the case, but who is alleged to have previously exhibited a strong feeling against Mrs. Collins. Every effort has been made to discover the letter writer, and it is believed that the name signed was fictitious. The defense is now advertising for the woman in the Owosso papers. The controversy over the guilt or innocence of the convicted woman continues unabated.

The Happier Man.

A north Missouri paper asks, "Who is the happier, the man who possesses $100,000 or the man who has seven daughters?" [illegible] which another exchange [illegible] the surplus girls, of course. The man with the money is not satisfied and wants more. The man with the seven daughters is satisfied. He has enough.—St. Louis [illegible]

Her Help.

"He would have run through his fortune in a year if it hadn't been for his wife."

"How did she prevent it?"

"She spent it herself."

The Scientific Rebuff.

Isabel—Are you ever rude?

Dorothy—Oh, yes. One has to be rude now and then to teach other people manners.—Detroit Free Press.

Bandit's Demands Ridiculous.

Washington, June 18.—In a cablegram to the state department, Consul-General Gummere at Tangier, indicates that the bandit Raisuli, owing to the subserviency of the Moorish officials, has exaggerated his demands to a point where they have become ridiculous. It is quite certain this government will not comply with any of the demands that relate to itself, and it cannot consistently require the sultan to do as Raisuli asks. It is admitted that if the bandit chief means to carry out his threats the captives, Perdicaris and Varley, are in great peril.

Tangier, June 18.—News has been sent to Raisuli, through the shereef of Bazzan, that all his demands have been complied with.

His Old Master.

He (showing his country cousin a portrait in his art gallery)—What do you think of my old master?

She—Pleasant face the old gentleman has. How long did you study with him?

Physically, Not Financially.

She—I thought you said your father was a big contractor.

He—So he is. He weighs 325 pounds.—Chelsea Gazette.

An Easy Time For Mothers.

Zoa Phora Relieves All Pain and Suffering and Makes the Road for Mothers Smooth.

Trial Bottle Free to Every Woman.

The freedom and relief from pain and suffering that Zoa Phora has brought to women during childbirth alone is enough to render it the greatest blessing of the age to women. In addition to this it cures all irregularities of the sex, misplacements, suppressed and painful periods, leucorrhea, piles, kidney, bladder and liver troubles and regulates the change of life.

Zoa Phora makes the change from maidenhood to womanhood safe and easy and is a matchless remedy for young girls during this critical period of their lives.

The women of America endorse and praise Zoa Phora. All women can secure perfect health and happiness who will use Zoa Phora. All who have used it are now rejoicing in these blessings as their words of praise and gratitude prove. The following letter is only one of thousands which we receive:

Mrs. C. H. Clark, Box 365, Lake View, Mich., says: "I wish to say a few words of praise for Zoa Phora, as it is certainly the best medicine I have ever used for women's troubles. I have suffered with leucorrhea for seven years, and I also fell causing misplacement, from which I suffered for five years. I had a six months birth, which nearly caused death, and ever since I have been sickly.

"Last Christmas one of Dr. Pengelly's books 'Advice to Women,' came within my reach, and so highly recommended Zoa Phora, that I decided to try a bottle, and have found the very best of results. February 22d I gave birth to a little girl, and she is strong and smart, and I am in the best of health I have had for over seven years, all from the use of Zoa Phora. I will say anyone who is troubled in like manner or expecting confinement should take Zoa Phora, and it will certainly be of great benefit to them. I know it makes childbirth much easier than without it."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will give gladly free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by—

ROUND ABOUT US.

The sudden death of Geo. Muck of Brooklyn, last Thursday p. m. came as a shock to his relatives here as he had been sick only a few hours and it was not suspected that the illness was at all critical. A weakened heart is given as one of the principle causes. He leaves a wife, nee Blanche Moore, and two little children. Funeral was held Saturday from the home.—Onsted News.

Wednesday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock there was a head on collision in the Lake Shore yards at the depot. The west bound freight train was standing on the siding about ready to start when the gravel train crashed into it. The pilots of both engines were demolished. The west bound engine made the trip to Adrian in a dilapidated condition. This was the fourth wreck on the Detroit division of the Lake Shore within a week.—Morenci Record.

The doctors in the little state of Rhode Island have just held a convention at Providence. Wishing to keep up with the procession, they announce that Americans eat too much. One of them said that a quarter of a pound of candy a day is as much as a girl's stomach can dispose of to advantage. Another pointed out that the human stomach is really very small. At the present price of food most people will be forced to eat less. And according to the doctors this will be a blessing.—Ex.

Forty years ago George Hewitt, a resident of Belleville, walked to Ypsilanti to visit his daughter on Summit street, and started back in the evening. He was never heard from again, seeming to have dropped out of existence. This spring the floods washed away the river bank near the old hotel at Rawsonville, exposing some human bones. Justice A. L. Yeckley found them and investigated further. The bones were about a foot below the surface and were covered with bottles and tin cans. Part of the bones were washed away, but enough were left to make sure it was a human skeleton. It is thought perhaps this accounts for the body of the missing George Hewitt.—The Ypsilantian.

Two green goods men who tried to do business in Lenawee county are in the Adrian jail. They gave the names of Henry Luce and O. McClish claiming their home was Hicksville O. Some four or five months ago they began to work on Sand Creek farmers and carried on their negotiations till last Monday, when they offered to sell counterfeit money to two residents. The proposed victims, Geo. Briggs and Mr. Trainor, accompanied the bunco men to Adrian, for the purpose of drawing the money from the bank, when they would all go to Detroit and complete the transaction, but the Adrian officers made the arrest much to the surprise of the sharpers.—Hudson Post.

While visiting in Battle Creek about two years ago, Mrs. J. Jones put her engagement ring on the dresser while she was combing her hair and a short time after she missed it but strict search failed to reveal its whereabouts. A boarder was suspected but of course nothing could be proven. Their son, Lloyd, who is conductor on the street cars has kept a sharp lookout and on Tuesday morning telephoned his father to come which he did and they soon secured the ring from a young man who claimed that he found it in the yard where the aforesaid young man boarded. The ring was bought of the late jeweler [illegible] and had the names of Mr. and Mrs. Jones on the inside. They feel pleased to get it back.—Manchester [illegible]

The following was clipped from the Monroe News concerning one of our old ball players:

Cotton States scorers continue to wrestle with the spelling of the name of Monroe's third baseman. Shippcasse, Shippingcasket, Chipofcheese, Shephissial and Shippochase are the most recent attempts. A Mississippi scribe has perhaps found a solution, for he dismisses it with plain Ship in his accounts of Monroe doings.

A Poorly Played Game [illegible] put up between the Locals and the

MORENCI TEAM

Saturday. A Number of Errors were made on both sides.

The Morenci team was defeated here Saturday by the locals in an interesting but rather poorly played game, being full of errors. Striker and Van Geison, the opposing pitchers, got their bumps, Van Geison allowing 11 hits and Striker 7. Van Geison gave three bases on balls to Striker's 1 and the local pitcher again led in the strike outs with nine to the visiting pitcher's two.

In the first half of the 8th inning the visitors tied the score with the aid of errors, but the locals redeemed themselves in the last half when Beasley, who was at the bat got first on an error, Root singled, Beasley stole 3rd and with Knickerbocker's hit, scored. Furlong made a two base hit letting Root home. On account of Van Sickle's slow fielding of Lewis' fly Knickerbocker and Furlong advanced each a base when with Killians hit they crossed the home plate scoring four runs for the locals. Killian died on base as Hyney and Striker were out on fly hits retiring the side. The visitors made no hits in the 9th inning.

Following is the score:

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, June 18, 1904.

The White House is buzzing like a bee-hive and the work[illegible] around it in the joyous expectation of partaking of the official honey for another four years. Not much is talked of there but the Chicago convention next week. The Wisconsin dilema is at the front—whether LaFollett and his regulars or Spooner and his bolters will be admitted to seats in the convention. Cannon has accumulated precedents for a decision. One is from the Republican convention of 1892, when the contesting delegations from Alabama were clamoring at the door. The national committee decided to seat one set of delegates but Senator Spooner protested stoutly against any delegate being a judge in his own case. Mr. Cannon was also a delegate in that convention and took notes of Spooner's remarks. He may now find them useful.

Major-General Henry C. Corbin, commanding the division which embraces all the Atlantic coast line, has been assigned to the command of the Philippines, where he will relieve Major-General Wade. It is understood that General Corbin dislikes the Philippine assignment and that his popular wife would prefer to remain in New York society; but the Philippine business is one of the steps of promotion to the Lieutenant-Generalship and must be taken. General Corbin has no use for anti-imperialists and is not particularly squeamish as to the means employed to carry on the work of the army. When General Chaffee is retired for age in April 1, 1906, it is expected that General Corbin will succeed him at the head of the army.

How was the Maine blown up? Were the Spanish directly responsible? These questions seem now likely to have an answer. The contract to raise the battleship from the bottom of Havana Harbor has been signed by competent and responsible parties and is to be carried out within a year. In the title deeds as transferred, are included "the hulk of the U. S. Battleship, Maine, along with all its equipment of machinery, arms, ammunition, provisions, comestibles and all other objects belonging to said battleship." The week is to be done with a cofferdam. Noted engineers have approved of the method. Some of the bodies of the American sailors still in the hulk will be brought to Arlington; the remainder will be buried at Havana. Several years ago Spain asked permission [illegible] the battleship and solve the problem of the catastrophe, but the request was curtly [illegible] by the United States [illegible] reason for this refusal has never been clearly understood, but it now seems probable that [illegible] secrets of our naval history will be brought to light.

The Russo-Jap war [illegible] half as much attention in this city as the battle royal between the Washington Post and the Commissioner of Pensions. The paper says, "Commissioner Ware furnishes quite superfluous proof of his unfitness for public office in a time of acute campaign emergency," charges that he is granting old age pensions with lightning speed, in close districts and adds "there is not a shadow of a doubt that Commissioner Ware is using this public fund precisely as the chairman of the campaign committee administers the contributions placed at the disposal of the party for purely party purposes." Mr. Ware denies, vociferates, gesticulates and rages. He fiercely goes for his hip pocket and draws therefrom a hair-trigger vocabulary that tinges with blue the circumambient air. The Post violently recriminates and charges him with conspiring to ruin the president. Such a cyclone of invective and irony has not shaken the umbrageous foliage of Washington for a long time.

The Red Cross society seems to get reconstructed. All the old officers have resigned, including Clara Barton and Mrs. Logan and VanReypen has been elected president and Wyman vice president. The meeting was entirely harmonious and more than 80 members voted. It if to be hoped that we have had the last of the shiftless methods of the old society by which tens of thousands of dollars were collected and spent without any proper accounting to anybody. The question arises whether the responsible head of great charity should not always be a person of wealth, responsible in law and removed from the temptation of using other peoples money carelessly. This is the rule in European countries. America is the only great nation where impecunious people can organize charities and pose as philanthropists because they distribute the donation of others.

Secretary Hay at last exhibits anxiety and shows that he is worried by the kidnapping and detention of Predicaris. He and Secretary Moody have played their hand boldly but it is now obvious that Raisouli holds the joker. Having had the audacity to seize and imprison an American citizen in true bandit style it is not probable that he will lack the audacity to do anything else that he may happen to think of. If the brigand is religious enough to fear the destruction of Mohammedan property and power he may probably be managed through menaces to that end but it is likely that he will persist, perhaps by the physical injury to his captives. Mr. Hays refusal to have the United States guarantee the Moorish despot's usurpation is, of course, approved by everybody.

A snake 16 to 18 feet long is the latest discovery at Flat Rock. A boy after the cows saw it and one look was enough. He came, he saw, he went like chain lightning to the house. When he returned with a gun his snakeship had left so he shot an infant snake 6 feet in length and will watch for the big one. —Adrian Press.

Tuesday of this week while working in the saw mill at Clayton, Mr. Roff, of this city, slipped in front of the saw in such a manner that his right foot was nearly cut off at the ankle. After the bone was sawed off the foot was thrown out of the way of the saw but the main artery and most of the chords were uninjured. Dr. Felch of this city was in the village and with Dr. Wilcox looked after the injured man. An attempt will be made to save the foot but as the hurt is a bad one the outcome will be doubtful.—Hudson Post.

KNOWS MI-O-NA WILL CURE

C. A. Wright has such faith in this great dyspepsia remedy that he guarantees it.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way C. A. Wright, the popular druggist, is selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before has he has so large a number of customers tell him that a medicine has cured as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health, solely due to the use of this remedy.

There is no longer any need of any one suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia, for Mi-o-na can be relied upon to cure. The percentage of cures is so nearly one hundred per cent that there is little risk to C. A. Wright in guaranteeing to refund the money if the medicine does not cure and he stands ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing int the ears and all forms of liver trouble are cured by Mi-o-na, price 50c. 'A few days' treatment shows considerable gain in health and a cure speedily follows.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health. And Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.

A newspaper man is in some instances like other people. He respects his friends appreciates a kindness and is always ready to return a favor. In other respects he resembles his fellowmen. He will not continue to pat a man on the back, tell him what a prominent citizen he is, how much he has done, and give him personal puffs when that man will not aid in supporting the paper. In other words, he stands by the man who stands by him. That's about the way of the world and a newspaper man cannot be expected to be so much different from other people.—Ex.

JUST BREATHE IT

Pleasant way to cure catarrh—dangerous stomach drugging avoided by using Hyomei.

A noticeable improvement and a clearing [illegible] air-passages of the head and throat is seen from the first day's use of Hyomei. This treatment is the only [illegible] reliable way to cure [illegible] been so uniformly successful, that C. A. Wright sells it under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should fail. Pills, tablets, liquids and other stomach drugging cannot cure catarrh. Under such treatment the [illegible] germs still live in the air [illegible] and multiply.

Hyomei, [illegible] inhaler that comes with every [illegible] enters the air-passages of the [illegible] throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membrane, and effecting a permanent cure.

The complete outfit costs only one dollar, and will last for several weeks. If more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be abtained at any time for fifty cents.

The directions for using Hyomei are very simple. Twenty drops of the liquid will charge the inhaler. Breathe through this for a few minutes four times a day, and the medicated air is carried to the most remote and minute cells of the air passages, giving results that can be obtained in no other way.

Tell your friends who may be suffering with catarrh or catarrhal colds about this unusual way of selling a medicine for the cure of catarrh. You run no risk when buying Hyomei.

THE THIEF OF BEAUTY
Is Captured by Bradfield's Regulator.

Thousands of young women are awaking to the fact that inherited comliness has been stolen, and instead of glowing cheeks and bright eyes, the tell-tale wrinkles of pain have taken their place. These are the warning feelings! Weak and tired in the morning, no life to enter upon their former pleasures, irritable, cross; dull headaches, general dispirited feeling, sleepless nights, cold feet, "bearing down" pains. All these symptoms indicate deranged and weakened organs, and exhausted energies follow the weakened condition of the female organs as surely as night follows day. Save yourself from worse results by taking Lives With His Side Crushed.

New York, June 20.—John Markey of White Plains is considered a wonder by surgeons. He is in the Mount Vernon hospital with all the ribs on his left side broken, his lungs pierced by broken bones, his arm broken in two places, his collar-bone fractured and his left shoulder smashed to a pulp, and yet he lives, and it is believed he will recover. Dr. Newell, who is attending him, said that he never saw such a miraculous escape from death as Markey experienced. A remarkable thing about his condition is that the bones on his right side are intact, while those on his left are broken and some of them crushed.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

A large two-team tallyho, on which was seated twenty-three passengers, fell down an embankment about ten miles east of Cleveland Sunday night and six persons are said to be seriously hurt.

Richard Harris, a 17-year-old colored boy, was thrown into the river near the foot of Adams street in Toledo Sunday by Harry Parks, aged 19 years, and was drowned. Parks disappeared and has not been apprehended.

Miss Margaret McCarty, owner of a restaurant in Bradford, Pa., was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her establishment, together with two other buildings adjoining. Four boarders escaped death by jumping from a second story window.

John Fern, a watchman at the Baltimore & Ohio freight yards in Cleveland shot and probably fatally wounded Robert L. Jones, who was looking into freight cars and whom Fern thought was a car-robber. When Fern realized that he had probably taken a man's life without sufficient justification he shot himself to death.

Despondent Over Ill-Health.

Detroit, Mich., June 18.—John Bohl, aged 53 years, a tailor who lived at 992 Alexandrine avenue east, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Bohl used the acid in dressing a sore leg, and his daughter was surprised when she looked through the garret door in the house to find him dead. Coroner Toepel, who is investigating, found Bohl had been very despondent owing to bad health.

Big Attendance Expected.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Judging from present indications, the approaching Michigan Christian Endeavor convention, to be held June 28 to July 1 at Lake Orion, will be one of the most largely attended gatherings of the sort ever held in the state. Some of the features of the convention will be addresses by Rev. Ernest Bourner Allen of Toledo, General Secretary Vogt, Rev. Dr. W. F. Wilson of Hamilton, Ont., and Don Shelton of New York. Other addresses will be the following: "The Junior Society," Miss Madge O. Sibley, Detroit; "How to Get and Keep the Boy," Miss Street, Detroit; "The Old Member," Miss Thyrza Godwin, Grand Rapids; "The Associate Member," Harry Myers, Hillsdale; "Missionary Possibilities," Mrs. H. H. Burr, Detroit; "Character Building," Mrs. Rose.

DIED IN AGONY.

Aged Ecorse Woman Frightfully Burned by Exploding Lamp.

Ecorse, Mich., June 20.—Mrs. Caro[illegible], aged 72 years, one of the oldest residents of the village, was burned so seriously by the explosion of a lamp at her home that she died in great agony.

Mrs. Tank, who lived with her son, Fred Tank, was in the kitchen with the lamp when the explosion occurred and was covered with the burning oil. Her cries brought her daughter, Mrs. Caroline Burkhart.

Mrs. Burkhart carried her young baby in her arms as she hastened to her mother's assistance and the child's long clothes immediately caught fire. The mother turned her attention to extinguishing the flames which threatened the life of her child, and by the time she had succeeded her mother's clothing had burned entirely off. A doctor was called but was too late to save the life of the aged woman.

Poison In Dead Girl's Stomach.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Drs. Phil G. Sanderson, I. L. Polozker and John H. Clark, county chemist, yesterday morning conducted an autopsy on the remains of Mary Treppa, the 17-year-old girl who died at 80 Livingston avenue under suspicious circumstances Saturday evening. As a result the doctors found that the small intestines were in a state of great congestion, as was also the membraneous lining of the brain. Both conditions, the doctors say, may have been, and possibly were, due to poisoning, though whether it was ptomaine or arsenical they are as yet unable to say. The stomach of the dead girl was not tampered with but was handed to a specialist for analysis. It will be some days before it will be known what really was the cause of the congestion which caused her death. Mrs. Annie Wagus is detained at police headquarters on suspicion of knowing how the girl came to her death.

Prominent Physician Dead.

Marine City, Mich., June 20.—Leonard Brooks Parker, one of the best known physicians of St. Clair county, and an old and highly respected resident of this city, died at the family residence here at 2:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Dr. Parker was a fine representative of those rugged, down-east characters who have played so important a part in the development of the middle west. He was born at Moores, Clinton county, New York, July 29, 1818, and consequently was within a few weeks of his 86th birthday. He began his medical studies with Drs. Hall and Ballou at St. Albans and was graduated from Castleton Medical college, Castleton, Vt., in 1843. He began the practice of his profession at Cambridge, in the same state, where he re[illegible] In [illegible] he came to Michigan and located at Marine City (then called Newport), where he has since resided.

Two Notorious Shoplifters.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Two women, alleged by the police to be shoplifters of "national renown," were arrested at Hunter & Hunter's store and escorted to the Central station, where they were registered as May Williams of Chicago, aged 32, and Nellie Jennings of Toledo, aged 30. The specific accusation against them is the larceny of underclothing from the store in which they were found. Pictures of both women are to be seen in the local police album. The Williams woman was arrested here a year ago and her partner five years ago, when she was in Detroit.

An Unusual Memorial.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 20.—The senior medical class this year intends to leave a memorial that is extraordinary and more useful than ornamental and at the same time will establish a precedent for the classes to follow. The class proposes to endow a free bed in the University hospital by raising the sum of $6,000, the interest from which will at least equal $300, which will keep a free bed one year. Preference for the occupancy of this bed will always be given to needy students of the university.

Lost His Mind In Prison.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Charles O. Larrison, who was sent to the Ionia reformatory from Detroit for assault on his stepdaughter, has been declared insane by Dr. Haynes of that institution, and, with the consent of Warden Fuller, has been transferred to the asylum for the criminal insane at Ionia. It is said that Larrison labors under the delusion that he is confined in a Detroit retreat for the insane and that the attendants are trying to kill him with poisonous gases.

Australia Liner Total Loss.

Melbourne, June 20.—The Peninsula and Oriental liner Australia, inward bound, struck on the rocks at Point Nepean (at the eastern entrance to Port Phillips bay, Victoria,) at 2 o'clock in the morning. The bottom of the vessel was stove in and it is feared she will be a total loss. The passengers and crew were safely landed. The Australia was bound from London to Sydney, N. S. W. She was of steel and of 3,702 tons net.

However we wish to just make mention of the fact that the editor of the Local evidently does not consider the items of the Clinton correspondence in the HERALD so valueless, noting he considers them valuable enough to copy in his paper.

HITT AND FAIRBANKS

Two Men In View For the Republican Vice-Presidency.

Chicago, June 20.—The vice-presidency and the tariff plank [illegible] platform are the principal subjects of discussion among the delegates to the Republican national convention. The state delegations will meet today to organize and select members of the various committees, and it is expected that declarations will be made on the vice-presidency, which will determine who will be the candidate.

From present appearances Senator Fairbanks will be the choice, as a sufficient number of leaders have declared for him and announced the probable support of their delegations for him to indicate his selection. The Indiana senator was seen for a few minutes in the corridors of the Auditorium annex and was warmly greeted by a throng of men who indicated to him their desire to see him named for second place on the ticket. He remained non-committal, his position being that the nomination can neither be sought nor refused. The knowledge that the senator will not refuse has been communicated to the delegates and has largely increased the prospects of his nomination.

Illinois has decided to make an active, aggressive campaign for Hitt for vice-president. A caucus was held Sunday afternoon in the state headquarters and a formal plan of campaign in the interest of the Illinois congressman was adopted.

After a discussion between the leading men of the delegation it was arranged that Senator Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois should present the name of Mr. Hitt to the convention, and seconding speeches will be arranged for by at least two delegates.

STRUCK DEAD.

Four Boys Killed by Lightning Near Chester, Pa.

Chester, Pa., June 20.—Four boys standing under a cherry tree on a farm near Felton, three miles from here, were killed Sunday by a stroke of lightning.

The dead are: Ross Smith, aged 13 years, of Felton, son of the owner of the farm; Alexander Fullerton, 13, Felton; William Davis, 14, Upland; Samuel Clark, 15, colored, Chester.

About a dozen boys went from Felton to pick cherries on the Smith farm. Farmer Smith told his son Ross, who was about to go to Sunday school, to order away any boys he might see at the cherry trees. On the way young Smith met Fullerton, Davis and Clark. As they approached the cherry trees the dozen boys from Felton ran away. A [illegible] was coming up [illegible] other four boys went under one of the trees. They had been there only a few [illegible] when lightning struck the tree. Smith, Fullerton and Davis were killed instantly. The colored boy was so badly injured that he died on the way to a hospital.

Reforms Promised In Russia.

St. Petersburg, June 20.—The emperor has appointed an extraordinary commission, according to current rumor, the purpose of which is to submit propositions for important reforms. The Associated Press is unable to confirm this report absolutely, though it understands that a special commission consisting of Grand Duke Michael, the heir apparent; Grand Duke Donistantine, Minister of the Interior Von Plehwe, M. de Witte, M. Sinovieff, Minister of Justice Muravieff, Minister of War Sakharoff and Minister of the Navy Avellan has been appointed to consider measures for the relief of the distress among the peasants resulting from the departure of the breadwinners for the far east.

It Rains Every Seven Days.

If it rains on the first Sunday of the month it is morally certain to rain on two or three of the other Sundays. Why it is so no one knows unless it be that rainstorms in this country come at intervals about seven days apart, and if the rain happens to hit the first Sunday the other rainy Sundays follow as a natural consequence. The coincidence has been noted too often to doubt that it really exists.—Exchange.

No One But Yourself if You Don't Get Well When Sick.

All we can do is give advice.
Of course that's easy.

But our advice is really worth a little more to you than most people's, for we offer to give you the first bottle of our medicine free, if it fails to help you.

We could not afford to do this unless our medicine was good. Such an offer, on the wrong kind of medicine, would put a merchant prince in the poor house.

Dr. Miles' Nervine, however, as years of experience have proved, is a medicine that cures the sick.

Those whom it cannot benefit—less than one in ten thousand—we prefer to refund their money.

All we ask of you is to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for your complaint. If you suffer from sleeplessness, nervous exhaustion, dizziness, headache, muscular twitchings, melancholy, loss of memory, weak stomach, poor blood, bilious troubles, epilepsy, St. Vitus' Dance, etc., we will guarantee to benefit you or refund your money.

You are the doctor.

"My son Bert, when in his 17th year, became subject to attacks of epilepsy, so serious that we were compelled to take him out of school. Verdict of $50 For Dog.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Charles F. Millard, a Livonia township farmer, was given a verdict for $50 against his neighbor, Frederick Rhode, by a jury in Judge Rohnert's court. Rhode last August shot an Irish setter belonging to Millard, claiming that the dog was unmuzzled and dangerous. Millard said his dog was worth $150 and that it was one of the progeny of James M. McKay's prize dog, "Hins." It took the jury about three hours to reach a verdict.

Killed by Flying Plank.

Gaylord, Mich., June 20.—Frank Lipinsky, a laborer working for the Jenson Lumber Co. at Sallings, was struck by a flying plank from an edger and received injuries which caused his death. He was a married man, 42 years old, and leaves a widow and ten children at Saginaw. His body will be taken to that place for interment.

Threw Hot Soup on His Wife.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Mrs. Margaret Zerychta, aged 41, a Polish woman living at 101 Annexation street, was taken to St. Mary's hospital yesterday suffering from severe burns said to have been inflicted by her husband throwing a large kettle of boiling soup over her about the noon hour. At the hospital it is stated that she is fearfully scalded and may not survive. According to the story told by neighbors and boarders in the Zerychta home, the husband became angry over some trivial affair and grabbed the kettle of boiling soup from the stove and threw it on his wife. Officers have been unable to find Zerychta.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symtoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25; large size, 75c. JOHN J. ORR.

ARE YOU AWARE

In the course of one year the balance of your watch makes 157,680,000 revolutions.

THINK OF IT!

In time the oil gums; only as much oil as will stay on the end of a hair is used in oiling the jewel in a watch, which the heat of the body will dry in fourteen to eighteen months. When the oil becomes gummed, it produces friction, and wears the delicate bearings, destroys their high finish and perfect adjustment, thus ruining an accurate time piece.
Any ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch should be oiled and cleaned at least once a year.
The man who carries a good Time Keeper for years without attention, is not beating the Jeweler, he's only beating himself out of a good watch movement that has done good service, and would for years to come, with proper attention.
In repairing broken parts of a watch, we use only genuine material of the best grade, and charge no more for it. We can't afford to use the cheap half finished material. A cheap job of work on a good watch is dear at any price, a first class job at a fair price is better in the long run.
Bring in your watch, let us examine it: an honest opinion from us will cost you nothing.
We warrant all of our work and there's no string to our guarantees.

BATTLE IS BREWING

Russians Trying to Prevent Junction of Oku and Kuroki.

JAPS ARE NEARING SEN CHEN

Russian Guard Under Samsonoff Falling Back—Czar Likely Lost 3,500 Troops at Vafangow—Gen. Kuropatkin Bestows Honors.

[illegible] ence of a battle in the northern part of the Liao Tung peninsula is admitted by the war office and is [illegible] tinctly in dispatches from the Associated Press correspondents at Liao Yang, Kaiping and other points on the railroad.

The week of skirmishing around Siu Yen retarded Gen. Kuroki's operations, permitting Gen. Stakelberg to reach Kaiping, the rear guard slowly falling back on Senuchen before the [illegible] advance.

Meanwhile large forces are hurrying south from Liao Yang to check both Gen. Oku and Gen. Kuroki. It is believed here that Gen. Kuropatkin's object is to prevent a juncture of the Japanese armies. On the other hand, the aim of the Japanese apparently is to drive the Russians out of the Liao Tung peninsula preparatory to a march on Liao Yang.

Kai Chou, June 23.—Japanese scouts have appeared two miles from Sen Chen (Siung Yo Shan?). The main columns of the enemy are three miles in the rear. Gen. Samsonoff, with the Russian guard, is falling back with the Japanese advance. A number of men missing after the battle of Vafangow have rejoined their regiments. The Russian losses are expected to total 3,500. The troops are in excellent condition, in spite of the fearful weather. The roads are ankle deep in mire, but the rains are now ceasing.

Gen. Kuropatkin arrived here Monday, inspected Gen. Stakelberg's corps and addressed the troops, saying:

"I shall see you soon again. We must settle with the Japanese promptly. Till then we are not going home."

The men responded heartily.

The general also addressed the regiments which specially distinguished themselves in the recent fighting and presented the St. George's Cross to 250 officers and men who were drawn up on the railroad station and gave the commander-in-chief a hearty send-off. Kuropatkin stood on the steps of his train as it moved out and waved a farewell to the troops.

The reports of the Japanese treatment of prisoners and wounded are marked by extraordinary contradictions. In some cases the greatest kindness has been shown to the Russians, but from elsewhere come reports of brutality and worse. One case is cited in which the Japanese, during the fighting, seeing the Russian wounded on the field, sent Chinese bearers and had them removed to a hospital.

Siung Yo Shan is twenty-five miles southeast of Kai Chou, Liao Tung peninsula.

JAPANESE SLOW UP.

Advance on Port Arthur Being Pushed Less Vigorously.

Chefoo, June 23.—While the Japanese are keeping a close watch on Port Arthur, both on land and sea, their advance towards the fortress is not being pushed so vigorously as during the early days of June. Chinese arriving from points on the Liao Tung peninsula say that firing is not heard as frequently. They report, however, that skirmishes, the result of which they do not know, occurred on the 14th, 18th and 20th of June.

Junk men who have arrived from the Yalu river report that a large force of Manchurian bandits are crossing northern Korea towards Gensan.

CRIME IN LUDINGTON

Two Tragedies Were Enacted All Within One Day.

MAN KILLED WIFE AND BABE

Then Committed Suicide—Jealousy Prompted Deed—Pollock Salt Lifter Attacked and Mortally Wounded Co-Worker With Club.

[illegible] day was a day of crime and tragedy at Ludington. Three dead and one dying [illegible] Early in the morning Reiner Smith, aged 34, shot and instantly killed his young wife, who was living on a nearby farm. As the woman fell a ten months' old babe dropped from her arms to the ground. Instantly the infuriated man put a bullet through the infant's head, with fatal results. He then turned the weapon upon himself, inflicting a bad wound, from which he died in a few hours, and [illegible] ing. Smith's wife had not been living with him for some time, and it is thought the murder followed her refusal to return to him.

Joe Smith, a Pollock salt lifter, also attempted murder, attacking Jay Bacon, a co-worker, from ambush, and striking him three times over the head with a heavy club. The victim is in a precarious condition and probably will not recover. After the assault Smith attempted to escape by swimming half a mile across Pere Marquette lake. He was pursued by men in boats, however, and captured.

Ypsilanti Normal and U. of M. Engineers Hold Exercises.

Ypsilanti, Mich., June 23.—The commencement exercises of the state normal college were held Wednesday morning in Normal hall before an immense audience. A masterly and poetic address was given by Prof. Arnold Tompkins of Chicago, on "Beauty as a factor in education." The number of graduated since the last commencement is 348, and 208 of these received diplomas yesterday.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 23.—The senior engineering class held its class day exercises under the Engineers' oak Wednesday morning. The 1904 engineering class is the first class of that department that has separated from the lits, and accordingly the class day was the first one ever held by engineers. The class elected a historian, prophet, poet and orator, but none of the latter put in an appearance on the platform. It turned out that they had been too busy with senior theses and examinations to prepare their assignments. Accordingly the program consisted only of two parts, an opening speech by the class president, John H. Mustard, and an address by T. H. Hinchman, '93 engineer, of Detroit.

Alumni day was celebrated yesterday by what was probably the largest number of alumni that ever gathered for a reunion. The whole day was given over to the "old boys," and nearly every minute was occupied with some sort of an alumni function.

Will Sue Senator Platt.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 23.—While Senator Thomas C. Platt of New York is in the thick of political turmoil at the Republican national convention he will probably be interrupted by a summons making him defendant in a $3,000,000 damage suit. James A. Donovan, millionaire lumber merchant of Chicago, is the man who declares that he will spring such a surprise on the New York senator. Mr. Donovan has returned to the Windy City after a visit to this city, where he closed all preliminary litigation to the big suit in which, besides himself, Mrs. L. S. Baker of Grand Rapids and her daughter, Miss Kittie Irene Baker, are interested. Senator Platt is held accountable by the plaintiffs in the suit for the disappearance of 50,000,000 feet of standing timber, alleged to have been taken from timber lands belonging to Donovan and Mrs. Baker's father, a partner with Donovan, who is now dead. The firm of Platt & Underwood of New York will be made the defendants in the suit.

Asks $10,000 For Crushed Foot.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 23.—John Kelly of Chelsea has commenced suit for $10,000 against the M. C. R. R. for injuries received while unloading a carload of rails last December. A rail fell on his foot and Kelly says it was due to the railroad's negligence.

CANNON STIRRED THEM

Convention Aroused to High Pitch by Popular Congressman.

PARTY PLATFORM IS ADOPTED

One Plank Proposes Reduction of Representation of Certain Southern States—Contest Over Number of Delegates From Hawaii.

[illegible] Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was the central figure, the proceedings of the Republican national convention took on a picturesqueness and demonstrativeness Wednesday which the day before was looked for in vain. From the moment he was escorted to the platform to wield the gavel as the permanent chairman, the entire atmosphere of the convention changed. Enthusiasm, which had lain dormant, burst forth and applause rang true and hearty. He made a speech and the audience cheered, whether he spoke jocularly or in serious vein. He was the entertainer; in fact, he was the convention.

From the standpoint of political importance the adoption of the party platform was the event of the day. It contained declarations of party policy that are to form the basis of much of the oratory in the coming campaign. But the permanent chairman's personality almost overshadowed the platform.

The second day of the convention might have been the close had it been the desire of the assembled delegates. Early in the day a movement was inaugurated to proceed with the nominations, but the original program, which was prepared to extend over three days, prevailed and the standard-bearers for the 1904 Republican campaign will be named formally today.

Live party enthusiasm aroused by the hearty reception given "Uncle Joe" Cannon, as he is known from coast to coast, spread even to routine business and culminated in a contest over the number of delegates to which Hawaii was entitled. The conflict was the first and will doubtless be the last on the floor of the convention.

The Platform.

One of the remarkable features concerning the adoption of the platform was the fact that it has been the subject of administrative scrutiny and national interest for many weeks and was accepted without a dissenting vote.

In addition to the tariff plank and other resolutions which always have had a prominent position in Republican platforms, there were incorporated several clauses of striking interest. One of these is a plank looking to the reduction of the representation of certain southern states in the electoral college and in congress. It is built upon what is known as the Payne resolution offered eight years ago and the Quay resolution of forty years ago, but goes further than either. The plank directs an investigation to ascertain whether there have been unconstitutional disfranchisements of voters in any state, and if so demands a reduction of the representation of such states in congress, with the consequent reduction in the electoral college and in national conventions. The full significance of pledges for the continuance of the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act and for the furtherance of all legitimate efforts to obtain for Ameri[illegible] citizens abroad, without discrim[illegible]ation, the rights of sojourn and travel, was not appreciated when read in the convention.

Visitors were not so early about convention hall Wednesday, but when Mr. Root called the convention to order, shortly after noon, the Coliseum presented a m[illegible] inspiring appearance than on th[illegible] ceding day.

While [illegible] delegations interchanged ideas on the floor or sought their seats the convention was called to order abruptly by the temporary chairman, Mr. Root. After prayer by the Rev. Thomas E. Cox the business of the day began.

The announcement of the permanent organization for the convention started the continuous demonstration which followed the introduction of Speaker Cannon as permanent chairman. He was escorted to the platform by a committee consisting of Hon. John D. Long, Senator Cullom and Representative Burton of Ohio. The temporary and permanent chairman met in the center of the stage, where they clasped hands in a cordial greeting. At this moment the applause was deafening, the convention rising to its feet.

Speaker Cannon's oratory was decidedly to the liking of the convention. He established cordial relations even before he had uttered a word. He stood in silence for a moment on a tongue-like projection in the center of the platform. He was pausing to think how to begin. The speaker had written his first speech and had tried to memorize it. But he did not have the slightest intention of following it. He knew the inspiration that would come—that had come—and he just wanted a free hand to cut loose.

"So, let us ramble awhile." That is what he said. And then he abandoned himself to his limitless store of profound political sagacity and his original and characteristic vocabulary. Throughout his address the cheering was generous, intelligent and appreciative.

WORKED CLEVER RUSE

Did Michigan Men to Get Into Convention Hall.

Chicago, June 23.—Notwithstanding the dearth of convention tickets issued to Michigan visitors by the national committee, more men from that state were in the Coliseum yesterday than from any other state outside of Illinois, so the state has not fared so badly as was at first feared. Being disappointed over the alleged discrimination against Michigan in the distribution of the guest tickets, the Michigan employes in the convention combined in a clever ruse to get into the hall.

Roy C. Lyle of Grand Rapids carried out a plan by which Assistant Doorkeepers Melville, McPherson, Henry, Truax and Thompson were stationed at separate entrances with representatives from other states. Their stations were reported to state headquarters and all visitors were directed to those particular entrances. The Michigan doorkeepers were not inquisitive to visitors from their native state, and as a result it is estimated that nearly 300 persons were admitted without tickets.

AGED LIFE PRESERVERS.

Those on Steamer Slocum Purchased Nine Years Ago.

New York, June 23.—That the ill-fated steamer General Slocum had no life preservers aboard less than nine years old was admitted by counsel of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Co. at the inquest Wednesday. Evidence was also brought out that the United States inspectors did not examine the fire hose and standpipes and that the preservers were not in good shape.

Rev. George Schultze of Erie, Pa., who was on the steamer, said he attempted to put on a life belt, but that the strap broke and he threw it away as useless.

Benjamin F. Conkling, chief engineer of the Slocum, said there had been no fire drills on the steamer this year and that the United States inspectors had not tested the fire hose. Conkling said the equipment of the Slocum compared favorably with that of any excursion boat in the harbor.

Although the week has elapsed since the steamer went to destruction on North Brother island, the bodies of its victims continue to be found in the waters adjacent to the scene of the disaster. Wednesday thirty-seven came to the surface, making the total number recovered 883. Of these 778 have been identified. Despite the fact that the police are bending every energy toward getting a complete list of those who went on the ill-fated excursion definite figures as to the number missing cannot be given. From present indications, however, it is apparent that the death roll will total nearly a thousand.

Woman Perished in Hotel Fire.

Quincy, Ill., June 23.—In a fire in the Tremont house Miss Elizabeth Welch, principal of the Jefferson school, met death by suffocation and her sister, Miss Mary Welch, principal of the Jackson school, was probably fatally burned. Edith Simons, a cook in the hotel, was badly burned and may die. The Tremont house is a five-story structure and the oldest hotel in the city. The financial loss is $75,000.

Slashed to Death.

Marquette, Mich., June 23.—Gus Birtonen, a bartender, was slashed to death at Mass City by John Kangas while endeavoring to eject the latter from the saloon. He was literally disemboweled. Kangas has been arrested.

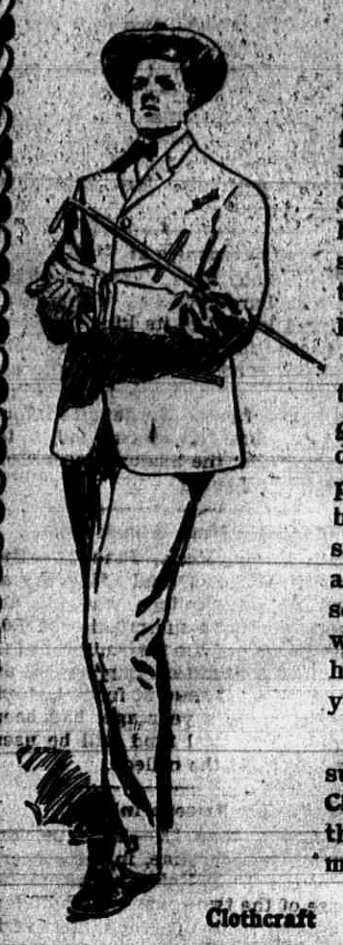
Good Clothes



Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have yau bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

Worst of all experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. Newson, Decatur, Ala. For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. It is the first case of the kind in the township. The total fund will be used for a library at the college.

Twelve Persons Injured.

St. Louis, June 23.—An explosion, presumably of gasoline, in the grocery store of the W. E. Reid Co. caused the collapse of the two-story brick building and injured twelve persons, none seriously. The wreckage caught fire and only for the prompt arrival of the fire department some of the victims would doubtless have been burned to death.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

GIRL'S DEATH INVESTIGATED.

Alice Falls of Chesaning Underwent a Criminal Operation.

Chesaning, Mich., June 23.—Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Clarence M. Browne and Coroner English of Saginaw were here Wednesday investigating suspicious circumstances attending the death of Alice Falls, 19 years old, which occurred Sunday, thirty-six hours after an operation for ovarian trouble, performed by Dr. J. Roy Pelton of Chesaning and Dr. T. H. O'Rourke of Oakley.

These physicians performed the operation at the home of the girl and in a preliminary examination discovered evidences that a criminal operation had been performed a short time before, which was in a great measure responsible for her condition. They refused to perform a second operation until they were informed of all that had taken place. The girl told them they were right in their surmises and gave the name of a man responsible for her downfall, together with the names of two Saginaw physicians whom she alleged performed the operation. She then submitted to a second operation and death resulted.

During the girl's stay in Saginaw, where the operation is alleged to have taken place, she boarded with Mrs Nellie Farrington, 513 North Hamilton street.

After hearing all evidence the coroner's jury brought in a verdict of no cause for action and exonerated all parties concerned, saying death was due to disease prevalent before the operation was performed. The physicians in question were cleared before their names were made public, and so the names are withheld.

FOR NEW TRIAL.

Prosecution In Collins Case Announces Itself as Ready.

Owosso, Mich., June 23.—The prosecution in the Collins murder case has announced itself as perfectly ready for a new trial, if such a course is forced upon it by the defense. Prosecutor Parker was in Hazelton township a day or two ago, and while there discovered a witness of whom he had no knowledge during the trial just closed. After a talk with the man, who is said to be a prominent farmer, the prosecutor declares that his testimony alone would convict Mrs. Collins. The man kept quiet during the trial, as he had no desire to get mixed up in the case, but in case a new trial is granted he believes it his duty to testify.

A good many people believe that the defense has nothing of value to offer, and is simply playing for time. Mrs. Collins, who was convicted two weeks ago, is still in the county jail unsentenced, and the prosecution has declared in open court, as grounds for a [illegible] oner will attempt suicide.

WOULDN'T BUY BROOMS.

Kalamazoo Refused to Do That Much to Keep Streets Cleaned.

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 22.—Because the city council would not furnish them with three brooms with which to carry on their work, the members of the Women's Civic Improvement league have thrown up the sponge and resigned their self-appointed position as street cleaners.

On May 1 the league took a contract to clean Main street in this city, and for several weeks the work went merrily on. At the eleventh hour brooms ran out and Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane, chairman of the league's executive committee, asked the chairman of the streets and bridge committee for three brooms. He referred her to the chairman of the purchasing committee, who in turn referred her to the street commissioner. He refused to buy brooms and the women, becoming indignant, quit.

The league has attracted attention from every portion of the country and inquiries were even registerd from faraway London concerning it. Its work on Main street has been eminently successful and by means of steel repositories for refuse and an anti-spit ordinance, it has kept the thoroughfare in very respectable shape.

A FATAL SPREE.

Ypsilanti Man Victim of His Own Intemperance in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 22.—No evidence has been secured by the police as yet to substantiate the theory that Claude H. Webster, the Ypsilanti man who was found early yesterday morning on Adams avenue, near Cass, had been either drugged or robbed. From what has been learned, the man was a victim of his own intemperance and died from the effects of a spree, on which he started on the previous afternoon.

About 4 o'clock Patrolmen Hastings and Isham found Webster lying on some steps near the point mentioned. Believing that he was drunk, they sent him to the Woodbridge street police station. Sergeant Tom Swartwood, noticing that the man was ill, ordered his removal to the Red Cross hospital. Notwithstanding the efforts of Dr. J. E. Block, the house physician, to revive him, Webster passed away two hours later.

Atlantic Mine Closes Down.

Calumet, Mich., June 23.—Operations at the Atlantic mine were suspended Wednesday owing to a strike of trammers. The men objected to the trammer boss and have other complaints. The management gave the men a voluntary increase in wages a few months ago and will fight the present demands to a finish. The rock supply at the stamp mill is exhausted and the plant by closing throws 660 men out of work at the mine and the mill.

He received his education in the public schools here and entered the hardware trade, which he followed for over twenty years.

He Was a Dowieite.

Kalamazoo, [illegible] June [illegible]—Physicians are now inquiring into the death of Leroy J. Sperry, who was found dead in his bed in this city. Sperry was a Dowieite and passed up doctors and all kinds of medical aid, even refusing simple drugs. Sticking to John Alexander Dowie, the second Elijah, he was prone to believe that that gentleman would bring him out of a severe attack of consumption. He prayed continually until he was too weak to even offer up supplications. The facts came to light when the physician called upon after his death refused to sign the death certificate. A coroner's inquest will be held.

Dirty Work of Poisoners.

Grand Haven, Mich., June 22.—The sheriff's office has been informed of a wholesale case of horse poisoning at Peach Plains, three miles south of this city. Horses on the farms of Harry Deremo, James Payne and John Kieft were found dead from paris green. In front of each barn a note was left stating that their berries were also poisoned. All three farmers are brothers-in-law, and it is alleged that for some time they have been having serious trouble with their father-in-law, John Q. Deremo. The entire neighborhood is greatly wrought up.

His niece, Mrs. Martha Slayton, of this city, gets $35,000 and her daughter is bequeathed $10,000, while Charles Shippey, a nephew, will get $100,000.

Zoa Phora makes the change from maidenhood to womanhood safe and easy and is a matchless remedy for young girls during this critical period of their lives.

The women of America endorse and praise Zoa Phora. All women can secure perfect health and happiness who will use Zoa Phora. All who have used it are now rejoicing in these blessings as their words of praise and gratitude prove. The following letter is only one of thousands which we receive:

Mrs. C. H. Clark, Box 365, Lake View, Mich., says: "I wish to say a few words of praise for Zoa Phora, as it is certainly the best medicine I have ever used for women's troubles. I have suffered with leucorrhea for seven years, and I also fell causing misplacement, from which I suffered for five years. I had a six months birth, which nearly caused death, and ever since I have been sickly.

"Last Christmas one of Dr. Pengelly's books 'Advice to Women,' came within my reach and so highly recommended Zoa Phora, that I decided to try a bottle, and have found the very best of results. February 2nd I gave birth to a little girl, and she is strong and smart, and I am in the best of health I have had for over seven years, all from the use of Zoa Phora. I will say anyone who is troubled in like manner or expecting confinement should take Zoa Phora, and it will certainly be of great benefit to them. I know it makes childbirth much easier than without it."

Write the Zoa Phora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Pengelly's Advice to Women." The doctor will give gladly free special advice when needed. Zoa Phora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by

Tecumseh Scored an easy Victory over

MONTPELIER, O.,

Winning by 6 runs to 1. Killian Pitched his First Game here.

An exceedingly fast and exciting game of base ball was played here Tuesday between the locals and the Montpelier, Ohio club. Killian was in the box for the local team allowing his opponents no hits, they making their only score on Beasley's and Knickerbocker's errors. Beasley started the hitting in the second inning and it was kept up throughout the game, getting ten hits off Teal and scoring six runs. With two men gone, Beasley went to bat in the last half of the fourth inning and seeing a ball he liked put the stick against it, sending it over the fence, scoring a home run, besides making the longest hit ever made on these grounds. He was followed by Root, Knickerbocker and LaBelle, each scoring a hit and two runs. In the sixth inning Knickerbocker was given a base on balls and scored aided by LaBelle's three base hit and Sebastian's two base hit gave Striker a score in the eighth inning. LaBelle in the eighth inning got first base on an error by Stalter, the visitors' first baseman, and when Killian sacrificed, scored. Teal pitched poor ball, was easily found, the locals getting ten hits and he had four errors back of him.

Tuesday's game was Montpelier's tenth this season and the first one they have lost, due to Killian's fast pitching.

Tecumseh has now played four games, giving each of the three pitchers, Striker, LaBelle and Killian, a chance and they have proved to be dandys. LaBelle pitched the shut out game with the D. A. C's., holding them down to seven hits, struck out six men and gave no bases on balls. The local team now has three of the best pitchers it has ever had and if the masterly pitching is kept up, will enable the home team to win more than their share of games during the season.

Following is the score:

Dr. Gertrude Jones.

"It is generally known that Mrs. W. H. Jones has spent some time in the Osteopathic college of Medicine and Surgery at Chicago, but few realize how thoroughly she has applied herself to the work. From the time she entered the college she applied herself with such dilligence and perseverance that she made very rapid progress and her efforts so taxed her strength that she was forced, after her mother's death to take a respite and cease all study. A few weeks at home with careful nursing, so restored her health that she returned and took up her studies and her hosts of friends will join us in expressing pleasure on knowing she has finished her course, and graduates next week with high honors. She made good progress in her preparation, by nearly two years practical study with her husband and her experience in this way was of material benefit to her at the college. She has seen much of surgery and of various treatments, which prepared her to determine upon what lines to devote the most attention and she was able to accomplish a great deal of work, and it is no surprise to know that "Gertie," as she is best known, won the highest admiration of the professors for her rapid progress and her efficiency.

She is now professionally as the equal of her husband and his work will be all the better for the study she has given it. "Dr. Gertrude Jones" will not be spoken of much, because her many friends prefer to address her as of old and she will invariably be the same amiable, gentle, pleasant Gertrude. We congratulate her on her success and on the spirit of perseverance and independence that led her to persist in mastering her profession. May she never regret her efforts. Her father, ex-Mayor Bray, returned this week from a visit in Chicago."

NOMINATED

In Chicago Yesterday

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS

For President and Vice President of the United States.

Nominated by the National Republican convention at Chicago yesterday, for President, Theodore Roosevelt of New York. For Vice President, Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana.

Monroe Council Strike Electric Rail road.

Monroe, Mich.—(Special.)—The Monroe common council tonight delivered a solar plexus blow to the Detroit, Monroe & Toledo Electric Short line. Ald. Gilmore introduced a resolution, which was unanimously carried, prohibiting the company from carrying on a freight business, which, it is said, is not allowed by its franchise. Should the company fail to comply with the council's mandate quo warranto proceedings are to be commenced by the mayor to enforce it. The former council allowed this privilege without any interference. The privilege denied will mean a loss of over $1,000 a month to the road, inasmuch as cars of coal are transferred at the terminal belt, Toledo, over its own line and delivered to its own line without additional expense. A motion by Ald. Dansard, which was also unanimously carried, demands that the company place screens over the headlights on the cars in that city.—Free Press.

The Monroe council was wise in restricting the carrying of freight through the Monroe streets but the Tecumseh council were unwise as they not only granted to the road about to come through Tecumseh, the right to carry all kinds of freight, but to build the track the whole length of beautiful Chicago street.

Tecumseh will see the time and not a long time in the future either, if the road should be built, when the whole population will rue the day when the franchise was granted the road to run up Chicago street.

Republican Convention.

The republican convention was called to order at the Croswell opera house yesterday for the purpose of selecting 26 delegates to the state convention to be held in Detroit Thursday, June 30. M. W. Hensel of Blissfield, was made temporary chairman. Committee's on resolutions, credentials and permanent organization were appointed by the chairman and the convention adjourned until 1:30.

A. O. Abbott of Hudson, and [illegible] Foote of Ridgeway, were appointed the tellers. The delegat[illegible] to the state convention among whom were: Adrian, M. L. Robison; Clinton, J. B. Marsteller; Tecumseh, Dr. George Howell; Blissfield, M. W. Hensel; Hudson, Chas. Lawrence; Franklin, Lambert Pawson; Ridgeway, E. E. Hendershot.

The committee on resolutions reported that the convention should support Hon. George B. Horton for govenor. Hon. Geo. Horton was called to the platform and made a short speech.

The deceased was 37 years of age and leaves two children besides a kind and loving husband to mourn her loss. Her sudden and untimely death will be a great shock to her many friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Buechner was born June 16, 1867, in Tecumseh, Mich., where she resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. KNOWS MI-O-NA WILL CURE

C. A. Wright has such faith in this great dyspepsia remedy that he guarantees it.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way C. A. Wright, the popular druggist, is selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before has he has so large a number of customers tell him that a medicine has cured as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health, solely due to the use of this remedy.

There is no longer any need of any one suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia, for Mi-o-na can be relied upon to cure. The percentage of cures is so nearly one hundred per cent. that there is little risk to C. A. Wright in guaranteeing to refund the money if the medicine does not cure and he stands ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing int the ears and all forms of liver trouble are cured by Mi-o-na, price 50c. A few days' treatment shows considerable gain in health and a cure speedily follows.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health. And Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.

THE CHURCHES.

The pastor will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning on the "Name that is above every name." In the evening, the "Three Elements of Life."

JUST BREATHE IT

Pleasant way to cure catarrh—dangerous stomach drugging avoided by using Hyomei.

A noticeable improvement and a clearing up of the air-passages of the head and throat is seen from the first day's use of Hyomei. This treatment is the only natural and reasonable way to cure catarrh. It has been so [illegible] successful that C. A. Wright sells it under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should fail. Pills, tablets, liquids and other stomach drugging cannot cure catarrh. Under such treatment the catarrhal germs still live in the air-passages and increase and multiply.

Hyomei, breathed through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, enters the air-passages of the head, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membrane, and effecting a permanent cure.

The complete outfit costs only one dollar, and will last for several weeks. If more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be obtained at any time for fifty cents.

The directions for using Hyomei are very simple. Twenty drops of the liquid will charge the inhaler. Breathe through this for a few minutes four times a day, and the medicated air is carried to the most remote and minute cells of the air passages, giving results that can be obtained in no other way.

Tell your friends who may be suffering with catarrh or catarrhal colds about this unusual way of selling a medicine for the cure of catarrh. You run no risk when buying Hyomei.

The pain during an attack was worse along in the afternoon and I often felt like giving up but kept on working in misery and my back felt as if it were breaking in two. If I took a slight cold it always settled there and in spite of all the remedies I used I did not get any relief. Procuring Doan's Kidney Pills at C. A. DESPERATE SEA FIGHT

Russian Port Arthur Squadron Sailed Forth to Defeat.

ONE BATTLESHIP WAS SUNK

Another Damaged — Japs Attacked Them Outside of Harbor—Oku's Army Will Not Join Kuroki—Russians Make Stand North of Kaiping.

Tientsin, June 27.—It is reported here that 40,000 Russian troops are at Ta Tche Kiao, fifteen miles north of Kaiping, where entrenchments are being erected and where it is expected a stand will be made against the Japanese.

Liao Yang, June 27.—The second Japanese army under Gen. Oku is withdrawing all along the line, having apparently abandoned the intention of effecting a juncture with Gen. Kuroki's army."

Reports of fighting between the advance guard regiments are continually coming in. The battles are indecisive but they show that the Japanese are moving forward regularly on each front. This is corroborated by official dispatches.

Chefoo, June 27.—Steamers passing thirty miles to the westward of Liao Tie Shan Saturday night did not hear any firing. This leads to the supposition that the reports of guns heard here was a naval battle southeast of Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—Under date of June 26 Viceroy Alexieff telegraphed the emperor as follows:

"Our Port Arthur squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Withoft, consisting of six battleships, five cruisers and ten torpedo boats, put to sea at 8 o'clock on the morning of June 23.

"According to reports received from the signal stations on the Liao Tie Shan promontory the ships went out without accident.

"When our vessels reached open water the enemy's fleet, consisting of nine large ships, of which three were battleships and twenty-two torpedo boats, was signaled on the horizon.

"Our squadron attacked the enemy.

"Up to the present I have received no news of the result of the fighting."

Tokio, June 27.—According to reports just published here, when the Russian squadron left Port Arthur nine successive attacks were made during the night of June 23, and as a result the Japanese torpedo boat Chirataka twice torpedoed a Russian battleship and sunk her. Another Russian battleship was disabled.

JAPANESE RESENT IT.

Russians Fail to Furnish News Concerning Japanese Prisoners.

Tokio, June 27.—The failure of the Russians to furnish information concerning Japanese prisoners of war in their possession is arousing strong feeling of resentment here. Japan's attitude concerning Russian prisoners is most correct. Careful reports of the condition of Russian prisoners are prepared and forwarded weekly to the Russians, through the American government. The case of Major Togo is attracting special attention, as the Japanese claim that he was captured before the outbreak of hostilities and hurried to Moscow. Numerous efforts have been made to obtain information regarding Togo, but so far they have failed.

The Japanese are extremely solicitous concerning their countrymen who are confined in Russia. They fear that they will be placed in prisons and there badly treated.

It is probable that the American government will be asked to make pointed inquiries at St. Petersburg concerning the present condition of Japanese prisoners and to arrange a system of regular reports.

On April 8 a message was received at the state department from the American minister at Tokio, saying that Japan had adopted the code of rules regarding treatment of prisoners outlined by The Hague peace conference.

LED STRENUOUS LIFE

General Hartsuff, Port Huron's Most Notable Citizen, Dead.

SIXTEEN YEARS POSTMASTER

Played Prominent Part in Civil War—Was With Sherman and Is Man to Whom Gen. Joseph E. Johnston Surrendered—Sixty-Nine Years Old.

Port Huron, Mich., June 27.—At about 7:45 o'clock last evening one of the most notable figures of Port Huron and one well known throughout the whole of eastern Michigan passed away in the person of Gen. William Hartsuff. He had been ill for some time of a gangrenous growth on his foot, and his demise has been momentarily expected for the past two weeks.

Gen. William Hartsuff was a native of New York state and was born Jan. 16, 1835. His parents came to Michigan in 1842, when he was but 7 years of age. He received his education in this state in the common schools and at Leona college, which is now Adrian college. In the spring of 1857 he came to Port Huron and began teaching.

Organized a Company.

When the civil war broke out he had charge of the schools here, but resigned his position and organized a company in this county, which was mustered into the service as Company E, Tenth regiment, Michigan Vounteer Infantry, in command of Captain Hartsuff. The following spring the regiment landed at Shiloh just after the battle at that place. He was with Gen. Sherman during his campaign in Atlanta and was in the battles of Franklin and Nashville, in which his command took an active part. He was promoted to lieutenant-colonel and made inspector-general of the Twenty-third army corps and was afterward promoted to rank of colonel and appointed to position of inspector-general of the Army of Ohio and remained in the service until the close of the war.

He was the man to whom the confederate Gen. Joseph E. Johnston and 40,000 men surrendered at the close of the civil war and to him was assigned the duty of collecting the government records of the confederate states, which were carried to Washington on twenty-six mule carts.

Gen. Hartsuff was married in 1853 to Miss Albenah Larned, and one daughter now survives, Mrs. A. H. Currie.

His Stormy Career.

His appointment to the office of postmaster of Port Huron was due to the influence of Senator Omar D. Conger. He held the place for sixteen years, during which time he developed into one of the best stump speakers outside of Conger himself, that the district has ever produced.

He was appointed collector of customs at this port to succeed John C. Stanborn, who was then the political boss of St. Clair county. His appointment raised a storm and resulted in a split in the Republican party of the district. This rupture continued for several years and on account of it the Democrats elected their congressional nominee in 1882. The fight lasted until 1884, the Democrats holding the balance of power in the district for twelve years.

After Cleveland's inauguration in 1885 Gen. Hartsuff was removed from the collector of customs' office, being succeeded by Hon. W. L. Bancroft, the first mayor of Port Huron. Hartsuff's friends began at once, however, to work for his reinstatement and he was reappointed a short time after.

Worked For His Enemy.

When Stanborn, his old and most bitter enemy, was nominated for congress in 1886 in opposition to Justin R. Whiting, Hartsuff laid aside his personal dislike for Stanborn and worked early and late for his election. In 1888 Hartsuff himself was nominated for congress after an exciting campaign, but was defeated by Whiting after the stiffest political fight ever seen in eastern Michigan. He was a candidate for nomination again in 1898, but was defeated. This practically concluded his political career.

Gen. Hartsuff was a member of the board of control of the State Soldiers' home at Grand Rapids.

Was Bound to Die.

Traverse City, Mich., June 27.—Leonard Stevenson, aged 70, while sick and despondent, drowned himself in the bay here. His son found him in a foot of water. This was his third attempt.

NONE TO OPPOSE THEM

Roosevelt and Fairbanks Unanimously Nominated by Republicans.

SCENE OF WILD ENTHUSIASM

Former Governor Black Made Nominating Speech—Demonstration Lasted Nearly Half an Hour—Cortelyou Chairman National Committee.

Chicago, June 24.—The swift, sure current of public opinion for the second time in the history of Republican conventions Thursday resulted in the selection of a national ticket without a dissenting voice. Theodore Roosevelt for president and Charles W. Fairbanks for vice-president received every vote in the convention.

Regardless of the fact that the nomination of one had been assured for months and the other for days, the announcement of the choice was accompanied by a resounding demonstration, which attested the candidates' universal popularity. The cheering was led by figures known through the breadth of the land and echoes by a mighty throng of enthusiastic men and radient women assembled in the Coliseum to witness the crowning feature as well as the close of the national convention that marks the semi-centennial of the Republican party in the United States.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
Unanimously nominated by the Republican National Convention to succeed himself as President of the United States.

Pandemonium Reigned.

When Gov. Black of New York made his speech nominating Theodore Roosevelt to succeed himself as president the delegates in the Republican convention proved there is no absence of enthusiasm in their ranks when occasion justifies exhibition of that quality. For twenty-five minutes the great throng told its approbation of the convention's choice for president. The name of Roosevelt came from every throat. The New York delegates paraded the hall shouting at the tops of their voices. Other delegations joined the procession and the well-ordered body of half an hour before was a shifting mass, every semblance of organization gone.

While the demonstration was at its height Chairman Cannon stepped to the front of the stage. He held in his hand the banner which was waved in 1860, when Lincoln was nominated and which has been used in every convention since. The flag showed the wear and tear of many similar contests. "Uncle Joe" waved it vigorously and kept time with his body. Soon the whole convention was swaying in exact measure. The chairman tired, and his place was taken by a young man, who grasped the flag staff firmly in one hand and with a megaphone led the yelling. He started the call "Roosevelt, Roosevelt, Roosevelt," repeated over and over again with the system of a college yell. It was taken up by the throng and the cry of Roosevelt rolled over the hall in volume so great and so terrific that the screeching of a hundred steam whistles would have been dwarfed in comparison.

At the conclusion of every seconding speech the performance was repeated and the speakers themselves were generously applauded.

When Senator Fairbanks had been nominated for vice-president there was no diminuation in the demonstration. Voices were heard but the noise for the choice was just as unanimous as it was in filling the first place on the ticket.

Black Nominated Him.

It was 10:30 o'clock when Speaker Cannon called the convention to order. Without preliminaries of any kind he announced the order of the day and instructed the secretary to call the roll for nominations for president. By agreement Alabama, the first state on the roll, yielded to New York. That was the signal for the first outburst of applause. In the midst of the cheering former Governor Black made his way to the platform. Speaker Cannon took him to the front and characteristically introduced him to the audience. But the orator chosen to present the name of Roosevelt needed no introduction. The delegates proved this and also that they knew his mission by giving him a rousing reception before permitting him to proceed.

Mr. Black entertained his audience by a discussion of the party principles. He compared republican standards with those of other parties. He led up to the nomination gradually by defining the type of man best suitd for the party color-bearer. As he named Theodore Roosevelt as the best example of that type the convention rose. The New York delegation led in the cheering which almost immediately spread to every part of the floor, to the galleries and to the crowds which filled the entrances and overflowed into the streets. After the crowd had yelled itself hoarse it permitted the band to participate in the demonstration. The leader chose patriotic music and the familiar words were taken up by the convention and sung with earnestness.

When from sheer exhaustion the throng lessened its tumult Speaker Cannon found his opportunity. Going to the very edge of the platform he knelt down and pounded on the floor for order.

Senator Beveridge was recognized by the chairman for the purpose of seconding the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt, for president. He was followed by George A. Knight, of California.

The seconding speeches following that of Mr. Knight were made by Harry Stillwell Edwards of Georgia, ex-Gov. Bradley of Kentucky, Joseph B. Cotton of Minnesota, and Harry S. Cummings of Maryland. Mr. Cummings is one of the colored delegates. The roll was called and the unanimous vote of the delegation was recorded for Roosevelt without incident until the name of New Jersey was reached. New Jersey asked unanimous consent that the roll be dispensed with and that the secretary of the convention be instructed to cast the entire vote for Roosevelt. The objection was general and every state accepted the opportunity of casting its entire vote for the president.

Means to Fight Austria.

Rome, June 24.—Gen. Ricciotti Garibaldi is continuing what he calls his preparations against Austria. He writes that there are already in existence 900 committees, which are capable of providing 36,000 volunteers with arms. Garibaldi's assertion is looked upon as exaggerated.

Run Over and Killed.

Battle Creek, Mich., June 27.—John Talbott of Jackson, conductor of a Michigan Central gravel train, was instantly killed here, being run over by some freight cars pushed by a switch engine.

Driven to Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of acciden resulting from burns, cuts, wounds, and ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25 cents at C. A. Wright's drug store.

Good Clothes

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The 'inside facts' reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

We're expecting you.

Worst of all experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes; "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At last I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely cured." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist.

One man's greatness is due to the aid of many smaller men.

Feet swollen to immense size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad that I could not work," says J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney cure which made me a well man." Sold by all druggists in Tecumseh.

Piles upon top of piles of people have the piles and DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cures them. There are many different kinds of piles but if you get the genuine and original witch hazel salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, a cure is certain. E. Tisdale of Summerton, S. C., says "I had piles 20 years but your salve cured me after every thing else had failed." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Weak Hearts

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the result. Forgetful Disraeli's Luck.

In conversation with the writer the late Lord Rowton told the following story: The talk had turned upon Mrs. Brydges Willyams, the lady who left her fortune to Lord Beaconsfield and about whom there had just been a controversy in the London newspapers.

"Dizzy told me the story of that episode. He received one morning a letter from Mrs. Willyams, whom he did not know, in which she said that she had read his novels with much interest, and would like to make his acquaintance. She also asked a question which rendered it necessary for him to answer the letter. Unfortunately the letter was left in his greatcoat pocket, and Dizzy did not wear the coat until several months after, when he happened to be in the south of England and in the very town in which Mrs. Willyams lived. Coming across the letter in such circumstances, it occurred to him to call upon her, and Mrs. Willyams was so flattered at, as she thought, his carrying the letter so long about him and then calling that she decided on leaving him her fortune. That shows how wise it is not to answer letters," added Lord Rowton.—London Truth.

Picturesque Dutch Boats.

Along the quay in the busy harbor of Rotterdam the quaint Dutch boats are crowded, creaking rhythmically with the rise and fall of the water, side by side, stern to rudder post, jostling one another in a great confusion of picturesque lines and gay carvings. At all the little cabin windows are clean lace curtains, and on the deck brass and copper pots are drying in the sun. Hanging from spars and ropes the family wash flutters its many hues against the windy sky. Chubby, red cheeked children climb in and out of the cabin doors or press their round noses against the tiny-window panes. The women gossip in the sun or clatter around in pursuit of their household duties, while the men lounge about, their hands in the pockets of their baggy breeches, and through clouds of tobacco smoke survey this scene of nomadic housekeeping with phlegmatic content.—Edward Penfield in Scribner's.

Didn't Like Changes.

"I'm a man," said the old farmer to the druggist after having purchased a quantity of strychnine to kill off rats—"I'm a man who don't like changes. When I git home I shall say to the old woman:

"'Martha, here's the strychnine to kill off the rats, and you want to be careful of it.'

"'Where shall I put it?' she will say.

"'In the same old place—right alongside the bakin' powder. We've bin keepin' it there for thirty years, and you've never put it in the pie crust or biscuit by mistake, but if we hide it away upstairs or down cellar or out to the barn one of us will be sartin to take it for epsom salts before the week is out and git a heavenly hustle on us.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Fatal Position.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symtoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother sould be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25; large size, 75c. JOHN J. ORR.

Historic Race Course.

The vicinity of Belmont park, Long Island, was the early scenes of more racing activity than any other spot on this continent. Here it was that the Newmarket course was constructed in 1669, by the sanction of Colonial Governor Lovelace. This course continued to be the theater of action in racing sports until 1821. It was in this vicinity also that the old Centerville course was constructed, which for many years was one of the most famous of American race tracks. In 1821 the legislature passed an act allowing the speeding of horses in Queens county during the months of May and October of each year, and by virtue of this law the Union course was constructed the same year. This course was located in what was then the village of Jamaica, but the territory it occupied now forms a part of the borough of Queens. From the time of its construction until 1872 the Union course was the scene of nearly all the great racing events of the country.

It was over this course that American Eclipse and Sir Henry, in 1823, thrilled the hearts of the sporting world in one of the greatest turf battles ever witnessed in the annals of racing.—Illustrated Sporting News.

Fine Old Netherlands Repartee.

One Barend Vet of The Hague had recently the misfortune to call a constable a monkey, an accusation which one of the local papers pointed out as "being, of course, untrue" and which, moreover, is a form of untruth not permitted in Holland. Vet was arrested and brought before the judge on a charge of "insulting the police," being sentenced to forty-five days' imprisonment. Before being removed he turned to address the court. "Then I must not call a constable a monkey?" he said. "Certainly not. You must not insult the police." The culprit reflected. "May I call a monkey a constable?" he asked, with a flash of genius. The judge shrugged his shoulders and, holding no brief for the animal, replied, "If it gives you any satisfaction." With a smile of gratification Vet turned on his heel in the dock and bowed to his prosecutor. "Good day, constable," he said.—St. James Gazette.

Corncob Pipes.

"You see," said the smoker, "I'm very fond of the corncob pipe. In the first place, it's a clean, sweet, cool smoke, and, in the second, it's so pleasant to think you're smoking something so quiet and rural and natural as a pipe made just by cutting a hole in a corncob. It's so primitive, you know."

"Yes," said his friend. "Only most corncob pipes aren't made that way. It's the popular supposition that they are, I know; but, as a matter of fact, the new and most popular process is to take the whole cob, grind it up, mix it with one or two other substances and then shape the whole into the pipe form. It makes a better and more lasting pipe, and in this way the whole cob can be used and not a grain wasted."—Philadelphia Press.

Can Animals Blush?

It is hard to tell whether animals blush, for their faces are covered so thickly with fur or hair or feathers that we do not know what may be going on beneath hide or skin. Were they as bare faced as man is it is more than likely we should see them blush, especially the more bashful sort and those with some sense of shame.

It is the case that the faces of vultures flush, and several of the monkeys become purple with rage, which may be considered as a kind of blushing.

This may be proved any day in any zoo, where the monkeys seem to fly into a passion on the smallest provocation.

Boiled Without Fire.

Every day in London scores of workmen's kettles are boiled in lime that will afterward be used for its proper purposes. Just before the breakfast hour, say, one of the workmen empties a quantity of the dry lime from a sack. In the center of this lime he makes a hole, and into it water is poured. Then he puts his kettles into the water, and in a few minutes the kettles boil. In thousands of cases a fire is thus spared.

Strange Happenings.

A Michigan woman was scanning over the marriage columns of a newspaper and remarked to her husband, "Here's a strange coincidence—a William Strange married to a Martha Strange."

"Strange indeed," replied her husband, "but I expect the next news will be a little stranger."—Lyre.

"That man," remarked the great detective, "is undoubtedly a vegetarian of the most pronounced type."

"How do you make that out?" queried his friend.

"Oh, that's easy," replied the great detective. "He has carroty hair, reddish cheeks, a turnip nose and a sage look."

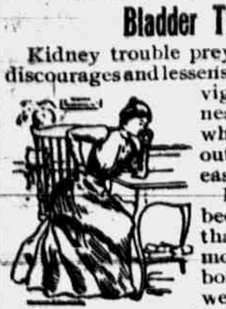
Stagnation Is Death.

The sun would be consumed by its own ardor if it did not shine. Nature knows nothing of hoarding. The sun gives away its gold without ostentation. The ocean gives its vapors to the clouds, the clouds return them to the earth, the rivers to the sea. There is a constant exchange between lungs and leaves. Stagnation is death. Give to get; get to give.

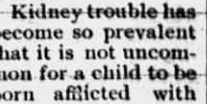
Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.



Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Webster and Jenny Lind.

The following quaint story of Daniel Webster and Jenny Lind is told in "Washington, the Capital City:"

It chanced that on the day of Jenny Lind's appearance several members of the cabinet and senate were the guests at dinner of the Russian minister, and the concert was half over when Webster and the other members of the party entered the hall. When the applause with which they were received had subsided the second part of the concert was opened by the gifted Swede with "Hail, Columbia!"

Deeply moved by the patriotic air, Webster at the close of the first verse rose and added his rich, sonorous voice to the chorus. His wife, who sat behind him, pulled at his coat tail to make him stop singing, but at the close of each verse the volunteer basso joined in, and none could tell whether Lind, Webster or the audience was most delighted.

As the last notes of the song died away Webster, hat in hand, made a profound bow to the singer. Jenny Lind, blushing at the honor, courtesied, while the audience applauded to the echo. Webster, not to be outdone in politeness, bowed again. Again Lind courtesied, the house applauded, and this was repeated nine times.

The Meaning of Mess.

The use of the word mess for dining room is a remnant of a custom quite common in Anglo-Norman times. Mess, from the French mets (meat or a dish of food) and the Latin mensa (a table), was the meat prepared in common (compare the collegiate word "commons") for four persons sitting at a separate table. Guests at dinners and other ceremonial occasions were divided for general convenience into such groups.

From this the word came to be used as equivalent to four in other matters. Shakespeare speaks of Henry's four sons as a mess, "Where are your mess of sons?" and in "Love's Labor's Lost" we find, "I confess that you three fools lacked me to make up the mess."

From the fact that soldiers and sailors are always catered for in companies, according to rank, the survival of the word among them is quite natural. The same practice is still maintained in the London inns of court.

The Lemon as Medicine.

The value of lemons in the treatment of both rheumatism and consumption is now known to be very great. The treatment is to begin with one or two a day and gradually increase the number. In one case of rheumatism twenty-five lemons a day were the dose for a time. As a preventive of illness, however, a half a lemon a day is all that should be taken—that is, if taken every day year in and year out. A half a lemon in a cup of hot water taken an hour before breakfast (without any sugar) will annihilate the darkest of dark brown tastes in one's mouth. If you make a practice of eating more butter and sugar than is good for you take lemon and hot water every morning.—Maxwell's Talisman.

Jessie Pentecost celebrated his 87th birthday yesterday. Twenty-four of his relatives spent the day at his home as had been the usual annual custom for many years. Mr. Pentecost came to this country from England 57 years ago and has lived in his present home for 54 years. Though he is obliged to use crutches to get around, on account of rheumatism, he is a very cheerful man and always has a hearty welcome for his friends. There were four generations present yesterday.—West Franklin correspondent in Clinton Local.

The Secret Service.

A man standing on a steamship pier in New York found himself being watched closely by three ordinary looking individuals who stood together. The atmosphere was chilly, and the man took several turns up and down the pier, noticing at the same time that the eyes of the strangers followed all his movements. His conscience being clear, he did not feel embarrassed when he realized that the watchers were detectives. Obviously the men were not from the central office because of their small stature and lack of flesh, and it became a question in the man's mind whether he was dealing with detectives from a private agency or with secret service men. He resolved to find out. His first move was to halt near the group and appear unconcerned. It was not long before he was joined by one of the watchers, who said:

"Are you from Mr. So-and-so's office?" naming a deputy chief of the secret service.

"No," replied the subject of scrutiny, "but I believe you are."

The detective smiled faintly and changed the conversation. All of which goes to prove that the secret service is secret in more ways than one, else why did the detectives think that an utter stranger had been placed on the same "plant?"—New York Post.

Red Hair.

Middle age painters represented Judas as red haired, though Jews with sunny locks are not common. Lord Macaulay argued that the anti-red hair feeling was an illogical survival of anti-Semitism.

In Ireland red hair is common, and in the speech of the country a person so distinguished is called a "Dane," in allusion to the incursions made centuries ago upon Irish soil by the light haired Danish sea rovers.

Aristotle of old Greece declared that "he that has red hair is proud, envious and deceitful." Aristotle was undoubtedly "dark complected."

On the other hand, the Italian painters represent the Madonna with light hair, Titian gave his name to a famous shade of red in women's hair and red hair in Spain is an aristocratic tinge, as seemingly derived from the Goth conquerors of Iberia. The Spanish royal house has furnished several members with red or reddish hair.

Walpole on Balloons.

Some of Horace Walpole's ironic speculations on the future of the balloon have been recently reprinted. Said the satirist:

"I supposed our seaports to become deserted villages and Salisbury plain, Newmarket heath and all downs (but the Downs) arising into dockyards for aerial vessels. The ship news then would run thus: The good balloon Dædalus, Captain Wingate, will fly in a few days for China. He will stop at the Monument to take in passengers. Foundered in a hurricane, the Bird of Paradise, from Mount Ararat. The Bubble, Sheldon, took fire and was burned to her gallery, and the Phenix is to be cut down to a second rate. There will be fights in the air with wind guns and bows and arrows.'"

Four Extremes.

The coldest place on earth inhabited by man is Verkhoyansk, above the arctic circle, in northeastern Siberia. The thermometer there drops to 90 degrees below zero in January, but sometimes rises to 86 degrees above zero in the shade in July, dropping, however, to the freezing point on the warmest summer nights. The hottest place in the world is the interior of the great Sahara desert, in Africa, where the thermometer rises to 122 degrees. The wettest place is Greytown, Nicaragua, where the mean annual rainfall is 260 inches. The place of least rain is Port Nolloth, in South Africa, where less than an inch sometimes falls in a year.

An Ambitious Woman.

"My grandmother was an awful ambitious woman," said a native of a well known island off the coast of Maine, "and when she was dying and the doctor had told her she had only about an hour to live she asked her daughter to bring her some green apples. She sat up in bed and pared two panfuls of them and then lay back with a satisfied sigh. 'Well,' said she, 'I'm determined that the folks that come to my funeral shall have enough apple sass for once in their lives.'"—Lippincott's.

His Descent.

"My family," said the self confessed black sheep, "is famous for its having descended from famous ancestry. And I flatter myself that I have descended faster than any of the rest."—Baltimore American.

Fruitless Quest.

"Perhaps," suggested a listener, "it got tired looking for it."—Augusta (Ga.) Herald.

Half a hundred old maids in Wisconsin petitioned the republican convention asking that legislation be demanded, which would disfranchise all men who had reached the age of 25 years and are unmarried. These old maids state that that there are thousands of unmarried men in the United States and that the number of unmarried ladies who want to get married is too great to enumerate. Such legislation in Hudson is unnecessary as the problem is being solved by the ladies taking advantage of leap year.—Hudson Post.

A crazy man in the woods this side of Pentecost made the night hideous last Saturday night by his moanings and crying. Sunday morning Will German and Mr. Powers brought him to Onsted. He was famished from fasting and guardian of the peace, G. B. Hines, made him glad with a good square meal. The fellow was a total wreck mentally and whenever he attempted to talk would burst out crying. He said his name was Albert Rappe and was bound for Toledo. Mr. Hines purchased him a ticket to Toledo and put him on the Sunday evening train for that point.—Onsted News.

Recently the Manchester Enterprise challenged its neighbors to produce a second man who voted for Michigan's first as a state govenor, Stevens Mason. We have to inform the Enterprise that we have with us an aged and honored citizen, Major Wallace, who not only voted at the time of Mason's election, which was in 1835 but who voted at the time of the territorial governor election in 1833 when George B. Porter was put in office. Mr. Wallace who has been a resident here most of his lifetime, is still in very good health and spirits and will no doubt cast another ballot for Michigan's governor in the fall of 1904.—Saline Observer.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BUECHNER

Was one of the Largest ever given a Local Woman.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Buechner Saturday afternoon was one of the largest ever given a woman in Battle Creek. It was held in the First Presbyterian church in charge of the O. E. S. and when the cortage left the church for Oak Hill there were nearly thirty carriages in line. The O. E. S. attended in a body and Rev. W. S. Potter gave the funeral oration.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland Bentorville, Va. serves as example. He writes, "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles cured me." Equally effective in curing lung and throat troubles, consumption, and grip. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright, druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c, and $1.

Each day brings its separate and distinct opportunities for doing good.

The way to the crown is marked by the cross.

BASE BALL

Two good games played here against EVERETTS AND WHEELMAN

Of Detroit. The locals won and lost.

Tecumseh has a base ball team
That plays a game quite fine,
Still the best of ball teams
Can't beat every time.

EVERETTS VS TECUMSEH.

The local team defeated the Everetts of Detroit, here Saturday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The rain put an end to the game in the first half of the sixth inning. Killian pitched for the home club, allowing 6 hits while D. Sullivan, who was in the box for the visitors, allowed but 4. The features of the game were the three base hits by Root and Beasley. Killian led in the strike outs, 5 to Detroit's 4.

The game would undoubtedly have been the most interesting game of the season had it not rained, as the Everetts team is one of the strongest in the city.

WHEELMAN VS TECUMSEH.

Yesterday afternoon the Wheelman of Detroit fought long and hard with the locals and until the seventh inning, were not allowed a hit. No better base ball was ever played here before, and not an error characterized the play for the locals and the fielding was of the most brilliant order, but the hits were scattered. LaBelle for the locals, and and McClure for the Wheelman pitched great ball and the nine innings closed with 3 runs and 6 hits for the Wheelman and 2 runs and 8 hits for the local club. LaBelle led in the strike outs and gave no bases on balls, while McClure gave 2.

The Wheelman bunched their hits, getting 4 in the eight inning, giving to them 2 runs. For a time the game looked as if it would be a shut out but LaBelle in the eighth inning made a three base hit and scored with the aid of Bells single. Striker singled in the same inning but died on base. Hyney singled in the ninth, and stole second, Knickerbocker singled and Hyney scored with the aid of an error of Detroit's 3rd baseman.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The item printed in the HERALD last Friday among the ball notes concerning the Morenci game, should have read Morenci at Morenci.

Monroe lost its opening game ball by a score of 7 to 6 with the Toledo Pilots. We are not surprised. These are the players they came up against: Morski, Kragewrki, Dobrzynicke, Modrosshi, Kryznaiki and Morz. Monroe was not prepared to fight a Russian army, with Nadeau Duclo, Poupard and Imo, members of the French guard.—Adrian Press.

Everetts will go to Tecumseh today to play the fast club of that place. The game is one of the most important on the Detroit nine's schedule and Manager Cline has arranged for a strong lineup. The following meet at the Michigan Central depot at 7:30 o'clock city time: Hess, Benoit, Patterson, Burns, Cocash, Keveney, H. McDonnel, D. Sullivan, J. Sullivan, Chase, Whiting and Johnston.—Detroit Free Press.

MRS. MARIA HIXON

Who Resides with her Daughter here, was on

SUNDAY, JUNE 26,

104 Years of Age.

Mrs. Maria Hixon was 104 years old Sunday, the 26th, and on account of illness did not celebrate her birthday. She was not forgotten however, for as she is not seriously ill, she received callers all day Sunday.

It was a disappointment to Mrs. Hixon as well as her family to postpone the celebration of her birth, but they hope to meet with her the latter part of this week.

THE FOURTH MICHIGAN

Review of the Proceedings by One of the Members.

I desire to make some corrections from your issue of the 18th inst., with regard to the reunion of the old Fourth Michigan infantry held in the county building on Friday. The regiment was mustered into service at Adrian on the 20th of June, 1861, with Dwight A. Woodbury as colonel. He commanded the regiment until he was killed on the 1st of July, 1862, at Malvern Hill, Va. Then Lieut. Col. Jonathan W. Childs was promoted to colonel and commanded until the following December, when he resigned. After that Lieut. Col. Geo. W. Lombard was in command until April, 1863, when Harrison H. Jeffords, captain of Co. C. was promoted to colonel and commanded until he was killed at Gettysburg, Pa., on July 2, 1863.

Then in the spring of 1864, when Gen. Grant took command of the army, Geo. W. Lombard was in command until killed on May 5, at the first day's battle of the Wilderness.

At 9 o'clock the members of the regiment began to arrive at headquarters of the reunion at the county building and soon they were joined by other members as they arrived. They were called to order by the president, Levi S. Taylor, a member of Co. G. The business of the association was soon concluded by the able administration of the president. It was voted to hold the next reunion at Howell, June 20, 1905.

The following officers were elected: President, Calvin Wilcox of Howell; vice president, Wm. H. Smith, Gaylord; secretary and treasurer, Amos H. English.

After the election the comrades and their wives, numbering 130, were invited to partake of a most bountiful collation, gotten up by the president of the association and superintended by Mrs. Liscomb, the well known caterer of this city, and the good things provided was fit to set before a king. All the delicacies and relishes of the season, and all who had the honor to sit at the tables voted it as par excellent and reflected great credit on our energetic president.

Then the following program was carried out, as previously arranged: Toastmaster, Gen. George Spaulding, formerly captain Co. B of the regiment, afterwards a general commanding a Tennessee brigade. Prayer by Rev. Fenwick Frazer; welcome address, W. W. Todd, mayor; response by O. A. Janes of Co. H; music by Maj. Cole and family; "All Quiet on the Potomac," by John L. Hall, Co. G; "Why Didn't the Army Move?" Maj. Cole; Gettysburg, Mrs. W. H. Pluveny; solo, Warren D. Lombard; "Blue and Gray," Thos. H. Williams; "Boys of '98," Prof. Livingstone; "Auld Lang Syne." Miss Warrena Lombard, accompanist. All the speakers did credit to themselves and were interesting to the old boys, as was evinced by their attention, and the whole was a complete success.

Also the association desires to extend thanks to all who helped to make it the most successful of any previous reunion. And we can not close without extending to our president and wife for the able manner they conducted and carried out the program our heartfelt thanks and a resolution was adopted to that effect.

Member of the Old Fourth Michigan Infantry.—Jackson Patriot.

The following notice was seen tacked on a disabled dridge not far from Saline recently: "Notise this hear is a week bridge. Ef yue crost it at all go eround it."

Clinton maidens were deeply interested in the sermon at the Congregational church there last Sunday morning the subject being "Looking for a Man."—Adrian Press.

Yesterday morning Peter Kern drew 40 bags of hand picked beans to Donaldson's elevator. On examination the beans were found to be musty and will have to be ground for hog feed. Quite a loss to Mr. Kern, who with his family had passed many hours during the winter evenings sorting beans, all to no avail.—Reese Review.

Henry Beard and Cecil Vining claim that they caught two of the largest fish that were ever captured in Clark's lake or any other body of fresh water. The boys claim that they sold the fish to a man who was on his way to St. Louis and had no time to weigh them. And now some of the local sports are wondering what kind of bait it takes to make a common fish appear as large as a whale.—Brooklyn Exponent.

Tuesday night a man at Coon's Tavern was having a glorious time. He was drunk and stole a razor, slashed the table linen and cloths and dropped tobacco in the milk. He was arrested and on Wednesday appeared before the Justice who sentence him to 90 days at the Detroit house of Correction. He gave his name as C. Knapp and his residence at Montpelier, O.—Blissfield Advance.

Rev. Frank Blanchard, of this place and now one of the Jefferson guards at the St. Louis exposition, last week performed a marriage ceremony on the exposition grounds that was quite, so to speak, "up in the world." The bridal party and Mr. Blanchard entered the Ferris wheel and when they reached the top at a distance of about 250 feet from the ground the machine was stopped and the ceremony was performed in mid air.—Saline Observer.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

Mi-o-na costs you nothing if it does not cure, says C. A. Wright.

Mi-o-na, the remarkable cure for dyspepsia, has won fame by the unusual way in which it is sold. It is the only remedy offered for the cure of dyspepsia which costs the user absolutely nothing unless it cures.

C. A. Wright, the popular druggist, is selling a great many packages of Mi-o-na and with every 50c box is given his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not give satisfaction, you to be your own judge as to whether the remedy helps or not.

Mi-o-na is an unusual combination, regulating the digestive organs and removing irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines. It enables those organs to extract from the food all that goes to make rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound body.

Mi-o-na puts the digestive system into proper working order, gives health, strength and good flesh and is the only natural cure for indigestion. Even in chronic cases, where life is one long drawn out pain, this remedy will effect a cure. It is the simplest and most reliable of all remedies. Just one small tablet before or after meals and you can eat what you want and when you want with no distress.

If Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it, C. A. Wright will cheerfully return your money.

H. I. Maxwell was bringing a big 500 lb. hog to Onsted Saturday in a stock rack when the porker attempted to climb over the front. Its actions frightened the team and he was unable to manage both. The hog fell from the wagon about seven feet and was run over and injured. The animal will probably have to be killed.—Onsted News.

Jas. W. Underwood of this city, who is attending Olivet college, fell down the elevator shaft, in Sheperd's hall in that city Monday and suffered some severe bruises. He fell down the shaft from the third floor and had it not been for the presence of mind of some young ladies who stopped the elevator, Mr. Underwood's injuries would have been of a much more serious nature. As it is his face is badly cut and bruised but he will not be laid up as a result of the mishap.—Hudson Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor were the recipients of bad news last week Thursday. In the morning they received a letter from their daughter in Bay City telling them that their little grandson had fell off the porch and broken his left arm just below the elbow and in the afternoon they received a telephone from Detroit from their daughter, Mrs. May Vedder, announcing the news that the house on 14th avenue, which she occupied had just burned down and she had lost almost all her furniture and clothing—Milan Leader.

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE

Hyomei, the guaranteed catarrh cure, prescribed by physicians.

No one should confound Hyomei with patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Is it not foolish to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids? The only natural way to cure this disease and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by C. A. Wright under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

STORK TIME

to most women is a term of anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation.

With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth, there comes calm nerves, sleep and recuperation.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

does diminish the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can and do bring healthy, sweet dispositioned and ideal babies into the world.

Morning sickness, sore breasts and excruciating pains caused by the gradually expanding organs, are relieved by this penetrating and relaxing liniment.

Among the manifold aids to childbirth Mother's Friend has grown in popularity and gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor; it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as in the cabin.

By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have healthy, laughing humanity, remaining a blessing ever to you and its country.

Your kidneys are "in a bad way"
Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you

W. C. Witherell, agent for buggies, harness and other machinery, place of business southwestern section of Tecumseh says: "I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills high enough for they have been a great friend to me. Some years ago I was an expert at sheep shearing. Everybody knows it is hard on the back and it finally brought on a severe pain across the loins. Nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to try them. I got a box and they gave immediate relief. When I finished the box the trouble was removed. They are a reliable remedy." Call at C. A. Wright's drug store and ask him what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Obeyed Instructions.

The city editor summoned the photographer of his staff. "Colonel Welligan's house is burning," he said, "and I want a picture of the fire. Get out there as quick as you can with your camera and take a view of what's left of the building from the inside of the fence corner."

"But," said the photographer, "if"—

"That's the point I want it taken from—right in the corner."

"But I think there's"—

"I don't care whether there's a better point or not. You know what I want. Hurry up. You are losing time."

The photographer took his camera and departed. A few hours later he came in with the proof of a picture he had taken from the desired point of view.

"What is this?" said the city editor.

"That is a photograph of the ruins of Colonel Welligan's house from the inside corner of the fence near the street."

"I can't see anything of the house."

"I couldn't, either," responded the photographer. "I tried to tell you there was a big tree standing between that corner and the house, but you wouldn't let me."

Tibet, the Strange Land.

It is a wonderful country and a strange people. Think of a tract of land where hot springs abound, round which the deposits are of such rainbow tints as blue, purple, green, red and yellow. It is easy to imagine that the landscape effects of such coloring are wondrous. The social customs of the people are scarcely less astounding. Polygamy is common where the men are rich enough, for wives seem to be a question of wealth. When poverty compels them, several men will have one wife in common. Brothers usually enter into those strange partnerships. The people rarely wash, finding it warmer to be dirty. The men anoint their faces with butter, while the women stain their countenances mahogany color with wood chips and lacquer the bridges of their noses jet black. Cleanliness is an unesteemed practice.—London Outlook.

WAS A SUICIDE.

Defense In Ludwick Trial Will Attempt to Show It.

Coldwater, Mich., June 25.—The tenth day in the trial of Katie Ludwick closed the work of the prosecution. Attorney Palmer, for the defense, said the defense will show that Ludwick's death was that of a suicide and that they have plenty of evidence to prove it conclusively. Ex-State Representative Babcock testified to the unusual actions of Ludwick a few days prior to his death, when he sought quarrels in the streets, threw his hat and coat on the crosswalk and showed a state of excitement entirely at variance with his former conduct.

Prof. John E. Clark, chemist and physician in Detroit, was the defense's star witness. He testified to analyzing the contents of the stomach and finding white arsenic, also a quantity of rough on rats was found in Ludwick's home. He said crystallization in both are the same. In the stomach he found a pebble of organic matter weighing nearly two grains. The theory is that Ludwick took the rough on rats.

RESCUED BY ATHLETES.

Triple Drowning Accident Was Narrowly Averted at Whitmore Lake.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 25.—A triple drowning accident at Whitmore lake was narrowly averted by the presence of mind of six athletes from the University of Michigan, who happened to be sailing on the lake and rescued the occupants of an overturned boat.

Miss Martha N. Dickinson of Lander, Wyo., who graduated Wednesday from the law department of the university, was sailing on the lake with her mother and A. E. Gage, a graduate from the medical department. In some way their boat capsized and the three were thrown into the water. About three-quarters of a mile from the capsized boat was another containing Joseph Dress, the Iowa champion high school half-mile sprinter; Charles Dvorak, pole vaulter; E. M. Anderson, broad jumper; Elbert Tripp, football player; Roy Kelsey, hammer thrower, and S. B. Laub, cross-country runner.

When the men saw the plight of the Dickinson party, who were clinging to the boat, they got alongside as quickly as possible and Dress jumped into the water and supported Mrs. Dickinson, who was almost exhausted, until the whole party were gotten into the boat of the rescuers.

Ex-Congressman Shelden Dead.

Houghton, Mich., June 25.—Ex-Congressman Carlos D. Shelden is dead at his home here of apoplexy. He had been ill for some time, but his death came suddenly and was somewhat of a surprise to his friends. Mr. Shelden was born June 10, 1840, at Walworth, Wis., of English-Scotch parentage, his father being a farmer and a pioneer of the Lake Superior copper country. The young Carlos received his early education at the public schools of Houghton and afterward taking a course in Ypsilanti. At the outbreak of the civil war he raised a company which was mustered in as Company I, Thirtieth Michigan infantry, of which he was elected captain. His first political venture was in 1892, when he was elected a member of the state legislature. He was state senator from the Thirty-second district in 1894, and was elected to congress in 1896, being re-elected in 1898 and 1890. He was a Knight Templar.

Chinese Want to Fight.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 25.—Rev. Franklin Ohlinger has returned from an extended stay in Foochow, China, and he says that the Chinese are very anxious to join forces against the Russians, but that their rulers are restraining them. He says the consensus of opinion among the white residents of the province of Foochow is that the leaders will have their way and that China will keep her hands off in the struggle. The people in Foochow are greatly interested in the war, as they believe that it will result in their province falling into the hands of the Japs, if they win, and into the possession of the French if the Russians are victorious.

Hager of Bad Axe. The next conference will be held at Buel Center, Sanilac county, in October.

Ruined by a Receding Sea.

Castle Rising is an instance of decay brought about by a receding sea, the town, once a place of considerable importance, giving way to King's Lynn as the waters retired. A memory of the former relative positions of the two places is kept alive by the lines:

Rising was a seaport town
When Lynn was but a marsh;
Now Lynn it is a seaport,
And Rising fares the worse.

But, though it lost its commercial value, it retained its political status, returning two members down to the reform act of 1832. At that time it had three voters on its poll list, but the only person legally entitled to exercise the right of voting was the rector.—London Chronicle.

Professional Mourners.

In ancient times funerals were followed by professional mourners, who simulated the appearance of the wildest grief. The custom survives in the valley of Sondrio, in the Alps. There the women do not follow the funeral, but they group themselves at the entrance of the cemetery and burn, in honor of the dead, candles which vary in size, according to the remuneration. They are as prodigal as were the mourners of ancient times in their simulation of excessive grief.

TO RETURN TO AMERICA.

Perdicaris Makes This Resolve While Captive of Raisuli.

Tangier, Morocco, June 27.—Housed safely once more in his Moorish castle on the hights above Tangier, Ion Perdicaris, ransomed by the Moroccan government from Raisuli, the bandit, tells the story of his captivity.

It will be interesting to Americans to learn that as a result of his experience M. Perdicaris will shortly return to America to make his home among his adopted countrymen. This resolve he formed during the long vigil in the mountain fastnesses of Morocco, to which he was led with his stepson, Varley, by the bandits on the night of May 23.

"Ah," cried Mr. Perdicaris, "it is good to be back again among one's people. And yet, let me confess, that now that it is all over and I am back among my loved ones and free to move where I please once more, there is sufficient romance and love of adventure still left in me to make me glad that I underwent the experience.

"I do not condone Raisuli's offense. He is a ruffian, a villian, a desperate character whom the state should reduce to subjection, and yet, save that he deprived me of my liberty, forced me to make hard rides over a mountainous country, and kept me in barbaric confinement for a full month, his treatment of me was such as one might expect from a barbarous monarch who was desirous of observing all the conventions, so far as he knew them, toward an honored guest. If the word can be used in speaking of such a desperado, Raisuli is a gentleman, still I am glad to be back."

He says that on the night of May 18 he had just entered the drawing-room after dinner and, hearing a noise among the servants he and Cromwell Varley, the British subject who also was captured by Raisuli, went out to investigate the cause. They were immediately surrounded by armed Moors, who bound and maltreated them. Varley resisted and was struck on the head with the butt of a rifle and a knife was slashed across his hands, making a serious wound.

Perdicaris and Varley were then carried away on horseback. They were bound with ropes and round about roads were taken in order to avoid villages. The bandits stopped at Tsarradent, twenty-four hours from Tangier, and Raisuli allowed Perdicaris to write to his wife next morning and also to the shereef of Wazan, asking them to intervene for himself and Varley.

Spies of the pretender, who were in the camp all the time, tried to induce Varley to accept a post under the pretender. Raisuli daily held long conversations with the prisoners. He said anarchy was reigning in the country. The animosity of the people, he said, was not directed against the sultan but against his governors.

Raisuli's father, Perdicaris said, left him much property and cattle, which aroused the animosity of the Kaids, who induced the Bashaw by presents to rob Raisuli of his belongings and finally to imprison him for four years at Mogador. On his release Raisuli interviewed Mohammed El Tores, representative of the sultan at Tangier, concerning the restitution of his property, and this being without avail Raisuli swore to take the law into his own hands, with the results already known. Raisuli said that he bore no ill-will toward Europeans, but stated that the only way to bring the Moorish government to its senses was by capturing Europeans until the foreign powers awaken to a realization of the existing conditions.

Mr. Perdicaris said that Raisuli is posing as a patriot, who wants to see the country happy and peaceful.

Heat Caused Two Suicides.

New Haven, Conn., June 27.—The excessive heat throughout the state Sunday was probably responsible for two suicides. Mrs. Louis Barnes of Bolton shot herself after great suffering and earlier in the day James Wood of Bristol ended his life by shooting. Both persons had been affected by the heat.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The Japanese casualties in the battle of Telissu (Vafangow) June 15 were seven officers and 210 men killed and 903 men wounded.

Five persons lost their lives in a wreck which occurred on the Mexican Central railroad near Tampico, Mexico. The dead include four trainmen and one unknown man, who was stealing a ride.

The total attendance at the world's fair for the week ending Saturday night, June 25, as officially announced, was 540,485, an increase of over 65,000 over the previous week, and 402,777 over the total attendance for the first week.

The Salvation Army conducted in London Sunday night what it termed "Salvation bombardment of London." Meetings were held in hundreds of chapels, halls and theaters throughout the city, and at fifteen suburban points. Everywhere there were tremendous congregations.

Amid perfect order 20,000 persons of all classes in Lima, Peru, and the suburbs paraded through the center of the city, proclaiming Gen. Nicholas de Pierola as a candidate for the presidency. The scene was one without precedent in Peru.

One death and eleven cases of prostration have been reported as the result of the excessive heat in New York Sunday. Agnes Emmet, a widow, was taken to the hospital with three self-inflicted bullet wounds in her head. The woman said she was crazed by the heat.

Several Charities Remembered.

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—Several charities were remembered in the will of the late Mrs. Ella S. Thayer. By its terms the Woman's Hospital and Foundling's home of this city receive $1,000, the North End mission of Boston, Mass., $1,000, and the Associated Charities of Boston, $2,000. It is also directed that $5,000 be laid aside for the erection of a memorial to Mrs. Thayer's husband in Trinity church, Boston. Numerous relatives are remembered in bequests ranging from $200 to $10,000.

Found His Body In River.

Saginaw, Mich., June 25.—The body of Perry R. Clark, manager of the Saginaw Muslin Underwear Co., has been found in Saginaw river. He was a married man with a family in Jackson. He was last seen alive Wednesday morning, about 2 o'clock. There was a bad bruise on his head, and it is believed he had been drinking heavily and accidentally fell into the river.

Fatal Precaution.

A farmer in Cumberland county was driving across a railroad track when a train killed both his horses and knocked him about ten rods off his course. In the resulting suit for damages the plaintiff was on the witness stand, making out a good case, when the defendant's lawyer asked him:

"Did you take any precaution before driving upon the track?"

The witness seemed reluctant to answer, but, being pressed to do so, finally stammered out:

"Waal, squire, I took a little—just a couple of swallers, that's all."

This started a new line of defense, and it turned out that the couple of swallows were the last in a pint flask that had consoled the honest old farmer along the road. This put a new face on the situation.—Lewiston Journal.

His Class.

Ethel—So Edith has finally caught the nobleman she was trying to hook?

Marjory—Yes, she said in her last letter that he belongs to the landed gentry.—Yale Record.

LONG FIGHTING FRONT

Japanese Line Extends For One Hundred and Twenty Miles.

THREE FORTIFIED HILLS TAKEN

Just Outside of Port Arthur—Movement of Russian Fleet Only a Fake—Aamy Jeered, So It Was Necessary.

London, June 30.—The Tokio correspondent of the Morning Post says that the Japanese second army has effected a juncture with the first army and that the whole force now has a fighting front of 120 miles.

Chicago, June 30.—A special to the Daily News from Tokio says: In fierce fighting which took place at the rear of Port Arthur Sunday, June 26, attack was simultaneous by the Japanese troops on three hills which were strongly fortified. After an overwhelming bombardment the mikado's men advanced and drove out the Russians.

Refugees From Port Arthur.

A special to the News from Chefoo says: Eight refugees who left Port Arthur in a Chinese junk were picked up this morning. They belonged to the upper class. The information they gave seems reliable. They stated that the Russian fleet now consists of the following ships in good condition: The Czarewitch, Retvizan, Pobedia, Peresviet, Poltava, Askold, Diana, Bayan, Novik and twenty torpedo craft and smaller boats.

The torpedo transport Amur is damaged and the battleship Savastopol slightly damaged, but they can soon be repaired.

Jeered the Fleet.

There are 12,000 sailors and 40,000 soldiers in the fortress. Women are largely employed as nurses. There are 250 artisans and 2,000 citizens. These 2,000 have now been drafted into the army and are drilling daily. There is plenty of food, but the government is controlling prices in order to prevent speculation. The refugees also stated that owing to the jeers of the army the fleet was forced to make its recent demonstration on June 23 in order to preserve the morale of the garrison.

TWENTY-ONE DROWNED.

Russians Met Terrible Death In Submarine Boat.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The submarine boat Delfin sank at her moorings in the Neva, off the Baltic ship building yard, at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, with the loss of an officer, Lieut. Cherkasoff, and wenty men. The accident was due partly to the excessive number of the crew, mostly inexperienced men, and chiefly to the unfortunate attempt of a man to escape while his comrades were screwing down the manhole.

A score of novices were anxious to go with the officers. The Delfin's nominal capacity is ten men, instead of which thirty-two entered the boat, bringing her manhole in dangerous proximity to the river level. Just then a tug passed, sending a heavy wash against the boat. As soon as the water splashed into the submarine boat's interior it created a panic among the novices and one of them tried to get out of the manhole, which the older hands were screwing down preparatory to the descent, the submerging compartment having already been opened. The water rushed in and as the submerged vessel sank like a stone the officers and some of the men were saved by being blown up through the manhole by the rush of escaping air. The Delfin shortly afterwards was raised.

M. N. G. Gets Neat Sum.

Washington, June 30.—Acting Secretary Oliver of the war department has made the usual annual allotment of the $1,000,000 appropriated by congress to provide arms and equipments for the organized militia of the United States. Twenty-seven thousand, nine hundred and twenty-six dollars is apportioned to Michigan.

FIRE LADS OVERCOME

Forty-Three New York Fighters Smothered by Smoke.

FOUR OF THEM WILL DIE

Flames In Sub-Cellar Caused Gas Mains to Burst, Filling Building With Illuminating Gas—Damages Will Total Many Thousands.

New York, June 30.—Forty-three firemen, four of whom will probably die, were overcome by smoke and gas at a fire in the sub-cellar of the double five-story brick building at Nos. 483 and 485 Broadway, extending through to Mercer. Half a hundred employes were driven from the building and the damage inflicted by fire, water and smoke was estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000.

The fire was so situated that it was difficult to fight it and it burned for more than two hours before finally controlled. The smoke from the burning material was so dense and so pungent that the firemen could work in it for but a few minutes at a time and many of those who braved it fell prostrate where they stood. Some who fell lay unnoticed on the floor for minutes and one man remained for nearly an hour before finally discovered and dragged to the open air to be cared for by the large relief force which had been summoned.

The breaking of gas mains inside the building and the consequent filling of the burning structure with thousands of cubic feet of illuminating gas added greatly to the difficulty and the danger.

Capt. Edward Levy and Fireman and John Riley will probably die from their injuries, while Battalion Chief William Guerin, Lieut. John H. Link and five firemen are in a dangerous condition and thirty-two others were less seriously injured.

BACK TO PARIS

Mr. Dumont Must Take His Airship For Repairs.

St. Louis, June 30.—Col. K. P. Kingsbury, commandant of the Jefferson Guards, who has been investigating the attempted destruction of the gas bag of Santos Dumont's airship, made his report to President Francis of the Louisiana Purchase exposition last night. He, however, has failed to fix the responsibility in the slightest degree upon anyone.

"It will probably cost me $5,000," said Mr. Dumont, "before the damage is repaired. I have the gas bag packed and ready to ship and hope to send it away for Paris tomorrow. I myself shall go to Paris and superintend the repair work."

"Prof. Meyers has said he can repair the damage here; why do you not let him do it?" was asked.

"Because," replied Mr. Dumont, "I do not think Prof. Meyers or anyone else this side of Paris can make the repairs. If Prof. Meyers repairs the bag he can go up in the ship. I will not trust myself in it.

"I shall leave all the machinery of the airship here and ake only the damaged bag to Paris. I expect to return to America in about six weeks and will then make an ascension."

British Want Protection.

London, June 30.—The Times' Tangier correspondent sends the following: "Now that the American warships have departed from Tangier the unprotected British subjects are petitioning Lord Lansdowne to give immediate consideration to the insecurity existing here and asking him to take measures to ensure the safety of lives and property of British subjects."

Young Man Killed Himself.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—Despondent because of his inability to succeed as a real estate agent, Charles Hamilton, a young man about 26 years of age, committed suicide shortly before noon in the Hotel Waldo by shooting himself through the temple. The only word left by him was a few lines scribbled on a scrap of paper reading: "Notify my brother-in-law, Frank Lothrop, Armada, Mich."

Didn't Reach the Valuables.

Breckenridge, Mich., June 29.—Safe-blowers operated on the First State Savings bank after midnight. The safe was badly wrecked, but the gang were unsuccessful in reaching the valuables. This is the second attempt in the last five years.

STEARNS WITHDRAWS

His Name Will Not Be Presented at Republican Convention.

WARREN AND HORTON STICK

Warner Men Make Startling Claims—Primary Reform Question Promises Lively Contest—Congressman Hamilton Temporary Chairman.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—Today the Republican state convention assembles at Light Guard armory to place in nomination the state ticket.

The most important information at hand up to the hour before it assembles is the report that Hon. Justin Stearns will withdraw from the race. When seen by a reporter Mr. T. F. Williams, Stearns' manager, confirmed the report but would not state whether Mr. Stearns would run on an independent ticket or no.

Congressman E. L. Hamilton will be temporary chairman of the convention. The first fight will be over the primary reform resolutions, action on which, by consent of the machine, will precede the nominations. It will probably be preceded by a contest in the resolutions committee. It is expected that the machine leaders will try to restrict the primary reform resolutions to merely favoring local option primary reform.

Other Contests.

The only contests over nominations, aside from the governorship, will be for auditor-general and state land commissioner.

Gleaned from various sources and put in a few words, the situation relative to other points is this:

Efforts to effect a compromise on primary reform between the machine and the anti-machine forces failed. A fight will be made with William Alden Smith and C. C. Simons leading the reformers.

J. B. Bradley is the choice of the machine for auditor-general. McLeod's Wayne friends are fighting hard for him. Wildey still in the running. Major Loomis withdraws, handing over his Ionia delegation to Bradley.

General Duffield will carry the fight for the seating of himself and two other delegates from the ninth ward of Detroit. Warren gets 77 of 85 delegates from the city of Detroit.

Patton Resigns.

Machine men agree to have resolutions adopted before proceeding with nominations, in accordance with demand of reformers.

John Patton resigns as chairman of the state judicial convention at Saginaw Sept. 7, and Moses Taggart of Grand Rapids was selected to take his place.

Candidate George B. Horton has his headquarters on the floor above the parlor at the Russell house. Mr. Horton is not wearing a worried look. He thinks that Grand Traverse, Lapeer and Alcona are still true to him and he is not going to lose sleep, he says, over what the other counties are going to do.

Warren men are claiming 225 votes for the Detroiter on the first ballot. At Warner's headquarters unusually good cheese was dispensed.

Major Nugent seems to be still in the lead for land commissioner, though William H. Rose of Clinton has received a very substantial boost in the last forty-eight hours.

Boiled Over.

Most of the primary reform men boiled over when compromise was suggested to them. "We've heard enough of that before. Let us have reform or no reform" was the general tone. There were some, however, who believed that it would be better to accept a half-way concession from the machine and gain at least that prestige before the electorate, rather than submit their whole loaf resolution for another defeat.

Warner men are claiming 770 votes out of 1,094 on the first ballot.

Homer Warren, in the face of all odds, insists that his name be brought before the convention. "Win or lose, I'm determined to go into the fight," he declared.

C. E. Convention Opens.

Orion, Mich., June 29.—The state convention of the Michigan Christian Endeavor union opened at Lake Orion Tuesday with an attendance of over 400 well known Endeavor workers from all parts of the state. The convention will last until July 1, and the attendance is expected to double in number by that time. The morning session opened with a series of addresses upon the junior work of the society.

NOT GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury Frees Katie Ludwick From Terrible Charge.

Coldwater, Mich., June 29.—It took the jury in Katie Ludwick trial for the murder of her husband John just ten minutes to reach a verdict of not guilty. The decision was reached on the first ballot.

All day long a crowd packed every seat in the courthouse. As the words "Not guilty" fell from the juror's lips a demonstration of such magnitude that Judge Yaple was unable to suppress broke out. Handkerchiefs and hats were waving in the air for some minutes.

Katie Ludwick nearly collapsed when the happy news reached her. Already the strain of her thirteen-day trial has been telling on her.

After thanking the jail officials for the consideration which they had shown her, the young woman left the jail. Great crowds of people stood on the street to catch a glimpse of her.

OFFICERS WOUNDED.

Miners and Trammers In Fight at Calumet.

Calumet, Mich., June 29.—In a fight between striking trammers and miners at Atlantic mine several officers were wounded, though not seriously, and Enock Makinen, leader of the strikers, was probably fatally wounded.

Forty trammers attacked the miners as the latter were going to work, using sticks, stones, knives and fists.

A sheriff and deputies quelled the disturbance. Subsequently the trammers quarreled among themselves and Henry Bakkila was shot.

Died Homeless and Friendless.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 29.—Friendless and homeless, John Sanderson, an actor who for many years had entertained the American public, is dead at St. Mary's hospital. Sick and knowing that his end was near, he appeared for the last time before the footlights at Godfroy's summer theater Thursday night and bravely went through his act. Rounds of applause greeted him as he left the stage and he tried to summon up his remaining strength to respond, but a sinking spell overcame him. The curtain was rung down and a moment later the actor collapsed. An ambulance was called and he was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where, after lingering, he expired.

Mysterious Death at White Cloud.

White Cloud, Mich., June 29.—James Brace, 23 years old, proprietor of a local drug store, was found dead in the morning in his room, over his place of business. He was last seen alive Sunday morning at the Atlantic hotel, where he ate breakfast, and since which time his store has not been opened. His room and store were broken into and Brace was found lying on the bed with a blood-saturated handkerchief in one hand. A bottle containing chloroform was on a chair near by. It is thought the young man had a hemorrhage of the lungs and took an overdose of chloroform unintentionally.

Boon to Union Labor.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 29.—One hundred and fifty corporations of this city have, through the three leading manufacturing associations of Grand Rapids, united to form the Employers' Association of Grand Rapids. They are the Grand Rapids Furniture Manufacturers association, the Manufacturing & Builders association and the Metal Trades association. A free employment bureau has been established in connection with the association. The constitution of the organization sets forth that the association's policy is not to be antagonistic to union labor, yet it insists upon the continuation of the open shop.

Mrs. Collins Taken to Prison.

Corunna, Mich., June 30.—Mrs. Caroline Collins, who murdered her hired man, George Leachman, with arsenic was taken to state prison Wednesday. The citizens of Owosso turned out en masse to see her depart. The convicted murderess was jauntily dressed. Not a woman offered sympathy. The party arrived at Jackson shortly before noon and as no women prisoners are kept at the Jackson state prison she will be transferred to the Detroit house of correction as soon as Governor Bliss signs the necessary commitment papers.

No pity shown.

"For years fate was after me continually" writes M. Gulledge, Vermont, Ala., "I had a terrible case of piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica salve cured me." Equally good for burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at C. A. Wright's drug store.

Good Clothes

Clothcraft suits aren't built for looks alone—They're built for wear. The "inside facts" reveal a judicious use of haircloth and canvas. The button holes and pockets show the same careful work that custom tailors bestow upon their high-priced products.

The suit shown in the illustration is a fine example of what a good suit should be. The shoulders lend a well-built, solid appearance to the figure. The back hangs gracefully, and the sleeves are just the right size and length. The whole suit seems a part of the man. Small wonder that our sales thus far have exceeded all previous years.

Have you bought your spring suit yet? $10 to $18 invested in Clothcraft Clothes will give you the largest returns for your money.

We're expecting you.

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Doctors could not help her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," says Mrs. Raymond Conner of Melton, Wash. "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say to much for it." For sale by all druggists in Tecumseh.

One man's greatness is due to the aid of many smaller men.

Brutally tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Mr. Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes, "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it is the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright.

Enthusiasm and lying are synonymous with some people.

Piles upon top of piles.

Piles upon top of piles of people have the piles and DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cures them. There are many different kinds of piles but if you get the genuine and original witch hazel salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, a cure is certain. E. Tisdale of Summerton, S. C., says "I had piles 20 years but your salve cured me after every thing else had failed." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Every man imagines he is some other man's best friend.

Brain fag—inactivity of the mind—is but the natural result of indigestion or a disordered liver. You are at your best physically and mentally only when the important organs are properly performing their functions. Greene's Little Laxative Beans will right all wrongs of the digestive apparatus and cure dizziness, constipation, sleeplessness and that tired, worn-out feeling. B. J. PULVER.

Bitter medicine, like bitter experience, is usually the best.

The pill that will, will fill the bill,
Without a gripe.
To cleanse the liver without a quiver,
Take one at night.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice and all troubles arising from an inactive liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold by C. A. Wright.

The easiest way for a girl to catch a husband is to not run after him.

Weak Hearts

Are causedby indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the result. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to all organs. Sold by C. A. Wright.

When a man is unable to make a living at anything else he is eligible for a government job.

A cough is a violent effort of the lungs to throw off irritating matter. It wears and tears the delicate membranes, causing consumption, chronic throat and bronchial troubles. Greene's Cough Cure soothes the inflamed part and cures coughs and colds by destroying the disease germ. A pure and safe remedy. Try it. B. J. PULVER.

ASSAULTED A CHILD.

Sunday School Superintendent Narrowly Escaped Lynching.

South Haven, Mich., June 30.—A sensation has been caused here by the arrest of Charles L. Allison, a contracting painter, aged 49 years, upon a charge of criminally assaulting Edith, the four-year-old daughter of Charles Secord. Allison has been superintendent of a Sunday school in the Methodist church, has a family and has always been well thought of.

There is no jail in South Haven and Allison, after his arrest, was confined in the city hall with a guard. An angry crowd gathered and threats of lynching the man were heard, the mob needing only a leader. Chief McGregor of the local police had six officers sworn in to guard the prisoner and they finally succeeded in getting the crowd of would-be lynchers to go home.

Allison has admitted his guilt. When the townspeople heard that he had confessed the mob spirit began to rise again, but the officers succeeded in getting him to the county jail at Paw Paw. It is now believed that no further violence will be manifested toward him. It is thought that the child will recover, as she does not appear to be badly injured.

TWICE TORE DOWN DAM.

Lively Mixup In Calhoun County Over a Water Course.

Marshall, Mich., June 30.—Several years ago an outlet was made to Brace lake, two and a half miles southeast of here, but the land so drained never amounted to much, and Frank Stuart, the millionaire dyspepsia tablet maker, who has a summer cottage on the shores of the lake, had the ditch dammed last summer. John A. Freed, who lives near the outlet, tore out the dam and a lawsuit was the result.

Last Sunday Stuart had another dam put in, made of stone and cement, and a guard was left to see that it was not torn down. Nevertheless, Freed and about 100 men went to the place Tuesday night with horses and crowbars and demolished the new dam while Stuart and his guards stood and looked on.

Freed has now begun suit in the circuit court against F. A. Stuart, John Rentschler, George W. Robinson and County Drain Commissioner E. D. Dickinson to restrain them from building the dam again. Judge Hopkins issued a temporary injunction and gave the defendants until July 5 to appear in court and show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

Now She Wants to Live.

Bay City, Mich., June 30.—May Duby, who took a large quantity of carbolic acid with suicidal intent, still lingers between life and death, with pracically no chance of recovery. Her throat and stomach are frightfully burned. The motive for the act was a love affair and the girl is now anxious to live and transfer her affections to another man.

Dentists Elect Officers.

Lansing, Mich., June 30.—The State Dental association elected the following officers and adjourned to meet in Detroit next year when the Tri-State Dental association will meet in that city: President, F. H. Essig, Dowagiac; secretary, A. L. Legro, Three Rivers; treasurer, J. Ward Howe, Grand Rapids; member of board of trustees, E. A. Honey, Kalamazoo.

Wants $20,000 For a Foot.

Bay City, Mich., June 30.—Albert Niezurawski has started suit against the Pere Marquette in the circuit court to recover $20,000 for the loss of a foot at Saginaw Aug. 22, 1903. He was a passenger on the train and on account of the alleged sudden starting of the engine he was thrown beneath the wheels.

Preacher in Trouble.

Oscoda, Mich., June 30.—S. D. Rogers, who claims to be a descendent of John Rogers, who was burned at the stake in 1755, and of Timothy Rogers, who founded quaker settlements in Canada, is under arrest here charged with obtaining money under false pretences. Rogers claims to be a minister from Vassar, and says he is state minister for the dissemination of christian literature.

Filipinos Expected in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—The members of the Filipino commission, who are making a five-months tour of the large American cities at the expense of the government, will reach Detroit by way of Clevelandboat Friday morning. There are 42 members of the commission, but with army officers, interpreters and others, the party numbers about seventy-five.

Minimizing the Pain.

"What's that watch worth?" asked Mr. Kloce, pointing to one in the showcase. "Ten dollars," replied the jeweler. "I'll take it," said the customer, and after paying for it he went out.

The next day he came round again.

"This watch doesn't exactly suit me," he said. "What's that one worth?" pointing to another.

"Fifteen dollars."

"I'll take that instead of this one, if you don't mind."

"Certainly."

A day or two later he came again.

"How good a watch have you got for $25?" he inquired.

"Well, $25 will get a pretty good timepiece," said the jeweler, handing one out. "Here's one with a gold filled case and full jeweled. The movement is warranted."

"I'll take it."

He paid the difference, took the watch and went away.

After the lapse of a few days he made his appearance once more.

"Have you got a first class watch with a solid gold case that you can sell for $50?" he said.

"Yes. Here it is."

"Well, I'll take it," said Mr. Kloce. "Here's the other watch and $25. That's the one I really wanted at first, but I hated to pay out all that money at once."

A Strange Pirate Story.

In the museum at Kingston, Jamaica, there are some tattered ships' papers, brown with age and salt water, and a small tin canister. These articles attest the truth of the strangest pirate story ever told.

In 1799 the crew of the Nancy brig were apparently honest traders, but did some piracy now and then on the side. One day they found it necessary to go into Kingston for supplies. Before doing so they naturally removed all traces of their buccaneering trade. Among other things they threw overboard this tin canister stuffed with papers taken from ships they had sunk, with comments written on the margin by the pirate captain.

Later in the day a British frigate was becalmed near the spot, and the sailors spent their leisure catching sharks. Presently they hauled up a big fellow, cut him open and found the tin case with the papers inside. These were taken to the captain, who as soon as a breeze sprung up sailed into Kingston harbor, found the Nancy brig there and had the crew tried, convicted and hanged in chains at Port Royal.

Lacemaking.

The birth of lacemaking dates back to the days of Greek maidens who watched the spider make its web and copied the pattern with fine threads of flax. The art has developed to the point of producing brussels point, which is so delicate in texture that the dryness of the air makes the threads brittle; therefore the makers of the finest kinds have to work in damp cellars, using magnifying glasses. On the altar cloths and vestments of the church will be seen the most beautiful of the old rose point as it was made by the nuns in their convent cells and dedicated to the use of the church. Every one is familiar with the painting of "Queen Bess, the Dress Lover," which shows her with high ruffles embroidered with seed pearls. The portraits of Queen Charlotte display this keenest of lace lovers in hoops of balloon-like flounces of her priceless lace. Queen Victoria preferred to lay away in lavender boxes the piles of inherited laces.

A Curious Wedding Present.

Among the Brass river tribes of west Africa when a young couple get married it is the custom for the oldest member of the bride's family to present the bride with a plot of ground six feet long. This is for the grave of her family and herself when they die.

The first member of the new family who dies is buried about twenty feet below ground and the next one almost sixteen feet, and this goes on until all the family die and are buried. The grave holds them all, and this, they think, prevents them from being separated.

This grewsome wedding present is the one most valued by the bride, the favorite native saying being, "When all other things are gone this remains."

Quaint Holland Customs.

They have quaint customs in Holland. One of these is placing the laundry at the top of the house. The clothes are sent away to be washed and bleached, and when they are returned they are drawn up to the laundry by means of a pulley and dangle for a time right in the drawing room windows, to the infinite delectation of the guests. But, as an offset to this peculiarity, the bathroom—when there is a bathroom, which is not often—is placed in the cellar. It is the dry cellar, where potatoes and such things are stored, and the tub is an immense iron thing, with a cover that is divided into halves.

The Largest Domes.

Some of the largest domes in the world are the Pantheon at Rome, 142 feet diameter, 143 high; baths of Caracalla, Rome, 112 feet diameter, 116 feet high; St. Sophia, Constantinople, 115 feet diameter, 201 feet high; St. Maria delle Fure, Florence, 139 feet diameter, 310 feet high; St. Peter's, Rome, 139 feet diameter, 330 feet high; St. Paul's, London, 112 feet diameter, 215 feet high.

The Price of Experience.

"What did you buy with that money your uncle left you?"

"I bought experience," was the rueful reply.

"Spend it all for that?"

"My dear sir, I never was much on bargain day affairs, and the ordinary price of experience is all that you've got."—Chicago Post.

Her Modest Wish.

"Sometimes," said the poet, "I almost get to thinking I would rather have been born rich than a genius."

"Oh, dear," his wife replied, "I don't go to such extravagant extremes. If you'd only been born with a longing to go out and get a job somewhere I'd be satisfied."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Inquisitive.

"I'd like to know"— began the little boy.

"Well, what would you like to know?" asked his mother.

"I'd like to know why sweetbreads haven't any bread in 'em and sweetmeats haven't any meat in 'em."—Baltimore American.

Life and the Sun.

All the energy of life is derived ultimately from the sun. A little of this comes indirectly through lightning which in passing through the air forms ammonia and oxides of nitrogen. These, being carried by rain into the ground, are the constant source of nitrogen for vegetable and indirectly for animal life. A much larger quantity of energy is well known to be taken direct from the sunshine by plants and used in their anabolic processes. This energy is appropriated by animals in their food, and whether in the vegetable or in the animal it assists in any alternations of the system before it is completely dispersed.

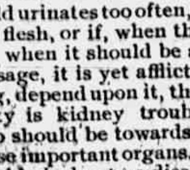
Food and Nervous Troubles.

I have the privilege of knowing many eminent men in the medical profession, and their advice in nine cases out of ten is to eat and take as much nourishment as possible. Numbers of cases of nervous breakdown are entirely cured by what your correspondents would call "overeating." In all nervous disorders, from which so many suffer in this age of keen competition, the chief remedy is eating more than is seemingly required.—London Telegraph.

Excursionists For Revenue.

Some years ago a British warship visited St. Kilda in exceptionally calm weather. As the natives of the place had never seen a steamer, the captain good naturedly offered to take them for an hour's cruise, which was readily accepted by a great many. On their return the captain, seeing them all standing in rows on the quarter deck, asked the cause. He was at once informed that they were waiting to be paid.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.



Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Home of Swamp-Root.

How Did the Turtle Find His Way?

The rocks at the west coast of the island of St. Helena abound with sea turtles, some of them as heavy as a man, and an English steamer once took aboard several dozen of those sea monsters, intending to deliver them alive to a provision dealer in Liverpool.

But before they reached English waters one of the turtles was taken sick and was flung overboard after having been branded with the name of the ship. Next year the same steamer came across the same tortoise on the coast of St. Helena, more than 4,000 miles from the point where the homesick creature had been flung back overboard.

A Needed Admonition.

On one of my trips through the south I sauntered into an old dilapidated cemetery of Virginia and read many very peculiar epitaphs upon tombstones. One in particular attracted my attention, which happened to be that of a slave who had been inclined to be stout. The grave had long since been neglected, and the inscription could only be read after brushing away the vines which grew upon it. But my labor was rewarded, for there on that tombstone I read, "Aliza Wite weighed 300 pounds; 'open wide the golden gates.'"—Philadelphia Press.

Army Firing Positions.

Standing, kneeling, sitting and lying down are the four positions prescribed for firing by the army regulations. The lying position alone is prescribed for the 800 and the 1,000 yard ranges, while at all the other ranges up to 2,000 yards the lying and sitting positions are used. At 100 and 200 yards the sitting and standing positions are prescribed. Wherever the sitting position is prescribed the kneeling may be substituted, but for the majority of persons the sitting is by far the better position of the two.

Silenced Mamma.

"Now," said the anxious mother, "you do not want to marry that reporter. Think of having a husband who never gets home until 2 or 3 in the morning."

"But," said the shrinking maiden, "aren't all husbands like that? Papa is not a reporter, and—and yet"—

But the anxious mother declined to listen.

This Is a Fancy Sketch.

Mrs. Wiggles—Can you let me have $2 to do a little shopping with?

Mr. Wiggles—Certainly, my dear, but I am afraid that $2 will not be enough. Here is a twenty dollar bill.—Somerville Journal.

Original and Sudden.

Camera Fiend—Shall I take you, Miss Passee?

Miss Passee—Oh, you original man! How sudden!—Houston (Tex.) Post.

The Spit Snake.

There is a snake belonging to the small family causidæ, inhabiting Africa, that is said to have the power of ejecting its venom to a short distance. This snake is called by the Dutch Boers "spuw slang," or spit snake. When this snake erects its teeth the pressure of the maxillary bone on the gland causes the venom to flow in drops, and it may be quite possible that by discharging air from its mouth the poison may be blown some distance.

MRS. POLLANY DENEEN, Marine City, Mich.

Mrs. Pollany Deneen, Marine City, Mich., says: "I humbly thank you for the good your medicine has done for me, after suffering for four years with nervous and heart trouble. I would have spells when I would drop down anywhere and would remain unconscious for as long as 24 hours at a time. The doctor said it was a hard case of dropsy and something that could not be cured. I heard of your remedy and took it according to directions and found relief with the first bottle, so I continued it until I had used six bottles and now I am well and able to do a good day's washing, which I could not do before. I can't thank you enough for what your remedy has done for me, and I recommend it to all who suffer, as it is worth its weight in gold to sick women."

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

A Roman Meet.

Rome has a delightful climate the whole year round, and from the end of November to the middle of March is an ideal time for hunting. Then the hounds meet twice a week. On such mornings the riders leave Rome or the villas roundabout in time to be on the field and ready by 11 o'clock, for the hunt is always several miles from Rome, sometimes on the rolling, partly timbered land to the northward, but more often on the level plain. Such a meet is to Rome what a Meadowbrook meet is to New York. It means a morning gathering of fashionables, with time and money and distinction to its credit. Swift moving motor cars lumbering drags and four-in-hands smart phaetons, barouches, victorias and dogcarts hurry out from the city. From the estates of noblemen in the vicinity of the hunt come more carriages, and men on the hunters, while they will ride in the day's chase.—I. D. Zabriske in Outing.

The Death Substitute.

"I had in my employ," says one of the missionaries to China, "a very valuable Chinese servant, upon whom I leaned with implicit confidence. One day he came to me and said, 'I shall be obliged to ask you to find somebody to take my place, as in the course of a few weeks I am to be executed in place of a rich gentleman, who is to pay me very liberally for becoming his substitute.'

"I asked what possible inducement there could be to forfeit his life for any amount of money. He replied: 'I have an aged father and mother, who are very poor and unable to work, and the money I am to receive will make them comfortable as long as they live. I think it is my duty to give up my life to accomplish this.'"

New Definition of Principle.

"I fought the case not because I cannot pay, but on principle," explained a defendant in the Southwark county court recently. "Yes, I know," said Judge Addison wearily, "In these courts principle is another word for temper."

Blue Ribbon Meeting.

The twenty-first annual renewal of the great Blue Ribbon meeting given under the auspices of the Detroit Driving Club promises to excel any of the preceding years viewed from a racing point. The historic classic events—Merchants and Manufacturers $10,000 and Chambers of Commerce, $5,000—also the other early closing events attracted the largest entry list ever received at Grosse Pointe track. The first two named events excel any field that ever was entered. In the M. and M. there will undoubtedly be fifteen or sixteen starters and as all of them have demonstrated in trials that they can travel a mile in 2:10 or better the race should be the fastest and best contested since the initial one in 1889. The same is true of the C. of C. The largest field that ever went to the post for this race will score for the word. Ten of the pacers have negotiated miles from 2:04¼ to 2:06—thus insuring extremely fast time being made. It is the general opinion of horsemen that the record for both stakes will be beaten several seconds this year. The dates of the Blue Ribbon meet have changed to the week of July 25th. As usual the C. of C. will open the season Monday and the M. and M. will follow Tuesday. Secretary W. J. Snyder has arranged an excellent program which offers an attraction each day. In fact each race, there are four a day, is an attraction for the reason that the very best horses in training will be in their respective classes. Blue Ribbon week—July 25th—will go down in turf history as the greatest ever held.

A Mixup.

Years ago when the merchants of Tecumseh first hired a night watch, Lucius Lilley was appointed chairman of the committee and for all this time has taken charge of the clock and really the night watch has reported to him. The council at that time thought the services of the night watch were worth $200 per year to the village at large and have paid this amount since. The merchants have contributed about $40 per month and were supposed to run the business.

At the last meeting of the council a committee was appointed to confer with the merchants about the matter of subscription. It is really no business of the council and now a number of the business men do not desire to be dictated to and will no longer pay.

It is now "up to the council" to straighten the matter out in some way or pay the money all alone, or discharge the night watch.

Fire Blight.

Our neighbors called my attention to some apple trees on which the ends of the limbs are dying. I wrote to the Agricultural college and received the following reply.
C. L. WISNER,
Tipton, Mich.

Agricultural College,
Lansing, Mich., June 28, 1604.
Mr. C. L. Wisner, Tipton, Mich.

DEAR SIR:—I think the trouble with your apple trees is the fire blight, the same disease which is so destructive in the pears. This is a bacterial disease, and but little can be done toward checking it. It always attacks young twigs first, causing the leaves to turn brown as if burned or scalded. The specimens you sent seemed to be typical of this disease. The only thing that can be done is to cut out the diseased portions, cutting about 2 feet from where the diseased wood shows, in order to thoroughly remove all bacteria.

Very truly yours,
C. A. MCCUE.

Montgomery—Britten.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Montgomery occurred the marriage of her daughter, Miss Harriett, to Mr. J. A. Britten of Eaton Rapids, Rev. Mott of Ridgeway, performing the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate family.

Miss Montgomery has lived in Tecumseh the greater part of her life and her many friends rejoice that she still makes this her permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Britten will be at home to their friends after July 15.

True matrimonial affection never goes on dress parade.

Concerning
THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

2 Tim. 4:2 Cor. 1 9:16

THESE WERE MORE NOBLE THAN THOSE OF THESSALONICA IN THAT THEY RECEIVED THE WORD WITH ALL READINESS AND SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES DAILY, WHETHER THOSE THINGS WERE SO. ACTS 17:11

XX.

The Holy Communion is a Memorial Feast. As such it involves three essential factors—the Memorial made, the Food partaken and the Fellowship enjoyed. We have considered the first, the Memorial; we have now to speak of the Food partaken.

Outwardly it is, of course, Bread and Wine, "which the Lord hath commanded to be received." But in commanding Bread and Wine to be received as the Memorial of His Death our blessed Lord said of the Bread thus consecrated, "This is My Body;" and of the Wine, "This cup is the new testament in my blood" (1 Bor. 11:24, 25). Inwardly, therefore, there is signified by the Bread and Wine of the Holy Communion "the Body and Blood of Christ, which are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper." That is to say, the Food partaken in the Holy Communion is the Body and Blood of Christ.

That in the Holy Communion we do really partake of the Body and Blood of Christ is the plainest of the plain teaching of Scripture.

(1). We have seen that the Passover of the Spiritual Kingdom of God was prefigured by the Passover of the Earthly Kingdom. Now the Passover of the Earthly Kingdom—the Jewish Passover—consisted of two parts: the slaying of the lamb and the partaking of the lamb slain. Evidently, therefore, the Christian Passover, to be complete, must comprise the same two parts: the slaying of the Lamb and the partaking of the Lamb slain, (Jn 1:29, 37; 1 Cor. 5:7,8). Observe, it is in this sense, viz., as partaking of the Lamb slain, that our Lord's words in John 6:53 are to be understood—"Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have no life in you." He gives His Flesh and Blood as being our Passover Lamb.

(2). But the Holy Communion in Bread and Wine was instituted of Christ to be the Christian Passover Feast—as may be most plainly seen in the circumstances of its institution (Luke 22:7—21; etc.). Evidently, therefore, in the Holy Communion we must partake of the (Body and Blood of the) true Paschal Lamb.

(3). Moreover, as already stated, our blessed Lord, in commanding the Bread and Wine to be received in the Holy Communion, said of the Bread, "This is my body," and of the wine, "This cup is the new testament in my blood" (1 Cor. 11:24, 25)—a most definite statement by the Lord Himself that in the Holy Communion He would give His Body and Blood to be received.

(4). Again, St. Paul asks—as if in utter surprise to think that any other idea could be entertained for a moment: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion (i. e. the partaking) of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion (partaking) of the body of Christ? For we being many are one bread and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread"—i. e., of Christ, the Bread of Life, Jn 6:35 (1 Cor. 10:16, 17).

(5). Lastly, this same St. Paul speaks of the unworthy partaker of the Holy Communion as "guilty of (profaning) the Body and Blood of the Lord"—"not discerning the Lord's Body" given therein (1 Cor. 11:27, 29).

And so, I say, that in the Holy Communion we do really partake of the Body and Blood of Christ, is the plainest of the plain teaching of Scripture. He that denies that fact only shows that he does not understand the fundamental conception underlying the institution of that Sacrament, viz., that it was ordained to be the Christian Paschal Feast upon the true Paschal Lamb of God; and that he has forgotten the elemental truth that as members of Christ, branches of the True Vine, individual Christians must derive their nourishment from Christ Himself. (It is to be borne in mind that in the latter illustration the process is not reflex, mechanical. The True Vine is a concious person and has a Will and thus wills to give nourishunto His branches as seems best, viz., by way of the Holy Communion; and we, the branches of the true Vine, are persons, and have will power and so must will to receive the nourishment as provided viz., in the Holy Communion.)

Only in speaking of "eating the Flesh of the Son of Man" and of "drinking His Blood" (John 6:53) we must be careful not to think of it in a physical sense. The natural Flesh and Blood of Christ partaken in the natural way would profit us nothing (John 6:62.) Christ's Body and Blood are no longer what they were when He was here upon earth. They are no longer "natural;" as They have been made spiritual. Thus they can only be partaken of after a spiritual manner. How that is no man can tell. Transubstantiation appears to a very carnal theory in explanation of something clearly beyond our present understanding. But, once again, that "the Body and Blood of Christ are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper" is the plainest of plain teaching of Scripture.

Thus the second blessing attending upon the faithful reception of the Holy Communion is (Spiritual) Food unto our Souls, to the nourishing and upbuilding of our Spiritual life. As our bodies are fed—sustained and nourished—by natural bread, so in the Holy Communion our souls are fed—are sustained and nourished—by the Bread of Life. "And the bread which I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world" (Jn 6:5).

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE

Hyomei, the guaranteed catarrh cure, prescribed by physicians.

No one should confound Hyomei with patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Is it not foolish to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids? The only natural way to cure this disease and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by C. A. Wright under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

REASONS

Why our Vinol is the Greatest Health Restorer and Strength Creator Known to Medicine.

Because Vinol contains in a concentrated form ALL of the medicinal curative elements found in cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Because we have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to restore health and create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles.

A prominent physician writes:

"Vinol is the most palatable and valuable preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded. I now use it entirely in all cases where I formerly depended upon old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions."

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if you are not satisfied.

Some years ago I was an expert at sheep shearing. Everybody knows it is hard on the back and it finally brought on a severe pain across the loins. Nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to try them. I got a box and they gave immediate relief. When I finished the box the trouble was removed. They are a reliable remedy." Call at C. A. After a lively discussion delegates to the state convention were instructed to land the state convention for 1905 at Jackson, if possible.

Battle Creek Pastor Resigns.

Battle Creek, Mich., June 30.—Rev. Samuel J. Stewart, pastor of the Independent Congregational church of this city, has resigned. CORTELYOU IS PROMPT.

Orders Immediate Re-inspection of New York Boats.

Washington, June 30.—Secretary Cortelyou of the department of commerce and labor has sent the following telegram, which is self-explanatory:

"Washington, June 29, 1904.—Mr. George Uhler, Supervising Inspector-General of the Steamboat Inspection Service, New York, N. Y.: You are hereby directed to begin at once the re-inspection that has been ordered of the passenger carrying steamboats in New York harbor. Detail the very best men in your service for this work and order that those who made the inspection of any particular boat earlier in the season shall not make the re-inspection now.

"Telegraph the several supervising inspectors in the service except Capt. Bermingham of San Francisco, who is too far away, and ask if they can spare, without detriment to the interests committed to their charge, some of their best men to assist in this work. Final judgment upon the character of the inspections heretofore made must properly await the report of the federal investigation now in progress, but I believe this re-inspection should be made. In making this re-inspection the regulations and the various circulars that have been issued by the department from time to time for your service afford its officials definite instructions under existing law.

"Report at once by telegraph the receipt of these instructions.

"GEORGE B. CORTELYOU,
"Secretary."

Importing Ants.

Dr. Cook cables from Puerto Cortes, Mexico, that he will arrive at New Orleans on July 4, with eighty-nine colonies of these ants. He will proceed immediately to the Texas cotton district to begin war against the weevils. The experimental colonization of these ants probably will be instituted first at Victoria, Texas.

St. Petersburg Expectant.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The fact that no further news of the land operations has been received does not serve to relieve the tension which is general throughout the city. TROLLEY CARS COLLIDE

Frightful Accident on the Jackson & Battle Creek Line.

ROAD'S PRESIDENT WAS HURT

Twenty-Six Others Injured—Accident Occurred Near Marshall and Was Caused by Disabled Car, Which Was Telescoped in the Catastrophe.

Marshall, Mich., July 2.—A frightful accident occurred on the third-rail electric line of the Jackson & Battle Creek Traction Co. just this side of Bear Creek bridge, one and a half miles west of here, resulting in the serious injury of three persons, one of whom may die, and the bruising and shaking up of twenty-one others. A limited car running at the rate of sixty miles an hour crashed into the rear end of a local car, which had stopped on account of a defective motor.

Those most seriously injured are:

Gen. Cellan N. Spitzer of Toledo, president of the Jackson & Battle Creek Traction Co., and banker, both legs broken.

Fred Kelly of Albion, motorman on limited car, hurt internally, and both legs broken.

Edmund E. Wilson, desk clerk, Battle Creek Sanitarium, right leg broken.

Train No. 10, car No. 47, known as a local, was going east and was due at his station at 0:47. It was in charge of Conductor W. B. Berry and Motorman Fred Barber. It appears that the motor was not in good working order and several stops were made between Battle Creek and the scene of the accident. Where the collision occurred the car stopped and Conductor Berry sent back Section Foreman Worranger to flag train No. 12, car No. 33, known as the "Battle Creek," a fast limited, which was about due.

This train was also going east and due here at 10:31. It was in charge of Conductor A. A. Welch and Motorman G. I. Kelley. The flagman had gone about twenty rods back when the limited car hove in sight. It is claimed that he waved his hat and that the motorman, believing some one wished to take the limited car, paid no attention to the signal, but came on at full speed.

There is a steep down grade at this point with a sixty-foot highway crossing and a sharp curve. The limited car dashed into the rear end of the local and pushed it ahead about 200 feet. The rear end of the local was telescoped and the front end of the limited smashed in.

By the Morphine Route.

Charlotte, Mich., July 2.—Arthur Fairchild, at the lovesick age of 18 snuffed out his life by aid of morphine. Arthur, son of a widowed mother, had been a porter at the Phoenix hotel, and in his spare time he had been making love to pretty Clara Dale, a dishwasher at the Williams hotel. The dishwasher was younger, even, than Arthur. But she saw another man, and on top of this sorrow Arthur lost his job as porter. Arthur bought poison and was dead in an hour.

Perry Boy Seriously Injured.

Perry, Mich., July 2.—Earl Marble, aged 14, only son of Seymour Marble, met with a terrible accident while out hunting woodchucks. His right arm was blown off at the shoulder and the upper part of the body badly shattered. He was returning home and was but a few yards from the house when he climbed over a fence and drew the shotgun through after him, causing the trigger to catch on a board and the explosion followed. There is no hope for his recovery.

Thief Stole Valuable Diamonds.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Furst of New York city, who with their young daughter are stopping at the Park hotel, have been robbed of about $5,000 worth of diamonds. The diamonds were in a trunk in Mrs. Furst's room. They consisted of a $1,500 brooch, rings, pins pendants, and so on. The trunk was locked. The thief must have had a key, as the lock had been turned back.

TRAPPED SQUADRON?

Japanese Reports as to Vladivostok Fleet.

RUSSIAN AND JAP CAUTIOUS

Kuropatkin and Kuroki Moving Their Troops Like Men on a Chessboard—Rainy Season Will Materially Affect Military Situation.

Tokio, July 2.—Vice Admiral Kamimura evidently trapped and attacked the Russian Vladivostok squadron off the Islands of Tsu in the southern entrance of the Sea of Japan last night. The result of the encounter is unknown.

Liao Yang, July 2.—General Kuropatkin and General Kuroki are now moving their troops like men on a chessboard. The Japanese are now twenty miles from Lioa Yang. The rains are impeding their movements. Detachments totaling 1,500 men have been detailed from Gen. Rennenkampff's cossacks to scout in the defiles and hills, harrassing the Japanese and not allowing them any rest day or night. The Japanese artillery is said to be commanded by an American. His tall form is frequently seen with the batteries. Kuroki's army is extremely active east of the Russian position and the Russians are correspondingly active. The Russians centre is being rapidly pushed northwards to a point where Kuropatkin established his base after the battle of Vafangow. So far as the Russians know Kuroki is steadily pushing onwards through all the mountain passes, even toward Mukden. Preparations at all points are now practically complete. The demonstrations made during the last few days against the Russian left flank threaten to completely change the position of the two armies. Notwithstanding four days of rain the troops are still being moved. Some Red Cross trains with wounded passed northward June 30.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—It is believed here that the commencement of the rainy season will materially affect the whole military situation. The authorities consider that it greatly lessens the probability of an immediate decisive engagement between Gen. Kuropatkin and Gen. Kuroki and it is thought that it will close the campaign in the upper part of the Liao Tung peninsula until good weather sets in. The Japanese will probably be forced to hold he position in which the rain finds them the best they can. The operations around Port Arthur doubtless will be seriously hampered.

There is still considerable speculation as to the exact position of the Port Arthur fleet, the latest dispatches from Lieut.-Gen. Zilinsky, chief of staff, to Viceroy Alexieff bringing the reports from the fortress up to two days after the squadron was supposed to have gone into the harbor without mentioning the vessels. If the squadron has again gone out, as is popularly rumored, the authorities have either not been informed or they have not disclosed their information.

Murdered in Minnesota.

Battle Creek, Mich., July 2.—Word received here leads to the belief that a well-known trained nurse of this city, Miss Ruth Teachout, has been murdered near Minneapolis, Minn. The young woman's body was found in the Mississippi river with a blue silk tie tightly knotted, four times, about her neck and cutting into the flesh. The Minneapolis police, after an examination of the body and the knotted tie, declared that it was undoubtedly murder. But there is no reason for the crime so far as is known.

Bad Boys and Firecrackers.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 2.—Some boys, playing with Fourth of July explosives on the front entrance of the North Division school, wrecked the front of the building and then ran. A woman was found later, unconscious, in the street. A piece of flying debris had struck her in the head. She recovered shortly and went on her way.

Injured by a Buzz Saw.

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 2.—Arthur Reed, an employe of the Sauer Lumber Co., had his left elbow taken off by a buzz saw. He was walking by the side of a portable water tank that was being drawn through the shop to a nearby creek, and brushed up against the saw. The arm will be saved, but the elbow joint will be stiff. Reed is 40 years of age and unmarried.

ALL WERE FOR WARNER

The Unanimous Choice of Republicans For Governor.

PRIMARY REFORM WAS BLOCKED

A Slight Concession in the Resolutions, but Otherwise Turned Down—Warren and Horton Voiced Their Approval—Stearns Didn't Appear.

THE TICKET.

Governor—
FRED M. WARNER, Oakland.

ALEX. MAITLAND, Marquette.

GEORGE A. PRESCOTT, Iosco.
State Treasurer—
FRANK A. GLAZIER, Washtenaw.
Attorney-General—
CHARLES A. BLAIR, Jackson.
Auditor-General—
DR. J. B. BRADLEY, Eaton.
Commissioner of Land Office—
WILLIAM H. ROSE, Clinton.
Supt. of Public Instruction—
PATRICK H. KELLEY, Wayne.
Member State Board of Education—
LUTHER L. WRIGHT, Iron.

Detroit, Mich., July 1.—With plenty of enthusiasm, much oratory and very few concessions to the desires of promoters of primary reform, the above ticket was placed in nomination Thursday by the Republicans assembled in state convention here. One fact stands out boldly, however, with respect to primary reform, and that is whenever the reformers grow strong enough to stand alone Homer Warren of Wayne county will be their logical candidate for governor.

No Independent Ticket.

Stearns was entirely out of the race. Nor did he even show his head within the convention hall doors. And, furthermore, it is altogether unlikely that an independent ticket will be put in the field by the Stearns element or primary reformers. Republicans realize that this is presidential year and the united strength of the party is needed.

Just one concession for the primary reform men was made in the resolutions. It reaffirmed the Grand Rapids local option plank for primary reform, and that was to make a recommendation that it be provided by legislative enactment that all caucuses and primaries to elect delegates to nominating conventions be held on the same day.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions as adopted embraced the following principal points:

"We gladly indorse the action of the national Republican convention at Chicago, accepting its declarations of party faith and party purposes as expressive of the principles to which we have given cordial support in the past and pledge unwavering loyalty for the future.

"We are pleased again to commend our senators and Republican representatives in congress from this state for their united and zealous advancement of the principles and policies of the Republican party and again desire to approvingly refer to our present state officers and state administration for the conservative and judicious conduct of state affairs which have been maintained and particularly for the determined efforts which have been made and are being made to secure that measure of equal taxation which includes within its requirements the most powerful corporation as well as the humblest individuals.

From Improper Control.

"We believe that the selection of candidates for public office should be protected from improper control and taint of corruption, and should be conducted as the judgment and will of the people in their respective counties and election districts may demand and direct. To that end we reaffirm the action of the Republican convention at Grand Rapids May 18, 1904, in favor of primary reform where changes from the existing caucus and convention system are desired.

"We further believe it wise and desirable that all caucuses and primaries relating to the selection of delegates to state conventions should be held upon the same day. And we recommend to the incoming legislature the adoption of such a law, with proper details for its satisfactory enforcement."

The Light Guard armory was filled when State Chairman Diekema called the Republican state convention to order at 11 o'clock. Many men of prominence, including Governor Bliss, occupied seats on the platform. Representative Hamilton was introduced as temporary chairman by Mr. Diekema, and until adjournment for the noon recess Mr. Hamilton entertained his hearers with an address, covering the party history and future projects.

Only One Contest.

Among the first things the convention did upon re-assembling in the afternoon was to seat Gen. H. M. Duffield in place of Charles A. Gadd as a delegate from the ninth ward of Detroit. This was the only contest.

Judge Van Zile of Detroit presented the report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business, which was unanimously adopted. H. O. Young of Ishpeming was made permanent chairman, and Dennis E. Alward, the secretary of the state central committee, was made permanent secretary.

Then came the all-important subject of primary reform and for some time the convention hall rang with speeches, orators presenting the pro and con of the issues. Favorable speeches were made by Senator Simons, Wm. Alden Smith and Gen. Duffield. Hon. Perry F. Powers made an opposing speech and when the motion for adoption of primary reform was put to vote it fell short, the result being 304 for it and 774 against.

The Nominations.

The question of primary reform having been disposed of, the next order of business was the nomination of state officers. General Duffield set the ball rolling by presenting the name of Homer Warren.

Then came Henry C. Smith of Adrian, who in the best nominating speech of the day, put before the convention the name of George B. Horton.

Samuel W. Smith of the sixth district nominated Mr. Warner.

Then came the roll call. Allegan cast its 18 votes for Justice S. Stearns, whose name had not been presented. Bay, Branch, Calhoun, Clinton, Eaton, Genesee, Gratiot, Hillsdale, Huron, Jackson and Kalamazoo got in their strokes for Warner and the expected was happening very rapidly.

Warren was getting a few scattering votes, but not enough to encourage his friends. The first big vote for Horton was cast by Grand Traverse with its nine. He also got the twenty-six from Lenawee, five from Lapeer, two from Lake and one from Monroe. Stearns got the solid vote of Kent.

Horton Surrendered First.

Horton was the first candidate to cry "enough," for just before Ontonagon was reached he arose and said it was very evident that Warner was the choice of the majority and he was ready to acquiesce in all cheerfulness. He therefore moved that the nomination of Warner be made unanimous.

William Alden Smith seconded the motion. H. M. Duffield, in behalf of Homer Warren and the Wayne delegation also seconded the motion and pandemonium, that wild king that has stampeded many a convention, slipped its collar and reigned for at least fifteen minutes. A committee was immediately delegated to bring in the candidate, and upon his arrival more "pandemonium reigned." Mr. Warner spoke briefly to the convention in appreciation of what they had done.

Homer Warren followed with a neat speech, which showed that so far as he was concerned the situation was accepted with becoming grace.

Then came Mr. Horton with a speech along harmony lines, and every one was happy.

Other Nominees.

The nominees for land commissioner were E. B. Nugent of Bay, Edwin M. Gardner of Cheboygan, William H. Rose of Clinton and H. H. Woodruff of Roscommon. The roll call showed Rose to be in the lead. He was elected by acclamation.

The nomination of the rest of the ticket was rushed through.

Patrick H. Kelley of Detroit was nominated superintendent of public instruction by acclamation and the same courtesy was shown Luther L. Wright of Ironwood as a member of the state board of education.

After authorizing the state central committee to fill all vacancies in its own body and on the state ticket that may occur, the convention adjourned at 6:45 local time.

His Body Recovered.

Manistee, Mich., July 2.—The body of Jacob Kubbaki, the 12-year-old boy missing since Monday, has been found floating near the Buckley & Douglas salt shed. It is thought he was fishing and fell in, although suspicions of foul play are entertained by his relatives. The coroner's jury is sitting on the case.

No pity shown.

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Doctors could not help her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," says Mrs. Raymond Conner of Melton, Wash. "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say to much for it." For sale by all druggists in Tecumseh.

One man's greatness is due to the aid of many smaller men.

Brutally tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Mr. Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes, "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it is the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Guaranteed by C. A. Wright.

Piles upon top of piles.

Piles upon top of piles of people have the piles and DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cures them. There are many different kinds of piles but if you get the genuine and original witch hazel salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, a cure is certain. E. Tisdale of Summerton, S. C., says "I had piles 20 years but your salve cured me after every thing else had failed." Sold by C. A. Wright.

Brain fag—inactivity of the mind—is but the natural result of indigestion or a disordered liver. You are at your best physically and mentally only when the important organs are properly performing their functions. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice and all troubles arising from an inactive liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold by C. A. Wright.

Weak Hearts

Are caused by indigestion. If you eat too much or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the result. Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to all organs. Sold by C. A. Wright.

A cough is a violent effort of the lungs to throw off irritating matter. It wears and tears the delicate membranes, causing consumption, chronic throat and bronchial troubles. Walt Whitman as a Journalist.

Walt Whitman was not much of a journalist. He had too much repose. His employers called it laziness. He was concerned with permanences. The nearer to nature, the more repose. Trees and hills do not dance except for urging. Whitman, elemental, strong, placid, bovine, did not urge them.

In the Brooklyn Eagle office Whitman is a clearer memory than in the office of its contemporary. Yet it is oddly hard to secure facts. There is a general and joking reference to his serenity as idleness. He was not a typical newspaper man, for he was not to be pressed or hurried, and in our day of precision and speed he would have been impossible. He never felt that stress from which the veriest bohemian suffers. He did not want money enough to work hard for it. One of the coterie of writers and actors which used to squander its much wit and little wealth at Pfaff's tells me that of the whole party Whitman was the only one who was never tipsy and never "broke." He always had a market somewhere for fugitive writings. Editors were friendly to him. He drank his beer with the rest, but its effect was to make him thoughtful, even sad, while the others were merry. According to that narrator, he was an easy borrower, though it does not appear that he asked for large amounts or made needless delays in his repayments.—Charles M. Skinner in Atlantic.

How He Won Her.

"Then you will be a sister to me?"

"That is all I can be."

He paused and looked at her thoughtfully.

"I already have seven sisters," he said, "and I am not quite sure I can make room for you. They are very kind to me, and on several occasions my socks have been darned a half dozen times in the same spot. They are so thoughtful too. Each of them has picked out a wife for me; but, strange to say, not one of them mentioned you. Of course you won't feel hurt if I add that there is a general and deep rooted impression among them that you are not half good enough for me. Sisters are like that sometimes, you know."

The girl flushed hotly.

"Not good enough!" she cried. "I'll show them. Consider my refusal withdrawn."

And so she married the foxy fellow out of spite and made him very happy.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Estimate of Froude.

Hannis Taylor, in his argument before the Alaskan boundary commission, told a story of Edward A. Freeman, the English historian, whom he knew well. On one occasion, when dining with him at a hotel in St. Louis, Mr. Taylor innocently asked him, "Mr. Freeman, what is your estimate of Froude as a historian?" Said Mr. Taylor: "He looked at me in a strange kind of way, and then he replied: 'I will tell you what I think about Froude. If ever you read anything he writes read it with care. Read it over and over again and fix it in your mind so that you will never forget it, for then you will know one thing for certain, and that is that by no possibility did it ever happen in that way.'"

The Red Lobster.

The question is often asked, says the Lancet, without a satisfactory answer being supplied, Why do lobsters and certain shrimps and prawns turn red on boiling? One reason may be that the black pigment of the lobster is an iron compound in the lower state of oxidation, which boiling oxidizes to the higher state. Red human hair is said to owe its brilliance to iron existing in the higher oxidized state, and by means of reducing agents, such as pyrogallic acid or nutgall, the color may be modified. In short, oxygen is a great painter and probably accounts for the beautiful autumnal tints of plant life.

Clerk—I am to be married shortly. Couldn't you manage to increase my salary a little?

Employer—Couldn't, really. But I'll tell you what I'll do for you, my boy. I'll shorten your hours during the first three months, so that you can spend your evenings at home, and after that I'll lengthen them again so that you will have an excuse to get away.

Papa's Heathen.

Mamma—Georgie, where is the 5 cents I gave you to put in the contribution box for the heathen?

Georgie—I'm saving it for Aunt Hetty when she comes.

"Why?"

Georgie—'Cause I heard papa say, "Is the old heathen coming here again?"

Base envy withers at another's joy and hates the excellence it cannot reach.—Thomson.

Reading and Talking.

Books are no substitute for talk. They come out of talk and go back into talk. We doubt if reading alone ever made "a full man." It has been said that reading is thinking with some one else's head, but talking is thinking—if we may borrow a simile from the motor car—with two head power. As a bookworm is to the man of the world, so is the silent thinker to the talking thinker. The man who does not talk is a stranger upon earth. He does not know his fellows, and they do not know him, and those we do not know we cannot greatly like. "Little do men perceive what solitude is and how far it extendeth, for a crowd is not company, and faces are but a gallery of pictures and talk but a tinkling cymbal, where there is no love." Yet a man may do heroic deeds and never talk at all in our sense of the word, and he may be a learned man and never express an opinion on any subject of the first consequence. All the same, we agree with Bacon that, inasmuch as he is shut up in himself, "closeness doth impair and a little perish his understanding."—London Spectator.

Captain Bartlett's Three Cheers.

A series of Revolutionary scenes were given in a London theater some months after the close of that memorable war. On the one side was the English army in full red coated uniform, with every button in its exact place. Opposite them was the American army, composed, as the theater bill stated, of "artisans, cobblers and tinkers," arrayed in their working dress, with buttons of every size and hue.

When the curtain dropped, Captain Bartlett of Plymouth, Mass., the captain of a ship then in port, stood up in his seat in the pit and in a voice as if given from a quarter deck in a squall called, "Three cheers for the artisans, cobblers and tinkers who were too much for King George and his redcoats," and with a wave of his hat he gave these with a will. For a short time there was silence in the theater, followed by an enthusiastic, John Bull, appreciative cheer for the pluck and assurance of the Yankee captain, who became the lion of the city, receiving invitations to clubs and free tickets to theatrical and other entertainments while he remained in port.—Boston Transcript.

A Legend of Nantucket.

About Vineyard sound there are numerous legends of a famous Indian giant. It is said that the rocks at Seapunet are the remains of his wife, whom he threw into the sea there. He turned his children into fishes and emptying out his pipe one day formed Nantucket out of its ashes. This latter story of Nantucket's source must account likewise for the well known story of that old Nantucket captain who was accustomed to make his reckonings by tasting the earth brought up on sounding. One day the lead was dipped in some earth brought on board ship from the island, and the captain, after tasting, leaped from his berth in great excitement, exclaiming, "Nantucket's sunk, and here we are right over old Marm Hackett's garden!" Naturally he would recognize the taste of tobacco ashes.

Cairo Street Warnings.

In oriental countries the recklessness of drivers of vehicles and their disregard for foot passengers are very marked, but in Cairo they have a series of curious cries with which they warn a footman. They specify the particular part of his anatomy which is in danger, as thus: "Look out for thy left shin, O uncle." "Boy, have a care for the little toe on thy right foot." "O blind beggar, look out for thy staff." And the blind beggar, feeling his way with the staff in his right hand, at once obediently turns to the left. "O Frankish woman, look out for thy left foot." "O burden bearer, thy load is in danger." "O water carrier, look out for the tail end of thy pigskin water bottle."

How the Gorilla Walks.

The gorilla has not only a crouching habit, but he walks on all four of his legs and has the motion of most quadrupeds, using his right arm and left leg at the same time, and alternates with the left arm and right leg. It is not exactly a walk or a trot, but a kind of ambling gait, while the chimpanzee uses his arms as crutches, but lifts one foot from the ground a little in advance of the other. He does not place the palm of the hand on the ground, but uses the back of the fingers from the second joint.

An Anachronism.

An American lady visited Stratford-on-Avon lately and "gushed" even above the usual high water mark of American fervor. She had not recovered from the attack when she reached the railway station, for she remarked to a friend as they walked on to the platform, "And to think that it was from this very platform the immortal bard would depart whenever he journeyed to London!"

Dances Sold by Auction.

A custom that has existed for several centuries is still maintained in some towns on the lower Rhine. Early in the year, on auction day, the town crier or clerk calls all the young people together and to the highest bidder sells the privilege of dancing with the chosen girl, and her only, during the entire year that follows. The fees flow into the public poor box.

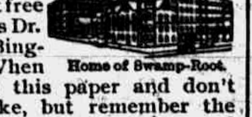
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.



Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Barnstaple Fair.

An annual fair at Barnstaple, England, has been held for hundreds of years. It was originally held in July, but the time was altered to September by a charter granted by Queen Mary. Barnstaple fair is inaugurated with a ceremony in the town hall, where a special meeting of the town council is held and spiced ale and toast (prepared in the council chamber by the beadles and mace bearers) are dispensed to all who crowd the building. Appropriate toasts are proposed and speeches made by the local member of parliament and others, after which the mayor preceeds in procession to three points of the town, at each of which is read his proclamation opening the fair and enjoining all concerned to keep the peace during its continuance. Not until this ceremony has been performed can the business and fun of the fair proceed. On the inauguration of the fair a huge stuffed white glove, adorned with flowers, is thrust on a pole from one of the upper windows of the town hall and remains in evidence during the continuance of the festival as the symbol of open handed welcome.

A Hard Problem.

A certain debating society is discussing the question as to which is the angrier—the husband who goes home and finds that the dinner is not ready or the wife who has dinner ready and whose husband does not come home. It is believed that the debate will end in a draw.

Provoking.

"Yes, dear, he caught me in his arms"—

"How shocking!"

—"and was just going to kiss me"—

"How awfully horrid!"

—"when ma came in the room."

"Oh, how provoking!"

A Little Glutton.

The New Woman's Quandary.

"Yes," the new woman remarked, "I am greatly troubled."

"By what?"

"Well, I want to get married just to prove that I can, and I don't want to get married just to prove that I don't have to. If I don't, they'll say I can't; if I do, they'll say I have no more independence than any other woman."—Chicago Post.

Proud of Him.

"Is your son Josh doing well in the city?"

"I should say he is," answered Farmer Corntossel. "He bought a gold brick the first day he was there an' come home an' sold it to me for twice what it cost him. I tell you, that boy's got enterprise."—Washington Star.

I had spells with my heart when it would beat so hard and then I would faint away. I received a sample bottle of Zoa Phora, which I took according to directions, and thought it was just what I needed, so I threw the doctor's medicine away and got a large bottle of Zoa Phora. The Brahman Funeral Pyre.

After the body of a Brahman has been anointed with sesamum oil the two toes are bound together and the two thumbs. It is then lashed to a litter made of two long parallel poles, to which are fastened seven transverse pieces of wood. The shroud is very simple, a large piece of cloth wrapped round the body and bound with ropes of straw. If the dead Brahman leaves a will his face is not covered; otherwise the shroud is brought up over the head. The burning ground, or ghat, is usually near a river, that those who have taken part in the ceremonies may purify themselves as quickly and as easily as possible. Before erecting the funeral pyre a shallow pit is dug and partially filled with dry wood, the body is covered with splinters of dry wood and sprinkled with panchagaria, an inflammable liquid, and placed on the pyre and covered with branches and roots, like a hut. The nearest relative or heir then takes a lighted taper and sets fire to the four corners of the pile and leaves at once to perform the ceremony of purification. The carriers, being of the lowest caste, remain until the body is entirely consumed.

A Ruse of War.

This happened in 1797, when Colonel Tate, with the Legion Noire, landed near Fishguard, intending to march on and burn Bristol. When the expedition appeared off the coast there was only a handful of volunteers available to oppose them, and Lord Cawdor, who was in command, mustered all the Welsh women he could gather together.

Each of these wore a long red cloak descending, petticoat fashion, almost to her heels, and thus attired they were made to march and countermarch among the hills, presenting themselves at different points to the view of the enemy in such a way as to give the impression of red uniformed troops taking up position. The French were so puzzled by their appearance that, although they landed, they could not make up their minds to advance until sufficient time had elapsed to raise the country and bring forward a real force strong enough to beat them back.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Great Old Castle.

Raby castle, the seat of Lord Barnard, is a famous old structure. On the ground floor is a mighty hall into which one might drive a coach. Above it runs a dining chamber ninety feet in length and thirty-six in breadth. It remains today as it stood in the days when the barons for whose entertainment it was fashioned were almost the paramount power in the land. Seven hundred of the mightiest and noblest in the kingdom dined simultaneously in this hall when the warlike Nevilles were established at Raby castle. The ancient chamber is good for as many today, and there is accommodation enough for the cooking. The kitchen is a square of thirty feet, with an oven so huge that at one time it was converted into a wine cellar, the sides being divided into ten parts, each side holding a hogshead of wine in bottles.

Went Back on His Authority.

Freeman, the historian, was naturally familiar in the spirit to readers of the Saturday Review. In the flesh Mr. Leslie Stephen's single meeting with the historian was in the nature of a collision.

"I came in contact with him only once, and at a later period. He wrote a life of Alfred for the Dictionary of National Biography under my editorship, but declined to do more because we had a difference of opinion as to whether Athelstane should be spelled with an 'A.' That was, I confess, a question to which I was culpably indifferent, but I had taken competent advice, and my system (I forget what it was) had been elsewhere sanctioned by the great historian Stubbs. Now, as Freeman was never tired of asserting the infallibility of Stubbs, I innocently thought that I might take refuge behind so eminent an authority. The result was that for once Freeman blasphemed Stubbs and refused to cooperate any longer in an unscholarlike enterprise."

The Druggist Lost In Ibsen.

Some one in Scandinavia unearthed the report of the examiners on Dr. Ibsen's papers at his examination for the degree of bachelor. It runs as follows: Norwegian, good; Latin prose, good; Latin essay, fairly good; Latin conversation, moderate; Greek, bad; arithmetic, bad; German, very good; French, good; religious knowledge, good; history and geography, good; Hebrew, good; geometry, good. General remarks: A young man not to be despised.

In spite of many "goods," however, Ibsen was plowed owing to his deficiencies in Greek and arithmetic. He aspired in those days to be a pharmaceutical chemist and, failing to satisfy the examiners, had to seek some other opening in life.

The Primitive Clock.

A naturalist, while visiting Great Sangir, one of those islands of the Indian ocean known as the Celebes or Spice islands, found a curious time recorder lodged at the house of a rajah. Two bottles were firmly lashed together and fixed in a wooden frame. A quantity of black sand ran from one bottle into the other in just half an hour, and when the upper bottle was empty the frame was reversed. Twelve short sticks, marked with notches from one to twelve, were hung upon a string. A hook was placed between the stick bearing the number of notches corresponding to the hour last struck and the one to be struck next. The sentry announced the time by striking the hours on a large gong.

Rebuked.

Hoffmann, the German physicist, arrived in Glasgow late one Saturday night and on Sunday morning went to call on Lord Kelvin.

The doorbell was answered by a woman servant, whom Hoffmann asked if Sir William was at home.

The servant answered, "Sir, he most certainly is not."

Hoffmann then asked, "Could you tell me where I could find him?"

"Sir," she answered, "you will find him at church, where you ought to be!"

The July Atlantic in its handsome new dress opens with an article on Washington in Wartime, drawn from Ralph Waldo Emerson's Journal of a visit to that city in 1862, recording pen pictures and notes of conversations with Lincoln, Seward, Sumner, Chase, and others.

Patriotism is encouraged in the Designer for July by a "Flag Drill" and a "Fourth of July Party." Of interest pictorial and literary are the "Women Sculptors of the World's Fair" by Katherine L. Smith; "The Monarch Butterfly" by Effie Toms and "Rooms in a Summer Cottage" by Mary Kilsyth.

The St. Louis Exposition management wisely determined to recognize American boys by setting apart a special day for them at the Exposition. The day selected is July 5th and the program and arrangements for the day are in the hands of William C. Sprague, editor of The American Boy, of Detroit. It is expected that three thousand boys will take part in a unique program, consisting of orations, recitations, music, etc., by [illegible] various parts of the country, the reading of messages from President Roosevelt and the governors of all the states and territories, music by one of the Exposition bands and by Professor H. B. Roney, who will preside at the great organ—the largest in the world.

The pathetic story of hopeless love, of a love completely unselfed, though born amid homely surroundings among "the plain people," yet glorified by unselfish devotion, is well told by Harvey J. O'Higgins in "Larkin," in the July McClure's. It is a sad little tragedy, marked by genuine simplicity and strength, holding your interest and fairly tugging at your heart-strings from the first.

In consonance with the beauty of the season the July number of the Metropolitan Magazine appears in new and exquisitely beautiful habiliments—an entire new dress of type, a new make-up, new headpiece and tailpiece decorations and initials, a deeper and broader text-page, a more readable and attractive arrangement of the letter-press and a larger scheme of illustration throughout.

Arctic and Tropic Sunsets.

Sunsets in the tropics as I have witnessed them, although full of rich colorings, cannot vie with the color harmonies of the poles. Even the nights of the tropics, full as they are of beauty and richness of color, are not comparable with those of the arctic night, when the moon is of a brilliance inconceivable to southern eyes, and the sun, although hidden during the long night, makes its presence felt by an orange radiance at the southern horizon at noon, and on starlit nights the snow crystals give out a shimmering glow. The tropical blue sea has a charm which the green of the south Atlantic lacks entirely.—Frank Wilbert Stokes in Century.

The complete tale in the July Lippincott's magazine is by Lafayette McLaw, a young southern authoress, who has made a good deal of repute with former novels and who is a protegee of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. The story is well called the "Love affair of a Princess." It carries us back to France at the gallant day when Marie was young and Lord of Buckingham and the Prince of Wales went wooing in disguise. There is an exciting plot and a love is won at the point of the rapier.

The Century for July is primarily but by no means wholly a fiction number. The opening article by Sylvester Baxter describes the "New West Point" as it is to be with impressive drawings, done under the supervision of the architects, one of which printed in color is a frontispiece. This article will be a revelation to the public of a superb picturesque and monumental character of the construction now under way.

Some lose so much time complaining of lack of opportunities that they fail to make use of those they possess.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symtoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother sould be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25; large size, 75c. JOHN J. ORR.

Whalan for the visitors pitched a good game, walking 5 men and striking out 7. LaBelle, who played short with the home team, is one of the best all round players Tecumseh has ever had.

ROUND ABOUT US.

Two tramps stayed Thursday night in Jonathan Cannon's barn and to remunerate him for their nights lodging they stole a coat which they found in a buggy in the barn. They were overtaken in Petersburg and as they gave up the coat willingly they were allowed to go on without further trouble.—Adrian Telegram.

There was a severe storm last Saturday, the wind blowing a few limbs from the trees, and on West Main street a stand of bill boards was destroyed. In Adrian the storm was more severe, some of the sheds at the fair grounds being blown down, and all through the streets and over the lawns small limbs from trees were strewn.—Hudson Post.

While Imo, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Milan, was playing with the other little children on the lawn Sunday afternoon, a strange dog which had been around rather unnoticed sprang at the little one and bit her under the right eye making a wound about an inch long. The question now is, "Whose dog is it?" and "Is it mad?"—Ex.

During the electrical storm Wednesday afternoon I. H. Ames' farm residence, northwest of the city, was struck by lightning. One of Mr. Ames' children was rendered unconscious by the shock, but soon recovered. Other members of the Ames family, who were in the house at the time, were badly shaken up, but none of them recived any serious injury. The house was not badly damaged.—Hudson Gazette.

Sheriff Dull reports things very dull in his line at Monroe, not a single prisoner being in the county jail and no apparent prospects of new boarders.—Carleton Times.

Dull isn't very sharp as he could enforce the liquor law in Monroe and get into a lively business. He could go to various points in his bailiwick Sundays, and stop base ball playing and in other ways preserve order and he wouldn't find things so dull.—Adrian Press.

A few people attended a "Ten Nights in a Barroom" show in our city last winter. A few nights later the company played in Coldwater, where Mr. Lawrence, one of the actors, stole a diamond ring from the tray of a local jeweler. He was sent to jail and this week in court pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $175, the money being sent by a relative. He is said to be daft on diamonds.—Hudson Post.

A. O. Abbott as a fisherman some times makes a big haul, but when they're nicely cooked and served he cannot eat them all. On Saturday he caught a mess which was so very fine, a company of modest folks were invited to dine; among them was a factory man who dearly loves fresh fish, and when he joined the Abbott feast he simply cleaned the dish; whether 'twas ten, fifteen or more, no one could tally keep, but Abbott had no cold fish lunch before he went to sleep.—Hudson Post.

The automobile may be popular on some accounts, but it has its disadvantages. It is said that in Dowagic the machines are so numerous that a merchant has opened a store outside the city, and has immense trade from farmers who do not care to go to the city at the risk of frightened horses and possible runaways. Especially is this true of women who drive, and have been in the habit of going to town and doing the family marketing. Thus there are setbacks even in a progressive age.—Hudson Post.

Poultry owners and raisers will do well to keep a sharp lookout for their little flocks. One night recently Jacob Beck went to Saline and returning home before ten o'clock, and when he went to shut up his hens he found that some measly thief had taken advantage of his absence and carried away the entire flock of about 40 hens and his hen house was entirely empty. The thieves want to beware or they will be landed behind the prison bars where they ought to be.—Chelsea Standard.

Art Webster started out to go somewhere Wednesday morning and had gone as far as the railroad near the residence of Fred Jones when the freight came along and scared his horse which was a tall and fractious animal. The horse stuck his hind foot through the dashboard, then ran on three legs and went through a series of gymnastics that were well calculated to frighten a driver and resulted in making a derelict of the buggy. Art lost his pipe and tobacco and presence of mind, none of which have yet been found.—Brooklyn Exponent.

The approach of the "Fourth" brings up recollections of that event last year. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hallett and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith and others spent the night in an electric car half way between Jackson and Grass Lake. The electric power gave out and the cars stood still. Of course the night's lodging was cheap—only 5 cents—and they had a "very fine time" but not sufficiently fine so that they care to spend the 4th there this year. Moses Long, Robert Compton, and others after a long day in Jackson got left at Addison Junction and counted the seven miles of ties to Onsted.—Onsted News.

A good joke is related of one of our justices. It seems he was in a habit of allowing the use of his horse and rig to one of our physicians for country calls. One night, not long ago, he heard suspicious noises at his barn and later heard a rig drive over the side walk. Hurriedly dressing he went to the barn only to find the horse and rig gone and barn doors open. Thoroughly convinced that a robbery had occupied, he went down town, passing the physician's residence, when he thought to see if the doctor was home. He at length aroused the wife who informed him the doctor was out on a country call. The justice, realizing that the joke was on him, returned to his home and bed.—Blissfield Advance.

SIMPLE WAY TO CURE DYSPEPSIA

"Take a Mi-o-na tablet after each meal," says C. A. Wright.

With Mi-o-na there is no bother of guessing at the dose or using so many spoonsful or anything of that kind. This valuable remedy for the cure of dyspepsia is in tablet form and is the simplest way to cure the disease.

"Just take one Mi-o-na tablet after each meal," says Druggist C. A. Wright, "and in a few days you will find digestion improved, health returning and good, solid flesh added." This remarkable remedy is not a mere digestive; it mingles with the food and is readily assimilated by the system. It aids digestion and regulates and strengthens the whole digestive tract, so that after its use for a short time healthy and natural action is restored to the stomach and Mi-o-na may properly be termed a flesh-forming food, as when it is used every part of the body fills out with solid flesh and all the outlines become beautiful and symmetrical.

Mi-o-na is not an ordinary pepsin preparation to simply aid digestion, but it is a scientific remedy that gives health and strength, firm muscle and pure blood.

No one runs the slightest risk in purchasing it, for C. A. Wright will give his personal guarantee with every 50c. box he sells to refund the money if it does not cure.

Lake Shore Excursion to the Sea Shore.

July 19 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry., will have a popular, low rate excursion to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City and Sea Isle City, N. J., via Buffalo and the Lehigh Valley Ry. and Philadelphia. Tickets good 12 days including date of sale. Rate from Tecumseh $14.75 for round trip. Stop-overs permitted at Philadelphia, Niagara Falls and Lake Chautauqua returning. Consult agents in regard to trains, or write to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O.

LITERARY NOTES.

A complete conspectus of the political situation at the outset of the Presidential campaign is presented in the editorial pages of the July Review of Reviews. That publication seems likely to prove as indispensable this year as in previous campaigns. No fact of importance in State or national politics escapes it.

The most sensational feature any American magazine has captured for a long time is Thos. W. Lawson's "Frenzied Finance, the story of Amalgamated Copper" which begins in the July issue of Everybody's Magazine. Mr. Lawson was one of the organizers of that gigantic corporation and he knows exactly what happened to the millions that were lost through its manipulation. His first article is an announcement of distinctly dramatic interest and promises revelations of the highest importance to everyone in the country.

CHOKING CATARRH CURED

Your money back if Hyomei does not cure you.

"Use Hyomei and be cured of catarrh," is what all who have tried it for that disease say to their friends.

It is the easiest thing in the world to stop catarrh at its beginning if you use Hyomei. Just breathe the health-giving, balsamic air for a few minutes and your catarrh will be cured.

In this city and neighboring towns, there are hundreds who can testify to the remarkable powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh. Many of the staunchest friends of this remedy to-day began its use with little hope that they would be cured, but as C. A. Wright offered to refund the money if it did not cure, they decided to try it on that plan, and were soon restored to health.

Prevents Hay Fever.

All who are subject to hay fever or rose colds should use Hyomei daily for two or three weeks before the time of their annual attack and thus prevent it. The worst cases are quickly relieved and cured by Hyomei and Hyomei Balm.

Beautiful Thoughts

The sweet, pure breath of the babe is suggestive of innocence and health.

A mother's yearning for children is inseparable from a love of the beautiful, and it behooves every woman to bring the sweetest and best influence to bear on the subject of her maternity.

To relieve pain and make easy that period when life is born again, is popularly used. It is a liniment easily administered and for external use only.

Mother's Friend

Pregnant women should try this remedy, it being undeniably a friend to her during nature's term of suspense and anticipation.

Mother's Friend, if used throughout gestation, will soften the breasts, thereby preventing cracked and sore nipples. All muscles straining with the burden will relax, become supple and elastic from its continued application.

All fibres in the abdominal region will respond readily to the expanding cover containing the embryo if Mother's Friend is applied externally during pregnancy. Of all reliable druggists $1.00 per bottle. Write for free book on "Motherhood."

Veteran C. Austen, who lives with his son in the northeast section of Tecumseh, says: "I am more than thankful that Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice for they did me a great deal of good, in fact they stopped a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for years and also rendered the action of the kidney secretions normal which at times were too frequent and highly colored. I tried a number of so-called kidney cures but I did not receive any benefit before I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and I knew people who had used them and so I went to C. A. Wright's drug store and got them. To say I entertain a very favorable opinion of them as a kidney medicine is putting it mildly. They are all and more than they are represented to be."

An Essential.

Would Be Writer—What do you consider the most important qualification for a beginner in literature?

Old Hand—A small appetite.

The Sturdy Camel.

A camel has twice the carrying power of an ox. With an ordinary load of 400 pounds he can travel twelve or fourteen days without water, going forty miles a day. Camels are fit to work at five years old, but their strength begins to decline at twenty-five, although they usually live to forty. The Tartars have herds of these animals, often 1,000, belonging to one family. They were numerous in antiquity, for the patriarch Job had 3,000. The Timbuktu or Meharri breed is remarkable for speed and used only for couriers, going 800 miles in eight days with a meal of dates or grain at nightfall.

A Queer African Tribe.

The Suk tribe in Africa work their hair into a kind of bag shaped matted chignon stiffened with clay. This reaches almost to the waist. The Suks also wear a curious cape made of monkey skin rubbed soft. This cape is not worn for warmth or protection from the sun, but when it rains they put the cape over their heads to prevent the clay being washed out of their hair.

The Usual Way.

"I suppose Jinks is proud of his boy, but he hasn't taken the usual way of showing his friends that he is."

"What do you mean?"

"He hasn't told them that his son is so big for his age that he has to get a suit made for a fourteen-year-old when he is only eleven."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Little Outside Help.

"I understand that politician is a self made man."

"He is, entirely—except for a couple of coats of whitewash which he has received from investigating committees."—Syracuse Herald.

As riches and favor forsake a man we discover him to be a fool, but nobody could find it out in his prosperity.—Answers.

A Swinburne Story.

Algernon Charles Swinburne, the poet, tells how when a schoolboy at Eton he found himself once in the same railway carriage with the head master, Dr. Goodford, who was grimly reading a newspaper. Mr. Swinburne's father, who did not know the peculiar shrinking of august head masters from strange parents, interfered with the reading by asking Dr. Goodford's opinion of Algernon Charles. "Now," continues Mr. Swinburne, "as a matter of fact Dr. Goodford had never set eyes on me and probably did not even know of my existence; but, enraged, I suppose, at my father's rather unconventional interruption, which he no doubt considered a slight on his dignity, he glanced down at me with a scarlet face and said deliberately, 'Your boy, sir—your boy is one of the very worst in school!' and then intrenched himself once more behind his newspaper." It was no use for Algernon Charles to protest that Dr. Goodford did not even know him by sight. "Do you think," retorted Swinburne senior, "that I am going to take your word before that of your head master?" So there were no junketings for Swinburne junior in the Christmas holidays.

Parnell's Eyes.

"Anent your allusion to the color of Parnell's eyes," writes a lady correspondent, "many years ago a young girl passed a man on the staircase of the Railway hotel, Westport, Ireland. There was tragedy written all over him. So uncommon were the man's eyes that they made clear to the girl a phrase in Shakespeare she had never before understood, 'Eyes like carbuncles.' The girl joined her friends and said, 'I have seen a man with eyes the color of a solid mounted carbuncle.' The late Captain Boycott, who was one of the party, said, 'Then you have seen Parnell, for he is the only man I know with eyes that answer to that, and it is not likely to be he, for if he were in this neighborhood he would be at Newport House.' The party traveled to Dublin by the evening's mail train. At Mullingar Parnell got into the same carriage and sat opposite the writer, who wrote on the margin of the paper she was reading, 'The man I saw in the hotel,' and passed it to Captain Boycott, who returned it with the added words, 'It is Parnell.'"—London M. A. P.

A Welsh Legend.

In Wales there is a legend of Irish smugglers who arrived at Llanddona many years ago in a boat without rudder or oars. They were looked upon, according to the Irish custom of sending malefactors to a sea doom in this plight, as outlaws. However, they had been allowed to land, and a spring of water bursting forth in the sand at the place was taken as a sign of their right to a refuge. But they ill repaid the Welsh. The men lived by smuggling, the women by witchcraft. It was not possible to overcome the smugglers in a fray, for each carried about with him a black fly tied in a knot of his kerchief, and the moment the knot was undone the fly flew at the eyes of the opponents and blinded them. If the Llanddona witches attended a market and bid for anything no one ventured to bid against them.

Provisions From Trees.

There is a tree which grows in Sumatra, Algeria and China which is known as the vegetable tallow tree. From its fruit large quantities of oil and tallow are extracted, and the fruit is gathered in November or December, when all the leaves have fallen. Excellent candles are made from the berries of a tree which grows in some parts of South Africa and the Azores.

At Sierra Leone is found the cream fruit tree, the fruit of which is very agreeable in taste. In Ceylon there is the breadfruit tree, from which a food is made in the same way that we make bread. It is said to be equally good and nutritious. In South America we find the milk tree.

The Barebone Family.

The celebrated name of Praise God Barebone was borne by a member of the Cromwell parliament called together after the dissolution of the Long parliament in 1653. The royalists called the assembly "Barebones' parliament." At the time when General Monk was in London Barebone headed the mob that presented a petition to parliament against the recall of Charles II. Of the Barebone family there were three brothers, each of whom had a sentence for a name—Praise God Barebone, Christ-came-into-the-world-to-save Barebone and If-Christ-had-not-died-thou-hadst-been-damned Barebone.

Expert Sandwich Cutters.

"Men who cut sandwiches must have just as much knack and experience in the business as men who open oysters on the river boats," said a New York man who on one occasion supplied 75,000 sandwiches at two days' notice. "It took seven men to do that job in the time allowed," he said, "and they hadn't any time to spare at that. I paid them by the hundred, the man who did the most work getting the most pay. When they were all through, there weren't enough scraps of bread and meat to fill a tin pail. That is the secret of cutting sandwiches—to avoid waste."

Sisterly Devotion.

The beautiful Margaret of Navarre was devoted to her brother, Francis I. When he was apparently dying at Madrid, she found her way to him through privation and danger and succeeded in effecting his deliverance. When he was ill at a distance from her, she went every day and sat down on a stone in the middle of the road to catch the first glimpse of a messenger afar off. And she said:

"Ah, whoever shall come to announce the recovery of the king, my brother, though he be tired, jaded, soiled, disheveled, I will kiss him and embrace him as though he were the finest gentleman in the kingdom."

When he died she seemed literally heartbroken, and she did not long survive him.

Beware of Lockjaw.

Lansing, Mich., July 1.—Twenty-nine deaths from lockjaw as a result of accidents with fireworks on the Fourth of July were recorded last year. There may have been a few more, but they were not identified as such by the vital statistics division of the secretary of state's office, where certificates of death are received. Secretary Baker of the state board of health characterizes lockjaw as about the most miserable manner of death imaginable. Anent this theme the state board of health wishes to call the attention of the public to the fact that there is a statute to prohibit the sale or giving to children under 13 years of age of any cartridge or pistol, gun or other mechanical contrivance for the discharge of the same.

School Houses Blown Down.

Hastings, Mich., July 1.—Six people are injured, two fatally, as the result of a cyclone which swept through this county. The windstorm cut its way through a path about forty rods in width, demolishing the buildings, timber and crops in its path. Those injured were in the Bowler schoolhouse when the storm reached it. The school was about to be dismissed for the day. As the structure careened there was a panic among the students, who made a stampede for the door. Many of them did not escape before the building collapsed. Several crawled out of the wreckage more or less seriously hurt.

Two Storms In One Day.

Three Rivers, Mich., July 1.—A terrific storm of thunder, lightning, rain, wind and hail struck this city at noon Thursday. The hail nearly covered the ground in some places. Much garden truck was badly damaged. It is reported that the storm was more severe northwest of the city. Another storm about 4 o'clock, almost as bad, caught a big crowd at the fair grounds a mile north of the city, witnessing a ball game between the east and west side business men. The game was finished in the rain. Many telephones were burned out in the city.

Deaf Mute Killed by a Train.

Mt. Morris, Mich., July 1.—A deaf mute, thought to be Milton Leach of Avondale, Mich., was struck and instantly killed by a Pere Marquette work train yesterday.

NO MEDIATION.

Russians Say They Will Not Entertain Overtures.

St. Petersburg, July 2.—Dispatches from Washington, saying that inquiries made by the United States government as to the possibility of mediation, show that neither Russia or Japan is in the humor to entertain overtures, but that the state department is ready to offer its services in the interests of mediation whenever they may be acceptable, are attracting considerable attention in government and diplomatic circles, but the optimistic opinions attributed to official circles at Washington regarding the early opening of friendly offices are not shared here.

On the contrary, wherever inquiries have been made the opinion has been unanimous that there is absolutely nothing in the present situation so far as Russia is concerned on which to base an early termination of the war and that the question of peace will be considered only when direct proposals have been made by Japan. Russia has announced her determination not to tolerate mediation, and this determination seems to be rather strengthened than shaken by the reverses to her arms.

"There can be no mediation," the Associated Press was emphatically informed, "and any propositions looking to peace must come from Japan. The United States government might become the medium through which proposals would be submitted for our consideration, and of course any such proposals would be considered, but Russia is not seeking good offices, and neither the United States nor any other power will be asked to act as mediator."

A prominent ambassador, who enjoys close relations with the Russian government, considered the prospect of mediation at present to be so remote as to be not worthy of discussion, saying he could appreciate the praiseworthy intentions of any effort to bring about peace, which was earnestly desired by all the powers, but that he could see nothing in the situation offering the slightest hope in that direction at present.

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness Is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibres, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.

To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Fretfulness, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.

They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity.

Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"My husband had been sick for weeks, could not sit up to have his bed made. With all the medical help we could get he continued to grow worse. He could neither sleep or eat. Our baby girl was sent away, and all callers barred, because he could not stand a bit of talking. I read of a case of nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. We began giving it to him, and in a few days he was able to be dressed. From that time he steadily improved. Nervine saved his life."—MRS. A. G. HASKIN, Freeville, N. Y.

DEMOCRATIC HOSTS

Gathering at St. Louis For the Convention Next Week.

St. Louis, July 2.—Two distinct lines of operation have developed in the preliminary skirmishing of the Democratic national convention. One is a scheme to rush the nomination of Judge Parker on the first or second ballot, and the other is to scatter the vote, prevent an early nomination with a view of naming Cleveland or Gorman. The friends of Gorman and Cleveland are working to hold the convention for several ballots in the hope that their candidate would be named. The Gorman men are not parties to the Cleveland movement, nor are the Cleveland advocates combining with Gorman's friends. There is no alliance, but it is to the interests of both that the Parker strength be disintegrated as soon as possible.

There are a few men here—men of the old Cleveland guard—who are watching every point and who are in close communication with Cleveland's supporters. They are using the race issue on the southern men, and with all delegates they use the argument that Cleveland is the only man that the Democrats can elect.

Gorman's position is stated to be that he will not enter into any combination to prevent the nomination of Parker unless it means his own selection. Around Gorman is gathered the Maryland, West Virginia, District of Columbia delegations and some from other states, with a bare possibility of securing New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

It seems now that the control of party affairs will pass to the east, no matter who may be the candidate or what may be the platform. Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska will give way under the changed conditions to New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey and New England.

Strong assurances are given that William J. Bryan will not bolt.

Negro Population of U. S.

Washington, July 2.—The census bureau has just issued the final bulletin on the negro population of the United States, which shows a total of 8,840,789. The report indicates that between 11 and 16 per cent of the negro population have, or are believed to have, some degree of white blood. The center of the negro population is in DeKalb county, Alabama, about four miles from the western boundary of Georgia. There are 3,992,337 negroes in the United States engaged in gainful occupations. Their death rate approximates 30 per cent, while that of whites under the same calculation is 17 per cent.

Investigating Slocum Disaster.

New York, July 2.—Capt. John O. Wade, whose tug, the Wade, was the first vessel to reach the burning General Slocum, and who saved scores of lives by his prompt action, was the first witness examined by the federal grand jury. Miss Lillie McKibbon, the telephone girl of North Brother island, who left her wires and saved half a dozen women and children, followed. The witnesses summoned included a number of members of the Slocum's crew and Rev. John C. Schults, a Lutheran pastor, who comes annually from his charge in Pennsylvania to attend the Sixth Street Lutheran church excursion.

Upton, a society leader and clubman, and his wife are dead, and five others, including Llewellyn Christian, father of Mrs. Upton, are painfully burned. Mr. Christian, who is prominent in the flour milling business, was entertaining a party on his launch when, from some unknown cause, the explosion occurred.

GRATEFUL FILIPINOS.

Honorary Board of Philippine Commission in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 2.—Detroit extended a most hearty welcome Friday to the honorary board of Filipino commissioners who are here for a two days' visit. The party arrived in the city early in the morning from Cleveland in charge of the local committee, headed by Mayor Maybury. The reception and program of entertainment which the city extended to the distinguished party has never been excelled in point of hospitality and sincerity, and members of the commission did not hesitate to express their gratitude for the consideration shown them.

The Filipinos number about fifty and is composed of the most representative men of the Philippine islands. In the party are progressive merchants, jurists, statesmen and men of science. A large number of the party speak excellent English and are most pleasing in personality. In stature they are generally small, portraying more of the type of the native Spaniard than natives of the Philippines. There is not one in the entire party who has not become Americanized, both in manners and customs. They are extremely polite and courteous to all alike.

The commission is under the direct charge of Hon. A. W. Ferguson, executive secretary of the Philippine islands.

Auto Knocked Woman Under Car.

Detroit, Mich., July 2.—Mrs. Alberta E. Tompkins, widow of the late Hulbert Tompkins and proprietor of a boarding house at 59 Ledyard street, was struck by an automobile and thrown under a street car at Grand River avenue and High street, receiving injuries from which she died after being taken to Grace hospital.

Mrs. Tompkins was returning from a visit to a friend living on Grand River avenue and crossed that avenue where High street intersects. She had taken only a few steps over the pavement when an automobile whirred along and mowed her down. She was thrown directly in front of an eastbound double truck Jefferson avenue car. Witnesses of the accident declare the operator of the automobile did not even slow up to see what damage his machine had done.

Peninsular Mfg. Plant Sold.

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 2.—E. A. Holden of Lansing bought the Peninsular Manufacturing Co.'s plant at auction Friday, paying $6,300 for the real estate, machinery, material and accounts up to Feb. 24. He represented two-thirds of the claims against the company, having originally notes aggregating $10,000 and having acquired the other claims by purchase. The business will be continued. The inventory made out by John R. Minor, the receiver, amounts to $24,000, but there are several thousand dollars of outstanding accounts contracted since Feb. 24, so the apparent loss will be in a measure made up.

Poisoning Suspected.

Detroit, July 2.—Evidences of arsenical poisoning have been found by County Chemist John E. Clark in connection with the sudden death of Mrs George Jackson, whose husband is now lodged at police headquarters on suspicion of trying to put her out of the way. Capt. James McDonnell of the detective bureau declares he will ask for a warrant against Jackson.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

Your Attention, Please!

It becomes my duty to ask all who are indebted to me to call and settle (cash or negotiable paper) immediately.

About nine months ago, I changed from a credit business to a STRICTLY CASH BASIS. My reasons for so doing were many. The principal one was, I could sell goods for a smaller rate of profit, as there would be no loss from poor accounts, etc.

Now, having put it to the test, I find my expectations fully realized. Trade with me is good and constantly getting better. The public is slowly but surely learning that and that it's the only satisfactory way of doing business—better for you—better for all concerned.

At the time of closing my books and going on a cash basis, there was, and still is, a very large number of accounts on my books. Some have been paid, but there are too many that remain unpaid.

I need the money. If you have an account on my books, be it small or large, an immediate settlement is requested. If you do not come in, I will certainly have to call on you.

Thanking you for your patronage, and trusting that by square dealing, good goods, one cash price to all, (and that price less than credit dealers' prices), to deserve a share of your trade, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,

BIG BATTLE REPORTED

Severe Fighting Twenty-Five Miles From Liao Yang.

WOUNDED BEING BROUGHT IN

Field Marshal Oyama, Generals Kodama and Fukushima and Numerous Staff Have Left Tokio For the Front.

London, July 7.—The Liao Yang correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, in a dispatch dated July 7, at 1 a. m. says:

"A battle is proceeding twenty-five miles from here.

"Numbers of wounded are being brought in from the mountains.

"Evidently the engagement is a severe one.

"It is believed that the Japanese are continuing their advance with the object of cutting off Mukden."

General Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, July 7.—On July 4 two battalions of Russians attempted to break through the Japanese outposts at the northern entrance of Mo Tien Lien pass. Before daylight they surrounded an outpost of eighty men at the foot of a hill and charged the trench above. A bloody encounter with bayonets, lasting a quarter of an hour, ensued. The Russians attacked the trench three times, but were driven up the valley by a Japanese reinforcement, leaving many dead and wounded. An observer saw fifty lying in front of the trench.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—The Peterbourgsky Listok last evening published a dispatch from Liao Yang announcing that an engagement has occurred at Tatche Kiao, during which Russian cavalry under Gen. Samsonoff supported by a battery of horse artillery, dislodged a Japanese force from the heights in face of a heavy machine gun and musketry fire. The Russians, it added, pursued the Japanese and inflicted heavy loss upon them.

Liao Yang, July 7.—Reports have been received here of the appearance of Japanese outposts on the roads leading to Mukden. A company of Japanese infantry scouts was seen near Liao Ti Shan.

On the other hand, the Japanese have withdrawn from the passes taken June 26 and June 27 and their advance from Lan Shan Wwan has ceased.

The Russian eastern corps has moved forward to Khawan (Ho Syan) and Hozamen, which the Russians had evacuated, and reoccupied.

The tactics of the Japanese are difficult to understand. They seem to be trying to enter by all doors. Probably the armies commanded by Generals Kuroki and Oku are combining to operate against Tatche Kiao and Hai Cheng, in order to gain possession of the railroad and enable them to advance on Liao Yang.

Chefoo, July 7.—A party of refugees arriving today from Port Arthur say that Rear Admiral Prince Outomsky of the battleship Peresviet has succeeded Rear Admiral Withoft as commander of the Russian naval forces at that place. According to Chinese reports, the workshops at Port Arthur are busily engaged in cutting brass piping for ammunition.

Tokio, July 7.—Field Marshal Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese field forces, accompanied by Generals Kodama and Fukushima and a numerous staff, departed for the front today. There was a remarkable farewell demonstration. Sir Claude Macdonald, the British minister, accompanied by Lady Macdonald, entered Gen. Oyama's private car. American Minister Griscom was not present, the United States being officially represented by Col. Wood and Secretaries Miller and Laughlin.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 7.—Mrs. Isaac Eagle died in a hospital here from the effects of a bullet wound in the head, inflicted by her husband. The husband raves frantically in a cell at the county jail.

INSURANCE IN MICHIGAN.

Commissioner Barry Makes His Yearly Report.

Lansing, Mich., July 7.—The completed report covering the fire and marine insurance business transacted in Michigan last year will be delivered by by the state printer this week. This report shows that during the year eight stock fire companies were admitted to Michigan, while three such companies withdrew from the state. Nine stock companies have been admitted since Jan. 1, 1904, and one, the Firemen's of Baltimore, which was placed in the hands of a receiver as the result of the Baltimore conflagration, has ceased doing business in this state. On June 15, 1904, there were 156 fire companies doing business in Michigan. Of this total two were Michigan companies, 120 were companies of foreign states, and 34 companies of foreign countries. The above total includes nine mutual companies of other states.

There are now 97 mutual companies organized under Michigan statutes transacting business.

B. Y. P. U. A. Convention.

Detroit, Mich., July 7.—Three thousand delegates to the fourteenth annual international convention of the B. Y. P. U. A. are here. Prominent among these early arrivals are John H. Chapman, who has been president of the society ever since its organization, thirteen years ago; Dr. A. C. Dixon, pastor of the Ruggles Street Baptist church of Boston; Rev. John McNeil of Winnipeg; Dr. W. H. Geistweit, editor of the Baptist Union, and Miss Lorilla E. Bushnell of Chicago, editor of the Junior Baptist Union.

Would-Be Suicide Is Insane.

Owosso, Mich., July 7.—William Mears, the Hazelton township young man who attempted suicide by cutting his head with an ax because he had quarreled with his sweetheart, Miss Maggie Noe, has been removed to the county jail. He will recover from his wounds, but is hopelessly insane from brooding over his troubles and as soon as he can be moved will be taken to the asylum at Pontiac.

Chicago Garment Workers Strike.

Chicago, July 7.—Two strikes, affecting 500 persons, were called Wednesday as the forerunners of a general walkout of the 2,800 members of the ladies' Garment Workers' union employed throughout Chicago. Unless the employers agree to some concessions the officials of the union declare every member of their organization will quit work.

Freight Office Robbed.

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 7.—Burglars visited the freight office of the Ann Arbor railroad and made off with $2,135 that was in the safe. They also took some papers, but found they were valueless and dropped them on the ground a short distance from the office. The safe was unlocked, in accordance with the railroad custom, to prevent its being blown open.

Green Brakeman Causes a Wreck.

Baldwin, Mich., July 7.—A green brakeman, who first closed and then opened a switch, caused a smashup on the Pere Marquette here, by which passenger engine 31, with a train attached, ran into and was completely telescoped by a big freight engine. Aside from a few bruises and sprains there were no fatalities.

Alleged Forger Captured.

St. Louis, July 7.—Robert B. Taylor, who is said to have been an employe of the Ceneral National bank of New York for thirty years, is a prisoner of the United States secret service operatives in St. Louis on the charge of passing forged national bank notes of the institution in which he was a clerk.

CASH OR WHISKERS.

Robbers Cut Telephone Wires and Rob House Near Palmyra.

Adrian, Mich., July 7.—After cutting the telephone wires connecting the house of Henry Angell, a one-legged veteran of the civil war, living near Palmyra, four miles southeast of here, with the outside world, two men bound and gagged the old man and his niece, Annette Angell, who had been keeping house for him, and robbed them of several hundred dollars in cash.

The robbers forced Angell and the girl to tell where their savings were secreted by threatening to burn off the old man's whiskers and set the house on fire. Angell is a retired gunsmith and had a number of fine firearms in the house. The robbers took these along with them, in fact, left nothing that could be of the least value to them. Officers from this city are working on the case and the sheriff has given orders to arrest every tramp within a radius of twenty-five miles of the scene of the robbery.

JACKSON'S GREAT DAY

Republicans Again Gather Under the Oaks.

FAIRBANKS, HAY AND CANNON

Notable Reunion Fremont Voters and Thousands of Later Day Republicans on the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Birth of the Party.

Jackson, Mich., July 7.—Five thousand people assembled in Loomis park to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the Republican party, "under the oaks" at Jackson on July 6, 1854. It was here that the first state convention under the name of "Republican" was held. Among the eminent speakers at yesterday's celebration were Secretary of State John Hay, eminently fitted to speak on this occasion, not only through his intimate connection with the Republican party's history, but also because of his having been a private secretary to Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican president. Other distinguished guests were Speaker Cannon of the national house of representatives, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, vice-presidential candidate, and United States Senators Alger and Burrows of Michigan. The city was hung with bunting, and band concerts on the main streets preceded the arrival of Secretary Hay and Senator Fairbanks, with a company of prominent Republicans on a special train from Detroit. Speaker Cannon arrived Tuesday.

The meeting was held under the shadow of young oak trees, which well duplicate, in scene at least, the proceedings of 1854. The Fremont voters had the front seats, occupying a reservation shut in by a railing valenced by muslin drapery in the national colors. Grand Army uniforms, crutches and silvered locks were conspicuous here, and the rapt attention of these "charter" Republicans was notable.

The program of the day opened at sunrise, with an artillery salute. At 9 o'clock a band concert near the Otsego hotel was rendered in compliment to the visitors, including those who had attended the convention fifty years ago and a more numerous attendance of the "Fremont voters" of 1856.

The exercises of the forenoon began shortly before 11 o'clock at Loomis park, which is near the location of the original oak grove of 1854. The grove has disappeared and in its place are city streets and habitations.

James O'Donnell Presided.

James O'Donnell was the presiding officer. Rt. Rev. George D. Gillespie, bishop of western Michigan, delivered the invocation; Mayor William W. Todd made an address of welcome, to which Governor Bliss responded. Attorney General Charles A. Blair followed with an oration, historical in character; the forenoon session closed with a fine address by Hon. Thomas J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids.

Congressman Townsend and the members of the committee were active in honor of the invited guests, who were publicly received at the Otsego hotel at the close of the ceremonies of the forenoon.

The attendance was not up to expectations, but was large and every part of the state was represented.

On the platform were Speaker Cannon, Senator Fairbanks, Secretary Hay, Governor Bliss, ex-Governor Rich, Senators Alger and Burrows Gen. A. C. Spaulding, Congressmen Gardner, Hamilton, Loud, William Alden Smith, Sam W. Smith and Townsend, Gubernatorial Candidate Fred Warner, Homer Warren and George B. Horton.

The speakers in the forenoon occupied more time than was anticipated and it was late when the session took a recess. The occasion was a holiday for photographers, who took many pictures of the scenes. The morning orator most signally received was Attorney General Blair.

A letter received from D. B. Knight Kirkwood, Mo., claimed the honor of suggesting the name Republican. "This man D. B. Knight struck daylight that time," said Chairman O'Donnell. The pun delighted Speaker Cannon. Mayor Todd, who delivered the address of welcome, is a Democrat, and he did nicely, representing the city and disclaiming all partisanship on this occasion.

Patriots of Fifty Years Ago.

Chairman James O'Donnell, in calling the gathering to order, said in part:

"You patriots of fifty years ago who labored and voted for Fremont were the pathfinders—the men who blazed the way to the glorious triumph in 1860. You pointed freedom to the kindly gaze of a hopeless race.

"In the twelve presidential campaigns since 1854, nine of them were won by the Republican party, and today its doctrines are stronger in the minds of men than ever before.

"National growth, progress and development have marked Republican control. Much of the wealth and power of the nation can be credited to the policies of the party whose semi-centennial we here celebrate. Reviewing the past, this certainly is the day of jubilee. We have incorporated the grand doctrines of the party, "Free men, free speech," into law. The generation today is grateful to you men who organized this party, for, surely 'The name of the Republican party stands over every door where a righteous cause was born.'

"We march beneath the banner of the stars—every star glistening with hope for mankind. We stand in the splendor of the years of progress and prosperity, and will consecrate our country to even greater usefulness and glory."

Governor Bliss, in responding to the address of welcome of Mr. Todd, said in part:

"Standing upon this historic ground, on the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the Republican party, one is sobered as he contemplates the history which has been written as a consequence of the famous day 'under the oaks' when the men of Michigan, foreswearing their former partisan allegiance, boldly challenged the enemy who threatened freedom and national unity, resolving to be known as Republicans until the contest was ended. As Republicans and as good citizens we take honest pride in this great organization of men that from Lincoln to Roosevelt has not faltered in its duty to the nation, that in good and in evil times has rallied to the flag, undismayed by dangers, and has 'kept step to the music of the Union.'

"It is a great pleasure on this homecoming day, in behalf of the state, to welcome to this historic city the distinguished men within its gates today, and extend to them the hospitable greetings of two and a half millions of happy, contented and prosperous people. To the veteran who has fought the fight, Michigan offers the laurel, and to the youth who ventures this year on his first campaign, a godspeed. May fifty years hence find him as true as the fathers we have with us today."

Thomas J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids was introduced as one of the participants in the original "Under the Oaks" convention.

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

First Day Indicates Nomination of Parker.

MICHIGAN IS FOR NEW YORK MAN

Campau Wins His Fight In the Michigan Delegation — Heavy Battles Fought Out In the Committees on Rules and Resolutions.

St. Louis, July 7.—The Democratic national convention met Wednesday, listened to an extended speech from Representative John Sharp Williams, its temporary chairman, appointed the committees necessary to perfect a permanent organization, and adjourned. In a session lasting two hours and fifty minutes one striking incident overshadowed all other proceedings. That was the enthusiastic and prolonged cheering which greeted the name of Grover Cleveland. While the outburst which greeted the name of the former Democratic president before its last syllable had fallen from the lips of the temporary chairman was noteworthy in itself, it was magnified by contrast with the greetings accorded the actual persons of men who stood for all that has been opposed to Mr. Cleveland within the party during the last eight years.

Listening attentively to the Democratic doctrine laid down by Mr. Williams, the conservatives found occasion for the first demonstration when reference was made to the record of former President Cleveland. All the shackled party [illegible] which had lain dormant through two national campaigns, was released as by the touch of a trigger. The name of Cleveland was echoed from a thousand throats. Hats, handkerchiefs, fans and arms were waved, delegates and spectators stood on their chairs and the last semblance of order was turned into confusion, which convention officials were powerless to subdue.

It is said that Senator Bailey has declined to serve as permanent chairman and has asked the committee to reconsider its decision.

Convention Called to Order.

Exactly at noon Chairman J. K. Jones of the national committee called the convention to order. His appearance on the platform and the sound of his gavel brought forth a cheer from the floor and galleries.

Chairman Jones demanded that the convention be in order and at once directed the secretary to read the call for the convention.

Applause followed the reading of the call. After quiet was restored Rev John F. Cannon, pastor of the Grand Avenue Baptist church of St. Louis, said the opening prayer. During the invocation the convention stood.

Chairman Jones announced that John S. Williams had been selected temporary chairman, C. A. Walsh temporary secretary, and John I. Martin temporary sergeant-at-arms.

Chairman Jones introduced temporary Chairman Williams to the convention. Mr. Williams' address was greeted with enthusiasm.

Points In Williams' Address.

The following were the principal points in Mr. Williams' speech:

Democracy stands for a revised tariff, cutting away support from protected trusts.

Democrats started and won the first anti-trust suits.

Democrats first put the gold standard into effect.

Democrats favor honest government and economical administration.

Democrats want generous reciprocity with Canada.

Denounces Roosevelt's "reckless utterances."

Democrats will build up merchant marine without subsidy.

Rights of labor and capital will be equitably preserved.

Will build Panama canal.

Denounces attempt to again "reconstruct" southern states by cutting down representation.

A great part of Williams' speech was delivered under great difficulties for the speaker and those of his hearers who were supposed to be most directly interested in his remarks. The aisles leading past the delegates were packed by dense throng, who kept up a constant hum of conversation that smothered Williams' voice.

As he finished, after speaking for one hour and forty minutes, the band struck up a medley of patriotic airs the stirring strains of Dixie calling forth the wild cheers that never fail to follow the song when or where rendered.

The Michigan Delegation.

The Michigan delegation, by vote of 17 to 11, instructed Daniel J. Campau to cast a solid vote on first ballot for Alton B. Parker. The seventeen who voted for Parker are: Daniel J. Campau, George D. Jackson, John Power, Edwin Henderson, Francis F. Palms, Elmer R. Labadie, Herbert B. Hathaway, Fred Collins, Peter L. Meloy L. E. Howlett, Frank W. Hubbard, L. McCabe, Edward Perriso, Graham, Femsey, Alpern and Ryan. Those for Hearst were: Lewis G. Stevenson, John B. Shipman, A. C. Himebaugh William F. McKnight, Frank O. Caffney, Alva W. Nichols. George B. McClellan got the votes of William O. Vaneck, A. O. White and William B. Baum. Thomas E. Barkworth voted for Judge Gray. Stanley E. Parkill voted for Charles A. Towne.

Thomas E. Barkworth defeated Ed Henderson by 14 to 11 for a place on the committee on resolutions; for the credentials committee George D. Jackson was named; for permanent organization committee Peter T. Meloy; for order of business committee, Edward Ryan; for committee to notify nominee for president, Fred Collins; and for committee to notify nominee for vice-president, James W. Dempsey.

British Capture Tibetan Fort.

Gyang Tse, Thibet, July 7.—The jong, or fort, held by 7,000 Thibetans, was captured by a mere handful of British and Indian soldiers. The excitement of the long day culminated in the scaling of a breach in the wall by Lieut. Grant, who was followed by a mixed company of Gurkas and Fusiliers. They climbed the cleft in the rock in the face of a hail of fire and a fusillade of stones, which were hurled on their heads by the frantic Thibetans. A stone struck Lieut. Grant, sweeping him off his feet, but he recovered himself and was the first man over the breach. At dusk the battle was over and the British held the jong, which dominates the town and the monastery beyond.

Negro Brutes Captured.

Philadelphia, July 7.—Two of the negroes implicated in the assault and robbery of Mrs. Elsie T. Biddle, wife of Charles Biddle, a farmer living on the Rancocas road near Burlington, N. J., are now under arrest, and the authorities of this city and Burlington county, New Jersey, hope to have the others within a few hours. William Jones of Philadelphia, one of the two negroes who was arrested in Burlington, was identified by Mrs. Biddle as one of her assailants, but he says that he is innocent. The second arrest was made by Philadelphia detectives. This prisoner is William Austin. He confessed to his part in the outrage and claims there were four men in the affair. Mrs. Biddle says there were only three. Aaron Timbers of Burlington, the leader of the gang, is still at large.

Flood Threatens Topeka, Kan.

Topeka, Kan., July 7.—The Kaw river broke out of its banks late last night and joined with Soldier Fork. A portion of North Topeka is flooded. The stream is rising at the rate of three inches an hour and will keep it up all night. Every conceivable vehicle is being used by the North Topeka people in transporting their goods to the south side, and North Topeka is being deserted as fast as possible. Refugees are being quartered in the state house and other public buildings. Rises are reported in all tributaries up stream.

Northern Peninsula Masons.

Calumet, Mich., July 7.—Between 300 and 400 Knights Templar and their ladies are in the city attending the fifth annual convention of northern Michigan lodges. A. T. Street of Montrose commandery welcomed the visitors for the local lodge at the opening session at the new Light Guards' armory. James MacNaughton, superintendent of the Calumet & Hecla mines, delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the city. Norman W. Haire of Ironwood, a member of Gogebic commandery, responded for the visitors.

John D. Has Another Generous Streak.

Newark, O., July 7.—John D. Rockefeller has given Denison Baptist university $100,000. This sum is additional to the $250,000 received some time ago.

Big Cut In Wages.

Youngstown, O., July 7.—The American Steel & Hoop Co. has cut the wages of all the steel men employed in its Girard plant and the upper and lower plants in Youngstown, ranging from 20 to 60 per cent. The puddlers are not affected. The movement is said to be against the Amalgamated association and the situation is so serious that John Pierce, assistant to the president, and Vice-President Fitzgerald of this district are investigating.

The Cheltenham Insured For $300,000.

London, July 7.—The British steamer Cheltenham, which was captured by the Russians and is now awaiting trial by a prize court at Vladivostok, was insured against capture in the sum of $300,000. She was carrying a cargo of rails valued at $30,000. The Times this morning in a news article says there is no doubt the Cheltenham was trying to run in with contraband of war.

More Deportations From Telluride.

Telluride, Col., July 7.—Five unionists were deported from Telluride by City Marshal Guyer and Deputy Sheriff Runnels. [illegible]te Thomas Nelson, president of the local miners' union, was taken by two officers while walking on the street, not being allowed to arrange his business affairs or bid adieu to his family. The men were escorted to the edge of town and told not to return.

Negro Party Indorses "Teddy."

St. Louis, July 7.—After nominating two persons for president of the United States, both of whom declined to accept, the convention of the National Liberty party, an organization of negroes, in session here, decided to indorse the candidacy of President Roosevelt, declaring that he is "the true friend of the negro," and that the latter's interests will be safe in his hands.

McGarry Has No Snap.

Ionia, Mich., July 7.—Warden Fuller and other officials of the Ionia prison resent the intimation in a Detroit paper that Thomas F. McGarry, the Grand Rapids attorney sent here for complicity in the water deal, is being shown favoritism, and that he has a soft snap. When a reporter visited the prison yard McGarry was found hard at work upon the large lawn inside the walls pushing a lawn mower, and his hands showed the effect of the ten weeks of work he has had. He has entire charge of the flower beds and lawns inside the walls, and has one assistant in caring for them, so that it can be seen that his time is well taken up.

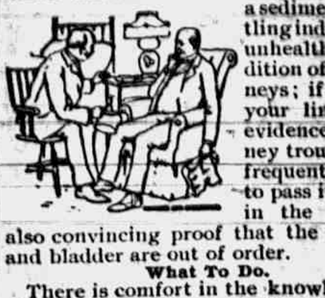
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.



What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Salad Days.

Quite the simplest interpretation of the trite phrase "salad days" refers it simply to the fresh green quality and character of such vegetables as are grown for salad and which may be taken as typical of the raw inexperience of youth. Probably it was used in this connection by Shakespeare in "Antony and Cleopatra:"

My salad days,
When I was green in judgment.

Another and very different derivation links the expression with salle, or saddle, the block upon which in olden days schoolboys were birched. In this form the words are allied to the "pen'orth of salad oil," for which, on All Fools' days, boys were sent to the saddler's shop, where they often met with a warm reception.

It is just possible that the term had some reference to the "Saladine-tenth," a tax imposed by Pope Innocent III. to provide funds from England and France for the crusade led by Richard I., but this seems needlessly farfetched.

A Round of Pleasure.

The philanthropic lady sat in the midst of the McFadden family, expostulating with them in a pained voice on the frequency with which they chased "the festive can" around the corner to the nearest liquor saloon.

"You ought to provide some kind of wholesome amusement for your family," said the philanthropic lady sternly to the abashed McFadden. "You should do something to lighten the burden of living. Every life needs a little sunshine in it."

"Oh, missus," spoke up Miss McFadden, aged thirteen, eagerly, "we has plenty of fun. There's always a fight or somethin' entertainin' goin' on in the tinimint. Why, oney last week a gentleman cut a lady's throat and drug her past our door."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Sensational Will Case.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 7.—At the next term of the circuit court of this county there will come to trial one of the most important and probably as sensational a will case as has ever been tried in this state, and it will be of special interest to the Catholics of Michigan. It will be in the form of an attempt to break the will of Mrs. Mary McNamara, who died last winter and who left $40,000 to the church and to church institutions. The charge is made that she was mentally incompetent when the will was made and that she was unduly influenced by Bishop Henry Joseph Richter and by Rev Joseph Benning.

Fatal Cave-In.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 7.—A cave in at the Church street sewer buried four Italian workmen, Robel Canda, George Leniag, Tony Gosena and Jake Gano, all of Detroit. Canda was dead when taken out, and the others, who were buried about twenty minutes, were more or less injured. The trench being dug for the sewer is about thirty feet deep at the point of the cave in. The men were working on a staging about twelve feet below the surface

I had spells with my heart when it would beat so hard and then I would faint away. I received a sample bottle of Zoa Phora, which I took according to directions, and thought it was just what I needed, so I threw the doctor's medicine away and got a large bottle of Zoa Phora. Studying on the Cars.

"We have something of a reputation out west for hustling," said a business man from Kansas City, "but I never saw such persons as New Yorkers, both men and women, for working on the trolley cars, the elevated and the ferryboats. I wonder the companies don't find some plan for renting deskroom in public conveyances. It is customary to see men reading on the cars everywhere, but you have to come to New York to find half the passengers on a car correcting typewritten manuscript, humming over music scores, casting up accounts in little memorandum books or on the back of an envelope and poring over shorthand lessons. Persons studying foreign languages read them aloud on the cars, and nobody appears to pay any attention to them except visitors from other cities, who are not accustomed to see such ostentatious industry at home. They don't do that even in studious Boston. I have noticed that advertisements for lost manuscripts and notebooks constantly appear in the newspapers."—New York Times.

Distance Lends Enchantment.

In one of Mr. Chase's classes in painting was a young chap who could not paint pictures much better than he could save money, and the allowance given to him by his father was very often gone before he knew it. One day Mr. Chase was talking to the class on the subject of perspective, and this particular student did not appear to get the idea very clearly. To make it plain Mr. Chase went back to the rudiments to get a good start.

"You understand," he said, "that the farther you get away from any object the smaller it appears?"

The young fellow shook his head.

"No," he replied doubtfully, "I'm not so sure about that."

Mr. Chase was provoked and not a little surprised at such ignorance and said so.

"It's all right as to some things," responded the student, "but not all. Now, there's a ten dollar bill. The farther I get away from that the bigger it appears."

Old Clothes Ornaments.

The rich are not unthrifty. That probably explains why they are rich. You have been told of the wealthy wives in our New York Faubourg St. Germain who after wearing a gown twice or three times at most sell it to a certain Sixth avenue dealer in secondhand clothes for about one-sixth of its original cost. Women in moderate circumstances who know this dealer keep themselves in finest regalia at a reasonable outlay. Rich men are more particular and less thrifty than rich women. They despise the "ole clo's" man and prefer to hand down their cast offs to servants to do with as seemeth good to them. But many a parlor ornament in swell houses is bought with old clothes; many a new pot or kettle in my lady's kitchen is the result of barter with the peddler.—New York Press.

Animals and Second Sight.

It is a common belief that many animals see ghosts and future events. Kerner declares that they are endowed with second sight. This faculty is thought to be especially strong in dogs and horses. Storks are known to have foreseen the burning of houses on which they have been wont to build their nests and to have abandoned them, taking up their abode on other buildings or on trees in the vicinity. No sooner had the anticipated conflagration taken place and a new house been erected on the same site than they returned and built their nests as before.

Oldest Clock In the World.

The great clock of Wells cathedral, in Somersetshire, England, is very nearly the oldest and certainly the most interesting of clocks in existence. It was built in 1322 by Peter Lightfoot, one of the monks of Glastonbury abbey, six miles from Wells, where it ran for 250 years until the abbey was dissolved by Henry VIII. and its last abbot hanged over the town gateway. The clock was then removed to Wells, where it has been running ever since. --St. Nicholas.

A Valuable Asset.

It was after her husband's failure.

"She acts as if she expected to retrieve their fortune," was the comment. "Have they any assets left?"

"Oh, yes!" was the reply.

"What?"

"A daughter who is pretty enough to be quoted high in the matrimonial market."—Chicago Post.

Extremely Small.

Tom—You called on Miss Milyun last night, didn't you?

Dick—Yes.

Tom—Spent the evening indulging in "small talk," eh?

Dick—Well, her talk was entirely too small. She said, "No."—Philadelphia Press.

A Bit of Browning Satire.

A medley of young literary men were once gathered to meet Robert Browning. The most aggressively literary of the group was first introduced and at once began to pour out his personal delight and admiration with so unceasing a flow that the other introductions were being held in abeyance, and the other literary young men starved. Browning endured it with great good humor for some time. At last he put his hand almost affectionately on the egotist's shoulder and said, "But I am monopolizing you."

Didn't Take the Hint.

Nora—Oi towld thot installment mon thot he nadn't call so often.

Mistress—Did he take the hint?

"No, mum; he took the pionny."—Philadelphia Record.

To the last day she lives a woman can never understand how a man can worry about money matters when the children are doing so well at school.—New York Press.

Interesting Norwegian Custom.

Men attending state balls in Norway are not left in doubt as to whether or not the women can be counted on for dancing. The custom of the court decrees that those women who intend to dance shall wear white, while those not desiring to trip the light fantastic toe shall appear in black. It is an idea which American men would like to see adopted.

Thoughtful.

Mistress—Kate, I found the gas escaping in the kitchen last night. You must never blow it out.

Kate—I didn't, mum. I turned it out, then turned it on again to have it ready to light in the morning.

Just Like a Goose.

"I say, do you believe that story of the goose laying a golden egg?"

"Well, it would be just like a goose to do such a foolish thing."—Chums.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Keeping the bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

The average woman writes three letters where she posts one. In the two she destroys she tells what she really thinks.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly say "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They can't as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain.' Trial bottle of August Flower 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by John J. Orr.

XXI

Of the three essential elements of the Memorial Feast of the Holy Communion we have considered two: the Memorial made to God—with its attendant blessing, the forgiveness of our Sins; and the Food partaken—with its attendant blessing, the Nourishment of our Spiritual Life. We proceed now to consider the third essential element, the Fellowship enjoyed—with its attending blessing.

As we have seen, in the Holy Communion strictly speaking there is only one Table spread and there is only one continued gathering together unto that one Table. All our separate celebrations of the Holy Communion are to be considered as but integral parts of the one Supper of the Lord instituted for all time. There is but one Lamb offered once for all and the one Sacrificial Feast upon the Lamb. Since therefore, in its essential idea, all who partake of the Holy Communion must be conceived of as gathering together to the one Table of the Lord, it is clearly evident that the Holy Communion is essentially a Social Meal.

Now the object of a Social Meal as such is to promote fellowship—brotherly love, brotherhood. A little reflection will suffice to understand how the social meal is pre-eminently calculated to do this. Its secret lies not altogether, or primarily, in the opportunity given for the exchange of friendly greetings, etc. For that any meeting would suffice. The real secret lies in the meal itself and its essential purpose. That purpose is to nourish life. Thus it is clear that when we invite our friends (or our enemies) to sit down with us and to partake of the very food which we have prepared for the nourishment of our own life, we have conferred upon them a most intense and delicate compliment. Not only do we acknowledge their kinship to us—by acknowledging that their life needs and is worthy of the very identical food which sustains our own life; but we also indicate most plainly that we wish their life well, by thus supplying it with food—even the best at our disposal.

Thus the Holy Communion is highly calculated to promote Fellowship and Brotherly Love among Christians if it be no more than an ordinary social meal partaken under religious sanction. But the Holy Communion is something more—is indeed far more than an ordinary social meal partaken under religious auspices. The Food partaken in the Holy Communion is altogether unique and has been provided unto us for an altogether special purpose. The Food is, as we know, the Passover Lamb of God (1 Cor. 5:7, 8), the Body and Blood of Christ; and it has been provided unto us to be the Life of the world—i. e. to build us up in the Christ Life. Thus in the Holy Communion we are each and all made like unto Christ by being built up into Him.

It follows, therefore, that in the Holy Communion we are knit together in an altogether unique and special way. For as each is built up into Christ and made like unto Him, we are all built up into one another and conformed to one another in the likeness of Christ. Being members of the same Body—made such in Baptism (1 Cor. 12:13)—we are in the Holy Communion built up more and more in that Mystical Fellowship, "till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto the Perfect Man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ (Eph. 4:13)—i. e. to the full realization of the Body of Christ (compare verse 12).

In the Holy Communion, then is maintained and consummated that Communion of Saints in which we profess our faith in the Creed: "I believe in the Communion of Saints," This does not refer primarily to the Blessed Dead that in Heaven they enjoy hallowed fellowship; it refers to the Blessed Living, viz., to all those, who by Baptism have been made members of Christ's Body, and who by faithful reception of the Holy Communion (it requires faithful service) maintain and perfect their Fellowship with one another in Him. In other words it means: "I believe in the Mystical Body of Christ, viz., that Body which is made up of those who have been baptized unto Him (branches of the True Vine;) which Communion of Saints begun in Baptism, is carried on and developed in the Holy Communion."

It is in such Christian Fellowship, realizing in Christ equally the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, that the happiness of the individual Soul is consummated. C. C. KEMP.

SIMPLE WAY TO CURE DYSPEPSIA

"Take a Mi-o-na tablet after each meal," says C. A. Wright.

With Mi-o-na there is no bother of guessing at the dose or using so many spoonsful or anything of that kind This valuable remedy for the cure of dyspepsia is in tablet form and is the simplest way to cure the disease.

"Just take one Mi-o-na tablet after each meal," says Druggist C. A. Wright, "and in a few days you will find digestion improved, health returning and good, solid flesh added." This remarkable remedy is not a mere digestive; it mingles with the food and is readily assimilated by the system. It aids digestion and regulates and strengthens the whole digestive tract, so that after its use for a short time healthy and natural action is restored to the stomach and

Mi-o-na may may properly be termed a flesh-forming food, as when it is used every part of the body fills out with solid flesh and all the outlines become beautiful and symmetrical.

Mi-o-na is not an ordinary pepsin preparation to simply aid digestion, but it is a scientific remedy that gives health and strength, firm muscle and pure blood.

No one runs the slightest risk in purchasing it, for C. A. Wright will give his personal guarantee with every 50c. box he sells to refund the money if it does not cure.

CHOKING CATARRH CURED

Your money back if Hyomei does not cure you.

"Use Hyomei and be cured of catarrh," is what all who have tried it for that disease say to their friends.

It is the easiest thing in the world to stop catarrh at its beginning if you use Hyomei. Just breathe the health-giving, balsamic air for a few minutes and your catarrh will be cured.

In this city and neighboring towns, there are hundreds who can testify to the remarkable powers of Hyomei to cure catarrh. Many of the staunchest friends of this remedy to-day began its use with little hope that they would be cured, but as C. A. Wright offered to refund the money if it did not cure, they decided to try it on that plan, and were soon restored to health.

Prevents Hay Fever.

All who are subject to hay fever or rose colds should use Hyomei daily for two or three weeks before the time of their annual attack and thus prevent it. The worst cases are quickly relieved and cured by Hyomei and Hyomei Balm.

The mind is kept pure only by sunning its corners.

An Open Letter to the Public
FROM A WELL-KNOWN DRUGGIST

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to advertised medicines and their value. We want to say to every man, woman and child in this vicinity that the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil,— the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength-creator we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine; it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength-creator for old people, weak, sickly women, children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite, and make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold on a positive guarantee. Call and get a Vinol booklet.

A HELPING HAND.

Is gladly extended by a Tecumseh citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Tecumseh prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a scource is the best of evidence and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement.

Veteran C. Austen, who lives with his son in the northeast section of Tecumseh, says: "I am more than thankful that Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice for they did me a great deal of good, in fact they stopped a dull aching pain in my back which had annoyed me for years and also rendered the action of the kidney secretions normal which at times were too frequent and highly colored. I tried a number of so-called kidney cures but I did not receive any benefit before I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and I knew people who had used them and so I went to C. A. Wright's drug store and got them. To say I entertain a very favorable opinion of them as a kidney medicine is putting it mildly. They are all and more than they are represented to be."

For sale by all dealers: Price 50 cents per box, Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

LAID AT REST.

Funeral of Conductor John Talbert held at Mason June 27, 1904. Funeral was largely attended by railroad men and their wives. The remains of Conductor John Talbert, who was accidentally killed at Battle Creek Saturday, were taken to his home on North State street Sunday morning. The account of his sudden death as told by a railroad man who was there varies somewhat from that told the citizens Saturday. Later reports are that he was not sitting on a rail under the car when killed but that he had been sitting just outside the track not more than a half minute before and had got onto his feet and had stepped over on the track as the cars bunted, caught him and threw him down, the wheels passing over his abdomen. "My God" were the only words he was heard to utter and passed away in a few minutes. His suspenders were broken and it is believed he was caught by them.

The string of cars that hit him only moved about 12 feet and were not attached to an engine. Some who were there when the accident happened state they believe no one was to blame but Mr. Talbert himself and he did it not knowing what was going to happen.

The funeral occurred at Mason in the forenoon. Short services were held at the late residence and was largely attended. There were represented the order of Railroad Conductors, Jackson lodge of Elks, Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainman, Ladies Auxiliary to the O. R. C., and the Ladies Auxiliary to the B. of R. T. There were also engineers, firemen and men engaged on the steam shovel at Battle Creek. The services were conducted by Rev. Orwick, after which the funeral cortage marched to the Union depot. There were 125 people in line 40 of them being ladies.

They left on the 10:25 train for Mason and occupied three coaches. Rev. Orwick accompanied the party to officiate at the latter place. Each of the societies to which the deceased belonged sent beautiful floral designs while there were many bouquets from friends. Two pall bearers from each of three lodges to which he belonged, Elks, O. R. C., and B. of R. T.—Jackson Patriot.

The above John Talbert was formerly a Macon boy having been born south of Macon. Beside leaving a widow he leaves four sisters one being Mrs. Ezra Betser of this place.
